THE HILLYERS.

Costly Presents Given to Every One Attending the Performance.

Hillyer's Wonder Co., will give an entertainment at the Opera House Wednesday night. The Newberry Herald and News speaks of this company as follows.

Hillyer's Wonders Co., appeared before a splendid house last night in spite of the inclemency of the weather, and those who attended were not disappointed in the least. The program was laughable, amusing and interesting. The Hillyers gave one of the best performances in their line Newberry has ever seen, the mind reading and cabinet work being unsurpassed. The entire show was most creditable. Mme Hillyer worked with such ease and grace that she won the admiration of all who saw her. She is certainly an artist out of the ordinary. Nothing but praise could be heard from anyone who attended. The gifts distributed were all handsome and costly. The Hillyers certainly gave the people their money's worth last night. Everybody attending Wednesday night receives a present.

Fire At Kinston.

About 1 o'clock this morning a warehouse and stables belonging to Mr. Hardy Loftin and stables belonging to W. H. Cox & Co., at Kinston, were destroyed by fire. Besides the buildings, Mr. Loftin lost three horses, about 100 barrels of corn and some other feed stuff. It is not known how the fire originated.

Old Fodder.

Saturday Mr. J. C. Lanier brought THE REFLECTOR a bundle of fodder that is known to be more than 28 years old, and yet it is in perfect condition and appears as good as if it was of last year's crop. He got the fodder from a son of the late Mr. Redding Hudson, of Chocod township. The younger Mr. Hudson says he knows his father kept a lot of the fodder for more than 28 years but cannot give the exact time.

THE GATTIS-KILGO SUIT AGAIN.

The now famous Gattis vs. Kilgo, et al. libel suit was argued before the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday, with only four of the justices sitting. Justice Clark having been one of the parties to the controversy out of which the suit grew he, of course, did not sit as a judge on the hearing. It will be remembered that a Granville county jury awarded the plaintiff (former Methodist colporter) $20,000 damages against President Kilgo, B. N. Duke and W. R. Odell, whereupon defendants appealed. Gov. Aycock was one of the attorneys for the defendants in the court below, but of course is no longer connected with the case. It cannot be definitely stated when the Supreme Court will render its decision.

MILITARY MATTERS.

The quartermaster general says that the encampment of the State Guard the coming summer will be regimental, ten days to each regiment. When the encampment will be has not yet been definitely decided upon.

The late paymaster general Phil. H. Lybrook (who was postmaster at Winston at the time of his death) was behind in accounts some $1,600, and his estate is therefore indebted to the State in that amount. His bondsmen (one of whom was ex-Lieut-Gov. Reynolds, now postmaster at Winston) is said to be good for the shortage.

On May 10, a competitive drill will be pulled off in this city, companies sending representatives from Durham, Asheville, Wilmington, Goldsboro, Wilson, Tarboro, Louisburg, Washington and Greenville (and possibly other towns), to compete for the prize offered for the best drilled man by the Raleigh Light Infantry. May 10 is Confederate memorial day here and the above named squads will also participate in the exercises of the day with the home companies.

State Treasurer Lacy, cautioned by the long undiscovered continuous thefts of a treasury clerk under his predecessor, says he intends to do away with the antiquated "system" of book-keeping that has obtained there presumably for several generations and open a more modern set of books—as soon as practicable.

Over three hundred proposed free "rural libraries" have so far made requisition for the $10 promised each by the State. There is a pleasing and most encouraging educational awakening throughout the State and it promises to become even more widespread.

The one hundred "Crosses of Honor" to be given Confederate veterans by the Johnson-Pettigrew Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be formerly presented June 3rd, Jefferson Davis' birthday. That great editor, and equally great orator and successful lecturer, Henry Watterson, opened the Raney Library course of lectures here last week with a fine lecture on Abraham Lincoln—and got out a score or two of the citizens of this town to listen to him. The small audience was a disgrace to the capital city of North Carolina.

Thirty banking houses were incorporated by the Legislature at its recent session, and of these ten have since begun business, which fact speaks well for the prosperity and business growth of our State. The new banking houses are located at Greenville, Statesville, Rockingham, Mt. Olive, Wilmington, Troy Hendersonville, Benson, Mt. Airy and Raleigh. LLEWEXAM.

No, Maude, dear; a trial trip doesn't necessarily mean a ride in a prison van.

John Belder, of Mahony, Pa., has a freak and he isn't sure whether it is a chicken or a cat. It has a head like a cat, four legs and two well formed wings. It was hatched out by the old hen and came in with her brood of chickens. Pshaw. It's a cat whose ancestors had been feeding on chickens.—Wilmington Star.

An Oklahoma postmaster who wanted to go "bar" hunting notified the Department that the office would be "shot" for several days. They might "fire" him if they wanted to, but he gave them a "pinter"—that he was the only man around there that could "rede or rite."—Wilmington Star.

Will Not Be Again a Candidate.

In the last issue of Commoner W. J. Bryan states that he does not expect to be a candidate again. He says:

"I am not planning for another Presidential nomination. If I were I would not be editing a paper. If I ever am a candidate again it will be because it seems necessary for the advancement of the principles to which I adhere, and that does not now seem probable. I shall, however, take an interest in politics for several years yet if I live, and can be relied upon to support those who as candidates, advocate Democratic principles and also can be trusted to enforce them if elected.

"I have no enemies to punish. No matter what a man may have said or done against the ticket in 1896 or in 1900, that man becomes my friend the moment he accepts Democratic principle. Neither have I any disposition to reward political friends at the expense of our cause. No matter what that man may have said or done for the ticket in 1896 or 1900, that man becomes and opponent the moment he turns against Democratic principles. Political battles are fought not in the past or in the future, but in the present. The hereafter cannot be anticipated, but the 'now' is all I present."

"This is rent day," said the Orange boy, when the nail on the garden fence tore his pants.

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great serials, "TRISTRAM OF BLENT," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "Rosalynde's Lovers," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to excel the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it to-day.
