WEATHER BULLETIN.

Fair tonight and Wednesday, fresh to brisk north winds.

THE FIREMEN.

Increased interest in the Company.

That nearly every member of Hope Fire Company should be present and answer to roll call at the monthly meeting, shows the keen interest the members themselves are taking in the company. This was the record of the meeting Monday night, and it was one of the most interesting they have had.

There were nine applications for membership, which will bring the roll nearly up to the full limit.

A committee from the Board of Aldermen was present to look into the needs of the company and confer relative to the compensation of the engineer. This was all satisfactorily adjusted and a recommendation sent back by the committee to the Aldermen that the compensation be $2.50 for each time the engine is fired, it being the duty also of the engineer to keep the engine in good condition at all times.

The following officers were elected for the next term:

W. F. Harding, Foreman.
W. F. Burch, 1st As't Foreman.
J. Z. Gardner, 2nd As't Foreman.
L. H. Pender, Chief Engineer.
D. D. Overton, Sec. and Treasurer.

School Board Organized.

While the old Board of County School Directors continue in office until the first of July, the new board organized by the recent Legislature, met Monday for organization, under the direction of the State Superintendent.

The new board consisted of G. B. King, A. G. Cox and B. M. Whitehurst. Mr. King declined to qualify and W. F. Harding was elected in his stead.

The board organized by electing A. G. Cox chairman, and adjournment was then made until the second Monday in July.

The question of the hour—"What time is it?"

Choir singers are usually chants acquaintances.

The theatrical manager should thank his lucky stars.

Pitt County Boy Abroad.

The letter that appears below was written by Mr. W. R. Taylor, who is now in the Philippine Islands, to Mr. J. R. Carson, at Bethel. These two soldiered together for five years at Fortress Monroe. While the letter was not intended for publication, Mr. Carson sends it to us believing it will be of interest to many REFLECTOR readers, and we give it in just the spicy, personal vein in which it is written.

MANILA, P. I., Feb. 23rd 1901.
MY DEAR OLD JIM:

You probably think I am lost but you are mistaken, I am still in the ring. I don't believe I have written to you since I have been in this part of the world, so will give you a kind of insight as to my duties.

I left Washington, D. C., in November 1899 for the Philippine Islands and arrived here the 4th of January, 1900. It was worth any amount of money to take the trip that I had. I was in England, Spain, British India, Ceylon, Borneo and China. I crossed the Atlantic ocean to Gibraltar, from there to Malta, through the Mediterranean sea to Port Said Egypt, through the Suez Canal to the city of Suez in Arabia, out in and across the Red sea to Colombo, Ceylon, through the strait of Malacca to the Arabian sea to Aden, out to the Indian ocean to Singapore, from there to the China sea to Hong Kong, then to Manila and here I be.

Now don't laugh at the way I am going to spell a few historical words here for you know I am not a Bible reader and have not a dictionary, therefore I will do the best I can. I saw the Mount Sinai where Moses wrote the ten commandments. The desert of Sahara in Arabia. Cities of Cairo and Jerusalem, several other places that I have forgotten the names and would only remember them by having a map of the old country and Holy land. I can't begin to tell you on paper of my trip, I also saw where that push crossed the Red sea. Well I'll drop that.

I am here and I guess here I will croak. I am in charge of the electric power plant in Manila. I have five dynamos and about four hundred storage batteries, I have a lot of work to do here but I have plenty of help, therefore it is not so bad. I think I will go back to America about July. I am getting tired of this country.

I got special mention in General Greeley's report of 1900 for work performed in the Philippines. I saw the report in Army and Navy Journal of November 24, 1900.

When I go back to the States I will go from here to Nagasaki, Japan, then to Honolulu, on to San Francisco, back to New York, which will put me around the world.

Jim, we never thought that there would be such changes in so short a time when we used to sit back in the old Laboratory at Monroe, did we?

Well Jim how is your picanany or your family in general. I guess you have as many as two calling you papa, haven't you?

Write me a long letter and tell me all about everything. I will not write much this time, I will tell you more in my next.

Do you ever see old Barnhill? When you see him give him my regards. Give me his address and I will write him. Good-bye.

Your old chum,

WALTER R. TAYLOR.
1st. Class Signal Serg't., Manila, Philippine Islands.

Awful Tale of Cannibalism.

London, April 8.—The Singapore correspondent of The Daily Express wires a ghastly story of cannibalism at sea, brought to Singapore by two survivors of the Nova Scotian bark Angola, wrecked six days' sail from Manila, October 23rd last. The correspondent says: "The survivors, Johnsen, a Swede, and Marticornu, a Spaniard, assert that the Anglo struck a reef. Two rafts were built. The smaller, bearing five men, disappeared. The other, with twelve men, drifted for forty days. The sailors ate barnacles, sea weed and finally their boots. On the twenty-fifth day two became insane and killed themselves. On the twenty-sixth a Frenchman killed his mate with an axe, drank his blood and tried to eat his brains, but was prevented by the others. Next day the Frenchman was killed while attempting to murder the captain. The survivors, all of whom were now insane, ate the Frenchman's body. Cannibalism continued until only Johnsen and Marticornu remained. On the forty-second day the raft stranded at Saubi, or Flat Island, in the Natuna group, northwest of Borneo. Johnsen and Marticornu were awfully emaciated. Friendly Malays sent them by junk to Singapore."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.

Although hardly pushed to furnish official salaries for republican lame ducks who are still unprovided for, Mr. McKinley was not prepared to select a governor of Porto Rico from that class, or else he was afraid to do so. So he surprised Gov. Allen, who came to Washington for the express purpose of resigning that office, by telling him that he must hold it a while longer. Being one of Mr. McKinley's good friends, Gov. Allen swallowed his disappointment as best he could, and promised to return to Porto Rico about the 1st of May. By the way, speaking of Porto Rico, there is a wide difference between the rosy views of existing conditions, commercial and industrial on the island, expressed by Gov. Allen and those which come from reputable newspaper correspondents and other sources.

Some sensational developments are expected in connection with the swindling of the government out of $2,200,000 by Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, now serving a five year term in the Leavenworth Military Prison, while he was in charge of the Harbor improvements at Savannah, Ga. An official of the department of justice, is quoted as having said: "We have traced every cent of the money stolen by Carter, and at present I can only say that the investigation will result in a number of arrests. We know where the money has been hidden and invested, and it will soon be turned over to the U. S. Treasury. I can also say that when Carter serves out his time, he will be arrested on criminal charges, but I am not at liberty to state at present the exact nature of these charges."

The talk of Aguinaldo's being allowed to come to this country is wide of the mark. The administration has work for Aguinaldo to do in the Philippines for months to come, and it will see that he stays there to do it, or refusing to do it, that he stays locked up. There is no junketing ahead of him for a while.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, who was in Washington several days on official business, says he was given to understand that the cases against several North Carolinians who have been indicted in the Federal Courts for alleged violations of the election laws last November, will shortly be abandoned and nolle prossed, because of the opinion of the prosecuting officers that the law will not hold in the cases in question.

Speaking of the rumor that ex-Senator Butler, of his state, Chairman of the Populist National Committee, would be given a Federal office, Senator Simmons said: "Mr. Butler would probably be able to advance some argument why this should be done, for the Populists party in North Carolina certainly contributed to the re-election of President McKinley as far as was in their power. Mr. Butler's own county, where there are more populists than democrats and republicans combined, gave Mr. McKinley a majority. It was also true all over the state, that the populists to a considerable extent voted the republican ticket."

Arguing from the belief that the people endorsed the government of this country by trusts, when they re-elected Mr. McKinley, as Senator Hanna has several times practically said they did, the choice of Mr. P. C. Knox, who has grown rich by giving legal advice to trusts, for Attorney General in Mr. McKinley's Cabinet was a perfectly logical one. But arguing from the belief that one of the duties of the Attorney General should be to utilize the Federal laws, such as they are, to try to curb the power of the trusts, as the plain people believe, it was about as illogical a choice as could possibly have been made. That Mr. Knox is a lawyer of marked ability is proven by his having been employed by the trusts, but to expect him to turn against those who have made him rich, and from whom he expects to get more fees, when he leaves the Cabinet, is to expect human nature to reverse itself. He may not do anything directly for the trusts while he is Attorney General, but he will hardly be likely to do anything directly against them or their interests.

So far as eggs were concerned no one seemed to observe Easter here yesterday. The little boys should have had their pockets full of red, green, blue and yellow Easter eggs, but they didn't. The custom in vogue in the western part of the State evidently does not prevail here. Up there every little boy commences to collect eggs for a week or so before Easter and his stealthy and frequent raids on the home hen nests causes the egg local market to rise cents and cents. On Easter morning he fills every pocket full of eggs and goes to church, and after church and for the rest of the day he spends his time flingin' eggs. He holds out the point of an egg, which another boy hits with the point of another egg. It is a gamble and the broken egg is lost. A very young boy learns early that a guinea egg is harder than a hen egg, harder than a turkey egg, and that a hen egg with a turrowed point is often a delusion as to strength. When he is lucky enough to get hold of a hen egg that is harder than any other boy's egg he wins and eats enough hard boiled eggs to kill a mule and he is a hero in the community. 'Tis a great game.—Charlotte Observer.

The following from the Galveston News will apply equally well to North Carolina.

There is plenty of work in Texas for men who want work. Therefore there is no room for the loafer, white or black. The man who will not work must live, just as the man who will work must live. If he does not labor he must get his bread in some way that is not fair and honest. It is a public question, and as such the state should deal with it. Crime is committed by the idle. The roads need working.

BOND ELECTION.

Carried for Bonds by a Good Majority.

Greenville has done a good day's work for the town in the carrying of the election for bonds today. The exact figures cannot be given until after the polls close at 6 o'clock, but at 3 o'clock, the last round THE REFLECTOR made of the several wards, a total of 310 votes had been cast. Of these it is known that about 229 are for bonds and 81 against bonds, making the majority of the votes cast for bonds about 148 at that hour. The remaining votes to be cast will probably make the majority for bonds even larger.

The total registration of the town is 418, so that if all the votes not cast at 3 o'clock should be counted against bonds there would still be a good majority in favor of them.

THE REFLECTOR congratulates the people and the town upon the result of the election. It shows that the people want improvements and are determined to have them. Now let every one put his shoulder to the wheel and see that Greenville takes her proper place in the commercial world.

J. V. Johnson went to Ayden Monday evening and returned this morning.

Hero Worship.

General Funston has done very well, indeed, but candor compels the admission that after Hobson, the Dewey house, the Sampson-Schley controversy, and the Roosevelt bears and lions, the country is cloyed with the hero business.—Pittsburg Press.

Superior Court.

The case against Daniel Williams for bulgury was given to the jury about 1 o'clock this afternoon, but they had not reached a verdict at 3 o'clock.

This afternoon the case against John and Edith Hargett, for murder was commenced and the selection of the jury had not been completed when we went to press.

Stupidity is responsible for the destruction of the Jefferson Hotel at Richmond. The manager was more solicitous for his carpets and furniture than for the preservation of the hotel. When the firemen arrived in plenty of time to extinguish the incipient blaze in the blanket room the manager stopped them, saying that he preferred to control the fire himself rather than have the upholstery ruined by water. Water is destructive to carpets, curtains and decorations. But it saves walls, floors and wood work. It stops the fire in this case from going beyond the room in which it started, although all the blankets and inflammable stuffs and the decorations in the rooms below would have been ruined. The manager had to decide quickly between a little ruin and a complete destruction of the magnificent hotel. He decided in favor of the latter. The Jefferson Hotel was virtually destroyed to save carpets and decorations. In every case of fire the rule should be, stop the fire, save decorations afterward.—Pittsburgh Star.

Died.

At his home in New York City, on Saturday night last, John T. Bruce in 84th year of his age.

Among the oldest citizens of Edgecombe and other eastern counties, Mr. Bruce will be mourned by many, to whom in the trying times that followed the civil war, especially in 1868, he rendered aid—aid that saved many from financial ruin, on exceedingly moderate terms, and as long as he continued in business, as one than whom there was no one more honest or correct. Never increasing charges because straightened circumstances of his customers, would have enabled him to do so, and always making generous settlements with the unfortunate. His promises were always reliable and always helpful.

The writer knew Mr. Bruce intimately, and has known no more conscientious, more reliable or more faithful man—and as modest as he was worthy.

He did his duty as God gave him light, and never doubted that to do right, however it might seem, was always for the best.—Tarboro Southerner.
