PERSONAL NOTES.

People Looking for Cooler Places

C. W. Harvey left this morning for Danville.

J. V. Johnson returned this morning from Ayden.

Presiding Elder, F. A. Bishop, left this morning for Tarboro.

Miss Myrtle Wilson came home this morning from Winterville.

Dr. R. L. Carr returned Friday from Morehead City and elsewhere.

Miss Sallie Cox, of Johnson's Mills, came up this morning to visit relatives.

P. M. Johnson and family left this morning for Tarboro to visit relatives.

Misses Sallie Robinson and Blanche Mayo, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. D. E. House.

Miss Irma McGowan, of Elm City, arrived Friday evening to visit Mrs. E. B. Higgs.

E. H. Thomas, wife and little son left this morning for a visit to Henderson and Statesville.

Mesdames R. J. Cobb and T. E. Hooker returned Friday evening from the exposition at Buffalo.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale come home Friday evening from the teachers' institute at Winterville.

John Andrews, of Ayden, who has been here a few days helping in THE REFLECTOR office, returned home Friday evening.

First New Tobacco.

The first new tobacco of the 1901 crop on the Greenville market was brought in today by Mr. W. H. Allen. There were three loads and it all went to the Liberty warehouse.

Base Ball Rates.

On account of the base ball games in Tarboro on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the Atlantic Coast Line will sell tickets at one fare for the round trip. The price from Greenville and return is $1.10.

Preferred Jail to Work.

A colored man serving a term in jail was recently hired out to a farmer. He worked along for a day or two and then failed to show up at his end of the row any more. The farmer started an inquiry after him and found that he had come to town and gone back in jail. The negro said he had rather stay in jail than to work.

Express Changes.

There have recently been some changes of the Southern Express Co. on this division. Mr. J. J. Crosswell, who was Route Agent with headquarters at Rocky Mount, has been transferred to the Fayetteville division and is succeeded by Mr. K. C. Barrett, formerly of Norfolk division. Mr. W. D. Farmer, who has been Messenger between Weldon and Kinston for some months, has been transferred to the Norfolk & Carolina road and Mr. O. T. Boney has been put back on this run. This was Mr. Boney's old run, and all are glad to see him back over here.

The Great Remedy of the day is unquestionably Pain-Killer, for the instant relief of all burns, bruises, etc., and for pains in the stomach and bowels as well as sudden attacks of cholera morbus. No family should pretend to keep house without it always by them. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis. Price 25c and 50c.

SATURDAY JULY 6, 1901.

The stock brokers and banks in the north that have been breaking during the last few days does not indicate that the wave of prosperity over the country is so large as it has been pictured.

The fact that a negro prisoner who was hired out to a farmer and of his own accord came back to jail, saying he had rather stay in jail than to work, shows the good the whipping post could accomplish

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. July 6, 1901.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 6.

On Thursday night Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of the chair of Latin in Wake Forest College, spoke to the teachers saying in part: He was glad to be here to speak to the teachers of Pitt and Greene. How fitting that the one named in honor of the great English orator, the other the great American warrior should unite and here join heart and hand to equip themselves for better work.

There have been transitions as the discovery of America, the American revolution and Napoleon upheavals in France, but one of the greatest is on today. Change is written on every phase of life and learning. Great changes have come with steam, electricity, the press, widening of woman's sphere, widening commercial life and breaking down dogmatic opinions of 1,000 years standing.

We are facing a new century, our eyes catch a new sight and our ears hear the bugle call to duty. There is a golden age yet to be developed on all lines. Philosophy will be greater and love have more of life and beauty and richer rewards. What is to be the mission of learning? 1st. Must exalt man above mammon. 2nd. Exalt faith above materialism. 3rd. Teach men higher ideals of civic and social virtues. 4th. Must lighten the burdens of toil. 5th. The Spirit is mercenary as in days of old and we measure by dollars and they are deified. Money is magnified and man minimized.

Lay broad foundations for faith. To lose faith is to lose power. To live nobly you must believe strongly. Without faith the sublimest truth and facts fall. France trying to destroy this found her people sunk in the dark abyss of despair. Like a ship on the sea without Captain, anchor or rudder, so is man when not stayed in faith in God. Teach men to stand on faith. Have vision to see the present and to interpret minds and appropriate to the present.

Many problems are all one. Labor and municipal troubles, strikes, race problems, etc., are all one problem. The question is how to instruct the citizen and get him to do it. Intelligence makes the citizen a patriot, he embodies and exemplifies, he is the type of the RHEUMACIDE CURES RHEUMATISM TO STAY CURED. THE MEDICAL WONDER OF THE Nineteenth Century. A vegetable remedy that positively cures recent and long standing cases.

Divine. But the opposite is weakness and like blind Sampson tears down on his own head. Men and women of Pitt and Greene, I bid you God speed. You have your sacrifices and toils, but above and crowning all the triumph. The beautiful language, fine thought and stirring eloquence of Prof. Carlyle charmed the audience. Only one fault found—he quit too soon. Friday night was on a different line none the less pleasant. Short programme was excellently rendered, after which 20 gallons of lemonade was brought in and all drank to their comfort. Then began the social feature when man unknown to each other became known and at 10:30 ended the most pleasant feature of the institute. So say we all. Monday night ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, will address the Institute, and on Wednesday night there will be an address by Dr. Venable, President of the University.

At New Bern.

The Greenville boys defeated New Bern on their own grounds on the 4th in a score of 21 to 10. Our boys say they were treated white in New Bern, one feature of the entertainment being a moonlight excursion the night they got there.

Below is the line up of the Greenville team:

	R	H	E
Skinner, cf	2	2	0
Fenner, W., c	3	2	1
Timberlake, 1b	3	1	1
Smith, 2b	3	2	1

Happy old age

Many women who have enjoyed good health all their life begin to fade when they reach the age of forty-four. They grow nervous and irritable and suffer with sick-headaches. Their livers are torpid, their digestion is impaired and their bowels are irregular. They are experiencing the "change of life." And it is not strange that the cessation of the menstrual habit after thirty years operation should disturb the system and tax the strongest constitution. This trying period has no terror for a woman who uses Wine of Cardui. It builds up her strength and prepares her for the ordeal. When the change of life is not safely passed, a woman quickly becomes an invalid. Slumbering disease germs are given increased activity and they appear in aggravated form. If you take Wine of Cardui regularly when approaching the change of life you will be assured better health than you have ever enjoyed before. A happy old age and restful calm will be your reward. Mrs. Campbell was cured after suffering three years with "change of life." Theford's Black-Draught, the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui, assimilates with it perfectly, curing digestive liver and kidney affections, and throwing impurities and disease germs out of the system. Both working together make a well and happy woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

YOUNG, Laurens Co., S. C., Sept. 22, 1899.

I have recommended your Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught to several of my lady friends, and I can say they are what you recommend them to be. I have been suffering three years with the "change of life," and I did not get anything that would do me any good until I tried your medicine. I give thanks to Wine of Cardui and you, for it relieved me. Mrs. D. H. CAMPBELL.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5th.

Senator Tillman passed through Washington this week, and he expressed some vigorous political opinions. For instance, he said: It is stupid to talk about the Democratic party being the enemy of the business interests. We did endorse the free coinage of silver, but events have proven that our contention as to the need of more money was correct. The prosperity which the country has experienced is simply due to the large increase in the supply of gold through new discoveries. We are riding now on the crest of the wave, but it will not be long before we get into the trough. Hard times will come, and then what are the Republicans to do. They have enacted a high tariff and have given us a gold standard and when they find that neither of these will avoid disaster, they will seek to find some other remedy, the result of which will be to help the rich without regard to the poor." Of the future Democratic policy, Mr. Tillman said: "We will be against a carpet-bag government for the Philippines, because we know the evils which such government brings in its train. I do not know that the money question will figure in the next campaign, but I do know that there will be plenty of vulnerable spots in the Republican armor which we can attack." Of the probable Democratic candidate Senator Tillman said: "I do not yet see a candidate in sight, but I for one, will not favor the nomination of any one who has not been identified with the party during the past four years. I do not see how it is possible for so-called Democrats to expect the Democratic party to endorse in 1904 the principles to which the Republicans are now wedded, and yet they are solemnly discussing such a proposition. They expect the democrats to move side by side with the republicans and then win. That is not my way of making a fight."

Col. R. M. Johnson, Texas member of the Democratic National Committee, who passed through Washington this week, on his way to New York, said of the political outlook: "The democratic party is all right, and it has fully recovered from the defeat of 1900. What we want to do to win next year is simply to take advantage of our opportunities. The Republicans seem to be all at sea on the tariff question, and in my opinion the tariff will again come to the front as an issue. But there will be other live issues besides the tariff in the next campaign."

Senator Hanna sent his private secretary to Washington to impress upon the mind of Mr. McKinley the necessity for his presence among the Ohio Republicans to prevent the present bickering growing into a regular cut throat fight, and the result was that Mr. and Mrs. McKinley left Washington today for Canton.

As Mr. McKinley left Washington without appointing a new Pension Commissioner, it looks as though he had decided to allow Commissioner Evans to keep that position, notwithstanding the hubbub against him that has been aroused by the skillful agitation of "old soldiers," on the ground that his construction of the law has not given the old soldiers all that was coming to them in the way of pensions. It is hinted that an attempt is to be made to force Mr. McKinley to act by carrying the fight against Evans into Ohio politics.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
