DOWN IN FLORIDA.

JENSON, Fla., May 10th, 1901.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I have received quite a number of inquiries from my old friends in Pitt county as to what I have seen and learned of this section of the fair state of Florida. Since writing you last I have, of course, seen and learned much of the country, and must say that I like it better every day.

The price of ordinary labor here is $1.25 to $1.50 per day, 10 hours. Carpenters get from $1.50 to $3 according to their experience and ability. Since coming here I have made from $1.25 to $4.80 per day. Of course I have done some contract work. I do not mean to say every one could come here and do this well, I simply say what I have done.

For a man who wants to make money I know of no better place, especially for young men. This is a new country and a young man could come and grow up with it. There is no trouble to get work most all of the time, and get the cash for it every Saturday night. Everybody here seems to be making money.

The climate is just the finest in the world. We are close to the ocean and enjoy a fine breeze all the time. I never saw a more healthy country or finer water.

The price of land is from $25 to $225 per acre, owing to location, condition, etc. Land that is planted in orange or pineapple trees is worth more.

This is also a fine country for a man who is getting along in years, as people never die here, they simply dry up or blow away.

There are also good public schools here six months in the year and preaching every Sunday.

I will say just here, so that no one may be misled, that the land is not rich. The most of it is too poor to raise a disturbance on. In fact it is so poor that water will not run down a ditch without fertilizer. But when fertilized properly it produces well. Commercial fertilizers are used altogether.

The people here, like in all other countries, are mixed—good and bad. You will find almost every nation represented here, but as a whole I think they are pretty good people. There is one thing I especially like about them, they are down on "old apple jack." In days gone by I thought lots of "old apple jack" myself, but I have decided to lay him on the shelf.

"Speaking of schemes for getting money," said a Charlotte man the other day, "I'll tell you the slickest scheme I ever heard of. I was in Greensboro some time ago, and a rather nice looking fellow came up to me and showed me a bona fide telegram from some place in Illinois stating that his wife was dying and that he must come at once if he ever expected to see her alive again. The fellow said he was out of money and needed assistance. No man refuses an appeal of that kind and I gave him something. In two or three hours he got enough money that I knew of to buy his ticket to Illinois. It turned out afterwards—the game being exposed—that he had a confederate in Illinois to whom he had also been wiring that his wife was dying in Greensboro. The two of them just traveled from place to place and made no end of money on their dirty game."—Charlotte Observer.

The theatrical manager likes to get a run for his money.

It is the rule for boys on the farm to have something all their own. It may be four or five dollars, a colt, a few sheep or some hogs, but whatever it may be, it is theirs, they attend to it, sell it and buy others. The boys on the farm do business for themselves and are taught early in life to rely on themselves. The Toledo Blade thinks it probable that this one fact has much to do in awakening an ambition to go out into the world and widen the sphere of their enterprise. Not only have they self-confidence, but they have the sagacity, earned by experience, which makes them successful in the business and professional world.

Equipped with this experience, not accustomed to watching the clock when something is to be done, caring nothing for an eight-hour day, the young men from the farms go to the cities and, carrying with them their habits of economy and close application, they win. That they do succeed is evidenced in the development of every city and town in the country, for a large per cent of the successful men of affairs were raised on the farm.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.

There are breakers ahead of the Hanna boom for the Republican Presidential nomination, and they are republican breakers, too. With three years of pie distribution ahead, the average republican of prominence, doesn't care to risk his share by offending the chief distributor at this time.

Assistant Secretary of State Hill read the riot act to Minister Conger, as soon as that chattering diplomat reached Washington, and Conger got on his dignity, and his ear. It is understood that he told Mr. Hill that he would not resign, and that unless he was nominated for Governor of Iowa, by the republicans, the administration would have to recall him, if it did not wish him to return to China at the expiration of his present leave of absence.

Mr. Edward Atkinson, of Boston, and Mr. Myron H. Holt, Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, of New York talked tariff reform before the Industrial Commission in a very convincing way. Mr. Atkinson started off by saying that not more than five percent of the people were benefitted by a protective tariff, while the other ninety-five percent had to pay the bills.

The American people, while the trusts rifle their pockets." He expressed the opinion that the tariff was responsible for much corruption in politics and that it was not chance that had landed so many millionaires in Congress. He closed by saying that of the $1,279,000,000 stock and bonds of the United State Steel corporation (The Morgan Steel Trust), about $700,000,000 was water, and that it was, in his opinion, largely due to the protective tariff.

Ex-Representative McAleer, of Pennsylvania, who is in Washington on business, said apropos of the recent Wall street flurry: "A good many years ago, when the craze for buying cil lands was on, I invested $3,300 to get in, as I supposed, on the ground floor. I found later that I had been badly fooled, and out of my investment, I think I saved eventually only about $100. But I was entirely satisfied with my experience. It taught me to keep out of speculation. No man has any business in the stock market; as the recent crash has demonstrated, unless he is thoroughly familiar with the market, and not then unless he has abundant means, so that he can lose all he ventures without feeling the loss."

On All Fours.

The New York Journal of Commerce, discussing with a contemporary the war in the Philippines in its relation to the civil war in the United States, says of the latter:

No right of self-government was involved from the Unionist point of view except so far as the ultimate rights of the negro were involved, and the United States did not draw the sword to emancipate him, much less to endow him with civil rights; those were the ultimate results of military operations and changed political conditions. What was involved in 1861 was simply the sovereignty of the United States over people who wished to govern themselves.

Right! And so it is impossible to understand why Northern people who were in sympathy with the war for the Union should be so outraged on account of the war which the United States are waging in the Philippine Islands. The South fought for self-government; nothing more; not to put its system upon the North, but only to achieve its own independence and to govern itself. The Filipinos are fighting for self-government alone; not to put their system upon the United States, but only for their own independence. The cases are exactly parallel. And so, while Southern people may criticise the war in the Philippines as an unjustifiable invasion of the rights of man, no Northerner who favored the war against the South may be heard to say that it is unjust or without precedent, for his people have done the same thing before, with his approbation. Whether it was better for the South to have its independence, or whether it is better for the Filipinos to have theirs, is neither here nor there. We are not discussing underlying causes nor ultimate effects, but only referring to two parallel cases in history—one current, the other recent.—Charlotte Observer.

Accidental Shooting.

Mrs. J. H. Haddock, a young woman 19 years of age, was terribly shot in the right breast Sunday morning about 9 o'clock at her home near Coahoma, about four miles from Kinston, being accidentally done by Mr. E. F. Smith.

Mr. Smith is an uncle of Mr. Haddock, and lives just opposite his home. A dog at the Haddock home was suspected of hydrophobia, and Mr. Smith was sent to shoot it. He brought a single barrel breech loading gun and shot the dog, which was under the house, one time. Desiring to make his death sure, he took a shell to reload. Mrs. Haddock was standing in the door, about 20 feet away from Mr. Smith. As Mr. Smith attempted to snap the gun back after putting in a shell, the gun fired, the full load of No. 8 shot entering sideways the right breast of Mrs. Haddock.

The cause of the shell firing was that the plunger was too long and scratched the cap of the shells as the gun was snapped back into place.—Kinston Free Press.

Hail Storm.

A telephone message to THE REFLECTOR says that the Ayden section had a terrible hail storm this morning, the worst ever known down there. On many farms the crops were entirely destroyed. Our informant says the storm extended around by Ridge Spring and Hanahan, and also struck a section of Greene county. There was also a tremendous rain.

Information from New Bern says the storm also struck that section and ruined all the truck crops.

Fifty Cents a Year Less Than a Penny a Number

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY
Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great serials, "TRISTRAM OF BLENT," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "Rosalynde's Lovers," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to excel the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it to-day.

The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly NEWSPAPERS—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to The Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary; the other News.

C. E. Rountree and T. A. Duke, representatives of the Greenville Light Infantry, returned Monday evening from Raleigh.

C. S. Campbell, of Richmond, District Freight and Passenger Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, spent Monday night here.

Mrs. A. F. Gurkin, and children, of Greensboro, arrived Monday evening to visit Mrs. J. W. Bryan, in South Greenville.

Misses Mary Pruden, of Edenton and May Wood, of Elizabeth City, who have been visiting Miss Winnie Skinner, left this morning.

J. L. Ludlow, of Winston, came in Monday evening to look after his corps of engineers who are making the survey of the town preparatory to putting in the improvements.

Too Bad.

Carlos Harris, the artist, was painting a large sign on the Third street side of THE REFLECTOR building, when the rain came along this morning and run the colors all together running the letters. The work will all have to be done over.

It Will Take Time.

Some people are inquiring if there will be any digging up of the streets of the town to put in the improvements during the progress of hot weather. Hardly. It will more than likely take most or all of the summer for completing the surveys and placing the contracts ready to begin putting in the improvements.

The Firemen.

Hope Fire Company had a good meeting Monday night, and it was most gratifying to see the members manifesting such an active interest in the company. Enough new members were voted on to bring the roll up to twenty-nine, which is only one less than the constitutional limit. It being the first meeting after election of officers the standing committees were appointed and the nozzlemen, axemen and couplers were assigned to their positions. The company is now in excellent shape.

Going!
Going!
Gone!!

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part,
