Wolves are increasing rapidly in many parts of the forest lands of Northern Canada. This undoubtedly is due to the large increase in the herds of deer throughout the country. As these have grown in number so have the wolves who live upon them. Fleeing from the ravages of the wolves the deer have made their way toward the settled parts of the country, until in many places they have become a nuisance to farmers, in whose fields of oats and other grain they often do considerable damage.

Butler lives in Raleigh, but he has not stopped his meanness. He is now busying his little brain with an effort to keep up election indictments. It is a pity he did not elect to settle in the north. What a blessed riddance. But it is not too late. There is no law for such wicked prosecutions, and no sense either.—Wilmington Messenger.

Kerner Bros, cigar manufacturers of Winston, have been convicted in the Federal court of swindling the government by failing to obliterate and remove stamps. They were sentenced to six months imprisonment and fined $1,000 each.

It is estimated that over $100,000 worth of jewels lie buried in the ruins of the Jefferson Hotel, at Richmond, Va., which was destroyed by fire ten days ago. A large proportion of these valuables will never be recovered.

No woman objects to having a palmist study the lines in her hands, but she draws the line at having a physiognomist study the wrinkles in her face.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

Men of small calibre are generally the greatest bores.

The scissors that cut the thread of life are never dull.

If you look through cobwebs you may expect to see spiders.

Many a rascal will take the pay and give another rascal away.

The book-worm is useful to fish in the forgotten streams of knowledge.

Nature seems to be monopolizing the "green goods" business just now.

Gild a serpent with gold and men will welcome it to their hearts and homes.

The fight on big theatre hats will doubtless lead to the elevation of the stage.

Truth crushed to earth will surely rise—unless mashed to flat by campaign lies.

Conscience is the central station on the telephone line between the head and the heart.

All Do Not Like It.

The state press praised Governor Aycock's appointment of Judge Justice, but it remains to be seen how it will relish the second selection, Mr. Francis D. Winston, of Bertie. He is a man of ability no doubt, and is a state university trustee, but he has been cheek by jowl with the black radical gang in the past. How long since he left them we are not informed. The last time we saw him he was sitting at a table in the Yarboro house, surrounded by four or five of the deepest dyed fellows of the aforesaid gang. He may in spite of bad politics and associations in the past be now a good choice and we are not disposed to censure the governor or to reflect upon the appointee. If he will suit the democrats he will suit The Messenger.—Wilmington Messenger.

A new counterfeit silver dollar has turned up at the Sub-Treasury in St. Louis, Mo. It is of the issue of 1892, and the workmanship is so perfect that none but an expert could tell it from the genuine, the only defect being a slight shortage in weight. It has been sent to the Treasury Department in Washington.

Bond Registration.

The registration books of the town, which closed Saturday evening, show the following number of registered voters:

First Ward	114
Second Ward	38
Third Ward	82
Fourth Ward	123
Fifth Ward	61
Total	418

This shows a total of 418 registered voters in the town. The law requires that a majority of these must vote for the bonds, to authorize that they be issued so that 210 votes must be cast "for bonds" tomorrow to carry them. For a voter to stay away from the polls and not vote at all counts as a vote "against bonds" the same as if he had voted against the measure. Those favoring the bonds should bear this in mind and not fail to go to the polls and vote "for bonds."

As it will take only 210 votes to carry the bonds, THE REFLECTOR feels safe in predicting that they will be carried by a good majority, as many more than that number will vote for them. However, no voter should stay from the polls thinking there will be enough without him.

Mayor's Court

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Edward Flanagan, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

Henry C. Kinsaul, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

W. N. Hight and J. T. Harris, riotous and disorderly and assault, fined one penny and half costs each, $1.38 each.

Joseph Johnson, disorderly conduct and jumping trains at depot, fined one $1 and costs, $3.85.

Peter Hemby, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

Henry Ernul, disorderly and using profane language, fined one penny and costs, $3.26.

John Plummer and Leone Patrick, riotous and disorderly and assault, fined $1 and half costs each, total $6.35.

George Dudley, riotous and disorderly conduct, not guilty, dismissed.

Mr. J. C. Cobb Hurt.

Last Friday afternoon Mr. J. C. Cobb, of Beaver Dam township, was about his saw mill superintending some work. He was in the act of assisting in turning over a large log when he missed his footing and fell, the log rolling over on his back and shoulders. He was very painfully hurt and it is almost miraculous that he was not instantly killed under the immense weight of the log. Mr. Cobb is the father of Messrs. R. J. and W. L. Cobb and Mrs. Ola Forbes, of this town. We are glad to know that he is getting along as well as could be expected with his injury.

Up to the present time our fracas in the Philippines has cost 3,028 lives of American soldiers, and $202,273,000 of American money, and Admiral Dewey is "impressed with the idea" that it might have been avoided.—Wilmington Star.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1901.

You men of Greenville who want to see the town prosper and amount to something in the commercial world, vote and work for bonds at the election tomorrow.

The women of Newport, (Ky) Methodist church recently had 5000 cook books printed for distribution among the church workers, who were to sell the same at ten cents each. Two thousand had been sold when the pastor was shocked to find recipes in the book calling for "a half-pint best whiskey or brandy" and a "half-pint sherry wine." A cough remedy has "a pint of good whiskey" as one of its ingredients. The minister says that the remaining 3000 copies must not be sold, unless the objectionable recipes shall be marked in red ink as a warning to purchasers. This latter suggestion is quite childlike and bland. In fact it's funny.

The General Assembly peremptorily cut off from our State charitable institutions all but the indigent. The ground of this action is not in that the State has no sympathy with the well to do citizen who is afflicted, nor is it in that it has no hope that treatment will help a well-to-do man as much as it will a poor man. The ground of the State's action is in that the State regards it as just and right that the man who is able to pay shall not be a pensioner upon the State. We suggest that if this is a good principle with regard to one class of the State's institutions, it might work well with regard to the institutions of higher education. It is well known that these institutions receive little or nothing on account of tuition. The fact that they have to draw so much from the State indicates this. It is very well known, however, that there are many enrolled in these institutions that are able to pay but who do not pay tuition. They might pay, if it were required. They will not so long as they may evade it. On what account may they receive of the State's bounty while the insane citizen or the blind child able to pay does not? The truth is, if choice must be made between the two, we think the favor should be shown to the blind child. But it is just to require a blind child that is able to pay to provide for himself; and it is just as just to require as much of the young man or woman who enters a State institution of higher education. Indeed it is a wrong against our young men and women to cultivate in them the spirit of depending upon the State and not upon themselves. All the book learning will not make up for the undermining of character.—Biblical Recorder.

Will Bring The Trade.
 Probably there is no merchant or other business man who cannot find reasons why the people should patronize his establishment. The chief purpose of advertising is to present these reasons to the public in the simplest and most convincing manner. The business man who will do this through a newspaper which has a large circulation will enjoy a great increase in his trade.—Philadelphia Record.

A People to be Proud Of.
 Northampton jail is empty. The March term of criminal court lasted less than three days and the two weeks term of Superior Court which convened at Jackson last Monday, is likely to end before this week is out; our schools were never better patronized, the pastors of our churches are preaching the gospel of love and pointing the people to a higher life, instead of having to devote so much time to denouncing wrong-doing. These, it appears to us, are evidences of better times, and that Northampton is a good old county.—Roanoke Chowan Times.

A Convincing Experiment.
 The Newark (N. J.) manager of the Bankers' Life (an insurance company) had a profound faith in the benefits of newspaper advertising. To convince the company officers he bore the expense of a month's display advertising in the leading newspapers. As to the result he said: "We increased our business in this State from about $25,000 to over $300,000 in a single month through newspaper publicity." It is his opinion that in the near future the insurance companies will be large newspaper advertisers.—Philadelphia Record.

Filipinos Surrendering.
 Manila, April 9.—The following surrenders have occurred: The insurgent General Arejola, with thirty officers and eight hundred men, at the town of Nueva Caceres, in the province of South Camarines, Southern Luzon, the remainder of the command of Major Pablo Tecson, consisting of nineteen officers, 173 men and 133 rifles, at the town of San Miguel de Maumo, Bulacan province, Central Luzon, and sixteen officers and seventy men in Bulacan province and at other points.
 The wholesale grocery dealers of Manila report doubled sales of groceries since the investigation into the alleged commissary scandals were commenced.

Stay In North Carolina.
 In a recent address to the students of the University, President Venable said: "Stay in North Carolina. It is going to be one of the foremost States in the South and the young man who leaves it will be sorry for it."
 That's the sort of talk that the leaders and educators of the State ought to give to the young men looking to them for advice. North Carolina has lost more in the going away of its young men than in any other way. Many of our best young men have in times past felt that to win large success they must go away. "Emigration has been our bane." The tide has turned. Our young men find the largest opportunities for success and development in their own homes and in daily association with the friends of their youth.
 "Stay in North Carolina" is a text for commencement orations, for editorials, for counsel from teacher to pupil.—News and Observer.

A mammoth black walnut tree on the farm of E. P. Gaus, in Williams county, Ohio, has just been sold for $4,000. Several lumber dealers have examined chips from this tree, and all have declared it to be the finest specimen of that kind of wood they ever saw. The tree was eight feet in diameter forty feet above the stump and extended seventy-three feet from the butt to the first limb.

Capital punishment will be restored in Colorado if the Governor shall sign the bill on the subject just passed by the Legislature. "This bill," says The New York Evening Post, "provides that the jury shall determine whether the penalty for murder shall be death or life imprisonment. If death, it shall be inflicted by hanging on some day in a certain week set by the Judge, the day to be kept secret. No death penalty shall be imposed on any one less than eighteen years old, nor on a conviction solely by circumstantial evidence. Publishing anything more than the fact of the execution is made a misdemeanor."

Impressive Funeral.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mr. B. D. Evans Sunday afternoon. Services were held in the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. B. Morton, assisted by Rev. H. M. Eure. The tribute paid by Mr. Morton to the deceased was beautiful and pathetic. He truly pictured his life as one continued, uninterrupted, unruined
stream of service to Christ and humanity. The speaker said this scene did not look like death, but only the falling into sweet, peaceful sleep when the end of the journey had been reached. His memory is blessed.

Some one who is fond of wasting
his time with statistics has figured out that if men were really as big as they feel, there would be just room enough in the United States
with its new territory for two baseball captains, one lawyer, one Jew merchant and one Maxton editor (!)—Red Springs Hustler.
