We Beg Your Pardon

We have an apology to make in connection with our goods but its on the score of prices. They are so low we feel almost ashamed to quote them. Come let us whisper the prices in your ear. They are so low you cannot hear them from the outside. Few pieces of New White Goods just arrived.

Yours to please,

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 25.
The closing exercises of the Winterville High School passed off as pleasantly and successfully as could be desired. Every feature was a success. The sermon of Rev. Mr. Jenkins on Thursday night was specially adapted to the occasion and displayed much though worthy of consideration. The address of Mr. Simms is commended by every one and left an impression upon the minds of all who heard him that will prove both beneficial and lasting. The exercises by the children showed much care and painstaking on the part of their teachers. Indeed the whole was a complete success and the prospects for the coming session are bright indeed.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the school all the teachers employed during the past session were engaged for the next term and it was decided to add two more to the faculty. The enrollment for the term was 152, of whom 39 were boarding pupils. This is gratifying for the first session. The new dormitory will be completed before the opening of the next session so that many more pupils can be accommodated.

For the past few days our town has been crowded to overflowing with visitors in attendance upon the commencement and we are glad to note everyone expresses themselves as highly pleased with their visit.

On last Wednesday there were two marriages here. At 4 p. m. Mr. Enos Dail and Miss Julia Grimsley were united in marriage at the home of J. F. Harrington, Eld. C. L. Little officiating. At 8:30 p. m. Squire G. W. Parker performed the ceremony that united for life W. B. Wingate and Mrs. Mary Braxton.

Editors King and Whichard have been in attendance upon the commencement and left for their homes this morning.

There have been so many here for the past few days that we will not in justice to all make any special mention. Suffice it that lovely maiden and youth were on every hand. The older one's too were here and each seemed to vie with the other in adding pleasure to the occasion. We had a large and nice crowd.

[It was our pleasure to be present at the concert Friday night with which the commencement came to a close, and we were deeply impressed with the excellence of the exercises. The music, recitations and declamations were all splendid, reflecting credit upon both teachers and pupils. The school building is admirably arranged and well furnished, and Winterville may well be proud of such a school.

Before leaving Winterville we also had an opportunity of going through the mammoth manufacturing establishments there and were astonished at the magnitude of the work going on. It is no wonder that Winterville attracts such attention all over the country.

The End of the Century Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Book Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. E. A. Moye, Jr. After the business was disposed of Mrs. W. F. Harding read a delightful and entertaining paper on the famous women of China.

The guessing contest was in the form of a musical romance, the answers to the questions being the name of some familiar song. Miss Woolford added much to the pleasure and knowledge of the contestants by playing the accompaniments to some of the songs. Miss Mary Moye answered the largest number of questions and won the prize.

After partaking of elegant refreshments, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. F. Harding on June 4th.

Cup Changers Wrecked.

Southampton, Eng., May 22.—In the trial races between Shamrock I and II, Shamrock II collapsed in a squall and is a complete wreck.

The yacht is both unfit for further racing and is a complete loss.

Shamrock I is also badly wrecked.

This blasts all hopes of Sir Thomas Lipton's contesting for the America cup this year.

King Edward was on the Shamrock. He was on deck and narrowly escaped death. The topmast, mainmast and bowsprit were broken off short. The topmast was carried and the mainmast followed.

Directions for Colic in Horses.

Contents of small bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in quart bottle, add pint warm or cold water, sweeten with molasses, shake well until all mixed, and drench well. Give about half at once, then balance in 10 or 15 minutes, if first dose is not sufficient. This will be found a never failing remedy. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.

The poo bah of the army and the idol pink teas, officially known as Adjutant General Corbin, has scored again. He will go a-junketing to the Philippines, and he will go clothed with authority to make any changes in quartering or providing for the soldiers that he may see fit without referring them to Washington for approval—authority which properly belongs only to the commander of the army, and which, as a matter of fact, Gen. Miles has never been allowed to exercise. It is announced that Gen. Corbin is to go to the Philippines as the personal representative of Mr. McKinley and Secretary Root; that he is charged by the latter with the duty of arranging a cheap scheme for the maintenance of the army in the Philippines, which can be put in the annual report of the Secretary of War in the shape of a recommendation for Congressional action, and by the former with the task of finding out anything that can be made use of in his annual message to Congress. Wonderful man, that fellow Corbin! If he had not got into the army, society, and politics, he might have made a first-class confidence man. When it comes to persuading somebody over him to give him what he wants he never fails.

Representative Davis, of the Jacksonville, Florida, district is in Washington. He says the people of Jacksonville are meeting the great disaster visited upon the city in the same spirit that the orange growers of Florida met the destruction of all their orange trees by frost in 1894—a disaster three times as costly as the Jacksonville fire,—and that the city will be rapidly reconstructed.

Col. John G. Madison, of Kentucky, expresses himself very vigorously about Ex-Gov. Taylor. For instance, he said: "Kentucky stands in a false position before the nation today. Within the state itself there has been almost a complete revulsion of such public sentiment as was opposed to the efforts to apprehend Taylor and bring him to trial, but outside people know nothing of this, or so little about it that it has not altered the impression that Taylor is the victim of persecution. Many men who even yet hold Taylor blameless for the death of Goebel, now believe that for the good of the State he should surrender himself for trial. The testimony of former Gov. Bradley, and others, has intended to dispel the belief that a Goebel suspect cannot get a fair trial in Ky., and they concede that if Taylor is innocent he has everything to lose and nothing to gain by being brought to trial. At the time of Goebel's death there was no doubt more or less thirst for revenge and a determination that someone should be made to suffer for his murder, but all that is now passed. Kentuckians are proud of their state and its good name, and to a man they realize that any injustice in the case of Taylor would be quickly taken up and made the pretext of attacks on the commonwealth. If Taylor will surrender himself, he can have as fair a trial in Kentucky as he could in the District of Columbia, and should be acquitted, he can live in the State in perfect safety and at peace with his neighbors."

The first annual report of Gov. Allen, of Porto Rica, has been made public. Naturally, he says the government of which he is the head is the best that could have been given the island, and incidentally he tosses a few bouquets at Congress for its part of the work. He explains the lack of progress on the island by stating the ease with which its natural products support the natives without work. This may be true, but it doesn't exactly square with the cabled departure of 400 Porto Rican laborers for Hawaii, where they hope to make a better living than they have been able to do at home, which appeared in the papers at the same time that Gov. Allen's report did.

TRAINING HORSES.

Preparing the New Animals For the Circus Ring.

All through the winter circus men are training the animals for new tricks for the next summer. The winter is by no means an idle time. Training horses for the ring is interesting work. The first thing done is to put the new horses in the stables with the old circus horses to get them used to their new company, and a queer thing noticed is that the old horses are jealous of the newcomers.

A great deal of patience and time is required to train the horses to run around the ring. They are blindfolded and taught to run around the ring in a circle. The natural tendency of the horse is to run straight, and it is a hard thing for him to learn. A system of checks and lines makes the training easier than formerly.

The horse is an observant animal and apt to see what he sees another horse do. When the blindfold is removed he is placed alongside an old trained horse, and the man who is to ride the new animal does tricks with the old ones, then tries them on the pupil. A good, intelligent horse soon learns and actually helps his rider.

Horses are very sensitive to applause and with that stimulus will do twice as much work as without. They are just as likely to lose their heads as human performers and have to be carefully watched. A well trained ring horse is easily worth $1,000, and riders who are stars usually own their horses. The most careful attention is given these animals. Before each act their backs are rubbed with resin, which has to be washed off afterward.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Spoiling Cooks and Farmers by Educating (?) Negroes.

The negroes and the State would be mutually benefited if a large part of the money now expended upon the educating of the negroes was used to make them skilled farm laborers and good cooks.—Charlottesville Progress.

One excellent way to accomplish those desirable purposes is to quit catching them when young with the idea of making classical scholars of them. We spoil both the cook and the farmer and do not acquire a scholar. Yet, it must be admitted that the Southern States have been educating the negroes to worthiness, and even to crime, in that way.—Newport News Herald.

The press rules this land. There is no shadow of doubt about that. We hear about the influence of this man or that man, but his influence consists in how much he can influence the press or some section of it. The power that the press exercises is not heralded with a blast of trumpets. It comes quietly, unnoticed, unthought of. But the silent forces are the powerful ones. The editorial responsibility is greater than that of any other calling, and the aggregate responsibility of the press of this country is greater than that of all the other professions combined. Whatever, comes, comes through its influence.—Greensboro Telegram.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1900.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it.

Honors for Miss Patrick.

This morning THE REFLECTOR received a telegram from Gilmore Ward Bryant, Director of the Southern Conservatory of Music, at Durham stating that Miss Bessie Patrick had passed the Southern Conservatory examinations before the board of examiners, making a grade of 99. This is most gratifying to Miss Patrick's host of friends here at home, and all congratulate her upon attaining such high distinction.

Horse Killed.

This morning a colored boy was riding a horse belonging to Sam Allen. When about to turn the corner of the court house square, on Third and Evans streets, the horse stumbled and fell sideways on an iron post that had been placed at the corner to protect the tree. This post, which was an old buggy axle, stuck through the horse's body, going in one shoulder and coming out at the other. The animal had to be shot to end its suffering.

The Stomach of Man is subject to a dozen such common but painful afflictions as cramps, cholera morbus, and dysentery, that, by neglect, may be made chronic and dangerous. The best, handiest surest, and quickest remedy is Pain-Killer, a medicine which has been tried for more than a half of a century and never failed to give relief. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Going!
Going!
Gone!!

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
