FARMVILLE RIPPLES.

FARMVILLE N. C. March 8 1901. Since our last ripples many changes have taken place. The weather is cold today, but a few days prior to this have been warm and pleasant.

The farmers in this section are making splendid progress in getting ready for planting their crops.

Mrs. S. M. Albritton, who has been spending some time in Wilson and Kinston, returned home Monday last. Her many friends were glad to see her return.

Rev. D. W. Arnold and J. M. Windham made a flying trip to Raleigh this week.

The death angel entered the home of our friend, Mr. Tom King Wednesday night and took for its own. Mrs. King. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the bereaved husband and the two sweet little children who mourn their loss, and hope their earthly loss may be her eternal gain.

Mrs. Laura Murphy, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Lang, returned to her home near Kinston, Sunday.

Rev. Louis Everette is now occupying the new and handsome residence lately erected by W. G. Lang, on East street.

The residence of Eli Williams on Main street has lately received a fine coat of paint and looks quite handsome now. Much credit to R. L. Joyner who has had the work in hand.

The C. W. B. M. auxilliary will hold its exercises in the Christian church here next Sunday evening at 3 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Show Your Interest.

The article in THE REFLECTOR Friday relative to the fire department has put some of our property owners to thinking. We hope they will continue this thinking until Monday night, the time for regular meeting of Hope Fire Company, and be induced to attend the meeting and show some interest in the company. It is for the protection of your property that the company exists, and you are the one who should be most interested.

Dr. J. H. Powell, of Goldsboro, accidentally killed himself by taking an overdose of morphine.

The ladies are cordially invited to call and examine her stock.

10,000 good second-hand white oak spokes wanted by A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

Herbert White was here again Wednesday in his capacity as insurance agent. Herbert is popular here and does a nice business every time he comes.

We are rather inclined not to notice the presence of James L. Fleming in our town last Wednesday. We didn't see him, but heard from him, and as he is a pretty good fellow we cannot pass him by.

Johnnie Tucker, of Grimesland, who has been in attendance upon the present session of the Winterville High School, we regret very much to say, owing to the continued sickness of his father, had to give up his studies and return home. Johnnie is a tip-top boy and we hope soon to have him with us again.

Eddie Clark, of Black Jack, spent yesterday here.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, was the guest of A. G. Cox Wednesday. Mr. Blanchard and the directors of the Winterville High School contemplate building a large three story dormitory for the accommodation of the students. The building will be erected at a very early date. And still we forge ahead!

Charles H. Lancaster, who has been so seriously ill near here for the past few weeks, we are glad to learn is very much improved and there are favorable indications of his final recovery.

G. T. Tyson, of Beaver Dam, called to see us Tuesday.

SATURDAY MARCH 9, 1901.

The sixty days limit of the Legislature for which the members can draw pay expires with today, Saturday. As there are yet some matters pending that need attending to it is likely the body will be in session a few days longer to complete them, but the members will have to stay these remaining days at their own expense.

Can the State's business be attended to by the legislature in the sixty days allowed every two years? It is unfair and unjust to expect our lawmakers to remain at Raleigh working for the State at their own personal expense.

Yes, sixty days is plenty of time for them, and if the law was changed so the Legislature could meet only every four years, or even less frequently, it would be all the better. The Legislature meets too often, and elections are held too often, for the good of the people.

Mr. McKinley has stated that he would not again send the nomination of either Schley or Sampson to the Senate for promotion. In that case they will both be retired as rear admiral's, Schley next October, and Sampson three months later, and Schley will receive no reward for having destroyed Cervera's fleet.

Senator Simmons has offered his private secretaryship to Perrin Busbee, of Raleigh.

One man brought in 17 bales of cotton today, and all the buyers were out of town.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.

Well, well! Teddy has tired of being the whole show already. He glared at the galleries, the occupants of which were appauling him, and threatened to have them cleared by the sergent-at-arms if the applause was repeated. Really, Teddy will have to take something for his ingrowing modesty.

Senator Morgan is determined to keep before the people the fact that it is British influence that has caused and is causing republican opposition to Nicaragua Canal legislation. In view of the fact that the Hay-Pauncefote treaty lapsed by limitation March 4, and in line with that determination Senator Morgan has introduced a resolution declaring the Clayton-Bulwer treaty abrogated.

The republicans have met this by declaring that the Senate cannot alone abrogate a treaty, and have gone away back to 1808 to find a precedent showing that the House must also act and the President sign to bring about the abrogation of a treaty. This is because they do not wish to have Senator Morgan's resolution considered at the present extra session of the Senate.

Senator Morgan made a speech in support of his resolution that was one of the warmest heard on the floor of the Senate for a long time, in which he said of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty: "We will make no compromise with Great Britain on that subject. We will make no concession to Great Britain in relation to that treaty. What we shall do with it (and some of our people are opposed to that), is that we shall declare it abrogated. If the vote on my resolution could be taken today it would inform the President that he has no two-thirds vote in the Senate to adopt any compromise he may make with Great Britain. If it is the purpose of Great Britain still to look for delay she will not get it. If it be her determination to pick a quarrel with us about it she will find the United States can muster at least half of the number of men who voted for President in the last election-fighting men. And she will find, when the war terminates, that the steel band which binds the throne in London with Australia and India and passes through Canada will have been rent in twain; and with its severance down will go the empire."

Senators Patterson, of Colorado, Dubois, and Heitfeld, of Idaho; Harris, of Kansas, and Turner, of Washington, attended the caucus of democrats held this week to consider ways and means of dealing with the republican scheme for introducing the Reed rules in the Senate and making that body, like the House merely a machine to record the will of one man. Senators Jones, of Nevada; Wellington, of Maryland; Teller, of Colorado, and Allen, of Nebraska—Mr. Allen will retain his seat in the Senate under the governor's appointment until his successor is elected or the legislature adjourns without electing a Senator—who now call themselves independents did not attend the caucus, but it is believed that they will join the democrats in opposing a cloture rule in the Senate. Senator Teller says that whatever may be done at the regular session, he is very certain that no cloture rule will be adopted by the Senate at the extra session. It is difficult to see how one can be adopted at any session without the consent of the minority, as the proposition can be indefinitely debated under the present rules.

The secret of why Senator Carter so unexpectedly talked the River and Harbor bill to death in the closing hours of the recent session of Congress has been ascertained. He acted for Mr. McKinley, who, owing to the enormous total of appropriations, wanted the bill killed, but did not care to offend those interested in it by doing it with his little veto. Carter was chosen to do the work because as he was about to leave the Senate he did not object to offending influential Senators and he knew that the failure of the bill would not make him any enemies in Montana. It is said that Carter's reward will be aid from the administration to return to the Senate, and failing in that a fat Federal office for himself or the control of Federal patronage in Montana as he may prefer.

God Bless Them and Their Work.

Three little Misses, Nina Harris, Allie Estelle Greene and Elbise Cheek, called together at THE REFLECTOR office, Friday afternoon, bearing the message that they had been appointed a special committee by the Bright Jewels Society to call in person and thank the editor for his remarks on the report of their work published in Thursday's paper. THE REFLECTOR has never felt more honored than by the visit of these little girls and the message they brought. It made us want to join with dear "Uncle Betts" in saying "God bless the children, they are His ministering angels." If we all possessed more of the child spirit, and exemplified more child-like love and faith, the world would be so much brighter.

VACCINATION NOTICE.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville, held on Monday night, March 4th, the following ordinance was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has been made to appear to the Board from representations by the members of the medical profession, and from other good and satisfactory sources that smallpox, a contagious or infectious disease is now prevailing in the neighboring county of Greene, and that it has made its appearance in several well developed cases in this county near the town of Farnville, and this Board being desirous to prevent its appearance in Greenville, and in order to protect the health and lives of its citizens and to protect the commercial interests of the town and believing that vaccination is one of the great means to prevent the spread of the disease,

It is therefore ordered by the Board that all residents of the town of Greenville who have not been vaccinated or who should be revaccinated shall appear before the Superintendent of Health for Pitt County on or before the 12th day of the present month and when deemed by him necessary shall have themselves and their families vaccinated or revaccinated as the case may be.

Any person failing to submit themselves and families to be vaccinated shall upon conviction before the Mayor be fined five dollars.

And to the end that this order may be fully complied with it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police in connection with the Superintendent of Health of Pitt County to visit each and every family in the town and see that this order is carried into effect.

I shall see that this ordinance is strictly enforced and carried out to the letter, and to this end all citizens of the town are asked to comply with its requirements.

J. G. MOYE, Mayor. Greenville, N. C., March 5, 1901.

A few weeks ago a South Carolina young man, under an assumed name, advertised in a newspaper for a wife. The ad. was answered by his sister, who also used an assumed name. The affair soon resulted in an exchange of photographs. Then the romance fell to 32 degrees below zero and the silly young couple felt like 30 cents.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent backaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

A School Book Bill.

A bill by Senator Aycock is to provide a fund to purchase books for the use of certain public school pupils

Section 1 levies a tax of 25 cents on every male dog and $2 on every female dog, to be collected annually.

Section 2 provides that all dog owners shall list their dogs at the time and in the same manner as other property is listed.

Section 3 requires the Secretary of State to provide a separate column for this dog tax in the preparation of forms and tax lists. The taxes shall be used in the townships where collected for the purpose of buying books for public school children of the township who are the most needy.

Section 4 provides for the distribution of the funds so raised among the different schools in each township and the trustees shall pay to the teachers of each school the amount allotted—the teachers to buy the books as required.

Section 5. Any teacher misapplying this fund shall be deprived of his or her certificate and be debarred of teaching in the public schools of this State again.

Section 6 makes it a misdemeanor for any person owning or harboring a dog to fail to list the same.

Section 7. This act applies only to Wayne, Cabarrus and Mecklenburg counties.

However, when this bill comes up it is probable that a number of other Senators will ask for their counties to be included.

Philippine Fruits.

There was an extra car attached to passenger train No. 34, which arrived in Charlotte last night over the Southern Railway from Atlanta. It was a Pullman sleeper, and its occupants were insane soldiers who were being brought home from the Philippines. They were landed at San Francisco a few days and were there placed in the car which is carrying them through to Washington. The car contained a sergeant and sixteen privates, every one of them crazy. Four or five of the men were handcuffed.

The conductor on the train said that it was one of the saddest sights he ever saw, a whole car of people and every one crazy except the guards. Not a single one of the men realized that he had been fighting in a foreign country, nor was there one in the crowd that knew that he had got back to his own country. "The quiet fellows among the crowd" said the Observer's informant, "talked about bananas, hemp, rice and bolos. One of them would repeat again and again, 'the niggers, the niggers.' The handcuffed men were heard occasionally to talk about dodging arrows.—Charlotte Observer.
