Quality and Price.

As a punishment should fit a crime, so in year-round merchandising should fit price. A fair minded and reasonable trading public expect this. They have a right to expect it. Money is often hard earned, and should be given a chance to do full duty when it is spent. Kindly match your dollars against our merchandising and note in the wear and tear how anxious this store is to serve you with truest economy,

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C. June, 3.

The debated information (due to the cutting off of communication) concerning the amount of damage and destruction wrought by the floods and storms during the past two weeks in our State tell a story of disaster that is simply appalling, so much greater was the fearful havoc than any of us even imagined.

The information now at hand tells us that in the one county of Mitchell alone the loss exceeds a million dollars, $100,000 of it falling upon the people of the little town of Bakersville. Over 500 houses were washed away and practically destroyed. Great suffering is the natural result, and of necessity an appeal has been made to the outside public. It should be liberally responded to—for these sufferers are our own people and the outstretched hand of relief should be as prompt as helpful.

I cannot undertake to itemize within the limits of this letter the hundreds of localities that have suffered. Suffice it to say that it makes one's heart sick to read the awful stories that are now coming to hand. Let's do all we can to aid the unfortunate victims to their feet again. And let the sufferers themselves pluck up courage and take heart anew—remembering that God always helps those who try to help themselves, and that He despises a "quitter."

NEW TRIAL IN GATTIS—KILGO CASE.

An appeal of general interest to people all over the State has just been decided by the Supreme Court whereby Dr. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Messrs B. N. Duke of Durham and W. R. Odell of Concord, the defendants in the libel suit for damages brought by Rev. Mr. Gattis, of Durham, at Granville Superior Court last fall, got a new trial.

The Granville jury awarded Gattis damages in the sum of $20,000, after one of the hottest of legal contests, because of the publication by the trustees of that college of the speech of Dr. Kilgo in refutation of charges brought against him by Gattis and Judge Walter Clark, and which publication the plaintiff claimed contained libelous statements concerning the plaintiff Gattis.

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Last Friday a dispatch was received from Washington concerning the growth of industries in North Carolina, as computed by the director of the new census, and some of the daily papers published under big headlines the astonishing statement that the "value of the manufactured products of North Carolina now amount to over $9,000,000," and thought that was a big thing! The director of the census had said so. Nine millions indeed! Why, the value manufactured product of the 250 textile mills in North Carolina alone is worth fully fifty million—and more. The raw product itself—the 400,000 bales of cotton (of the 500,000 bales grown in the State consumed by these mills—is worth $16,000,000 before a pound of it touches a spindle!

Base Ball.

Saturday's games in the Carolina and Virginia League did not alter the stand of Wilmington and Newport News, they both winning and losing a game and continuing to hold first and second place respectively. Raleigh moved up one notch higher and now stands third.

Standing of the Clubs:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Wilmington	25	16	610
Newport News	23	15	605
Raleigh	22	19	537
Norfolk	21	19	525
Portsmouth	18	23	439
Richmond	11	28	282

Gone to Washington.

The first nine base ball team left here today on the boat for Washington where they play a game this afternoon. The line up was as follows:

- J. I. Smith, c.
- George Sugg, p.
- T. A. Duke, 1st b.
- George J. Woodward, 2nd b.
- Gus Forbes, 3rd b.
- Ray Tyson, s. s.
- R. C. White, r. f.
- C. C. Skinner, c. f.
- D. C. James, l. f.
- Subs.—H. A. Timberlake, I. A. Sugg, Jr.

What Takes the Trick.

In The Advisor a successful advertiser states that he has never been impressed by publishers who are unable to point to the number instead of merely to the quality of their readers. "To be successful he maintains, "the advertiser, must have the most circulation for the least money. The widest circulation at the lowest cost per line for each thousand of circulation takes the trick."

Gus Salisbury, of Hamilton, is visiting here.

factured products of the cotton mills, tobacco factories—about 12,000,000 pounds manufactured at Winston (chewing) and nearly as much (smoking and cigarettes at Durham—furniture factories, cotton-seed oil mills, etc., etc., foot up a total of over $125,000,000 each year. And yet we are gravely informed by the census bureau that our "manufactured products amounts to $9,000,000," and some of our "leading daily" papers print such rot as "news" under a big five-decker head!

OUR SPLENDID A. AND M. COLLEGE.

During the past week the annual commencement exercises of the Agricultural and Mechanical College were held here, and twenty three young men formed the graduating class. Five of them delivered orations, which in matter and manner of delivery would have done credit to much older heads, and reflected the highest credit upon this splendid institution and its able president, Dr. George T. Winston, and his able corps of assistants. Governor Aycock delivered the diplomas to the graduates.

Mayor's Court

MONDAY, JUNE 3, 1901.

Decency in Journalism.

This is worth a place at the top of the column in every paper in the land as standing matter. It is from the Hillsboro Observer, and Bro. Harriss hits the nail as squarely as it was ever struck.

The Observer says: "We have always tried to conduct our paper in such away as to spare the feelings of the innocent and not because we wanted to hide the meanness of the guilty."

And upon a par with the publications thus condemned, are those which by direct misstatement or innendo, slander people, imputing wrong and mischievous motives, stating or implying what is known by the writers to be false.

The contention of the faith curists or Christian Scientists that they cured Mrs. McKinley by the "absent treatment" is one of the most amusing things of the time.

No, Maude, dear, it doesn't require a musical conductor to lead a rubber band.

Speaking of autographs, it's the man with a big bank account whose signature is most valuable.

RICHARD WATSON GILDER'S INSCRIPTIONS.

The Pen of the Gifted Editor Gives a Finishing Touch to the Exposition. He Proclaims a Prophecy and Pronounces a Benediction.

When the people of the two Americas visit the Exposition city just erected "by the great waters of the North," many will recognize the style of Richard Watson Gilder in the classic and poetic inscriptions which adorn its Propylaea, Stadium, bridges, palaces and temples.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE PROPYLAEA.

PANEL I. Here, by the great waters of the north, are brought together the peoples of the two Americas, in exposition of their resources, industries, products, inventions, arts and ideas.

PANEL II.

That the century now begun may unite in the bonds of peace, knowledge, good will, friendship and noble emulation all the dwellers on the continents and islands of the new world.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE STADIUM.

PANEL I. Not ignoble are the days of peace, not without courage and laureled victories.

PANEL II.

He who falls bravely has not truly failed, but is himself also a conqueror.

PANEL III.

Who shuns the dust and sweat of the contest, on his brow falls not the cool shade of the olive.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE GREAT PYLONS OF THE BRIDGE.

On the pylons are statues of Courage, Liberty, Tolerance, Truth, Benevolence, Patriotism, Hospitality and Justice.

PANEL I.

The spirit of adventure is the maker of commonwealths.

PANEL II.

Freedom is but the first lesson in self government.

PANEL III.

Religious tolerance a safeguard of civil liberty.

PANEL IV.

A free state exists only in the virtue of the citizen.

PANEL V.

Who gives wisely builds manhood and the state—who gives himself gives best.

PANEL VI.

To love one's country above all others is not to despise all others.

PANEL VII.

The brotherhood of man—the federation of nations—the peace of the world.

PANEL VIII.

Between nation and nation as between man and man lives the one law of right.

DEDICATORY INSCRIPTIONS UPON PRINCIPAL BUILDINGS.

PANEL I.

To the ancient races of America, for whom the new world was the old, that their love of freedom and of nature, their hardy courage, their monuments, arts, legends and strange songs, may not perish from the earth.

PANEL II.

To the explorers and pioneers who blazed the westward path of civilization, to the soldiers and sailors who fought for freedom and for peace and to the civic heroes who save a priceless heritage.

PANEL III.

To the great inventors and farseeing projectors, to the engineers, manufacturers, agriculturists and merchants who have developed the resources of the new world and multiplied the homes of freemen.

PANEL IV.

To those who in the deadly mine, on stormy seas, in the fierce breath of the furnace and in all perilous places working ceaselessly bring to their fellow men comfort, sustenance and the grace of life.

PANEL V.

To the scholars and laborious investigators who in the old world and the new guard the lamp of knowledge and century by century increase the safety of life, enlighten the mind and enlarge the spirit of man.

PANEL VI.

To those painters, sculptors and architects, tellers of tales, poets and creators of music, to those actors and musicians who in the new world have cherished and increased the love of beauty.

PANEL VII.

To the prophets and heroes, to the mighty poets and artists and to all the bearers of the human world who through our forefathers and our fathers and ourselves have brought to the world the light of truth and the dawn of a new day.

PANEL VIII.

To the statesmen, philosophers, teachers and preachers and to all those who in the new world have upheld the ideals of liberty and justice and have been faithful to the things that are eternal.

The Feet of His Face.

An amusing story is told at the expense of Winston Churchill, the author. An old lady seeing the picture of Churchill displayed in the window of a Baltimore bookstall, inquired of a bystander whom it represented.

"Winston Churchill" was the reply. "Where does he preach?" Being told that Mr. Churchill was not a preacher, he asked: "Ain't he? What did you say his name is?"

"Winston Churchill. He writes novels." "Does what?" "Writes novels."

The man shook his head with a look of pity and declared: "Too bad! Too bad! He has a good face."

Unwise Policy of Railroads.

It would seem, that viewed from the standpoint of ordinary common sense, it would be to the interest of the railroads to give notice in advance of the changing of schedules. Certainly the public has a right to such notice, as they are liable to be inconvenienced by not having it; and we are utterly unable to see any good reason for withholding such information.

It is a passing strange that the railroad people cannot see that it is to their advantage to take the public more fully into their confidence about matters which concern their patrons. For instance, when accidents occur, or for any other reason trains are delayed, the railroad people are dumb; they will tell nothing. This causes irritation and prejudice against railroads when it could all be avoided by simply giving a statement of such facts as are in their possession.—Statesville Landmark.

Farmville High School.

The closing exercises of Farmville High School will take place on the 12th and 13th. The concert takes place the night of the 12th, and the literary address will be delivered by Prof. J. Y. Joyner on the 13th at 11 a. m.

Town Election.

The town election for Aldermen passed off quietly today in all the wards. There was no opposition at all to the Democratic nominees in the second, third and fourth wards, so they got all votes. In the first and fifth wards, where the colored people are largely in majority, there was a division and two candidates were voted for. We go to press too early to give the vote today.

A Christian Science College.

The Secretary of State has refused a charter to a proposed Christian Science College. The application said the college was to educate and graduate its students in the science of treating diseases without the use of medicine or surgery; to practice same and educate and authorize them to teach and practice same; to confer upon each of said students, as its faculty thinks proper any or all of the following degrees, namely: Doctor of physics, therapeutics, suggestive therapeutics, mental therapeutics, magic therapeutics, hypnotic therapeutics, anatomy diagnosis, professional muse, psychological therapeutics and metaphysical therapeutics.

AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C., June 3.

Great preparations are being made for the Free Will Baptist Seminary commencement this week.

E. V. Cox went to Greenville Wednesday.

Stancel Hodges who has been teaching at C. C. College returned to his home near Washington Friday. His many friends will be glad to welcome him back when the fall session opens.

J. J. Stroud came down from Greenville Tuesday night.

J. T. Smith and Miss Delia Smith spent Friday in Greenville.

Miss Cena Horton, of Farmville, is visiting her brother, Albert Horton, in South Ayden.

M. M. Sauls and wife went to Greenville Thursday.

Dr. H. H. Hunter, of Virginia, is stopping in town for a few days.

G. J. Cherry returned to Parmele Friday.

Christain Church.

There were no happier people in Greenville Sunday than the members of the Christian church on the opening of their new house of worship. And the friends who rejoice with them are legion. In fact all are glad that their handsome edifice is completed. It is a building that reflects credit upon the town and is an honor to the church.

Sunday was a beautiful day for holding the first service in the new church, and the large congregation that gathered to worship with them filled the building. The music was excellent, Rev. D. W. Davis, the pastor, preached a splendid sermon, and the entire service was heartily enjoyed.

Services will be held every night this week and possibly longer, Dr. Motley, the State Evangelist, will arrive Tuesday to conduct the meeting. All are cordially invited to the services.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
