TOWN MATTERS.

Transacted by the Aldermen,

The Board of Aldermen met again Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

H. T. King was elected Alderman to fill the vacancy from the fourth ward. He came forward and qualified.

Another ballot was taken for Assistant Police, resulting in a tie vote—4 for Forbes and 4 for Dudley—and the election was postponed to next meeting. E. B. Dudley was continued in the office until his successor shall be elected.

The bids in hand for the $75,000 improvement bonds were opened. One of the bids was withdrawn by telegraph. Another from Rudolph Kleybotte & Co., of Cincinnati, offered a premium of $1,250 for the bonds. In addition to this there was a proposal from another firm for the bonds but it was not accompanied by 2 per cent of the amount bid for as required. All bids were rejected, and consideration of the bond matter was deferred to next meeting.

The Board adjourned to meet again in special session today at 5 p. m.

TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1901.

The constitution does not go with the flag every time, but THE REFLECTOR has a way of following "Uncle Sam" everywhere he goes.

Information by wire today shows that this hot spell extends all over the country. New York reported yesterday as the hottest July day known in that city, with a record equally high today.

A correspondent of THE REFLECTOR in today's paper takes up the matter of the new schedule on this branch of the Coast Line, and makes some timely suggestions about it.

Norfolk connection is very nice for the person who occasionally wants to go there, but it is nothing in comparison with the benefits that would come from getting our mail several hours sooner.

Now THE REFLECTOR earnestly asks the railroad people to consider the injustice they are putting on this section. Either adopt the suggestion of our correspondent, shorten the stay at Norfolk one hour and equip the train over here so it can make the same connection and still reach Greenville by 6:30 o'clock; or else abolish connections with Norfolk so far as this branch is concerned and give us a quick train from Weldon that will bring our northern mail on from there without any delay.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1st.

Senator Quay has known for a long time that Mr. McKinley was neither an admirer of himself nor of the peculiar methods of his followers in Pennsylvania politics, but that knowledge did not prevent his requesting Mr. McKinley to prevent Post-master General Smith from taking an active part in the reform campaign against the Quayites in Philadelphia—a campaign that A. K. McClure, the veteran editor, declares to be simply a fight of honesty against wholesale thievery.

It had been hinted around Washington for some time that Ex-Secretary and Ex-Representative Herbert, of Alabama, who has been at the head of a Washington law firm which makes a specialty of claims against the government, since he retired from the Cleveland Cabinet, had been persuaded to undertake the job of trying to McLaurinize Alabama.

Girls who are fond of ice-cream and cake are the ones who cause the boys to quake.

Many a young man who falls in love is raised from that condition by the girl's father.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county in the case of Jesse Cannon Admr. of Loucilla Teel vs Jacky Teel, petition to sell land for assets, the undersigned administrator will sell for cash before the Court House door in Greenville on Monday August 5th, 1901 the following described parcel of land, situated in the town of Greenville on the West side Reade St., being 50 feet front and 65 feet back, and known as a part of the old Livery stable lot back of Hotel Macon, said lot accurately described in a deed from H. E. Daniel to Loucilla Teel recorded in Book H. 6, page 92, containing 1/2 of acre more or less. JESSE CANNON, Admr. F. G. JAMES, Atty. This July 2, 1901.

The Raleigh Times states that R. P. Voight, a Norfolk grocer, has brought suit against ex-Senator Ransom for $1,200 for supplies furnished him for his farms: Mr. Voight ought to send a personal representative to see Gen. Ransom about the claim. It is said that some years ago the general got a "leettle" behind with his taxes and that the sheriff, after repeated efforts to collect them, was about out of heart, when a certain deputy volunteered and said that one thing was certain, that if he were given the receipts he would come back with the money. They were given him and he went out and spent the day with the general. When he returned he said that he hadn't made any collection and that Gen. Ransom ought not to have to pay tax "nohow." Really Mr. Voight himself ought to go to see Gen. Ransom.—Charlotte Observer.

The world always seems brighter when some one gives you a word of encouragement.

"Much Virtue in 'If'"

"Mother Eddy" is quoted as saying that, "if the science of life were understood the human limb could be replaced as readily as the lobster's claw."

That is to say, men who lose their arms or legs by amputation in war or by any of the thousand and one accidents that happen to them in peaceful occupation could readily grow new ones—"if the science of life were understood."

Hundreds of millions paid in pensions to maimed veterans might be saved and "lists of wounded" from the battlefields would be robbed of their terrors—"if the science of life were understood." The railroad and trolley companies instead of having to pay damages that aggregate millions annually to persons who sue them for lost feet, missing hands and other abridgements of their bodies could promptly give them new limbs for old and save their money—"if the science of life were understood."

There is "much virtue in 'if,'" and Mrs. Eddy's intimation that "proud man" can only acquire equality with the lobster in this matter "if," etc., indicates that her inspirational utterances are tempered with caution.—Baltimore Sun.

BETTER SCHEDULE NEEDED.

Railroad not Fair to This Line.

GREENVILLE, N. C., July 2nd.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I notice that a new schedule went into effect yesterday making quite an advantage in the morning in that connection is now made at Hobgood for Norfolk—thus giving a through connection for mail and passengers. But, alas! the evening schedule has paralyzed us. It puts our evening mail here so late at night—it is 9 o'clock before mail can be opened and delivered—that our business men cannot attend to their correspondence and get it off for the early morning train, thus placing us twenty-four hours behind with our mail. And why is this? It is said that the railroad people wanted to give the people in Eastern North Carolina the chance to go to Norfolk and return the same day. The train reaches Norfolk at 1 o'clock, P. M., and returning leaves there at 3:30, P. M., giving two and one-half hours in Norfolk.

Now, I submit that there is not one person out of a hundred from this entire section who has enough business to take him to Norfolk, but that will want more than two and a half hours there. The train from Norfolk has no other connection anywhere and there is no reason why it could not leave Norfolk as formerly, at half-past two, thus allowing our evening train to make all main line connections and give us our mail and express an hour earlier.

And then, Mr. Editor, it is a fact readily acknowledged by all the railroad officers that this line—the Kinston branch—is the best paying piece of property that they have. And yet they have the poorest equipment and slowest schedule of any of their lines. The cars are old and out of repair. The old wood burner engines out of date in every respect, and in fact the entire equipment a back number.

Now, our people and the people along the line, have freely given the road their patronage. Yet, they in return have given us only this one train a day and on a schedule that puts us twenty-four hours behind from a business standpoint.

Now, Mr. Editor, I have never been classed with those generally known as "kickers," but I feel like uttering my protest against this treatment where there is no excuse for it.

With our train to leave Weldon at 3:55 as formerly and a good coal-burner engine to pull it, we could get our evening mail at 6:30 easily and make the Hobgood connection from Norfolk, too. I trust that you will agitate this matter until some relief is granted us.

Base Ball.

Monday's games in the Carolina Virginia league keep the order of the clubs the same as the day before, Wilmington heading the list with Tarboro leading back the other way. The scores were:

Wilmington 4, Raleigh 1.
Norfolk 13, Charlotte 7.
Richmond 14, Tarboro 2.

Notice!

I will return from the Boston Conservatory of Music about the middle of August, and will open my music class at the time the schools begin their fall term. I wish to thank all parents who have patronized me in the past, and request those who desire their children to study music to send them to me the coming session.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
