A Man Whipped and Run Out of Arkansas for Trying to Convict an Innocent Negro.

Camden, Ark., June 18.—Tom Watson, who with his wife swore that the negro Will Bussey had committed an assault on Mrs. Watson, was taken out by a committee of citizens of Camden last night and given 500 lashes. The affidavit of Watson and his wife was the means of Bussey having been sentenced to hang, but about three weeks ago Mrs. Watson made a written statement confessing that she had sworn falsely against Bussey. On learning this Governor Davis suspended the sentence imposed on Bussey. Watson's wife swore that she was compelled by her husband to testify against Bussey. At the conclusion of the lashing Watson was placed on a train and given instructions not to stop in Arkansas.

McLawhorn Trial.

The trial of E. B. McLawhorn for assault upon C. M. Bernard was held before Justice of the Peace L. A. Mayo Wednesday afternoon in the Court House. Mr. McLawhorn plead guilty of assault, and after hearing the evidence in the case the Justice fined the defendant $25 and cost but later reduced the fine to $20 and cost. Mr. Bernard was not present at the trial.

The citizens of the town made up a purse to pay McLawhorn's cost.

Only Direct Advertising.

The experience of the directors of successful enterprises is a profitable study to every business man. The head of the India Food Company of New York has told in a few words how his enterprise was pushed. "From the start," he said, "we advertised extensively, using the newspapers chiefly. We did no demonstrating, and did not depart from direct advertising—gave away no novelties, and used no sensational methods. The advertising mainly accounts for the success of our salesmen."—Philadelphia Record.

Listing property for taxation has its temptations. Many a man has forfeited his influence as an honest man in discharging this task. Little may be said of the listing of property too low or not listing it at all beyond the statement of the facts. Yet the gross immorality of it is seen and the guilty man has lost much in the confidence of good men and bad men as well. Such characters are marked as being unworthy of trust by their neighbors. It is decided against them in justice that they are at heart dishonest. If they are trusted evermore it is when it is seen that self interest and not honesty will keep them from betraying their trust. It is apparent many men think it is no violation of moral law to avoid by any means that will not make them amenable to the criminal law the payment of taxes to the State. Great mistake. God will bring every work into judgement whether it is good or evil. The man who will cheat the government is dishonest enough to cheat an individual when he can do it uncaught. —Lumber Bridge News.

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1901.

The press dispatches are telling of a movement to organize a new party in the west. It looks like there have been enough ventures along that line for them to be let alone hereafter. There are two great political parties in this country, and only two, and no other will ever gain following enough to amount to anything for long at the time.

Martin's Rascality.

The report of the committee appointed by the General Assembly to investigate the accounts of Maj. W. H. Martin, the embezzling institutional clerk in the office of ex-State Treasurer Worth, has been completed.

The report will not be made public until signed by all the members and transmitted to the Governor. Representative F. M. Shannhouse of Mecklenburg, who drafted the findings of the committee completed his work yesterday. Both he and Senator T. M. Arrington have signed the report, which was yesterday forwarded by express to Judge F. D. Winston, the third member of the committee, for his signature.

The shortage of Major Martin has been ascertained by the committee to be $16,551.53.

As soon as the report has been completed Treasurer Lacy will make demand on ex-Treasurer Worth's bond for the amount of defalcation. Action will of course be taken to compel the Baltimore Surety Company, which gave Major Martin's bond, to make good the shortage. The company gave an annual bond of $5,000. As Major Martin's theft exceeded that sum slightly in the course of a year, the actual loss sustained by Major Martin and his bondsmen is not large.

Treasurer B. R. Lacy will lose $374.84 by reason of Martin's sojourn in his office. Martin spent thirty days in Mr. Lacy's office familiarizing his clerical force—all composed of new men—with the duties of the office. So accustomed was Martin to running his hands down in the treasury that he could not resist the temptation after he had lost his job. He not only stole the $374 before mentioned, but he also forged a check for $759.03, changing it from one account to another.—Raleigh Post.

DOWN THE CAPE FEAR.

WILMINGTON, N. C. June 19.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

How many of your readers have enjoyed a visit to "Our City by the Sea" and a trip down our historic Cape Fear to Southport and out to sea? To those who have enjoyed this privilege no word is necessary except to venture the remark that a repetition of it would be very agreeable. To those who have not, we simply say, you are missing a rare treat and especially at this season.

People living in the interior of our State who have not visited any of our seaport cities cannot understand that peculiar charm that invests a visit to a river like the Cape Fear with its varied shipping interests and vessels of all kinds and sizes, foreign and coastwise, constantly passing up and down its waters and making a scene not soon to be forgotten. Here we see some large steamers that have put in for coal, or for a load of cotton from some of the compresses of which we can boast of two of immense size and capacity. A little further on we see several 3-masters discharging their load possibly to reload with lumber from some of the saw mills for a northern port. Numberless smaller craft ply the adjacent rivers and bring to Wilmington their quota of business that add to the wealth and prosperity of the city, a city where possibilities are not yet fully appreciated.

But it was not of these things we intended to speak, but of our trip down the river and out to sea last Sunday. Every Sunday the steamers Compton and Wilmington (rival boats) run excursions to Carolina Beach and out to sea. Sunday morning being an ideal day we decided to go down. It was just cloudy enough to cause old Sol to hide his face and a brisk breeze rendered it pleasant. Finding we were a bit ahead of time we took a look over the Compton than which a neater or more seaworthy boat does not ply the river. Just recently off the ways she presented a trim appearance in her new coat of paint and bright awnings. But here comes the Captain and we size him up as the crowd arrives from our vantage point on the upper deck.

At 9:45 with a crowd of 200 the whistle sounds and we are off. As all settle to their seats we have only time to note the "Hornet" of the naval reserves lying just across the river and the Wilmington at our stern with her load just ready to start and the Government tugs and scows tied up for want of an appropriation. We soon pass the Dram tree known of by thousands. Then in succession we pass Carolina Beach, the famous Orton farm, the Atlantic Fishery Co., where millions of fat backs are caught for fertilizer, and now we are at Southport a town of about 1,500, where an hour's stop is made for dinner. At 2 we are on board again and after touching at Fort Caswell, where we see those immense guns, reminding us that Uncle Sam has an ever watchful eye to our protection, we boldly stand out to sea. We had not gone far before the fun began as one and another would get sick to the amusement of the others. After going about 10 miles and all hands (except the sick ones) enjoying themselves hugely, the boat is turned and headed for home and the sick ones are O. K. as soon as we strike smooth water.

Eight house, fort, Southport, Fishery, Orton farm, Carolina Beach, Dram tree are passed and we near the city. But let us pay our respects to Captain W. A. Saunders: about 5 feet 5, clean cut features and sharp eyes, he is QUILL PEN.

Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—Definite steps toward the organization of a new "third party," which is proposed to embrace Missouri and to form the nucleus for a national growth were taken today in Kansas City at a conference of members of the Populist State committee and a few Silver Republicans. The movement is said to have the expressed sympathy for, if not the avowed support of, Wm. J. Bryan who it is further hinted, is to be the new party's candidate for President in 1904.

Died.

Little Alfred Moye, the 2 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye, died this morning at 11 o'clock. He had been sick for only four days with paralysis and in spite of the efforts of all the doctors, he died this morning. Little Alfred was a great favorite, not only with the immediate family but also with a large circle of relatives and friends, and all sorrow deeply at his death. Much sympathy is expressed for the parents in their deep grief.

Better Go List.

Town Tax Collector C. D. Rountree tells us that not more than one-third of the tax payers of Greenville have as yet listed their taxes for this year. There are now but nine days more in which to list, and if there is not some hurrying all will not get on the list. The law imposes heavy penalties on all who fail to list in the month of June. Even those who intend to list, we see no reason for putting it off until right at the end of the month.
