BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C., June 5, 1901.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. of Winterville came over Tuesday and laid the corner stone of Bethel High School. Address was made by Prof Ragsdale, of Greenville.

Bethel was visited by another death last Friday, the person taken being Mrs. W. A. Mangum. She was well one hour and the next was in the glory land above. She leaves a neice to grieve for her to whom we all extend sympathy.

Miss Eunice Cox, of Goldsboro, who has been visiting friends at Winterville, returned Tuesday to this place to spend a few days with Rev. J. W. Rose and family and will leave for Goldsboro Thursday.

E. S. Hilliard, of Scotland Neck, delivered the closing address at the High School on Tuesday morning.

E. L. Mayo, of Conetoe, was in town today.

J. D. Blount returned to Rocky Mount today.

Bethel High School turned out one of the grandest commencements that Bethel has ever experienced. Next school term will begin first Monday in September, 1901, with Prof. Z. D. McWhorter in charge.

People are now shipping potatoes in this section.

A. J. Moore and John White, of Greenville, spent Tuesday at this place.

W. J. Nichols, of Greenville, is sporting his best girl over in this place.

V. E. Staton spent Mouday in Greenville.

$1,000 Offered for an Honest Man.

Mrs. Henry B. Irving, a book publisher, has started out to emulate Diogenes in her search for an honest man. She believes in an impossibility to live a strictly honest business or professional life under the present conditions of society.

To prove the point Mrs. Irving offers to deposit $1,000 in a Chicago bank, which will be paid to the first business or professional man who can prove conclusively that he has carried on his work for a month without lying. She is anxious to prove the point because of a book she has in view.

Mrs. Irving will name two men, the man who thinks he holds the title to the $1,000 may name two and a fifth will be named by these four. They will act as judges upon the business record of the claimant, trusting him to tell his own story and give all the evidence. Mrs. Irving thinks that she will not lose the $1,000. If she does she is quite certain the honesty of the man who gets it will have reduced him to such poverty that he will need it.—Chicago Dispatch.

Married.

Mr. T. H. Bateman and Mrs. Lula Best were married at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Christian church by Rev. D. W. Davis.

Ohio has passed a law requiring the county in which a lynching occurs to pay to their heirs of the lynched $5,000. That may work in some states, but when the most sacred rights of the home have been invaded men do not usually stop to place a monetary consideration upon the outrage.—Charlotte News.

There are in the State 5,422 white school districts and 2,488 colored districts, a total of 7,910. The receipts from taxes for public schools and expended to them last year, were $1,031,327.94, as shown by the report of the superintendent of public instruction. The school census showed 439,421 white and 220,198 colored, a total of 659,629 children of school age. The enrollment in the schools amounted 270,447 white 130,005 colored, total 400,452. But the average attendance, which accurately indicates the number of those who are receiving the rudiments of an education, shows that only 142,413 white and 64,506 negroes, a total of 206,918, attended the schools regularly.

No citizen of our community enjoys more of the confidence and esteem and love of his fellow citizens than Mr. McClure, or has been more tenderly beloved as he has been growing old beautifully these long years.—Washington Messenger.

Again we would remark if home capitalists want home prosperity they should invest at home in diversified industries that will afford employment to people, and thus keep things in motion, contributing to the general welfare of the cities. And again, if citizens other than capitalists want home prosperity they should patronize home merchants and home industries.—Twin City Sentinel.
