NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 18.
Let F. O. Cox ship your potatoes and other truck when ready for market. He is representing best houses in the leading cities. Be sure and give Geo. B. Long & Co., of Buffalo N. Y., where the great Pan-American Exposition is going on a trial.

We are just back from a trip on the road, and are not up with the whereof's and whyfores of our town, but in our next will try to give you a more lengthy account of the whyforeness of the wherewithals.

Orders for Wire Fencing are constantly coming in and the factory for the last few months has had a hard time meeting the demand.

Barnes Summerell, who has been confined to his room with rheumatism was able to be out on the streets yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Manning went to Greenville Thursday.

B. F. Manning and W. B. Nobles attended the Masonic meeting at Ayden on the 16th.

J. E. Green, agent, sells the best truck barrel on the market. Prices guaranteed. See him before buying.

Miss Lucy Galloway, who has been quite unwell for a few days, we are pleased to learn is very much improved.

W. S. Fleming and little daughter, Gladys, of near Greenville spent Thursday night here visiting his daughters, who are pupils in the Winterville High School.

Mrs. Jutry Dail, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Fannie Nichols has returned home.

Miss Laura Overton, of near Stokes, is on a visit to Mrs. B. A. Highsmith.

Will Worthington, our colored barber, was so badly broken out with chicken pox last Saturday that he could not attend to his customers. He is well now and would be pleased to have his patrons call and see him as usual.

A. G. Cox wishes to buy 3 cows and 7 yearlings.

Strong Men.

The Roman soldiers, who built such wonderful roads and carried a weight of armor and luggage that would crush the average farmhand, lived on coarse brown bread and sour wine. They were temperate in diet and regular and constant in exercise. The Spanish peasant works every day, and dances half the night, yet eats only his black bread, onion and watermelon. The Smyrna porters eat only a little fruit and sour olives, yet he walks off with his load of one hundred pounds. The Coolie, fed on rice, is more active and can endure more than the negro, fed on fat meat.

A Slight Attack of cramps may bring on Diarrhoea, which is in many cases, followed by inflammation of the stomach and other dangerous complaints. All such disorders are dangerous and should in their infancy be treated with the best known remedy. The merits of Pain-Killer are known and it is recognized as the standard specific for cramps, diarrhoea, etc. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

All Must Make New Application.

The following letter has been sent to all chairmen of the county boards of pensions, and explains itself:

DEAR SIR: I send you today, under separate cover, the blank pension applications prepared under the law of 1901. You will observe that the pensioners now on the list will have to appear, either in person, or, if unable to do so, by certificate of physician, before your board for examination and approval, together with all new applicants for pensions. This was considered very essential to a proper grading of pensioners, as well as to enable the board to drop from the list the names of those who do not now meet the requirements of the law. I urge upon your board the necessity of a careful scrutiny of each case, to the end that no unworthy man be placed on the roll.

The department has decided, under the advice of the Attorney General, that all widows of Confederate soldiers, now on the pension roll, who were married to said soldiers after the 1st of April, 1865, will have to be dropped from the roll.

I hope you will give full notice through your county papers, and in every way possible, to all Confederate pensioners, and all applicants for pensions, to appear before your county board of pensions at the earliest practicable moment, as the limit for the applicants is the 1st Monday in July, in order that your list may be completed in time to be forwarded to this office by the middle of August.

I regret exceedingly not being able to get the blank application to you earlier; but they have been in the hands of the public printer for quite awhile, and we are forwarding them to you at the earliest possible moment.

Very respectfully,
B. F. DIXON,
Auditor.

A Blacksmith Kills a Hypnotized Subject.

Woonsocket, R. I., May 16—During an exhibition of hypnotism given by Prof. Frank Farnsworth and wife, of Fitchburg, at the opera house tonight, one of the subjects, Thomas Bolton, also of Fitchburg, was killed. Mr. Bolton was resting between two chairs with a 600 pound stone on his body. A local blacksmith, Clifford Trask, attempted to break the stone with a sledge hammer. The chair on which Bolton's head rested, gave way and the subject fell to the floor, the stone crushing his head. He died shortly afterward.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds, T. R. Moore, issued only two marriage licenses this week, both of them being for colored couples. They were Aaron Eaton and Nancy Brown, Green Barnhill and Maggie Smith.

Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.—Its valuable properties as a speedy cure for pain cannot fail to be generally appreciated, and no family should be without it in case of accident, or sudden attack of dysentery, diarrhoea or cholera morbus. Sold everywhere. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

SATURDAY MAY 18, 1901.

Mrs. Virginia B. Y. Swepson, who died in Raleigh a few days ago, left an estate valued at nearly $200,000. In her will she gave $50,000 to education and charity, $25,000 of it being to the Baptist University at Raleigh and $17,000 to Wake Forest College.

Beginning July 1st and continuing for four weeks a teachers' institute for Greene and Pitt counties will be held at Winterville. There will no doubt be a large attendance of teachers and others throughout the entire session. It is more than likely that this institute would have come to Greenville if there had been a suitable building here in which to hold it. But as there was no such building here this town could not even be considered in the selection of a place. If Greenville had her graded school there would be suitable buildings for holding such assemblies, and we would not have to see small towns like Winterville going ahead of us in such things. The fact of Greenville not having a school building worthy the name ought to make every citizen in favor of the graded school.

We understand that there are a few of our citizens who yet have some misapprehension about the clerical error contained in the graded school bill in which the tax clause was made to read not less than 10 cents nor more than 50 cents on the $1.00 valuation, instead of on the $100 valuation as the original bill read when introduced. Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes wrote that the intent of the bill was so clear that our people need give themselves no concern about this clerical error, and that Governor Aycock and Attorney General Gilmer both concurred with him in this opinion. So THE REFLECTOR thinks that any fears our people may have that an excessive tax may be levied under the bill are groundless. The levying of the tax will be made by the Board of Aldermen on the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the school, and surely the gentlemen composing these Boards are men of too much judgment to have even an inclination to recommend or levy an excessive tax. The intent of the bill is to have a good graded school in Greenville, properly conducted without undue burden upon the people for maintaining it, and this is the view taken by those interested in it. The duty of every one who wants to see Greenville have such a school is to vote for it Tuesday.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.

Such of the Washington relics which were taken from Arlington House at the beginning of the civil war, and which have been on exhibition in the National Museum for some years, as the desired were this week turned over to Miss Mary Otis Lee, representing her brother Gen. G. W. C. Lee, their legal owner, by the U. S. Government. Several of the relics, including one of Washington's tents, a treasure chest, a lantern, and a glass candelabra, were left in the National Museum, subject to the order of the owner. Gen Fitz Lee, her cousin, accompanied Miss Lee in her visit to the museum. The final disposition of the articles removed from the museum has not been determined upon. This act of rightful restitution has not seriously injured the Washington exhibit, in the museum, as many of the articles were large pieces of furniture, which have been stored away and others were duplicates which properly belong to the government.

The alleged investigation of the commissary stealing, at Manila, is resulting in the old, old story. Some insignificant persons are being made scapegoats and the big thieves who have a pull, are not touched. Friends of the administration are pointing to the sentence of a sergeant to three years imprisonment and of a civilian employe to five years, as showing that the thieves are being punished, but thoughtful persons regard that news as indicating that the thieves only are to be punished, while the big thieves are left at liberty to enjoy the fruits of their thefts.

Ex-Governor McCreary, Chairman of the Kentucky State Democratic Committee, is in Washington. Asked what the democratic outlook in this State was, he replied: "The party is thoroughly organized throughout the State and is in perfect harmony. At no time has there been a better feeling within the party. At the election this fall I think we will carry the state by fifteen or twenty thousand, having a majority in both branches of the legislature, and a large majority on joint ballot. The legislature then elected will choose a U. S. Senator. If this prediction as to the legislature holds good, Gov. McCreary will be a candidate to succeed Senator Deboe. Speaking of republican claims of many converts in the South and the alleged growth of republican sentiment in that section, Gov. McCreary said: "I know that in Kentucky the tendency is not toward the adoption of republican policies. On the contrary, democratic sentiment is growing stronger. I observe that this is true also of Alabama, where I am familiar with conditions, and I believe that democratic sentiment is growing stronger in the South generally. The Southern people do not believe in high protection, in colonization, in a large standing army, nor in trusts. The more closely the republican party becomes identified with colonization, as exemplified in the Philippines; with the maintenance of a large standing army, and with the trusts the stronger becomes the spirit of democracy in the South. The Southern people do not believe in these things and can have no sympathy with a party that is identified with them." The administration deserves all the sympathy it is getting for the

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 20, 1899.
After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.
Mrs. MARGARET FORD.

Going!
Going!
Gone!!

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
