THE MEASURING PARTY.

Measured a Great Success.

The measuring party given in the opera house Tuesday night for the benefit of the Episcopal church was a decided success. There was a good attendance and every one was doubly repaid for the nickels and pennies invested according to the feet and inches each was tall. The musical program was in itself worth this, to say nothing of the elegant supper served at the close. The program was as follows.

Overture, Orchestra.
"Look This Way" Chorus.
"Coon Song" Mr. Gus Forbes.
Vocal Solo Miss Moore, Newbern.
Violin Solo Miss Bessye Patrick.
Recitation Miss Addie Rollins.
"Cute Little Quaker Maids" Cho.
Violin Solo Miss Dell Forbes.
Cornet Solo Mr. Eberhardt.
Instrumental Solo Miss Winstead.
"Mystery of Love" Chorus.

Nearly every selection was responded to with an encore. The choruses were rendered by Misses Bessie Jarvis, Lillian Cherry, May Bell White, Helen Forbes, Sophia Jarvis, Mary Higgs, Nell Skinner, Mary Blow, Lottie Blow, Nina James, Irma Cobb, Janie Brown, Bertha Patrick, Pat Skinner, Miss Moore and Mr. Gus Forbes.

The accompanists were Misses Winstead, Patrick and Jones. In the choruses Misses Patrick and Forbes assisted with violin.

The supper served after the program was an elegant one, the bill of fare containing many delicacies.

The bags containing "the price of admission" were received at the door by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harding, Mr. J. I. Smith and Miss Pearle Campbell. Mesdames A. L. Blow and G. B. King presided over the "frappe bowl." Mesdames W. L. Brown, R. H. Horne, W. B. Greene, M. D. Higgs and Robert Greene had charge of the supper and had "the prettiest girls you ever did see" to serve the guests.

Mrs. W. B. Greene and Miss Bessie Jarvis, who planned and managed the entertainment deserve much credit for its success and are due the thanks of all who were present. They request THE REFLECTOR to express their thanks to all who in any way assisted in the entertainment, as well as to those who patronized them so liberally. The receipts were some over $45.

Jumps Into Well to Save His Little Daughter.

Media, Pa., June 23.—Rev. W. S. Skinner, pastor of Stony Bank and Chester Heights M. E. Church, figured in a thrilling rescue of his little five year-old daughter Maggie late yesterday afternoon at Lima, west of Media, and only the fact that help was near prevented their drowning.

The child was playing about the well curb, when she fell through the door, which had been left open. The father dashed to the well and plunged into the opening, sliding down the pump tree a distance of thirty-five feet.

He reached the child as she was sinking for the last time in over five feet of water, and, holding her above his head, with his chin just out of the water, called lustily for help. John Draper, the gardener at the County Almshouse, heard the cries, and, climbing down the well, sustained Mr. Skinner and child until assistance arrived.

The Great Northwest First White Child.

One of the most remarkable proofs of the amazing growth of that vast region of our country commonly called the Northwest, with its numerous sisterhood of States and its population of more than seven million people, is the fact that it is only a little more than eighty years since the first white baby was born there. The child was a girl, the daughter of a regular army officer, and she is still living. A fascinating account of her eventful life, the early years of which were spent among soldiers and savages, will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal.

A Kansas soldier in the Philippines notes a new temperance force which is at work in the army. "We have," he says, "a lot of native soldiers enlisted here. When one of the white boys gets drunk the captain puts a native soldier over him, and the native puts on lots of airs while marching him around. It grinds the boys so that they wouldn't get drunk if they could."

What a Wonderful Discovery is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer! It not only cures the ills of the human family, but is also the sure remedy for horse and cattle. It has never been known to fail in a cure of the worst cases of colic; and for sprains, galls, etc., it never fails—try it once. Directions accompany each bottle. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1899.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

The kiss the dew drop gave,
Though his—as our—mission
