Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M.

Monday evening, July 15th, 1901.—The officers and members of Greenville Lodge, No. 284 A. F. & A. M., take this method of expressing thanks to the good people of Greenville and vicinity for their uniform kindness and courtesy extended the Chapter of Orphans, from the Oxford Orphan Asylum, under the management of Bro. E. W. Jones and Mrs. Whitted.

Greenville has always been faithful, loyal and true to the cause of the Orphans. The inclement weather, and being Saturday night, did not deter the people from enjoying the magnificent entertainment given at the opera house Saturday night, and a large crowd greeted them. And on Sunday night at the Baptist church, where a great course of people greeted them, was an earnest expression of the great good will for them.

Especially do we thank sincerely Mr. E. H. Shelburn for his more than liberal contribution, in conveying the Chapter to and from the depot free of charge, and also the churches for closing their doors on Sunday night and giving the evening to the Orphans, the patronage and contributions being entirely given to the glorious cause. To one and all, our sincere thanks are returned.

The Managers and the Orphans expressed their great pleasure at being in Greenville and sharing the hospitality of the people so graciously and abundantly bestowed. R. L. CARR, I. A. SUGG, J. M. REUSS.) Committee.

The Governor spoke to The Observer correspondent about a matter of great public importance, which certainly marks a new departure in North Carolina. He said: "There is an association at Seattle, in the State of Washington, organized to prevent lynchings, and for each and every person engaged in a lynching it offers $500 reward. It notifies me that it has offered that reward for each and every person engaged in the lynching this year at LaGrange and Smithfield, and has put up the money. I do not care for outside aid in securing law and order in North Carolina, but hereafter, no matter what the crime may be, I will offer $400 reward, which is the limit under the law, for each and every participant. I recognize that there is a crime for which the punishment is certain death, but criminals must be hanged by the law and not by the mob. Lynching has got to stop in this State. I ask you to call on the press and the preachers to stop the tendency towards lynch law. It is a great blot on the State."

Your correspondent happens to know that it was the earnest hope of Governor Aycock that there would be no lynching during his term of office. Yet there have been three—the two named and one in Cumberland county. The Governor had for some time been anxious to make a plain statement regarding lynchings. He speaks with great plainness.—Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1901.

If Greenville had a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, there would be plenty of opportunity for bringing complaints against persons for cruel and even brutal treatment to dumb beasts. It is no unusual occurrence to see teams on the streets that are unfit for work. There are animals half starved and jaded to whose backs an unmerciful driver will cruelly ply the lash to make them pull more than they are able.

Most of the editors in the State have just been to Greensboro and seen what that city has to offer in the way of auditorium and hotel accommodations. With a splendid auditorium that will seat 1,500, three good hotels and another building, it will not surprise us if Greensboro pulls the next Democratic State convention.

It seems that there have been about sixteen car loads of revenue stamps sent back for Uncle Sam to redeem. The income of the government will be materially decreased, but it seems from all returns that the surplus is getting too large anyway.

Mrs. Eddy Boss of the Whole Show.

Talk about "Emperor McKinley," he is not in it with Mrs. Eddy, the autocrat of the Christian Scientists. She bosses the entire job, gets all the money from the sale of the published doctrine, and is said to have already become a millionaire.

Loss of memory often comes from borrowing money.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15th.

That there are a number of republicans, some of them prominent who would like to prevent the election of 'Dave' Henderson, speaker of the next House is certain, but it is equally certain that there are not enough of them to do it. Consequently, the stories of an organization to try to defeat Henderson, are moonshine. Politicians do not knowingly butt their heads against stone walls. If there were even a fighting chance to beat Henderson, the fight would be made, but as there isn't the men who dislike him most are likely to be found shouting the loudest for his nomination by acclamation, in order that they may not be left out when he distributes the Committee plums.

Democrats have done a great deal of talking among themselves about the Ohio democratic platform, but few of them care to express opinions about it for publication. One of the exceptions is Representative Bankhead, of Alabama who said of it: "The Ohio platform is all right and should receive the support of every democrat in the Buckeye state. It conforms to existing conditions and states the issues of the campaign in language clear enough for anybody to understand."

Most of the editors in the State have just been to Greensboro and seen what that city has to offer in the way of auditorium and hotel accommodations. With a splendid auditorium that will seat 1,500, three good hotels and another building, it will not surprise us if Greensboro pulls the next Democratic State convention. Raleigh has got to advance greatly to be so well prepared to take care of a crowd.

We suppose you would call it a head wind when it blows through your whiskers.

Congressman John H. Small, of Washington, will address the teachers institute at Winterville on next Monday night, instead of this week as first announced.

Before the Spanish-American war, this country was able to get along with the service of twenty special agents of the internal revenue. These officers get $7 a day as compensation and $3 a day for expenses besides traveling expenses. At the outbreak of the war, this force was increased to forty-five. The war is a thing of the past and a large portion of the taxes have been cut off, but these forty-five special $7 a day agents are still holding on to the public teat. There is little chance that they will ever be cut off. It is more likely that their ranks, like that of the pensioners, will increase. The man who expects to live to see this useless crowd of officials weeded out indulges in a vain hope.—Charlotte Observer.

June Bugs Put Out the Lights of a Town.

Zanesville, O., July 14.—Zanesville is almost entirely in darkness to night, as a result of the visitation of June bugs in countless numbers. Electric light globes are filled and the lights are completely submerged by the ashes of the burned bugs. The hotel offices are infested with such swarms that it was necessary to close the doors, notwithstanding the intense heat.

In several instances church services were interfered with. The river bridges are almost impassable to pedestrians. The atmosphere about the lights is filled with clouds of live insects and floors are covered to a depth of several inches by dead ones.

Full recovery from heat prostration is not usually immediate. Persons who have suffered great depression during a heated term are liable to headaches and other distressing symptoms for weeks, or to "chronic heat stroke," as the doctors say. Those who have been actually overcome by the heat will find it necessary to guard themselves with uncommon care for many summers. "Chronic heat stroke" is by no means a new ailment, but it is more in evidence now than ever before because of the unprecedented hot season.

Many a man gets a pointer from the finger of scorn.

Rowan Solves the Problem.

The crowded condition of the insane asylums in North Carolina is most unfortunate. Even under the most favorable conditions it is a tragic thing for a human being to be bereft of reason, but when such a one must, for their own safety and that of others, be confined in the common jail with criminals it becomes doubly pitiful. Such a condition, if allowed to continue, will be a deep disgrace to the State.

In the present emergency, Rowan county has set an example that is worthy of imitation by all counties having in their jails insane people for whom admission to the insane asylums cannot be secured. The Rowan commissioners have erected a building with four large airy rooms for the reception and accommodation of insane persons who otherwise would have to be confined in jail. Experience has shown that the confinement of insane people in jail has had a bad effect on both the insane persons and the sane prisoners.—Raleigh New & Observer.
