At the present rate of increase year after year the pension roll will never play out. This is the greatest fraud ever perpetrated upon a people and no political party has the nerve to attempt to thwart the robbers.—Durham Herald.

Dixon-Dail.

Mr. J. W. Dixon, of Kinston, and Miss Mary Dail, of Snow Hill, were married in the Methodist church in that town yesterday morning, at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. E. Pope, the pastor, officiating.

The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the happy couple. People from Goldsboro, Kinston and Greenville were there. There were many handsome presents.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left for LaGrange, where they took the morning train for Buffalo, N. Y. They will also go to Niagara Falls and will visit Toronto, Canada. They will be gone about a month.

Mr. Dixon is one of the proprietors of the Farmers' Warehouse, now in course of erection here. He is a popular young business man.

Mrs. Dixon was the most popular among a large circles of friends in Greene, Wayne, Lenoir and Pitt counties.—Kinston Free Press 6th.

Second Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen celebrated the second anniversary of their marriage at Hotel Macon Thursday night. A large number of friends were present and had a very enjoyable time.

The guests were received in the parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Ficklen, assisted by Mrs. T. J. Jarvis and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fleming. After spending some time in pleasant conversation the guests were invited to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with crimson ramblers and white jasmines, where delightful refreshments were served.

All wish Mr. and Mrs. Ficklen many happy anniversaries of their marriage.

THE SPORTING WORLD

Connie Mack's Wise Move. Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia American league team made a good strike by signing Hughie Jennings, the ex-Brooklyn star, who the Philadelphia management contemplated signing last season when Lajoie was hurt.

HUGH JENNINGS. A bad arm. His head work will be a great advantage to the team, and it will be no surprise to hear of his succeeding Lajoie as captain.

President Ban Johnson and Frank Hough recently went to Ithaca, N. Y., and there by appointment met Jennings. Matters were adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned, and the great player will be on hand on the return of Manager Mack from his western trip.

The Philadelphia American league team is also endeavoring to secure the release of Shortstop Shea of the Cleveland club. The latter club has a surplus of infielders and may be induced to part with Shea.

Good Influences are Going Abroad.

As so many other commencement speakers in North Carolina have done this year, Chancellor Kirland of Vanderbilt University, in his address at the University yesterday, spoke for independent thought and for the dignity of individualism. It is well to talk thus to young men, just going upon the stage of life; and we rejoice and are glad to say that the presidents and faculties of all the leading educational institutions of this State are inculcating correct ideas into the minds of their students as to their public duties, and that these young men are going out into the world, rooted themselves in correct principles and spreading abroad the influence of the institutions from which they come.

This is why we favor the largest appropriations to public education. An educated citizenship cannot be controlled by professional politicians—these accomplish their ends and thrive upon the ignorance of the masses. The day of enlightenment and freedom is dawning in North Carolina; our schools and colleges are helping it along. We thank God and take courage.—Charlotte Observer.

A Philadelphia female "bachelor" club has ceased to meet. It was composed of sixteen members, but twelve of these have married, three are engaged and the one solitary remnant does not care to meet all by herself.—Wilmington Star.

Two young ladies in Wilmington were arrested last Saturday evening on the charge of larceny of a ring from a jewelry store. The result was that a brother of the ladies thrashed the jeweler and the charge against the girls was not proven and the case dismissed. In the light of the findings of His Honor the fine imposed on the brother should have been remitted.—Raleigh Times.

Locomotive Exploded.

Nashville, N. C., June 5—A material train, loaded with cross ties, was wrecked and almost demolished about one mile below the station here today. Engineer Brown was instantly killed. His body was deadfully mangled and mutilated; his head entirely blown off; but his hand was found upon the throttle of the exploded engine. The fireman is severely injured, and the switchman was probably fatally injured. The cars broke loose from the locomotive and the engineer, endeavoring to keep out of reach of the approaching cars, the engine jumped the track, went so high as to get over the top of the telegraph wire, and exploded, causing the terrible wreck.

The State's Future.

Gov. Aycock is quoted as having said in an interview during his recent visit to New York: "Four-fifths of the capital invested in manufacturing and other industries in this State is North Carolina capital. She doesn't need anything now except to be let alone. If our political conditions are undisturbed for ten years we will work out our own salvation. Things have just taken such shape that we can now turn our attention to business. We have the cheapest government of any state in the Union. We feel that we have an exceedingly bright future. Our population is small, but it is strictly Anglo-Saxon. We will welcome here American citizens who come to our State to make their homes, and who bring skill or knowledge of manufacturing or other useful arts. We don't want any other kind of immigration."

ETHNOLOGY BUILDING, PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Copyright, 1908, by the Pan-American Exposition Co.

One of the handsome structures at the great Pan-American Exposition, which is to be held in Buffalo from May 1 to Nov. 1, 1901, will be the Ethnology building. It will contain an exhibit of unusual interest to all Americans. Ethnology is the science which treats of the division of mankind into races, their origin, distribution and relations and the peculiarities which characterize them. At Buffalo the Ethnology building will be a veritable mine of information concerning the countries of North and South America. This will be peculiarly appropriate for the reason that the Exposition is a Pan-American, or All-American, event, and everything of interest concerning the various nations inhabiting the new world discovered by Columbus will be represented by an interesting exhibit in Buffalo when the Exposition's gates open on May 1, 1901. Strange to relate, the most interesting exhibits concerning several countries in South America are already in this country. Peru, for example, will send many interesting exhibits to the Pan-American Exposition and will also have exhibited in her section the remarkable collection of Peruvian antiquities now owned by various American museums.

Marked Improvement.

The work the town has done grading the hill on Evans street near the Academy and filling in over the culvert, and making a sidewalk on the east side, is a decided improvement to the street. Next fall shade trees will probably be put out across the vacant space and they will add still more to the appearance.

Potatoes.

The following prices of potatoes were quoted today in the northern markets:

New York, $3 to $4.50.
Newark, rose $4 to $4.50, reds $3.25 to $3.75.
Philadelphia, rose $4 to $4.25, reds $3.25 to $3.50.
Pittsburg, best grades $5.

In the past newspapers strove to please individuals, and were careful not to say anything that would wound the feelings. They smothered the truth if it offended. Today newspapers strive to give the news. Formerly nearly every paper wore the yoke of some party, dogma or creed. Now the paper bears the yoke of truth only, and gives the news if it bleeds the heart of a friend. The people must be served rather than the individual. To be sure, every individual must be treated fairly, but there his rights end. The individual no more makes the people than the drop of water makes the ocean. But it is characteristic of each individual to think that he is the one drop that rides on the crest of the wave.—Gastonia News.

The cotton market took a little climb up in price today.
