WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 29.

Every preparation for the comfort and convenience of the teachers who shall be with us next month has been made by our people, so far as in their power lay. If any leave us dissatisfied, surely it will not be the fault of the people of Winterville.

Those coming to the summer school, by private conveyance, will find it convenient to leave their horses at the feed and livery stable of R. H. Hunsucker. Mr. Hunsucker has also as nice and comfortable turnouts as can be found anywhere for which he will charge very moderate rates. Give him a trial.

Carlos Harris has painted a neat sign over the entrance of the Hunsucker feed and livery stables.

Dr. R. T. Vann, President of the Baptist Female University at Raleigh, will deliver an address before the teachers here next Monday night. A rich treat is certainly in store for all who shall be so fortunate as to be present.

Rev. M. P. Davis, of Snow Hill, will occupy the pulpit in the Baptist church here Sunday night.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry and J. B. Carroll left yesterday to attend the union meeting at Cove, N. C.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. have just received a car load of fine white corn which they will dispose of at reasonable prices.

R. G. and Claude Chapman, of Calico, were here Thursday. It is always a pleasure to meet these gentlemen.

J. H. Ellis, proprietor of the Ellis Carriage Works at Kinston, with his wife and little son, came up on Wednesday morning's mail train and returned home the same evening.

Edgar Buck and Edward Moore, of Greenville, are here building a dry kiln for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Carlos Harris, of Greenville, came Monday and is busily employed painting and superintending work placed in his hands.

Jerry Nickols, of Kinston, came over Monday to visit his mother, sisters and little "Bud."

Mrs. Simon Moye, who has been visiting her parents in Washington, N. C., returned home Tuesday evening.

Miss Carrie Brown, of your town, is visiting the Misses Wesson.

F. M. Smith, of near Greenville, spent last night with Mr. L. L. Kittrell.

J. B. Whitfield, who is working on the Dormitory, went to Roberstonville yesterday to visit his parents.

Winterville is a busy town, has always been busy, will ever be so, just now it is the busiest place imaginable, making preparations for next week.

There is no Family Medicine so favorably known as Pain-Killer. For over sixty years it has been used by missionaries in all parts of the world; not only to counteract the climatic influences on their families, but for the cure of all diseases of the bowels, and for wounds, burns, bruises, etc. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

SATURDAY JUNE 29, 1901.

The Henderson Gold Leaf truly says that unless the railroads reduce rates to the Buffalo Exposition visitors from a distance will be few. The rates are much too high to induce many people to go.

Sectionalism Obliterated.

An incident occurred at the recent meeting of the National Editorial Association, at Buffalo, that was very gratifying to the Southerners who were present.

It occurred that the banquet given by the Directors of the Exposition to the editors, which was attended by nearly a thousand persons, many of them being very prominent public officials, among them being Hon. John Hay, the Secretary of the United States. Speeches were made by Secretary Hay and others, in response to calls from the toastmaster.

How Few Persons Escape a Toothache; how many suffer unnecessarily. By the use of Perry Davis Pain-Killer the pain is almost instantly stopped and a complete cure effected.

The coal man cuts no ice now. The hobo is never known by his works.

A sugar-coated compliment is often hard to swallow. Weak coffee should furnish no grounds for divorce.

No, Maude, dear, every person who plays bridge doesn't have a walk over.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28 th.

The republican fight over the control of the Pension Bureau is growing sensational. Commissioner Evans this week made a statement—his first public resistance to the demand for his removal—that breathes defiance between the lines and may be considered a dare to Mr. McKinley to redeem the written promise of the Republican National Committee to Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, during the campaign last year, that Evans would not be continued at the head of the Pension Bureau during this administration, if Mr. McKinley were re-elected.

The opinion is increasing among democrats that the republican talk about revising the tariff so as to hit trust-controlled articles is nothing more than a vote making bluff. In many Congressional districts in the west and middle-west there is a strong sentiment among the republican voters against trusts.

With a few days—probably next week—the advisory headquarters of the Ohio republicans will be established in the Canton home of Mr. McKinley, and the adviser in chief will be no less a personage than Mr. McKinley himself. Although there is no national issue involved in the Ohio campaign this year, unless the election of a legislature that will name Senator Foraker's successor can be considered such, Mr. McKinley is very anxious that the republicans shall win, not that he would grieve to see Foraker lose his seat in the Senate, but because of its moral effect on the Congressional campaign of next year.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS, N. C., June 28. Jep Langley and J. P. Fleming spent last Sunday in Sokes. J. J. Satterthwaite went to Greenville Monday on business. M. T. Speir went to Washington yesterday. Mrs. D. R. Willis, of Washington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Satterthwaite. Mrs. James Carson, of Bethel, returned home Saturday after spending several days here with relatives. The potatoe season has about closed and good prices have been realized. The crop was short, but the farmers made some money. R. B. Fleming had a train load of logs to come in from Whichard Tuesday. Mrs. Ed Andrews is very sick. With the woods full of huckleberries no wonder the farmers have lots of grass. C. E. Bradley went to Greenville Monday. Jim Proctor, of Grimesland, was seen on our streets yesterday. Lots of sickness now. That suits the doctors. R. R. Fleming went to Washington yesterday. Fred Jones, of Grimesland, has been visiting the little folks here.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent headaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui. Mrs. ETTA KILLMAN,

W. C. Cook and little daughter, Miss Dora, of Margarettsville, came in Friday evening to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. N. Hart.

Miss Mamie Tucker, of Norfolk, who has been visiting relatives in this section left Friday evening for Greene county.

Graded School.

Ten of the trustees of the Greenville graded school met Friday afternoon in the office of Dr. Zeno Brown.

The Board of Trustees organized by electing C. T. Munford chairman and J. R. Moye secretary.

The Secretary was instructed to wait upon the Board of Aldermen of Greenville and ask them to make a levy on the property in the graded school district of 10 cents on each $100 property valuation and 30 cents on the poll for the coming year.

J. R. Moore, R. W. King and Dr. E. A. Moye were appointed committee to look after location for the school, report to be made at a called meeting.

W. H. Long tendered his resignation as one of the trustees and W. B. Brown was chosen to succeed him.

The meeting developed a strong interest in the school.

Opera House

The entertainment given by the Daughters of the Confederacy for the benefit of the Southern Memorial Building fund and the home monument was rendered according to announcement at the opera house Friday night.

The entertainment was pronounced by all present to be a most creditable one from start to finish. The music was of an exceptionally high order, the comedietta sparkling with humor, the fairy scene in a Christmas shop in Berlin was most amusing, the tableaux effective.

The amount realized was 64½ cents for the Southern Memorial Building fund and 89½ cents for the Greenville monument, total $1.50.

Plans Accepted.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held this morning to examine the maps, plans and specifications of systems of water works, electric lights and sewerage for the town prepared by Engineer J. L. Ludlow with whom a contract was made in April.

After examination the Board accepted the work of the engineer and instructed that an order for $1,750 be issued to him in accordance with the contract.

The plans and specifications prepared by Mr. Ludlow look very complete, embracing several large maps and 80 pages of type written matter.

BIDS NOT OPENED.

The Old Board Would not Act.

The Board of Aldermen met at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon to open the bids for the $75,000 improvement bonds as advertised, the full Board being present.

Mayor Moye stated that he had received three sealed bids.

Alderman Parker offered the following resolution:

Whereas, the new Board of Aldermen will in three days from now be charged with the sole responsibility of the expenditure of the $75,000 voted for for certain improvements in the town; and, whereas it will be an act of courtesy to the incoming Board to leave the sale of the bonds to the new Board,

It is ordered, That the opening of the bids now in the hands of the Mayor be postponed till such time as the new Board may fix for that purpose, and that the Mayor be and he is hereby directed to hold said bids without opening them and to deliver them to the new Board, sealed up, at its first meeting on July 1st, 1901.

After discussion of the resolution the question was put to the Board, the vote resulting in a tie. Aldermen Parker, House, Cobb, Patrick voted for the resolution and Aldermen White, McGowan, Tunstall and Hart voted against it. Mayor Moye ordered his vote recorded yea, sustaining the resolution.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder, and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
