Another Tax Suit Compromise.

In the compromise of the railroad taxation cases, the fact that the Western Union Telegraph Company has on the docket of the Federal court a similar case, seems to have been almost overlooked.

But still that is a fact, and now the State finds itself up against another proposition for a compromise. The proposition comes from Mr. R. C. Strong, attorney for the telegraph company, and is made to the Corporation Commission which spent yesterday considering it.

The property of the Western Union in this State was first put on the tax books at a valuation of $300,000, and was raised until it reached $750,000. The tax was paid on this valuation under protest but without suit. Then the Commission increased the valuation to $1,000,000, whereupon the telegraph company appealed to Judge Simonton. He granted it an injunction and reduced the valuation to $600,000. On this amount taxes have been paid for the past two years.

Now the telegraph company, of its own motion and through its attorney, Mr. Strong, offers a compromise. This compromise, it is said, is to pay for the past two years and until there is a new assessment in 1903, on a valuation of $750,000 and all costs in the case.

It is understood that this compromise will be accepted by the Commission as soon as Commissioner Rogers, who is now out of the city, returns. He is expected today.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The fellow who is always kicking must expect to stub his toe once in a while.

SLICK THIEF.

Gets $40 Out of a Safe.

Tuesday a sharp thief stole about $40 in bills out of a safe in the office of Smith & Hooker. There are two safes in the office, in one of which Mr. Hooker keeps his individual valuables, the other being for the use of the firm. Mr. J. A. Lang, book keeper of the firm, having to go in this safe frequently, kept what is called the day lock on during the day. There were four drawers in the safe, different parties having keys to three of them. Only notes and papers were kept in the fourth drawer, and for convenience the key to this drawer was kept in the lock so any of the firm might have access to the papers when wanted.

When Mr. Lang returned from dinner Tuesday he discovered that some one had been tampering with the safe during his absence and thrown off the lock combination. He unlocked the safe at once and found that the key had been taken out of the lock to the drawer containing the papers and was sticking in the lock to the drawer in which he kept money. He took hold of it and the drawer easily came open, when he discovered that $40 in bills had been taken from the drawer. There were several dollars in silver also in the drawer but the thief did not bother the hard money.

Strange as it may seem, as long as the safe has been in use it was never discovered sooner that the same key would unlock more than one of the drawers.

Getting Ready.

The Board of Aldermen at a special meeting Wednesday night, took the preliminary steps relative to putting in the improvements authorized by the bond election. The Clerk was ordered to correspond with a civil engineer relative to getting him to make a survey and drainage map of the town and prepare plans and make estimates for putting in the improvements. The City Attorney was also instructed to prepare for publication all the matters pertaining to the bonds that would give the information desired to contemplated purchasers.

To be a good critic is to be a bad liar.

ELECTION NOTICE.

To the Voters of the Proposed Graded School District of the Town of Greenville.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina did on the 9th day of March, 1901, ratify an act entitled "An Act to Establish Graded Schools in the Town of Greenville, N. C.," if the qualified voters living within certain limits and constituted in said act as the Greenville Graded School District No. 1 shall vote to establish the same:

And whereas, the Board of Aldermen of said town at a meeting held on the 17th day of April, 1901, did, in accordance with said act, call said election to be held in said district on Tuesday, the 21st day of May, 1901, and did designate the Court House as the voting place for said election, and did appoint L. W. Lawrence Registrar, and J. G. Bowling and R. Hyman Judges of Election to conduct said election.

And whereas by said act a new registration of the qualified voters within said district is required to be had, notice is hereby given that the registration book in said district will be opened for the registration of the qualified voters at the voting place herein before named, from 2 o'clock p. m. to sunset on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday preceding said day of election, but such registration may be made on any other days previous at any other place in said district.

At said election all persons whose names are found upon the registration book shall be entitled to vote for or against establishing said graded schools. Those desiring to vote for it shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "for school" upon it, and those desiring to vote against it shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "against school" upon it.

Now, therefore, I, Joseph G. Moye, Mayor of the town of Greenville, in accordance with said act, do hereby issue this notice or proclamation calling said election to be held and conducted on Tuesday, the 21st day of May, 1901, for the purpose and in the manner prescribed in the aforesaid Act of the General Assembly.

Given under my hand at Greenville on this the 18th day of April, A. D. 1901. J. G. MOYE, Mayor.

The Governor Has Gained Nothing by Appointing Winston.

Mr. Winston is a well known politician. In his appointment [as judge] the Governor was evidently indifferent to the elements supposed to be essential to that quality designated as judicial. Mr. Winston was a member of the General Assembly increasing the number of judgeships. Ordinarily this should debar one from being appointed. We cannot avoid the impression that the Governor suffers a distant loss of prestige by this appointment.—Biblical Recorder.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1901.

There used to be a great many plovers and other birds in North Texas in the springtime, and they preyed on green and other kinds of bugs. Now there are a great many green bugs in North Texas in the springtime, when they prey upon wheat and other growing things in the gardens and fields. The two facts can be considered together. Most of the birds have been killed.—Galveston News.

An old maid who died in New York the other day, worth $150,000, after dividing her money among relatives provided in her will that $10,000 be given to the housekeeper of the house in which she lived to take care of her black and tan, "Dandy Jim," the balance of his days. Unfortunately for Dandy Jim, there was no provision against killing him with kindness.—Wilmington Star.

The effect of the continued cool weather is to still further delay the strawberry crop to such an extent that it is said to be provoking serious comment upon the part of the truckers. Conservative growers say that the season now can't possibly open before the first of May and it is likely that no shipments of consequences can be made even so early as that date.—Wilmington Star.

The legislature at its session just adjourned, enacted a revenue law imposing the following license taxes; Cigarette dealers and manufacturers of cigarettes.—On manufacturers, annual output less than 250 million, $250; between 250 million and 500 million, $500; over 500 million, $1,000. No other tax except ad valorem allowed to county, city or town. Retail dealers in cigarettes, per year, $5. No county, city or town shall levy any tax under this section.

Is the consumption of intoxicating liquors decreasing? This is a question that commands answers both affirmative and negative. One day you read by one man's statistics that the drink bill of the nation is decreasing and the next day you read by another man's statistics that it is increasing. Whether decreasing or increasing there is no question about the enormous cost to the country. If what is spent for drink were put into schools, there would be no need of extra taxation any taxation anywhere to raise the money for securing good schools. The very life of the children of the land cries out against the traffic and the evil.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Never say you repent until you (deem on it)

Unusual Epitaph.

A gentleman who has just returned from South Carolina says that while in the town of Cheraw he took a walk through the cemetery and saw inscribed upon one tombstone the following strange epitaph:

"My name, my country—what is that to thee?

What, whether high or low my pedigree?

Perhaps I far surpassed all other men;

Perhaps I fell below them all—what then?

Suffice it, stranger, that thou seest a tomb,

Thou knowest it use; it hides—no matter whom."

There was no lettering on the tomb and nothing to indicate who was buried there. This, of course, naturally excited the gentleman's curiosity and upon inquiry he learned that the tomb was erected over the remains of a man who while living in that town never told his name to any one, though he resided there several years before and after the Civil War.—Greensboro Record.

Observations.

Men do not approve because they laugh at reckless women, it were well for the latter to learn this.

Never tell a man you are "always the same." Monotony appeals to few men.

Housewifely talents do not promise fame, but they teach thrift. Even lobsters have their use, and clams are not without honor at some dining tables.

A girl's brother, if he is alert, is her best counselor.

The only time blindness might be a blessing is when we see a bright woman deserting her womanhood.

Women are malicious concerning each other, and men suspicious toward other men.

Every one does not "love a lover." The majority consider him but one degree removed from an imbecile.

Your old mother may be somewhat of a bore nowadays, but lang syne you bored her with childish questions.

To quarrel is to waste time that might be utilized in healing the error.

Laughter is the coin of the Bank of Good Will.

—Philadelphia Record.

Why Franchises are Valuable.

It was not a long time ago that the seeker of a franchise was looked on as a sort of public benefactor, one to be most generously treated and to be given, in short, practically everything that was asked. We have awakened to the understanding that the things covered by franchises are the property of the whole people. They are worthless but for the fact that assembled here are so many thousands of people whose situation makes the things that these franchises supply a practical necessity.—Indianapolis News.

Mrs. Swindell's residence was recently burglarized, as noted in this paper, and $25,00 in money stolen. Strange to say she yesterday received a package through the mail containing $21.00. The only explanation is that the thief underwent compulsion of conscience and decided to return the money or so much of it as he had left.—Raleigh Times.

W. L. Cooper, representative of J. Van Lindley Nursery Co., of Pamona, N. C., is in Greenville making his headquarters at Hotel Macon. He will be in this section the next few weeks taking orders for all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees and flowers. Parties wishing to get the best stock should see him. A card left in postoffice or at the hotel will bring him to see you.

Lost the Whole Battery.

Wednesday night somewhere between his office and residence, the editor lost a three section leather pocket, for carrying pens and pencil, etc. A Parker fountain pen, pair of pocket scissors and two short pencils were lost in the pocket. The pen has been found, but the other articles are yet missing. The finder will do us a favor by returning them to THE REFLECTOR office, as it is an indispensable outfit for our work.

Graded School Election.

Wednesday night the Board of Aldermen, in compliance with the graded school act for this town adopted by the recent Legislature, ordered the election provided for in said act to be held on Tuesday, May 21st. L. W. Lawrence was appointed Registrar, and J. G. Bowling and R. Hyman Judges of the election, and the Court House was selected as the polling place.

The act defines certain bounds to comprise a graded school district, and a new registration of the qualified voters residing in said district is ordered.

Dr. Buckley thinks that Christian Science is the most dangerous heresy of the time. He is right, except that it is not very dangerous.—Raleigh Times.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Jacksonville had a $40,000 fire Tuesday morning. The most of the business portion of the town was burned.

Hon. Dan Hugh McLean, of Harnett, will deliver the memorial address at Washington on the 10th of May.

There is one case of scarlet fever among the pupils of the A. & M. College at Raleigh. The case was promptly quarantined so that no other cases are feared.

Changes Too Frequent.

After all the fuss about the new revenue act some points seem to have remained in doubt. With a new revenue act every two years there will always be confusion. We would like to see a fairly good act in operation long enough for the people to learn something about it. As it is the taxpayer is kept in the dark nearly all the time, and doesn't know half the time if he isn't bamboozled out of more than his just share of the expenses of government.—Wilmington Dispatch.

More Pitt County Enterprise.

The Secretary of State has issued letters patent to the Ayden Milling and Manufacturing Company of Ayden, the purpose of the company being the ginning of cotton, handling grain, manufacturing and merchandising. The incorporators are Joseph W. Dixon, J. S. Hart, W. T. Summerell, E. G. Cox, J. J. Stokes, W. M. Forest, Charles Spicer, J. M. Dixon, J. J. Dail. The capital stock is $10,000, with privilege to increase to $25,000.

Summer Goods.

Today Mr. P. M. Johnson showed us some wire doors and window screens that are being manufactured by Mr. F. M. Hodges and himself and can be seen at the store of Ormond & Carr. The window screens are so made that they fit perfectly and can be raised or lowered as desired. They can be furnished at a lower price than other makes of these goods.

Mr. Johnson also had an electric fan on exhibition at J. L. Wooten's drug store. It will add comfort to the home, office or store to have one of these. Mr. Johnson can furnish these fans, door bells or any other electric supplies.

It has been decided that the Cramp ship building company will launch the new battleship Maine on Decoration Day. The survivors of the original Maine and widows and orphans of the sailors killed in Havana harbor will attend the launching.
