KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Twelfth Annual Convention.

The twelfth annual convention of the State order of the King's Daughters met at 10 o'clock this morning in the Methodist church.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. I. C. Davis, of the Central Council, New York.

The first business was presentation of credentials by the delegates which were passed upon and the roll called.

Mrs. A. L. Blow, in a most beautifully worded and charmingly delivered address, welcomed the delegates and the convention to Greenville. The address was graciously responded to by Miss Hattie K. Thrower, of Williamston.

Mr. George H. Rose, Recording Secretary, read the minutes of the session of 1900.

This was followed by the address of the State Secretary, Mrs. Henry Perry, of Henderson, giving a report of the work done in the State during the past year, and pointing out where much more might have been accomplished.

The address was discussed by Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Blow, Mrs. Moye and Mrs. Cherry.

This completed the program for the morning session. Another session will be held from 4 to 6 this afternoon.

A reception will be in the opera house tonight.

Convention Delegates.

The following delegates and visitors to the Kings Daughters convention have arrived:

Mrs. I. C. Davis, of Central Council New York; Mrs. Henry Perry, State Secretary, of Henderson; Mrs. George H. Rose, Recording Secretary, Henderson; Mrs. Hamden F. Smith, State Treasurer, Raleigh; Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Watson, Chapel Hill, guests of Mrs. J. B. Cherry.

Mrs. Chevasse, Henderson, guest of Mrs. G. B. King.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Rowland, Henderson, guests of Mrs. E. H. Thomas and Mrs. J. T. Meadows.

Mrs. J. H. Bridgers and Mrs. Morris, Henderson, guests of Miss Bessie Jaryis.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Gupton, Henderson, guests of Mrs. E. A. Moye.

Miss Thrower, Williamston, guest of Mrs. A. L. Blow.

Other delegates are expected this evening.

His "Ads" Have Paid.

Among the many instances of a great business which has been developed entirely through newspaper advertising is that of Frederick Macey, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. His local business is small, but his mail order trade is enormous. He began by buying $10 worth of newspaper space a month, and now his average advertising expenditure is $5000 a month.—Philadelphia Record.

Last year 1404 persons were injured and eighteen killed in London by being flung headlong out of hansom cabs by reason of the horses slipping and falling. It is not surprising that Londoners are calling for a public vehicle less dangerous than the hansom.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS, N. C., April 29, 1901.

Representative B. F. Shelton, of Edgecombe, was here Thursday.

John Warren, Jr., of Conetoe, was here Saturday.

Mrs. Dr. C. M. Jones and Mrs. John Galloway, of Grimesland, paid our town a call Thursday.

J. H. Gurganus made a flying trip to Raleigh a few days ago. And Mr. Rumor says he went to see his best girl. Go ahead Jim, you are a winner.

Misses Emma Harrington and Annie Fleming of House's Station, are visiting Miss Blanch Fleming.

Miss Jennie Ward, of Greenville, after spending a few days here with relatives, left Saturday for Grimesland to visit her sister, Mrs. Amanda Holiday.

Mrs. Rachel Webb, of Elm City, came Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Belcher.

R. R. Fleming had his first train load of logs to arrive Friday over the A. C. L. from Oakley.

The National Protective Association of Eastern Carolina (col.) have just closed a business meeting here, being composed and represented of twenty counties and have decided to buy a site and build factories of different kinds to upbuild and give their race employment, claiming to have $2500 (twenty five hundred dollars) paid in capital to start with.

The continued cold weather for this time of the year has stopped the farmers from planting cotton in this section. And those that have planted are declined to think that they will be compelled to make the second planting to secure a stand.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.

Mr. McKinley's record breaking Presidential free excursion left Washington today on its little jaunt of 10,581 miles. The special train consists of seven Pullman cars, each selected as the most elegant of its kind. The trip will cost thousand of dollars, but it is doubtful whether a cent of it will come out of the pocket of any one of the 38 passengers. Secretary Cortelyou was thoroughly alive to the advertising possibilities of the trip, when he arranged that more than one fourth of the passengers should be newspaper men, and he took care that there should be artists among them. Also, that a good photographer should be on the train, as well as telegraph operators. There are nine ladies to keep Mrs. McKinley company, and Dr. Rixey is on hand to look after her health, and that of the rest of the party.

If the movement that has been started in Washington to make the daughters of the American Revolution an auxiliary to the machine that is booming Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, for the republican Presidential nomination in 1904 is successful, the D. A. R. will probably have a split on its hands and will certainly suffer in the esteem of those who are on principle opposed to the participation in partisan politics of such organizations. This movement, which is understood to have been started with the knowledge of Mrs. Fairbanks, President General of the D. A. R., and wife of the Senator, is to have the D. A. R. National Board unofficially request every chapter in the country to use the influence of its members with fathers, sons, husbands and friends, to secure support for the Fairbanks' boom. It was because they wish to keep the movement secret that the National Board of the D. A. R. recently decided that the press should be rigidly excluded, not only from the Board meetings, but from future National Congresses of the organization. That decision provoked such adverse criticism that the Board has since announced that it had been temporarily abandoned. It has from its organization been plain that the D. A. R. had nothing to do with partisan politics, but the same claim has been made for organizations of men, which are constantly dabbling in partisanship.

Nothing but praise is heard of the action of Mr. McKinley, taken in response to a written request of Senator Daniel, of Virginia, in ordering that the Washington relics, which have for some years been on exhibition in the National Museum, be restored to their proper owner, Gen. G. W. C. Lee, of Virginia, a son of Gen. R. E. Lee, from whose house, at Arlington, the relics were taken at the opening of the Civil War. While it was action that should have voluntarily been taken years ago, by some president, Mr. McKinley is entitled to credit for taking it even at this late day, and to more credit for the manly letter to Senator Daniel, in which he announced his intention to do so.

All the administration will be used to get Minister E. H. Conger, nominated for Governor by the Iowa republicans. Not because it loves Conger over well or desires to see him honored, but because it doesn't wish him to return to China as U. S. Minister, nor to tell him that he cannot. In other words, for purely selfish reasons, the administration wishes Mr. Conger nominated for governor of Iowa. He displeased the administration several times during the negotiations in Pekin, and he has displeased it again by his published interviews since he reached the U. S., but his standing with the powerful missionary element in this country is such that the administration is afraid to kick him out of the diplomatic service.

No Man lives to himself alone. The rich and the poor are alike dependent upon each other. If all the poor people should leave this community the value of real estate would decrease greatly; business would fall off and the wheels of industry become practically idle. As a community then we owe something to these people as well as ourselves—something beside employment and the right of citizenship—and the wealthy citizen ought not to think that he is doing other than his duty when paying taxes for public benefits, chief among which is public education. An intelligent community is more prosperous than an ignorant community; an intelligent community can only come through educating the masses.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Mr. W. J. Brothers, postmaster at Institute, Lenoir county, was arrested this morning by a postoffice inspector for tampering with mail matter belonging to another firm in Institute.—Kinston Free Press.

MERIT WILL TELL. This is shown by the steady increase in my business. I make shipments to the Wilmington Steam Laundry every Wednesday morning and return Saturday night. Best work guaranteed. I have this day bought out the laundry that was left on hand in the Chinese laundry. All persons having laundry with them will call on me within the next 15 days, otherwise it will be sold for charges. Terms cash. FRANK E. SKINNER, Agt. This April 26, 1901.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Their Motto—"Not to be Ministered Unto, But to Minister."

There is no more sublime sentiment that can be adopted, no greater act of Christian charity, no more beautiful chord of human sympathy, than those words, the guiding spirit of those noble women who compose this great, grand and glorious order. The good they have done, the good they are doing and the greater good they are making effort to do, should, and will, commend itself to any thinking person of every kind and class.

It is mete that this session of the King's Daughters should be held in Greenville that the good people here (and their name is legion) should know more of the work they are doing. The people of Greenville are willing to do much for the charity and kindness to the needs of others, if they are made aware of the exigencies. This is a most notable and splendid opportunity for them to become informed. It is to be hoped, yea, and believed, and the attention that the people of Greenville give to this occasion will be an attest of the earnest they feel and are willing to show to the great cause of humanity.

Let the good people show how they appreciate this great endeavor to uplift and help those who are less fortunate, and Greenville will have done well, only as it is always expected to do and has done.

"Not to be Ministered unto, but to Minister."

Thoughtful, beautiful, and sublimely sweet. SENEX.

ANOTHER PROBLEM.

Can Brick be Laid up a Hill?

The Greenville Aldermen don't lose any more sleep over knotty problems. If one arises they just take right hold and pull the kinks out of it. They got over that Fifth street house building question all right, so concluded that nothing else will be too hard for them.

Alderman Hart, of the street committee, had in charge the building of sidewalk retaining walls on both sides of the culvert that was sometime ago put in the Academy branch. He wanted the walls built on an incline to correspond with the grade of the hill going each way from the culvert. And right there is where he and the brick mason struck a difference, the mechanic contending that you can't lay brick up a hill, and the Aldermen contending that you can.

The brick layer tussled at it for a day or two, wanting to run the walls level all the time, when he gathered up his tools and quit, leaving the job about half done. This disconcerted the street committee only a little bit. He rested on his oars over Sunday and struck out Monday morning with a new set of hands, and he made them lay brick up the hill, too.

The job is done all right, and Alderman Hart says he is going to have a nice sidewalk there.

Trot out something else hard.

Col. Skinner Visits Senator Pritchard.

Col. Harry Skinner, who has been up the Western road for the past two days (presumably on a visit to Senator Pritchard, with reference to the Eastern district attorneyship), was in Salisbury last night. A Sun reporter could get nothing further from Colonel Skinner than that he had been west on private business.—Salisbury Sun.

The southeastern portion of Kinston was thrown into a state of excitement yesterday morning about 10 o'clock upon learning that Mr. W. B. Burgess, who is employed at Hines Bros. mill, had attempted to end his life by taking carbolic acid. Mr. Burgess had been under the influence of drink for several days. His nerves had almost given away, and he was scarcely responsible for his actions.—Kinston Free Press.

It may be that editors do not as a rule wear diamonds but many of them could afford to if they would conduct their business on the same plan as other business men—that is have pay for what they do and collect what is honestly due them or know the reason why!—Durham Herald.

The directors of the Great Eastern Railway company have recently secured the necessary funds, which will insure the rapid construction of the road from Englehard, Hyde county, via Belle Haven, Washington, Greenville, and Snow Hill to Raleigh.—Washington Messenger.

Fifty Cents a Year Less Than a Penny a Number

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great serials, "TRISTRAM OF BLENT," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "Rosalynde's Lovers," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to excel the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it to-day.

The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly NEWSPAPERS—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to The Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary; the other News.
