Helping and Hindering the Town.

Perhaps every one desires to be known as a good citizen. No one really wants to hinder the progress of his town. But he can do this in various ways whether intentionally or not. Here are some of the ways as suggested by an exchange: Refuse to take your town paper. Never send it an item of news, never speak a good word for the paper, but say all you can against it. Be very sure you do not advertise in its columns, because you might benefit the publisher while promoting your own welfare. And if you do advertise any make the editor trade it out whether he needs anything in your line or not. He may require money to run his business but let him get it somewhere else as far as you are concerned. Urge your friends to subscribe for some other paper, but never ask them to take your town paper. Have all your printing done away from home. Get mad with the editor every time he fails to put your name in the paper when you leave town. Give the editor a "cussin'" every time he prints an article that does not harmonize with your views. Follow these instructions faithfully, and you will be sure to make your town move backward.

Since Sampson was not at the battle of Santiago, it is perhaps appropriate that his head should be put on its medals. Otherwise, he wouldn't be in it at all.

Really it seems to be rubbing the thing in, to present Admiral Schley with a Santiago medal on which Sampson's head is engraved and to require him to wear it.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7th.

The republican scheme for reducing the Congressional representation of the southern states which restrict negro suffrage has been revived and it is said to have more influential backing than the movement that was started last winter. At that time it was understood that Mr. McKinley, who had just begun to believe in the possibility of a white republican party in the South, opposed the idea and was instrumental in having it laid aside. It is doubtful whether he has changed his mind on the subject, but some of the men who are quietly pushing the revived scheme express the opinion that by next winter the failure of making white republican recruits in the South, under the name of McLaurinism, or any other, will be so plain to Mr. McKinley that he can be counted upon to keep his hands off, if not to help along the scheme. The increased power given to Congress by the insular decisions of the Supreme Court is used by the men who are working the scheme as an argument for the political necessity of cutting down Southern representation so as to make it certain that the republicans will retain their majority in the House, the loss of which might play havoc with the party's insular policy. There are not a sufficient number of Senators and Representatives in Washington to form any idea of the strength of the revived scheme, but it is being manipulated by shrewd men who have no scruples about securing political advantage in any way, and it will be wise for democratic Senators and Representatives to be vigilant.

Gen. Samuel Pearson, of the Boer army, passed through Washington this week, on his way to New York, where he has been called to confer with the agent of the Boers on important business, which he hopes relates to an honorable peace. Speaking of the situation in his unfortunate country, he said: "We still have about 26,000 men in the field, we have all the ammunition we need, and we have sufficient horses and food-stuffs, British reports to the contrary notwithstanding. My regular information from on the seat of war tells me that only half of what is going on in South Africa is known and published in the newspaper here, and then it is not at all reliable. All news goes through English censors. There has been considerable more fighting down there lately than the American people have been informed of. Much activity is displayed throughout the Transvaal, the Orange Free State and Cape Colony. Kirtzinger's command has been very successful recruiting Cape Dutch for operations against the British, and if Kitchener or Roberts can boast of having invaded the Transvaal, we can reply with the invasion of Cape Colony. Our soldiers are only fifteen miles from the sea coast, which speaks for itself. The men who are at the head of our army are young, energetic, prudent and just. They know when to strike and how to do it to obtain the best results with the least difficulty and at the smallest cost of life. We are just as anxious for peace as you, but it must be an honorable peace, otherwise we will fight—fight until the last man falls."

The alleged civil government that is to be established in the Philippines, will be civil in name only until after Congress legislates on the subject, as it is to be under military control. The islands are to be kept under military control because of the belief that the establishment of a real civil government would put them on the same footing that was given Porto Rico by the Supreme Court decision. There are tricks in all trades, and republicans are specially apt in tricks relating to government.

Love Your Business.

A man who can no more be successful in a business he does not like than can a man be happy with a wife he does not love.

Enthusiasm is the power which impells men onward in any and every vocation. Without it men are lethargic. They will drift. But to pull against the tide they are as unable as they are unwilling.

Drifting, however, does not win the race, either in business or aquatic events.

There must be the long pull, the strong pull, and the pull with vigor.

Men in business today have no easy task. There is a great deal to discourage and very little to encourage. There are foes within and foes without to contend against.

Under such conditions it is no wonder so many fail altogether or eke a mere existence.

The antidote for despair is enthusiasm and the germ of enthusiasm is love for, or pleasure in that business or vocation in which you are embarked.

Therefore, if you would succeed get in love with your business.

Happy old age

Many women who have enjoyed good health all their life begin to fade when they reach the age of forty-four. They grow nervous and irritable and suffer with sick-headaches. Their livers are torpid, their digestion is impaired and their bowels are irregular. They are experiencing the "change of life." And it is not strange that the cessation of the menstrual habit after thirty years operation should disturb the system and tax the strongest constitution. This trying period has no terror for a woman who uses Wine of Cardui. It builds up her strength and prepares her for the ordeal. When the change of life is not safely passed, a woman quickly becomes an invalid. Slumbering disease germs are given increased activity and they appear in aggravated form. If you take Wine of Cardui regularly when approaching the change of life you will be assured better health than you have ever enjoyed before. A happy old age and restful calm will be your reward. Mrs. Campbell was cured after suffering three years with "change of life." Theford's Black-Draught, the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui, assimilates with it perfectly, curing digestive liver and kidney affections, and throwing impurities and disease germs out of the system. Both working together make a well and happy woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

YOUNG, Laurens Co., S. C., Sept. 22, 1899.

I have recommended your Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught to several of my lady friends, and I can say they are what you recommend them to be. I have been suffering three years with the "change of life," and I did not get anything that would do me any good until I tried your medicines. I give thanks to Wine of Cardui and you, for it relieved me. Mrs. D. H. CAMPBELL.

Advise the Paper.

THE REFLECTOR would appreciate any of our people letting us know when they have visitors. We like to mention all, but in a town as large as Greenville it is impossible for us to know all who come and go unless attention is called thereto, and for this reason some are not mentioned. Telephone or send us word when you know of such.

Boss Marrying Preacher.

The Lexington Dispatch discovers the boss marrying preacher in North Carolina. He is Rev. T. H. Walker who lives at Pelham, Caswell county just across the Virginia lines. He began "tying the knot" in 1874 and has married 1,551 couples. If marriage is a failure the Rev. Walker will have much to answer for and if a success he will have a starry crown.

Calendars.

THE REFLECTOR has taken the agency for one of the largest and best calendar printing houses in the country and is ready to take orders. A beautiful line of samples have been received and can be seen at the office, or we will take them to your place of business if preferred. Our line is so large that purchasers can have an exclusive design if desired. Place your orders early.

How Some People Look At It.

Many people seem to look at a newspaper and a church in the same light. A church is a nice place to hold a funeral when of their friend die; but how the preacher gets his living or the expenses are kept up does not concern them. A newspaper is a nice acquisition to a town, but how the publisher gets his paper, ink and material is none of their affair, as long as they can read their neighbor's paper without paying the editor for his time and labor. He can sleep on a clothes line and live on air, for all they care.—Weldon News.
