WEATHER BULLETIN.

Partly cloudy tonight, Saturday rain, warmer, fresh east to north-east winds.

The South's New Prophet.

There appears to besome divergence of opinion as to exactly where in the United States the "dominant" section of the future is going to be located—for most of the prophets agree that New York City cannot hold the scepter forever. It is noticeable, however, that these soothsayers are, none of them, New Yorkers, and that their reading of the omens is colored largely by their own environment or interests.

Here, for instance is our old friend Colonel John S. Mosby, of guerilla fame in an article in Leslie's on "The Dawn of the Real South," saying with a great show of confidence that "Richmond is the city most likely to become in time the banking center and the commercial headquarters of the world." The old Confederate capital is a great city even now, but it is much to be feared that its own people will hardly agree with the Colonel and begin forthwith to make preparations for putting on the financial crown and waving the banking and commercial scepter. And what will New Orleans say? We must commit to the tender mercies of Times Democrat's "By-the-By" man both the doughty Colonel and his prophecy.

And what of Mosby, when he declares that "it is well nigh folly today to speak of the 'Solid South?'" Last November's election returns disclosed no crack in the old solidity. It may be folly to speak of it, but anybody who reckons on a divided political allegiance down there just yet is going to get left.—N. Y. Commercial.

Woods Fire.

Wednesday there was a considerable woods fire out in Carolina township. Ex-Sheriff G. M. Mooring was having some hedge rows burned when the fire got away from him and went off before the wind through the woods. Besides doing some damage to Mr. Mooring, it burned a lot of fencing for Mr. Nelson Warren and also destroyed the crib and stables of a colored man.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Velvet mill workers at Mystic, Conn., have won their strike.

The Brazil soft coal district, in Indiana, will be indefinitely tied up by a strike.

New York has officially thanked Andrew Carnegie for his $5,200,000 library donation.

A 60,000-barrel oil property in the new Texan field sold for $1,250,000.

Two hundred carpenters struck at the Pan-American grounds, Buffalo, N. Y.

After being pardoned, Frank Coles, a burglar in jail at Richmond, Va., declared he would be a missionary.

A seat on the New York Stock Exchange sold Tuesday for $58,000 against 55,000, the last price quoted.

Easter German.

On last Wednesday evening in Perkins Opera House the Columbian Club gave a german in honor of Misses Bessie Henderson and Jane Boyden, of Salisbury, the company of Miss Sallie Cotten. It was indeed a most delightful occasion to all who participated, and the young people of Greenville have never had the pleasure of entertaining more charming guests than Misses Henderson and Boyden. The german was lead by Mr. W. H. Dail with his accustomed ease and grace, the following couples being present:

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fleming, Mr. C. S. Carr with Miss Jane Boyden, Mr. C. S. Forbes with Miss Bessie Henderson, Mr. J. B. Cherry, Jr., with Miss Ada Wooten, Mr. C. B. Mayo with Miss May Belle White, Mr. B. E. Patrick with Miss Emily Higgs, Mr. C. C. Skinner with Miss Glenn Forbes, Mr. P. S. Cotten with Miss Winnie Skinner, Dr. R. L. Carr with Miss Nancy Woolford, Mr. J. F. Davenport with Miss Blanche Flanagan, Mr. J. D. Garden with Miss Louise Latham, J. B. Higgs, stag.

Chaperones—Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, Mrs. M. H. Quinerly, Mrs. F. G. Whaley, Mrs. Thos. McGee.

Princeville has some freaks: A cat has given birth to four kittens each with only three feet. One hind foot is missing.—Tarboro Southerner.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Rev. Solomon Pool, a prominent Methodist minister aged 69 years, died Tuesday night at his home in Greensboro.

The Wilmington Star says there is a family of boys and girls living in Lexington, Ala., three boys and four girls, whose average age is 76, the oldest being 84 and the youngest 65 years. They are good, healthy stock, originally from North Carolina. Their parents migrated to Alabama when the country was young and there was plenty of room for exercises.

N. C. Products.

North Carolina produced 29,790,180 bushels of corn in 1900, which was worth $16,980,403. She produced 5,960,807 bushels of wheat, valued at $1,877,858. Of oats 5,046,117 bushels were produced valued at $2,570,753. 411,287 bushels of rye were produced, worth $312,588. Of Irish potatoes we produced 1,063,474 bushels at $691,258. Of hay only 176,680 tons were produced, valued at $1,978,816. This State is fifth in the South in corn production, sixth in wheat production, fifth in oats, first in rye, seventh in Irish potatoes, tenth in hay. Though our agricultural production is immense it is nothing like what it should be. We have one of the largest and most fertile States in the Union and could support an agricultural population ten times as large as we now have. The State needs development in agriculture as well as in other things.—Raleigh Times.

Mayor's Proclamation.

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, entitled, "An Act to authorize the Town of Greenville to issue Bonds for purposes of making improvements in said Town," ratified February 20th, 1901,

I, Joseph G. Moye, Mayor of the town of Greenville, do hereby issue this proclamation declaring that at an election held in said town on Tuesday the 9th day of April 1901, under the provisions of the aforesaid Act:

1. That the number of qualified voters registered for said election was four hundred and fifteen (175).

2. That at said election there was cast two hundred and forty-eight (248) votes "For Bonds" and ninety-three (93) votes "Against Bonds."

3. That a majority of the qualified voters of said town voted at said election in favor of the issuance of bonds under said Act.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, at Greenville on this the 12th day of April 1901.

J. G. MOYE,
Mayor of Greenville.

it is estimated that by the first of next June, there will be sixty millions surplus in the United States treasury. This, too while an army of 60,000 men is maintained in the Philippines, and congress has just spent over a billion of dollars. Such figures give a vague idea of the enormous sums of money that are wrested from the people by a greedy, corrupt, and imperialistic government.—Gaffney S. C. ledger.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1901.

Walter B. Henry has gone to filling newspaper space again, about which the Charlotte Observer is very patient. As usual he is making much ado.

The Meyer store, at Richmond, the largest department store south of Baltimore, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday. The loss was $300,000 which was nearly covered by insurance.

A gentleman from another town was here today, and in talking with THE REFLECTOR said that the carrying of the election for bonds had brought him to the decision of making some investments in Greenville. Since the bond question was first started he has been considering this as a point for investment, but held off until he could see how the election resulted. He said if the bonds had not been carried he would have dismissed the matter from his mind and looked elsewhere for investment. This is just one good result of Greenville showing enterprise and voting for the bonds. More people will be attracted to us when we do something ourselves.

Rev. A. R. Raven Dead.

We regret to chronicle the death of Rev. A. R. Raven, pastor of the M. E. church of Mt. Olive, which sad event occurred at that town yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. He was greatly beloved and will be sincerely mourned. He leaves a wife and daughter, the latter recently married, the last clerical act of her father being to perform that ceremony.—Goldsboro Argus.

Rev. Mr. Raven was pastor of the Methodist church in Greenville many years ago. His friends here learn of his death with regret.

A Big Snake Story.

A wonderful story comes from the graders' camp on the Great Eastern, on the Mill Branch just back of T. E. Yelverton's. Last Friday a negro hand was taken with convulsions and after some time vomited up a snake ten inches long. The negro immediately got better and as he walked about among the crowd the snake would follow him. Later the snake was caught and put in a bottle and when the man who had vomited it would go near the bottle the snake would exhibit great concern, pay no attention to any one else. We give the story as it was told us.—Freemont Visitor.

Not The Usual Breed.

"What was the value of the cow?" asked the railroad company's claim agent.

"I was offered $15 for her once," replied the farmer.

"What?" exclaimed the other, the pen dropping from his nerveless fingers. "She wasn't an imported animal?"

"No."
"Not even after she was killed?"
"No. She was just a common scrub."

"And all you want for her is $15?"

"Who said I wanted $15."
"You haven't come to put in a claim for damages?"

Great Scott! No. I wasn't damaged any. She had the rinderpest, or the glanders, or something of that kind. I intended to kill her anyhow."

"Then what are you here for?"
"I want to find out whether it damaged your cowcatcher or not when it struck her. If it did, I'm willing to pay for it."

"Are you crazy?" asked the claim agent glancing uneasily about for a weapon of some kind.

"Did it damage your cowcatcher any?"

"No, of course not."
"Grease up the tracks any, so as to delay your trains?"

"Certainly not."

"No money loss of any kind?"

"Not a cent. But what in the name of—"

"Then it's all right. No, sir, I ain't crazy. I'm only contrary. Everybody will tell you I'm the blambedest, contrariest old skeezicks in the township, and I reckon I am. I don't care a darn, either. Any of the rest of 'em would have held you up for $65. I'd see you in Hannibal Missouri, before I'd touch a cent of your dirty old money. I've offered to do the square thing, and you've turned up your nose at it, and now if you ever change your mind and want to come on me for damages to your durned old railroad, I'll law you to kingdom come!"

Then he clapped his old slouch hat on his shaggy head and went out, leaving the company's agent in a state of utter collapse—Chicago Tribune.

The United States demand an indemnity from China of $25,000,000 to compensate this government for expense and mental anguish in connection with the Boxer troubles. The Associated Press, in a Washington dispatch, gives as one reason for this large indemnity that it has been made to include "the just claims of the missionaries who were American citizens and suffered in property and persons from the Boxer outbreak." There has been denial in some quarters that any missionaries at all have asked for indemnity or for punishment of the Chinese. We know that many missionaries and some Church organizations as a whole have not so demanded and among these, we are glad to say, we have seen mentioned the Southern Baptist and Southern Presbyterian Churches, but it is very strange that an item for indemnities for missionaries should be included by our government in its claim on China if all American missionaries were zealously refusing to receive any indemnification. The fact is undeniable that such demands have been made by missionaries in China and they are unworthy the spirit of true, self-denying Christianity.—Charlotte Observer.

Bishop Turner is of the opinion that if all the negro criminals were deported to Africa it would do much towards solving the race of problem.

MRS. MELLIE HARRISS.

With the building prospects ahead of Greenville, would not a brick making establishment be a good thing to have here?

The highest praise has been given me by those to whom I have sold the Standard Sewing Machine. S. M. SCHULTZ.

Enterprises that will give profitable employment are the ones that help a town most. Let us have more of them in Greenville.

Greenville folks would enjoy an open air concert by the Osceola Band. We suggest that one be arranged for the next moonlight nights.

Attention is called to the notice to creditors by Jesse Cannon, Public Administrator, administering the estate of W. A. Smith deceased.

New lot of Campus tablets and Keystone composition books at Reflector Book Store. The school children know the excellence of these.

T. F. Christman has sold his grocery business on Five Points to Jesse Starkey. Mr. Starkey is adding largely to the stock and will carry a nice line.

Aginaldo ought to be glad he has been captured. Living in a place at Manila, with all the luxuries of life furnished by Uncle Sam, must be better than sprinting about the mountains with a string of blue-shirted Americans on his trail.—Macon, Ga. Telegraph.

Hon. D. B. Hill, in declining to address the Tennessee legislature, took the opportunity to thank Tennessee's delegation to Kansas City "for their friendship and confidence," and incidentally opposes any reorganization of the Democratic party. Mr. Hill said: "There is much unnecessary discussion about the 'reorganization' of the Democratic party. It is difficult to ascertain exactly what is proposed by those who make use of it. The old party of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden still lives, and is good enough for us. What we need now is courage, patience, unity, and aggressiveness. Let us adhere to the old-fashioned principles of Democracy, and the future will take care of itself."

Took a Tumble.

John Tait, one of THE REFLECTOR boys, is wearing an egg over the corner of his right eye. He wants it understood that he has not been in a scrap, but while running took a tumble, and the sidewalk meeting him half way gave him the knot.

Sentiment Growing.

A bill has been introduced in the New York Assembly providing for the issuing of bonds not exceeding $5,000,000 for the extension of State aid to counties and municipalities in the construction of good roads. The good roads sentiment is growing everywhere.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Rich Harvest.

Mention has been made of the enormous and unparalleled increase of business in Newark of a life insurance company which had advertised extensively in the local newspapers, after the manner of mercantile establishments. There has never been a better proof of the value of liberal advertising, and it is safe to predict that the results will induce at least one company in every community to buy newspaper space in a large way. The first in the field will reap a rich harvest.—Philadelphia Record.

At no time within many years have conditions been such in this country as they are today, work for those who will work, and prosperity generally prevalent in all sections.

The fact that these conditions prevail so generally, makes comparatively little changing about of people, from one section of the country to another, for few men are prompted to move their families from one locality to another, when business is good, for it is the accepted thing to let well enough alone.

But while conditions are against any general moving of the families, or for that matter changing of business interests, no community need be indifferently idle, or cease endeavor to try to bring in new and desirable people, and with these people, all the business interests which they command and control.

But to attract and win new people with all their interests, the community must not remain slow to act, but must use every effort to win itself all outside interest which are desirable.—New Bern Journal.
