TOWN MATTERS.

Meeting of the Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met Thursday night to close up their work for the fiscal year and be ready to turn the administration over to their successors on the first of July.

All but one member were present.

After reading and approving the minutes of the last meeting, before taking up the regular order of business, the matter of the claim of $50 of Allen & Bryant, presented at last meeting for the killing of their horse on the street, was considered. It was decided to offer a compromise of $25, which was accepted by the claimants, and the matter was settled.

The finance committee repeated $2179,31 in the treasury.

C. D. Rountree tax collector made his final report, which had been examined and was approved by the finance committee. This report showed the following collectors made by him during the year: General taxes $4958.05; license taxes $2171.25; market rents $522.20; purchase taxes $56.25; dog taxes $18; total $7725.75.

The delinquent list of persons who had left town and could not be found contained 41 names and amounted to $74.15, while the lists of those in town from whom collection could not be made contained 25 names and amounted to $42.20. Both these lists were allowed by the committee in settlement with the collector.

The other standing committees had no reports to make.

Accounts amounting to $428 were audited and paid.

A Two-Cent Railroad Claim.

At the general offices of one of the railways with headquarters in Pittsburg recently, a claim for two cents was put through the usual system of red tape and allowed. A passenger hailing from the eastern side of the State complained that the agent of the company had torn off one mile too many from his mileage book. He wrote five pages of hotel stationery reprimanding the company for its careless treatment of its patrons and demanded immediate settlement. He received a courteous answer inclosing two cents, with a politely expressed hope that he had not been seriously discommoded by the occurrence. —Philadelphia Record.

Longer Schedule.

THE REFLECTOR hears that the schedule for mail and passenger trains on this branch of the Atlantic Coast Line has been changed to take effect next Monday. We understand that the morning north bound will pass Greenville about 20 minutes or more sooner than the present schedule, while the south bound train will reach here an hour later at night, say about 8 o'clock. Greenville does not like such a schedule and there is going to be much complaint about it. The old schedule was bad enough, and a longer one is still worse.

The order in which the State Guard regiments will encamp is changed, at the request of the colonels. The third Regiment goes into camp July 10th; the Second Regiment July 22nd, and the First Regiment August 2nd.—Charlotte Observer.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1901.

The Seventh National Bank, of New York, went into the hands of a receiver Thursday. The deposits in the bank were nearly $6,000,000.

Later information since communication has been opened indicates that the number of deaths from the recent floods in the mining districts of West Virginia will not exceed fifty.

It looks like Raleigh is going to fail to get both the auditorium and the new hotel that the city has been working for. That means Greensboro will become the convention city of the State.

Opera House Tonight.

The Juvenile Dramatic Club of Greenville, under the auspices of The Daughters of the Confederacy, will render amusing scenes from Hans Christian Anderson's famous talking pantomime "Poupe en Fei." "A sequel to Cinderella" will also be given.

Miss Annie Jones, a charming vocalist, of Raleigh, will sing, Miss Alice White, of Greensboro, "Coon Song." Instrumental music by Misses Bertha Patrick and Nina James. "Dixie" by juvenile choir. Admission 25 cents, children under 12 years 15 cents.

The Daughters of the Confederacy are giving this entertainment to help the fund for the Davis monument building at Richmond and the Confederate monument here. All old Confederates and the public generally are requested to aid by their attendance.

Twenty years ago it was estimated that 200,000 persons crossed London bridge daily, 130,000 on foot and the rest in vehicles. With the growth of population these numbers have almost doubled, in spite of the relief afforded by the building of the tower bridge, half a mile down stream. It has, therefore, become an urgent matter to increase the capacity of the older bridge, and it has now been decided to accomplish this by means of granite corbels which will carry the foot-way as projections over the water on each side of the bridge.

Deaths Dead at a Poker Game. With the words: "I'll not play any more poker for a long time," H. Cab Maddox rose from the card table last night while playing with friends, and toppled over dead. Maddox was a commercial traveler, weighing 400 pounds. Apoplexy was the cause of death.—Richmond Dispatch.

The Encampment.

Wednesday orders were issued by the Governor and Commander in Chief of the State Guard through the Adjutant General fixing the encampment of the Guard and setting forth the regulations. An encampment of the North Carolina State Guard for the current year will be held by Regiment at Lattimer Park, near Wrightsville, beginning July 16th and ending August 14th, 1901. The camp will be designated "Camp Aycock."

The Quartermaster General will arrange transportation for the several regimental commander, staffs, bands, companies, etc., so as to reach camp not later than 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon of the day named, for each regiment to go into camp. Companies are required to attend with at least 75 per cent. of their muster roll. A failure on the part of any company to meet this requirement will deprive such company of the annual appropriation.

Tents, blankets, fuel, ice, cooking utensils and medicine will be supplied by the State. The troops must furnish their own rations. Convenient and ample kitchens and mess halls will be provided. Each regiment will be reviewed by the Commander-in-Chief on days to be hereafter named. The encampment will be held in the following order: Third Regiment from July 10th to 19th both inclusive. Second Regiment from July 22nd to 31st, both inclusive. First Regiment from August 5th to 11th, both inclusive. Battery "A" of Charlotte, will encamp with the First Regiment.

By order of the Governor and Commander in Chief. B. S. ROYSTER, Adj't General.

Farming That Pays.

A business man in this city who rents and manages a farm in the country was asked yesterday if such a venture paid. He replied that it certainly paid if managed on a business principle, in the same careful, energetic manner that a man runs a business office in town. "Anyone thinks he does well these days if he gets 6 to 15 per cent on the investment. I find from experience that farming, conducted properly, will pay from 10 to 15 per cent. on an investment. I know that this is opposed to the modern complaint that farming is no longer profitable. It will pay—it does pay if the farmer or the business man, if you like, is determined to make it pay."—Charlotte Observer.

Another storm visited the West Virginia coal fields Wednesday night, in many places destroying the work of repairs of the damage by Saturday's flood. It is reported that the damage at Pocahontas is worse than by the first storm. No lives lost in the storm Wednesday night.
