Excursion.

The committee looking after the excursion to Norfolk in contemplation by the Baptist Sunday school, heard from the railroad officials today and wish the officers and teachers of the school to meet at the church tonight to receive the report and take definite action.

Knitting Mills Officers.

The stock holders of the Greenville Knitting Mills held their annual meeting a few days ago and elected the following officers:

President—L. I. Moore.
Vice-President—D. E. House.
Secretary and Treasurer—W. S. Atkins.

Four to One.

Mr. W. R. Cunningham served as a special police Thursday. Early in the night he arrested a negro and three other negroes went to take the prisoner away from him. The officer was game and held the crowd at bay, but the prisoner gave him a slight cut on the finger and also cut a long gash in his coat. Policeman Dudley hearing the scuffle went to Mr. Cunningham's assistance and the prisoner was landed. The other three ran away.

Base Ball.

The clubs in the Carolina Virginia league played two games on the 4th with the following scores:

Morning games:
Raleigh 8, Wilmington 2.
Richmond 2, Charlotte 6.
Norfolk 11, Tarboro 5.
Afternoon games:
Raleigh 5, Wilmington 2.

FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1901.

COUNTY MATTERS.

Proceedings of the Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session on Monday, July 1st, the full Board being present.

The usual pauper orders and orders for general county purposes were issued.

The Henderson Telephone Company was granted permission to erect, maintain and operate telephone and telegraph poles, wires and appurtenances along the public roads of Pitt county, provided said poles and wires shall in no way interfere with public travel and shall be erected and maintained in a safe manner.

W. N. Haight was refused retail liquor license at Standard.

J. R. Davenport was appointed to take charge of Pactolus ferry across Tar river at $12.50 per month. He filed a bond for $1,000 with J. R. Barnhill surety to conduct the ferry according to law.

Heber L. Nichols was appointed Constable of Beaver Dam township and filed his official oath and bond for $1,000 with T. A. Nichols and Jesse L. Smith as sureties.

The sheriff made report of a public road laid out in Swift Creek township.

The names of J. D. Pope, Millie Atkinson, Druella Rives and Solomar Atkinson were stricken from pauper list. John Smith was added to the list to receive $3.00 per month.

O. L. Joyner and others presented a petition for a public road running from the Tarboro and Greenville road to the Stantonsburg road near the corner of F. M. Smith's fence.

Gorden & Hamilton were granted conditional liquor license in Falkland township, same to be revoked if found to conflict with the law in regard to selling a certain distance from church.

The sheriff was ordered to lay out a public road in Pactolus township in accordance with petition filed at June meeting.

The Board met again Tuesday, July 2nd, all present.

The delinquent tax lists of 1899 and 1900 were ordered turned over to G. M. Mooring, as his property, upon payment to the Treasurer of $141.29.

W. H. Harrington filed notice with the Board that he had transferred and assigned to Mrs. Hannah E. Daniel all of his right, title and interest in the lot fronting the Court House, which he bid off at public sale made by the Commissioners in 1899, and requested that a deed be executed to her for the same.

The names of E. Neal, Bettie Keel, H. H. Tyson, John Godley, Della Staton, Sarah Hodges, Cato Edwards and wife, D. H. Smith, Harsley Dupree and David Albritton were stricken from pauper list.

The pauper allowance for John Wilson was reduced from $2 to $1 per month, Alvania Morris from $1.50 to $1 per month, Mary and Allie Taylor from $3 to $1.50 per month.

The retail liquor license granted were 13 in Greenville township, 3 in Chicod, 1 in Swift Creek, 6 in Contentnea, 1 in Beaver Dam, 2 in Farmville, 3 in Falkland, 1 in Belvoir, 1 in Bethel, 3 in Carolina, 3 in Pactolus, and 1 for malt liquors in Greenville, a total of 38 licenses in the county.

The following jurors were drawn for September term of Superior court:

First week—Jesse Harrell, W. T. Joyner, J. R. Buck, Jas. L. Smith, H. L. Blount, W. A. B. Hearne, J. B. Bullock, J. F. Edwards, E. S. Laughinghouse, Augustus Forbes, S. T. White, J. B. Randolph, A. B. Conleton, W. B. Harper, James A. Davis, W. F. Hart, G. W. Vandiford, F. E. Randolph, W. B. Wilson, J. B. Little, Israel Edwards, W. H. Barrington, W. E. Moore, Nash Edwards, Sebran Cox, G. W. Clark, J. E. S. Adams, R. H. Pollard, E. F. Williams, Noah Forbes, L. A. Cobb, Joseph Cox, S. I. Dudley, J. D. Jones, W. J. Little.

Second week—B. F. Windham, S. D. Overton, L. H. Pender, W. G. Garris, J. H. Barnhill, Jacob McLawhon, Jesse H. Smith, J. F. Harrington, W. T. Pierce, W. G. Stokes, E. Lang, J. H. Bynum, J. J. May, Bryant H. Hardee, W. W. Whitehurst, W. J. Whitehurst, G. M. Smith, and M. M. Stokes.

The Treasurer was instructed to collect at once balance due on lot purchased by W. H. Harrington from the county, and deliver deed for same to Mrs. Hannah T. Daniel.

The Concert was Interesting and Amusing.

A large audience was attracted last evening to hear Blind Tom, the negro pianist.

The entertainment was varied, interesting and amusing. At a request that some one come and play for Tom to imitate, a gentleman played a melody with a discord, which Tom played right after him, including the discord.

Tom has no knowledge of the value of money. If you were to lay down $20 and a box of candy he would take the candy. He is very happy and contented. He stops at the best hotels, and has the best the market affords, his meals being always served in his rooms. His health is always good and his appearance indicates that his appetite is the same.—San Jose Evening News.

Blind Tom will appear in the opera house tomorrow night. Reserve seats now on sale at Burch's.

Another Fiend Captured.

Goldsboro, N. C. July 4.—About 2 o'clock this morning Ed. Applewhite, a young negro farm laborer, was caught in the room of one of the daughters of Mr. E. M. Sauls, near Eureka a village in this county. Miss Sauls heard some one in her room and felt a hand touch the bed clothes. She arose and lighted a match and Applewhite was found attempting to conceal himself in the room.

Mr. Sauls had a desperate struggle with the negro who would have succeeded in escaping but for the fact that Mr. Sauls was quickly assisted by his son and both together captured him. The negro was delivered to the deputy Sheriff who brought him here and landed him in jail. The affair created much excitement. There is no fear of lynching but the jail is well guarded.

F. C. TOEPLERMAN,
Gen. Supt

NORTH CAROLINA, Pitt county in Superior Court.

W. H. JAMES and JOSEPH JAMES, vs. R. J. W. CARSON.

By virtue of an Execution, directed to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Pitt county, in the case of W. H. James and Joseph James against R. J. W. Carson, I will, on Monday the fifth day of August, 1901, at 12 o'clock m. at the court house doors in Greenville, sell to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said Execution, all the right title and interest which the said R. J. W. Carson defendant has in the following described real estate, to wit: One lot of land in the town of Bethel, N. C., bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Main and Tarboro streets on Easterly course about eighty feet (80) to Guilford Andrews' line, a Southerly course (30) thirty feet thence a Westerly course parallel with Tarboro St. thence with Main St. a Northerly course to the beginning, containing (1) one-eighth of an acre which was conveyed to R. J. W. Carson by Harry Skinner, March 10th, 1892, Book G. 5 page 579.

Also one other tract situated in the town of Bethel on the East side of James St. bounded as follows on the North by Winfred Whiturst on the East by Jesse W. Carson on the South by Malissa Ann Bryan and on the West by James St. and being the lot whereon R. J. W. Carson formerly resided, being a part of the land conveyed to R. J. W. Carson by R. D. Whiturst by Deed Recorded in Book A. 4 pages 114 and 115—of the Registers office of Pitt county. Also, all the portion of the tract of land which was conveyed by McG. Bryson and wife, Maggie, to R. J. W. Carson by Deed dated Dec. 3rd 1888 and Recorded in book D. 4 page 334 of the Registers office of Pitt county, situated in Bethel township, Pitt county, except so much thereof as was assigned to the said R. J. W. Carson as a homestead on the 3rd day of July, 1901. The homestead containing 70 acres and the excess, which will be sold containing about 35 acres. Reference is made to the appraiser returns for more particular description to said homestead as allotted. This 5th day of July, 1901.

O. W. HARRINGTON,
Sheriff of Pitt county.
By L. W. TUCKER, Deputy Sheriff.

THE CITY FATHERS.

What the Aldermen are Doing.

The Board of Aldermen met Thursday night in regular session, six members being present.

The Tax Collector made his report of license taxes and market rents collected.

The Chief of Police was instructed to make an inventory of property on hand belonging to the town.

H. C. Ormond, who was elected Alderman to fill the vacancy in the fifth ward, declined to accept and the place was again declared vacant. J. L. Sugg and W. H. White were placed in nomination for the place and received three votes each, when the matter of filling this vacancy, as well as the office of Assistant Police, was deferred to the next regular meeting.

Henry T. King was appointed a committee to make some investigation in regard to bond sales.

J. N. Hart, Treasurer-elect, was allowed further time to file his official bond.

The following special license taxes were levied:

Opera houses $30 per year.

Traveling theatricals and minstrels not showing in licensed halls $7.50 per day.

Circus and menageries, one ring $50 per day, two or more rings $75 per day, each side show $20 per day. Circuses advertising and parading in town but showing outside the corporate limits are subject to the same tax.

Public auctioneers $7.50 per year.

NOTICE.

I will return from the Boston Conservatory of Music about the middle of August, and will open my music class at the time the schools begin their fall term. I wish to thank all parents who have patronized me in the past, and request those who desire their children to study music to send them to me the coming session.

MISS LINA SHEPPARD.

stated by the year or month are the same for any part of the time.

An effort was made to get slot machines back in the town by a motion being made that a license tax of $20 per year be placed on each machine. This resulted in a tie vote and Mayor Long decided the matter by voting against it.

The Clerk was instructed to write the Attorney General to ascertain if the town has a right to levy a special tax on tobacco warehouses, tobacco buyers, pinhookers, cotton buyers and barber shops.

Warm Times.

The people of Greenville have something else to warm them up now as well as the weather, namely, the special taxes levied by the Board of Aldermen. On nearly everything there was about a 50 per cent raise over former taxes, and a kind of drag net feeler was thrown out to see if anything else could be found that would bear taxing. The revenue act and town charter were both searched diligently. If whiskey license had gone up in as much proportion it would have looked better.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
