AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C., May 29.

Is our town of so little importance that it cannot be represented in the good old 'REFLECTOR'? Please listen, now and hear what is happening in Ayden.

Our town was thronged last week with visitors to attend the commencement at C. C. College. We were indebted to Miss Myrtle Moon, teacher of music, and Miss Lizzie Anderson, elocution teacher, for the concert on the evening of the 6th. The address was delivered on Friday at eleven o'clock, by Dr. Wm. Edwin Hall, of New York City. His subject was: "The Evolution of a Girl." It was highly enjoyed by a large audience. Prof. Manning entertained us with an interesting programme on Friday evening.

Miss Myrtle Taylor, of Kinston, is stopping with Mrs. Bob Smith for a few days.

W. J. Nichols, of Greenville, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Delia Smith returned home Thursday. She had been teaching for the past few months at Rochdale.

Miss Nelie Joyner, of Rochdale, came in on Thursday's train to visit friends at Smith Hotel. To the regret of her many friends she returned home Saturday.

E. V. Cox returned Friday from Edenton where he had been to attend the Episcopal Convention.

Jesse L. Smith and Mills Smith came down from Rochdale Friday to attend the closing exercises of C. C. College.

Mrs. B. P. Willoughby and Miss Caroline Little, of Rochdale, came in Thursday to visit the family of C. L. Tyson. They left for home Saturday.

Messrs. Yelverton and Sauls, of Fremont, were the guests of Smith Hotel a few days last week. Mr.

Sauls is father of our enterprising druggist.

Miss Rosa Willoughby, who attended school here, returned to her home at Rochdale Monday.

Miss Nancy Coward is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Dixon.

Miss Betsey Mayo, of Mildred, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Harry Burton, in South Ayden.

G. J. Cherry, president of the Ayden Lumber Co., is registered at Smith Hotel.

Lots of drummers were stopping in town last week.

We are soon to hear the chimes of wedding bells in our midst.

T. E. Mayo, John Staton and Chas. Whichard, of Bethel spent Friday night in town.

[We are more than glad to have these interesting items from the prosperous town of Ayden, and hope the writer of them will become our regular correspondent and send items often.—Ed.]

WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1901.

Judge W. A. Hoke is the right man on the Bench. He makes the lawyers know their business and does not allow them to waste the time of the court. He is an excellent Judge.

The papers continue to print accounts of the recent flood in the western portion of the State. The reports are appalling. Such great damage was done that an appeal for aid for the stricken sections has been made. The loss is estimated above a million dollars.

The high water in the Roanoke river has broken the dyke to the Caledonia State farm and flooded the low land adjacent to the river. We hear that the Norfolk & Carolina railroad are afraid to run trains across the Roanoke river bridge and are making transfers at the river.

To test their personal popularity and the ideas represented by each, Senators McLaurin and Tillman, of South Carolina, have agreed to resign and go before the people of their State in a primary to see which shall be returned to the United States Senate. It is not any of our fight, but there is a possibility that both of them might get a chance to stay home and see their seats occupied by others.

There was a sensation in court at Statesville a few days ago. The suit was in progress of Long vs. the Southern Railway for the killing of the plaintiff's son, B. F. Long, Jr., when it was discovered by counsel for plaintiff that an effort was being made to bribe some of the jurors. One of the jurors had spent a night with a law agent of the railway and an outsider had been secured to use his influence on another juror. Judge Brown made a rule of contempt against them and when the matter was heard by the court Monday morning the law agent was sentenced to jail for 20 days and to pay a fine of $100, the juror who spent the night with him was fined $50, and the man who tried to influence the other juror was sentenced to 20 days in jail. They all appealed to Supreme Court.

We hear that some farmers are offering 75 cents a day for hands to chop cotton. Grass is crowding the plants.

The Constitution Follows the Flag.

Washington, May 27.—The United States Supreme Court this afternoon handed down its decisions in the Porto Rico cases. The first decision was in the De Lina case. The court held that in that case the Government contention that Porto Rico was foreign territory at the time the tariff was passed, is correct. Justice Brown read the decision. Its effect is that "The Constitution follows the Flag where it waves."

The opinion is opposed to the contention of Government. Justice Brown concluded that at time the duties were collected Porto Rico was a territory and not a foreign country, but a territory of the United States.

Justice McKenna delivered a dissenting opinion. He was joined in that by Justices Shiras and White.

The judgment of the Court concludes:

"We are unable to acquiesce in the assumption that a territory may be at the same time both foreign and domestic. The judgment of the Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York is therefore reversed and the case remanded to that court for further proceedings in consonance with this opinion."

The Hard To Please.

There ain't no pleasin' people on this bloomin' earth below; In the meltin' days o' summer they're hollerin' fer snow! An' when the snow comes siffin' through the winders o' the sky, They're hollerin' fer summer an' weather hot an' dry!

It's this way on the hilltop, it's this way on the plain: The craps are gittin' dusty; good Lord, send down the rain! An' when the rain is fallin' weather's lookin' rough, It's "Wonder if they'll dorw us? We done had rain enoug!"

There ain't no pleasin' people, no no matter what you do— No matter what good fortune, they growl a life time through; An' when they leave this country to seek the final lot, Heaven won't be cool enough fer them an' t'other place too hot!

An Old Man Paralyzed.

Mr. Guilford Harris, who lives about 3 miles from town, suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday afternoon. He is perhaps the oldest man in the county, being in his 92nd year. About ten years ago he lost his eyesight.

Should McLaurin, of South Carolina be defeated (than which nothing is more certain) the Administration would not fail to take care of its own. If no Commission-ership should be vacant it would be easy to make a new one, with a good round salary attached. In the absence of a Commission-ership McLaurin could be given one of the South Carolina post offices of which he has a supply for distribution.—Philadelphia Record.

Voluntarily and Conscientiously, and with much pleasure we recommend to our readers Pain-Killer. We speak from experience when we say that it removes pain as if by magic, and is one of the best medicines in use for diarrhea. It is applied both internally and externally, and none who have used it would willingly be without it in their homes. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

BRICK.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Showers tonight. Thursday probably showers and warmer.

A STEP AT THE TIME.

Begin With the Shorter Ones and They Get Longer.

Tomorrow is Federal memorial day.

Almost time for potato shipments.

Limeades at Bryan & Nichols Drug Store.

Screen Doors and Windows at Ormond & Carr's.

Services in the Baptist and Methodist churches tonight.

Cigars and Cheroots at Reflector Book Store, on the corner.

It clouded up again Tuesday night and gave us another hard rain.

If you have not registered for the town election attend to it tomorrow.

If you want good brick read the advertisement of L. Harvey & Son, Kinston.

Frank Wilson has put up a mammoth clothing sign on the side of his store.

The colored people had an excursion from here to Tarboro today. A large crowd went.

The river is getting very high. It is touching the floor of the bridge at the north end next to the dam.

The Greenville boys are planning to go to Kinston next week to play ball with the boys of that town.

See Ormond & Carr before buying your Ice Cream Freezer. They have White Mountain, Peerless and Iceland.

The highest praise has been given me by those to whom I have sold the Standard Sewing Machine. S. M. SCHULTZ.

If Greenville wants a 4th of July celebration those interested or willing to lead in the matter should get together soon and put the matter in motion.

The river here is still rising, but it yet lacks several feet of being up to the high water mark. It is falling at Rocky Mount and will probably not go much higher here.

The Government surveyors who were recently here making the geological survey, placed a tablet in the side of the court house showing that Greenville is 68 feet above the sea level.

The members of the Christian church will hold prayer meeting in the new church Thursday evening at 8:30, instead of at the residence of Mr. Ed Moore as was announced last week.

It is important that those who go on excursions for pleasure or health should make some provisions against the attacks of bowel diseases, which not only cause them great inconvenience, but are sometimes fatal in their results. A bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is, we have found, a most effectual remedy against such attacks. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1890.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Brought when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

For Greene and Pitt Counties.

The counties of Greene and Pitt will hold a Teacher's Institute at Winterville, Pitt County, N. C., beginning on Monday, July 1st, 1901, and continuing four weeks.

There will be four regular teachers and all the public school branches of studies will be taught daily. Some of the higher studies may be arranged for by teachers who desire to do so.

Lectures by prominent educators and public men will be had each night. All teachers of each county will be required to attend as is shown by the following clause in the present school law:

Part of Section 26, School Law of 1901—All teachers of any county in which such institute is held are hereby required to attend the same continuously during the session thereof; and upon failure to do so, unless providentially hindered, shall be debarred from teaching in any of the public schools of this State for the term of one year, or until such teacher shall have attended some county institute in some other county.

This requirement will be rigidly enforced by the Superintendents of the two counties.

Winterville is noted for its healthfulness, not even a case of fever known there for the past two years. The water from the mineral well is similar to the Seven Springs water, No. 1.

No charge for tuition, Board $8.00 per month.

The text books used will be those to be used in the schools next fall.

You are hereby notified to attend at the first day's session.

Supt. Schools, Greene County,
W. H. RAGSDALE,
Supt. Schools, Pitt County.
