OUR RALEIGH LETTER

What Our Correspondent at the Capital has to Say This Week.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

Raleigh, N. C., April 22—During the week just closed North Carolina has been honored by the presence of some very distinguished visitors, gentlemen who seldom come our way, and some who never set foot upon Carolina soil before.

The two notable gatherings which attracted these distinguished guests were held at Charlotte and Winston-Salem and were, respectively, a banquet, etc., given by the Southern Manufacturers' Club to the Chinese Minister to the United States, Mr. Wu, and the Southern Educational Conference, the latter being attended by such celebrated scholars as Dr. Lyman Abbott, Bishop Doane, Dr. Curry, Dr. Parkhurst and many others, including a special party of sixty from New York.

OUR FOREIGN COTTON GOODS TRADE

The Charlotte event was designed, primarily, to further the interest of the cotton manufacturers of North Carolina and the South, and to serve a purpose in developing our foreign trade for Southern manufactured goods, particularly in the occident, our trade with China having been interrupted by the late invasion of that country.

Besides Minister Wu, Senators Pritchard, McLaurin, Messrs. D. A. Tompkins, E. A. Smythe and other leading mill men, President Dabney, of the University of Tennessee, and other distinguished guests of the Club were present, and the event was productive of much good to our commercial and manufacturing interests.

Minister Wu spoke very encouragingly and he is interesting himself in establishing closer commercial relations between China and the United States—which means much for the sale of coarse cotton goods turned out by our Southern mills.

THE EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE.

Bishop Roudthaler (Moiavian) delivered the principal address of welcome, though he was preceded by Governor Aycock in a briefer speech of welcome.

Among the speakers were President Edwin A. Alderman, of Tulane University, New Orleans, former president of the University of North Carolina; E. C. Branson, President of the Normal College of Georgia (another North Carolinian who has made a name abroad), formerly of Raleigh.

A score of wealthy philanthropists were in attendance—men who give liberally of their ample means for education and who are now for the first time becoming interested in the education of the white children of the South. Some of them have in years ago contributed largely to Southern negro colleges, and some yet do so. But the indigent white boys and girls of the South had not previously enlisted their sympathy or even interest. This meeting, as others they are attending, was fraught with great interest, therefore, to all our people.

THE KING CLOTHIER.

ginia of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J. (whose company has now resumed business in this State after an absence of two years), has just fitted up a magnificent suite of offices on the second floor of the Briggs building, immediately opposite City Hall, where Mr. Drewry has been presiding during the past week as Mayor pro tem of the city of Raleigh, and this week his corps of clerks will get down to business in earnest. The popularity of Mr. Drewry and his company is such that, although no efforts have been made to secure business up to this time, yet policies aggregating over $100,000 have been written at the Raleigh office during the last week or so. Mr. Drewry states that most of his best agents are returning to the "Old Mutual Benefit," and that he will soon have the State fully covered again. The prospects seem to be that this company will soon again begin to lead the life companies in this State.

LLEWXAM.

Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, finds some difficulty and entanglement in skipping from the Democratic into the Republican fold. No such hindrance appears to bar the way of Representative Skinner, of North Carolina, who has turned from Populism to Republicanism. He takes his dose—protection, subsidy and expansion—without a grimace. It may be said, however, that a man accustomed to swallow the Tom-and-Jerry mixtures of the Populist doctrinaires must have acquired a seasoned throat.—Philadelphia Record.

Ananias to The Front.

Something new in advertising is promised for this season. Mr. C. K. Hotaling, a former Newfoundlander and an advertising sign designer whose headquarters have been in Boston, was in town last week decorating the office of the Hotel Bertha with fancy signs of some of Greenville's merchants and professional men. He reports his stay here as due to waiting for mail and keeping himself busy, intently to "help on expenses." He has been through the South all this last winter in the interest of a new company formed at Eastport, Maine, with the title of "The Ananias Touring Advertising Device." What the object or plan is, he will not at present disclose, only remarking it will be a big thing. The "Ananias" part of the title he said was bestowed by the president of the company, Mr. E. E. Green, a diamond merchant and jeweler of Eastport and owner of the swift steam yacht of the same name—the craft that outsailed everything on Passamaquoddy Bay last summer.

They propose to open offices at all the leading seaside resorts to further their plans. Mr. Hotaling, wife and daughter, Miss Wiloys, have been invited to join Mr. Green next month at Eastport to board the "Ananias" for a sail up the gulf and river St Lawrence, thence through the lakes to Buffalo, where a short visit will be made to the Pan-American Exposition. Bar Harbor and Newport will be favored spots this summer for the Company and Jacksonville Florida next winter. We will watch with interest the development of this scheme.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 1901.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 22.

Mr. McKinley, having talked the matter over fully with General Wood, will receive the Committee from the Cuban Constitutional Convention, but it will be in a cut-it short this is my busy day manner, which will show them at once that he is more intent upon his coming pleasure trip than upon hearing their requests for impossibilities. He cannot change an Act of Congress and he will bluntly tell the Cubans so, and that is about all he will tell them, unless his intentions have been misrepresented by those who ought to know them.

The cablegrams given out at the War Department was coming from Gen. MacArthur, concerning the stealing from the Commissary department in Manila, do not square with either press news or private advices. According to the former, there have only been a few cases of petty larceny, while the latter agree in insisting that there has been a wholesale campaign of looting, and hint that more effort is being made to protect the looters than to uncover the stealing and punish the thieves, although a few arrests have been made. Of course, no one can say to a certainty which is right or nearest right, but on the general principle that those who are disinterested are most apt to tell the truth the press and private cablegrams naturally find the greatest number of believers.

Judge Lambert Tree, of Illinois, who prides himself on being an old fashioned democrat, is visiting Washington, where, by the way, he was born. Asked about political conditions in Illinois, Judge Tree said: "I do not see that there are any striking developments in the democratic politics of Illinois. This is a period of evolution, but at present everything seems to be quiescent. There are many questions to be looked into between now and the next national campaign." Having served as U. S. Minister to Russia Judge Tree is naturally much interested in the part Russia is playing in the Chinese game and has some decidedly pointed opinions on the subject, but not for publication.

Judge Winter, of Alabama, who is in Washington on legal business, said on a subject in which the whole country is interested: "The people of Alabama would build bonfires and celebrate if the next Congress should pass a bill for the construction of an Isthmian canal. We have been discouraged by the developments of the last few months, and sometimes I feel that it will be many years before the work on the canal is begun. I prophesy if a canal is ever completed a decade will suffice to make Alabama a greater state than Pennsylvania now is."

It is a little early to begin the work of making the next republican candidate for president, but notice has already been publicly served upon the anti-Hanna republicans that the votes of the South in the next republican national convention would be given to the candidate favored by Mr. McKinley. The notice was served by Judge J. W. Dimmick, a federal office-holder and national committee-man from Alabama, who is now in Washington.

One sentence of Aguinaldo's recently published manifesto, acknowledging American sovereignty of the Philippines and calling upon the Filipinos to cease resistance to American authority, has aroused more of less speculation and curiosity in Washington. It is that in which he refers to the yearnings of the Filipino people "to see their dear ones enjoying the liberty and promised generosity of the American nation." Many think that the "promised generosity" relates to promises made to Aguinaldo personally and that the wily Filipino put it in his manifesto so as to make it a matter of official record. Whether that surmise be correct or not the language of the manifesto indicates that promises have been made of which the American public know nothing, and naturally there is curiosity to know what those promises are.

The new road law provides:

Section 36. That the justices of the peace in each and every township in this State shall meet in some place in their respective townships, to be agreed upon by themselves, or in absence of such agreement to be named by their chairman, on the last Monday of April of each year, and shall elect a board of road trustees, which shall be composed of three citizens residents of said township. The term of the first road trustee elected shall be for three years, the second for two, and the third for one year. One successor of one road trustee shall be elected at the annual April meeting for the term of three years. They are hereby incorporated, and the board of road trustees of such townships shall be their corporate name.

Section 37. The road trustees shall meet in some place in their respective townships, to be agreed upon by themselves, or in the absence of such agreement, to be named by their chairman, on the first Monday in May and November, and at such other times as a majority of them may deem advisable.

J. H. BUNN, Greenville, N. C.

Thirty-seven prominent business men of New York, representing the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association, started on Saturday last, in response to an invitation from the Texas Legislature, on a tour of inspection of the Lone Star State. The object is to get a better understanding of business possibilities and the proper means of establishing closer trading relations. The South and Southwest are now centres of commercial and industrial interest, and the alert merchants of New York do not mean to be left in the lurch in the competition for the steadily increasing trade that must follow upon the development of Southern resources. The coming Southern industrial convention in this city will furnish a rare opportunity for all the Northern merchants and manufacturers to lay the foundation for larger acquaintance, better understanding and commensurate commercial advantage.—Philadelphia Record.

Mrs. Joe Leggett is very ill with fever.

R. R. Fleming lost one of his fine log mules Thursday. Dropped dead hooked to the log cart.

Ex-Sheriff G. M. Mooring was here Friday making his last call for taxes.

Rev. Mr. Crutchfield of Rocky Mount filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church here Sunday and preached a very able sermon.

To Manufacture Boat Oars.

Mr. Wm. Fitzgibbon, now of Knoxville, Tenn., was in Statesville this week and perfected arrangements to establish another manufacturing enterprise in Statesville. It is a plant for the manufacture of boat oars. Mr. Fitzgibbon now has a plant of this kind in operation in Knoxville and has decided to move it here. He has secured power from Mr. L. C. Wagner at the latter's place near the depot and has returned to Knoxville to ship his machinery here. He will also bring with him a number of skilled workmen and as soon as the machinery arrives and can be set up work will begin.

The manufacture of boat oars, it seems, is quite an industry, but is something new for this section. The oars are made of ash wood exclusively and plenty of this sort of timber can be found hereabouts.—Statesville Landmark.

Odds Fellows Celebration.

Bethel Lodge, I. O. O. F. will on Friday, 26th, celebrate the anniversary of the order with appropriate exercises. The lodge at Greenville, Robersonville and Parmele have been invited to participate in the celebration. Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of Greenville, will deliver the address. THE REFLECTOR returns thanks for an invitation.

A Dire Threat.

This was Sheriff Harris' first court and likewise was it the first of the crier whom he appointed. This crier naturally was not familiar with the form of "calling out" an absent witness. A day or two ago he was ordered to call out one and an attorney was prompting him. He misunderstood "or you'll forfeit your subpoena" and rendered it thusly: "or you'll forfeit the dispensary."—Tarboro Southerner.

ARM BROKEN.

But He Never Complained.

Monday afternoon Mr. J. J. Evans displayed wonderful nerve. He went out to his farm a few miles from town after a load of wood and some corn. He put the corn in a bag and placed it on top of the load of wood and made his seat on the bag. Soon after starting back to town his horse stepped in a hole and stumbled, which threw him headlong off his high seat on top of the load. In the fall his left arm was broken just above the wrist. When he got up off the ground his hand was laying back against his arm. He pulled the hand back in its proper position, got back on the cart, drove by his brothers and got a towel to make a sling to rest his arm in, droye his horse on to town and went to the doctor to have his arm put in splints. After the doctor was through with him he got his supper and came on to THE REFLECTOR office to spend the evening as is his usual custom. And he was not heard to complain at all.

The Tennessee House of Representatives has passed a bill which provides that members of that body shall be "docked" the full amount of their per diem allowance for each day's absence from he legislative sessions.

THE SUNNY SOUTH

Fifty Cents a Year Less Than a Penny a Number

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and afield, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great serials, "TRISTRAM OF BLENT," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "Rosalynde's Lovers," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to excel the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it to-day.

The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly NEWSPAPERS—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to The Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary; the other News.
