RUN IN THE CAGE.

And Lost His Bicycle, Too.

Monday afternoon while things were a bit dull around the court house most of the officers were sitting out in front of the building trying to get cool. A colored man rode up on a bicycle and dismounted. He gave his name as Coleman Taylor and asked who he could "give in" taxes to. The mention of his name put a few of the officers to thinking. Tax Collector Mooring remembered some unpaid taxes against him for last year and quicker than it takes to tell it the Collector was in possession of the wheel. Sheriff Harrington called to mind that he also had a capias against the man for an unpaid bill of cost and in a minute Deputy Sheriff Tucker had read the capias and taken him in custody.

"Dis beats all I ever seed," said the darkey. "Lost my wheel and locked up in jail almost 'fore I knowed it."

And that is just what happened to him.

Good Advice to Girls Who Travel.

The young girl who is traveling by herself should seek information from the train people rather than from her companions on the train. No girl in traveling should make confidants of strangers of either sex, disclose her name, her destination or her family affairs, or make acquaintances on the road. She may, however, show kind attention to a mother traveling with little children, amuse a wearied little one, and politely thank any one who does her an unobtrusive kindness.—Margaret E. Sangster, in The Ladies' Home Journal for July.

No Secret About Success.

Men talk of the secret of successful advertising, but it is all very plain. The essentials are to offer what people want at fair prices, and to offer it in a way that will make readers know they want it. The art in writing an advertisement is to speak as the interested and well informed merchant would speak to a prospective customer.—Philadelphia Record.

"Lord Clonell" an American.

"Lord Clonell of England," who won the Frankfort, the 3-year-old broodmare, for $10,100 and Choate for $10,000 at the Daily sale and is owner of the Astor, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap in 1899, is said to be no other than Clarence Mackey, son of the Bonanza King, John W. Mackey. John Harring of New York several days ago bought for Mr. Mackey the 2-year-old colt J. N. Camden, by St. Saviour—Warrent, by imported Deceiver, for $8,500.

Wefers as a Ball Player.

Concerning Wefers, the famous sprinter, now a member of the St. Louis National league team, but who has been left at home, Jesse Burkett says: "He goes after a fly ball well, judges perfectly and holds it surely. He will be an educated batter rather than a natural one. His eye is good, and he will remodel his swing. It is worth the price of admission to see him go to the first base or run anywhere. I am certain he will be a first class man."

Delehanty's Opinion.

Captain E. Delehanty of the Philadelphia National team says he has heard of dogs, mandolins, birds, guns and almost every other conceivable hobby carried around by ball players on their wanderings, but when Harry White came along with a piano it was the limit.

TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1901.

Base ball interest is about to get head and shoulders above everything else in North Carolina.

A son of Secretary Hay was found dead, Sunday morning, on the sidewalk in front of a hotel in New Haven, Conn.

A flood almost equal if not worse than the one that swept Johnstown away in 1889 has just visited the mining district of West Virginia along the line of the Norfolk & Western railroad.

In a school opened in Bangkok by an English lady there are fifteen pupils, and all are princesses of the royal family of Siam.

Mr. Bryan has announced that Mark Hanna is his first choice for the next Republican candidate for the Presidency.

The miser is a man who sells his soul for the dollars that will not save him from the heat when he's dead.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24th.

Protests from business organizations and influential individuals have brought the administration to a realizing sense of the blunder Secretary Gage made in inviting the present tariff war with Russia.

Mr. McKinley's dilatoriness in naming a new Commissioner of Pensions has put the republican opponents of Commissioner Evans in a very ugly humor and they are letting out campaign secrets.

Everybody who has seen a copy of the gorgeous little book issued by the pink tea masker, par excellence, whose official title is Adjutant General of the Army, containing the itinerary of this petticoat horse's junket to the Philippines, has enjoyed a good laugh of Corbin's exhibition of the big head.

Gen. Laffin's Last Roll-Call.

Hubson, N. Y., June 20.—Gen. Byron Laffin died today. His first commission was as captain of the Thirty-fourth New York Volunteers in the civil war. Then he was made a colonel. He was brevetted major-general, and became provisional Governor of North Carolina. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Dawes, of Chicago, and Miss Eliza Laffin, of Watertown. The interment will be at Herkimer on Saturday.

[The above is a mistake in so far as it says Gen. Laffin was provisional Governor of North Carolina. He never held such a position, but he was a member from Pitt county of the Constitutional Convention of 1868 and of the Legislature of 1868-69. D. J. Rich was the other representative from this county.—REFLECTOR].

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
