AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C., June 21.

Lawrence Anderson, of near Farmville, spent Saturday night and Sunday in town.

E. E. Forsyth, of Raleigh, was here Tuesday.

S. B. Hall, of Columbus county, was stopping in town Monday and Tuesday nights.

S. H. Finch, of Wilson, is spending several days here.

The Masons had their annual meeting here Thursday. They dined at the Smith Hotel.

Little Glenn Ross is still very ill. E. C. Boomer, of Englehard, was here this week.

A. L. Peacock, of Norfolk, spent Thursday night in town.

Mrs. Lanie Norris is quite sick. Her many friends hope she will soon be convalescent.

J. E. Lewis and T. R. Hyman passed through Wednesday.

Prof. Manning returned home Wednesday evening.

Fighting Methodist Preacher.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 19.

Rev. Dr. D. S. Hammond, presiding elder of the Methodist Church, preached at a mission church on Barren Creek Sunday night, and after service went on invitation to the home of Charles Samples to pass the night. After the family retired a gang of four drunken ruffians forced their way into the house and beat and seriously injured Mr. Samples and his son.

Dr. Hammond, hearing the noise, jumped out of bed and waded into the fight. In a few minutes he had two of the men on their backs pleading for mercy, while two fled. The minister was unhurt and preached again the next night.

The Old Pugilist's Story.

"One winter, when things were rather slow in the city—it was just before John L.'s time"—said an old pugilist to a Chicago reporter. "we made up a little party and hired a hall in one of the fishing towns not far away. We advertised a prize of $10 for any one who could stay on his feet against our men for five rounds. It was safe money, although when two or three of the boats came in at the same time we had all we could handle."

"But one night a fellow as big as the side of a house came along, and we smelled trouble. We put him up against the heaviest man in our party, who, though he only tipped the scales at 180 pounds, had two good hands and a head that you couldn't hurt with a pile driver. But the stranger was no slouch, and at the end of the fourth round we began to worry about the tenner."

"The ring was on the stage at the front of the hall, and at the rear of the stage there were two windows. So I says to our man as I sponged his mouth, 'Work him over to one of the windows.'"

"It wasn't no easy job, but he did it before time was half up, and as the duffer backed up near the window he got a crack in the head from behind that dumped him in a heap. That's the way we saved our ten."

"But the funny part of it is that our champeen had caught the local guy on the jaw the same moment, and we could never persuade him that it wasn't himself that secured the knockout."

Few men are so sympathetic as to feel sorry for their creditors.

Some people seem to think they fall into luck when they fall into debt.

No, Maude dear, the language of flowers is not restricted entirely to society buds.

If heat expands and cold contracts, how is it that on a hot June day a wedding is contracted?

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1901.

A New paper called the Duplin Journal has been started at Farnson. It has a local editor who gets off snappy items.

In such dull times as this people who can do so ought to pay their debts. By so doing they may help many others. A dollar turned loose may change hands many times and cancel many debts in a single day. Be prompt in matters of this kind, if you owe anything and have money to pay with.

Near LaGrange a negro attempted to assault the wife of Mr. Noe Waters. The negro was prevented in his purpose, was afterward caught and placed in prison at LaGrange. That night the negro was taken from the prison and has not been heard from since. It is supposed he was lynched. As long as negroes attempt such crimes they may expect such punishment to follow. They can prevent lynchings by stopping the crime.

In the July Cosmopolitan J. Holt Schooling, a statistician asserts that when three hundred and fifty years shall have passed the density of the earth's population will be so great that each person will have only two-thirds of an acre, which space will have to suffice for all purposes—agriculture, roads, houses, parks, railways, etc. He estimates the present population of the earth at 1,600,000,000, and says that in 2250 it will be 52,073,000,000. But none of us here now need be giving ourselves any concern about the crowded conditions that may exist 350 years hence. We will not be here to be crowded out of the way or to crowd any one else out. We have plenty of elbow room now, and to rightly use the space and opportunities at hand is what should most concern the present inhabitants of the globe.

Experienced Advertisers.

Theatrical managers have no doubt as to the great value and necessity of newspaper advertising, and some of them refuse to do any other kind. It has been stated that the revenue of The New York Herald from theatrical advertising is not less than $150,000 a year, while three other New York journals receive at least $100,000 each from the same source.—Philadelphia Record.

Mrs. Eld, Whitehurst returned Thursday evening from a visit to Stokes.

"Dixie" Dying.

"Dixie," says the New Orleans Times Democrat, "is not received now as 'Dixie' once was, and, judging from present indications, this anthem of the Lost Cause is passing from among the popular airs of the day. One can scarcely believe that 'Dixie' is passing. But the fact remains that this air, popular as it may be, is not received with that enthusiasm which marked it in the days gone by, and, in fact, the tune seems to be something other than it was. Even the old Confederates do not shriek over 'Dixie' like they did in days gone by. Why? The future must tell. Maybe voices have grown husky. Maybe the old men are tired and do not want to yell. Maybe Uncle Sam's new policy of throwing his gig into any old island that may suit his fancy has something to do with his change. 'Dixie' dying! One can scarcely believe that 'Dixie' is passing in spite of the changes which have taken place in American policies." This may be true in Louisiana but it not in South Carolina, nor indeed in this section of the South. Every time the tune is played by band or orchestra the audience yells just as vociferously and enthusiastically as ever. What is more, "Dixie" now brings hearty applause in Washington and New York where there are many southern people and is even cheered throughout the north. It is not strictly an "anthem of the Lost Cause," but a song which because of its sentiment and its lively, inspiring time as well as its association with the south's great struggle for independence will never cease to be popular in this section.—Columbia State.

If Gen. J. S. Carr is reported correctly, he did some pretty plain talking to the reporter of the New York Times. His remarks will cause a considerable stir among partisan leaders in this State. There is no man in the State more competent to speak out plainly than General Carr, for his Democracy has been unquestioned, and he has borne the brunt of many a battle, and has been knifed more severely by his party friends than any other man in the ranks. But he comes out boldly upon a higher plane. And why should he not? It is coming to the identical lines he forecast. Thinking men and patriots are rapidly seeing the trend of affairs that will soon rise above mere partisan politics. With the negro vote eliminated from politics in the south party lines will naturally be drawn upon different issues from what they have heretofore been. This fight is drawing upon the political horizon, and yet there are a great many who do not see it.—Durham Sun.

Happy Family Reunion.

The hospitable home of our esteemed friend, Mr. W. A. Parham, of Watins, was the scene of a happy family reunion on Sunday. Each member of the family was gathered under the parental roof, even down to the venerable and beloved old family servant, who had prepared so many nice meals for the family. The venerable cook is 68 years old and has nursed three generations of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Parham have four children married and one single. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Reams, of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parham, of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parham, of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dorsey, of Oxford, and Miss Mollie Parham.—Oxford Ledger.

Miss Mary Alice Moye returned from Wilson Thursday evening, being called home by the death of little Alfred Moye.

Laid to Sleep.

The remains of little Alfred Moye, two-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye, were gently laid at rest in the Cherry Hill Cemetery this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. D. W. Davis and H. M. Eure. Messrs. C. S. Carr, T. M. Hooker, J. H. Averett, C. M. Jones, J. L. Little, H. A. White, W. L. Brown and C. T. Munford were pall bearers.

The floral tributes on the bier were many and beautiful. There was a large attendance at the funeral, showing the love all had for the sweet little boy and their sorrow for the afflicted family. Little Alfred will be sadly missed by many.

Notice!

To the White Teachers of Pitt county.

You are hereby notified to close your schools on Friday, June 28th, and present all orders for payment by June 30th. No schools can be taught during the month of July. You are all required by law to attend the Institute at Winterville, beginning Monday, July 1st, or you will be debarred from teaching. Those who are interested in education and those who purpose teaching are privileged to attend and are invited to do so. The books used in the Institute will be those recently adopted. I am making preparation to have them on sale in Greenville by the latter part of the week. All teachers are notified to be present on the first day.

Trinity College advertises in this issue. The past year has been the best in its history, and the recent commencement was attended by prominent visitors from several states. Mr. Mabie, of New York, recently said in an address: "Trinity is attracting the attention of cultured people in all parts of the United States." It is pleasing to know that the young man of the South has such opportunities as are furnished by Trinity College. It is the largest college plant in the State and is growing rapidly each year. Last year the donations amounted to something more than $150,000. Write for a catalogue.

PRESIDENT KILGO,
6-21-6w. Durham, N. C.

The rural delivery system having proved so conspicuous a success, it is strange that a voice should be raised against it anywhere. But there has been in North Carolina at least. A Congressman representing one of the districts of the State is having a good deal of trouble in the establishment of rural delivery routes on account of the opposition of country merchants who are postmasters and who, by reason of having postoffices in their stores, enjoy a good deal of trade which they would not otherwise receive. From the dawn of history even down to this good day men were ever much alike. It is recalled that at a time when it looked as if Paul were about to convert all Ephesus to Christianity, one Demetrius, a silver-smith which made silver shrines for Diana, called together all the craftsmen of like occupation and informed them that their craft was in danger and reminded them that by this craft they had their wealth. It is just the situation of these objecting postmasters with regard to the rural delivery routes.—Charlotte Observer.

Industrial Organization.

R. A. Caldwell, representing the National Protective Association of North Carolina, is in this section organizing local branches of the association. It is an industrial organization among the colored people for the purpose of establishing stores, factories and other enterprises among their race. Giving attention to such matters as this is far better for the colored people than running after politics.

Money and blood should both be kept in circulation.

People who talk about themselves are seldom interesting.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
