WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 10.
A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be headquarters for tobacco trucks of best style. A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

The Easter exercises by the scholars of the Episcopal Sunday school last Sunday were very interesting and much enjoyed by all present. This denomination has a nice Sunday school here conducted by Mrs. B. T. Cox and meets every Sabbath morning in the College chapel.

Miss Effie Kittrell, who has been visiting the Misses Nichols near Rockdale, returned home Sunday evening.

"Jumbo" left for Greenville yesterday, and being carried away with the sights and wonders of our capitol city got left by the freight. The conductor seemed worried about him. Have you seen anything of our "Jumbo" if so take care of him.

The A. G. Cox Mfg Co., shipped some cotton planters to Princeton, N. C. The railroad officials failed to find the place, carrying so far as Norfolk, then brought them back in order to make another start. The query is, where is Princeton, N. C.?" can any one tell?

J. A. Mills and wife, of near

Black Jack, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting the family of G. R. Dixon.

"Balm of Figs" for the relief of suffering women, for sale by Mrs. F. O. Cox, of this place, must certainly be a medicine of great merit, if one is to judge from its sales and the testimonials of those who have used it.

W. H. Galloway, of Grimesland, spent a short while here Monday.

James E. Green went somewhere Sunday and came back Sunday night.

G. W. Evans, who went to Tarboro Saturday, returned Sunday evening.

W. C. Dancy went a courting Saturday evening and came back next day seemingly all O. K.

Simon Moye and wife have been down in Beaufort visiting the parents of Mrs. Moye. They report having spent a very pleasant time.

The millinery store of Mrs. C. A. Fair is very attractive and ladies seem to find it very much to their interest to visit her real often.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Bernard Out Of It.

The News and Observer's enumeration of the candidates for District Attorney Bernard's job, caused considerable comment among Republican politicians yesterday. A close friend of Senator Pritchard said:

"Bernard will not be re-appointed. His term expires next February, then Judge Timberlake will be named for the place. That is the situation now."

"But Timberlake is a Populist."

"Yes," replied my Republican friend, "that is true, but he seems to have a strong hold on Pritchard, who has always thought a great deal of him."

He went to say that Mr. W. W. Clark, of Newbern, was very much in the race and backed by strong endorsements, but that he would not be appointed.

"If a gold Democrat is named for any of these positions," he added, "it will more likely be for United States marshal, but even that is not very probable. The indications favor Dockery's re-appointment to that place."

United States Commissioner Nichols says the intimation that has been rather free with his endorsements of the accounts of commissioners does the district attorney an injustice. He added:

"He simply has to certify as to the correctness of the case; the items are passed on in Washington. He has been quite strict with the accounts. I know he has cut some of mine."

District Attorney Bernard yesterday returned from Greensboro, where he has been, seeking endorsement and influence.—News & Observer.

The women who fought a duel the other day in Oklahoma actually used revolvers, and one of them was desperately wounded. These females must be of the "new woman" variety. The old way for women to fight is to pull hair and talk with their tongues.—Kinston Free Press.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1901.

The conviction at the federal court of two boys in knee pants for illicit distilling, prompts the suggestion that work for the home missionary is not yet exhausted.—Winston Sentinel.

An inmate of a Virginia poor house confesses to having 17 wives, most of whom are living. No wonder the old fellow is in the poor house. Some men having only one wife struggle to keep off the county. He certainly is muchly married.—Kinston Free Press.

The most gigantic trust ever dreamed of is now the talk—an amalgamation of capitol to consolidate all the leading lines of railroads in the country. Morgan, Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Stillman and others are said to be behind the scheme. Similar reports have been heard before, but according to President Thomas, of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railroad, there is something in it this time.—Greensboro Record.

We have been expecting it all the time, and at last the claim is made that Funston has North Carolina blood in his veins. The Asheville Citizen is authority for the statement that the great-grandmother of Gen. Funston was Margaret Boone Mitchell, who was born near King's Mountain in 1769 and was a niece of Daniel Boone. He husband and father were soldiers in the Revolutionary war, and two of her sons were in the civil war, and two great-grandsons in the Spanish-American war in the persons of Gen. Funston and Col. Mitchell. The two latter assisted in the capture of Aguinaldo. Funston, therefore, has North Carolina blood in his veins and comes naturally by his fighting qualities.—Kinston Free Press.

A gentleman gives us another example of effects of the teachings of Joe Lynch and his so called sanctificationists. He says that for ten days, week before last, they had been holding a union meeting at the residence of John Smith, Beaver Dam. While the meeting was in progress Smith came to town to meet a Mrs. Knox, a female preacher, and carried her out to the meeting. Monday last, before day, after taking all the money he had accumulated Smith accompanied by Mrs. Knox, came to town and purchased tickets for both for the South, saying before he took the train he had been living in adultery all his life, and the Lord had directed him to take Mrs. Knox for his spiritual wife. Reports say they have gone to join Joe Lynch and Marshall Woolard somewhere in Florida. Smith left a wife sick in bed and two sons and a daughter. Mrs. Knox is married and her husband is a resident of Campbells Creek, this county. From what we can learn the going away of Smith is the beginning of a general exodus of the sanctificationists. We are told that a J. W. Herring, of South Creek, a neighbor of Mrs. Knox, in selling out with the intention of joining Joe Lynch. Joy go with all such.—Washington Messenger.

What is a Name?

Life answers the question partially in "A Literary Nightmare," from which we take the following:

When does Mary Mapes Dodge? When Thomas W. Knox. What did Charles Reade? Whatever he saw Mabel Osgood Wright. What made Virgil? Having to play to small audiences. When is it that John Burroughs? When he hears Edward Everett Hale.

Who gave Thomas Paine? Hamilton Wright Mabie. What is it that John Kendrick Bangs? Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. What made Winston Churchill? Eating what he saw John Estlin Cooke.

What was it that Bulwer Lytton? De-land. What victory did Agassiz? He saw Charles Darwin. Why did Charles Darwin? Because he never turned his back to De-foe.

When did Mollie Elliot Seawell? When she heard Charles Dudley Warner.

Where did Captain Frederick Marryat? At the Ellen Olney Kirk.

When was Lawrence Sterne? When he found Bill Nye. Where did H. Cabot Lodge? In a Dry-den.

For what did Eugene Sue? For one of Samuel Smiles. Why do we not laugh at R. D. Blackmore?

Because we find James Greenleaf Whittier.

Why did Miss Mullock up the silver?

Because she saw Flora Annie Steele.

When did Victor's mother urge him to become a tailor?

When she said, "Victor, Hugo and help John W. Draper."

Here's A Good Way.

A Howard man has been trying a novel experiment during the last year. He watched the stock markets, and made supposition investments, of which he kept careful track. At the end of the year he found that if his speculations had been real he would have been out of pocket just $300,000. It is a fine illustration of the fate which lies in wait for the amateur on the stock market.—Kansas City Journal.

The manufacturer of wheelbarrows has no trouble in keeping his goods before his customers.

"Men and fish are somewhat alike," says the Manayunk Philosopher. "Neither would get into trouble if they kept their mouths shut."

The jury on the case against Daniel Williams for burglary returned a verdict of guilty in the second degree. Judge Coble sentenced him to thirty years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

They Should Use Their Power.

In his sermon in the Methodist church, Sunday night, Rev. H. M. Eure said if there was a whiskey-cursed town anywhere that town was Greenville. He spoke another truth when he said there were enough church members in the town to relieve it of this curse if they would use their power and influence in that direction.

The Bond Vote.

Below is the vote as cast in the bond election on Tuesday:

1,000,000 WOMEN
RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 29, 1899.
Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

Killed a Dog.

Two quick pistol shots and a dead dog on the sidewalk made some excitement on Evans street this morning. The large Newfoundland dog belonging to Gratz Norcott, colored, and the bird dog of Mr. R. Hyman were fighting, and the big dog was shaking the smaller dog up pretty badly. Mr. Hyman ran out and tried to separate them and failing to get the big dog off shot him dead.

One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Rev. O. L. Stringfield the educational secretary of the Baptist State convention, reports excellent progress on the effort to raise one hundred thousand dollars for educational work at Wake Forest, the Baptist Female University, Chowan Baptist Institute and the various academies and schools of the Baptist church in North Carolina.

The plan is a unique one. A man is selected in each of the fifty-eight associations to represent the work and to suggest to the different churches about how much each would be expected to contribute and to aid in securing this amount. The report from these is highly encouraging. Not one church but reports itself in warm sympathy with the movements, and Mr. Stringfield says that he has a great hope, well founded, that the money will be raised in full this year.—Raleigh News and Observer.
