PERSONAL NOTES.

People Looking For Cooler Places.

J. J. Stroud went to Winterville Thursday night.

W. A. Fleming, of Hassells, was here today.

J. B. Cherry left this afternoon for Seven Springs.

Father Paul came in from New Bern this morning.

Dr. Louis Skinner came home Thursday night from Buffalo Lithia Springs, Va.

Mrs. Ada C. Harris, of Wilmington, arrived Thursday evening to visit Mrs. J. A. Ricks.

Capt. W. D. Phillips, of Lumber City, Ga., came in this morning to visit relatives near here.

Misses Myra Moore and Lizzie McGowan returned home Thursday evening from Henderson.

Miss Irma McGowan, of Elm City, who has been visiting Miss Emily Higgs, returned home today.

Misses Estelle and Lydia Thigpen have returned to their home near Greenville after spending some time here visiting the Misses Fleming.—Washington Progress.

The Southern Tobacco Journal says: Just as the cotton mills are being located near the source of the raw material, so the leaf stemmeries are being removed in closer proximity to the fields. Bright tobacco, instead of being shipped to central points to be rehandled and prepared for export, will be largely in the future exported direct from the local markets. Thus the importance of North Carolina and South Carolina as tobacco States is greatly enhanced.

Blind Tom Not in It.

The people in the vicinity of Third and Greene streets are very fortunate in having means of amusement convenient these warm evenings. Last evening at a very late hour capped the climax with several renditions of the newest and most up-to-date music. It was enjoyed not only by nervous women and sick children, but the poor fellow who has to be about his early morning avocation was cheered and refreshed by it. Z.

A Delightful Card Party.

Miss Nell Skinner gave a delightful card party at her home Wednesday evening from 9 to 12. Hearts was the ruling game, and of course all were willing to take part. Charlie Skinner won the prize by his excellent playing. After the game refreshments were served

Those present were as follows:

Miss Irma Cobb with Charlie James.

Miss Mary Higgs with Leslie Newton.

Miss Bertha Patrick with Major Fleming.

Miss Olivia Watson with Harry Skinner.

Miss Nina James with Fred Forbes.

Miss Carrie McGee with Ben Higgs.

Miss Margaret Castex with Charlie Skinner.

Miss Nell Skinner with Walter Wilson.

Stags.—Andrew Moore, Tom Moore, Richard White, Argall Vick, Hugh Sheppard and Harvey Jones.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., July 25.

Quite a large crowd attended services here Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Buck Blank and son, Walter, and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Beard, were the guests of Mrs. C. S. Dixon Saturday night and Sunday.

Curing tobacco is the song of the day now. Every one you meet talks of curing tobacco.

We hear that the bears have been playing havoc with hogs around here.

Miss Minsey Dixon was the guest of Miss Lucy White Sunday.

North Carolina is Waking Up.

Everybody ought to be happy when realizing that North Carolina is waking up and that throughout her length and breadth the song of education is being heard. All of our lives ought to be songs full and overflowing. God is good to us, surely. And let us prize above all things the opportunity which He has given to men and women to make others happy. As the strong men of old held themselves recreant when not using their knightly strength in saying and protecting others, so may the school men of our State be strong and successful in using the knowledge and wisdom which God has given them for the help of the young who crowd the halls of their institutions. That is the best prayer we can make for them. We want no bitterness in our educational policy, but unity and devotion.—Trojan's Notion.

Even a train of thought may be behind time.

In the eyes of the lawyer all suits are suitable.

ALTERNATE VACANCY.

WASHINGTON, N. C., July 25.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Please announce that there is a vacancy in the appointment of alternate Naval Cadet at Annapolis from this district. The principal will be examined at Annapolis on September 2nd and in the event of failure in his mental or physical examination, the alternate will be required to report for examination on September 16th, 1901.

Respectfully,
JNO. H. SMALL.

Making "Ads" Readable.

The managing head of a financial concern in Jersey City which advertises extensively in the newspapers has said: "The people are taking to reading my 'ads' just because they are readable. There is no mistaking the fact that people nowadays read advertisements." There is no man who is thoroughly familiar with his business but can tell the people interesting facts about it.—Philadelphia Record.

The Macon Telegraph makes this pertinent remark:

"The application for Spanish-American war pensions already number 45,710. Judging by the growth of the civil war pension list, this comparatively modest figure in thirty-five years will have expanded to about 750,000. But it is likely that such expansion will never again be permitted. At any rate it is encouraging to hear out of the 45,710 claims only 7,086 have so far been allowed, 7,059 have been rejected, and 31,565 are still to be considered."

The fellow who doesn't have to be in the snb has a shade the better of it.

LYNCHINGS UNFORTUNATE.

The papers divide as to lynchings. All would like to have no such violation of laws in North Carolina. But all observant people know the damning causes that usually bring forth such bitter fruit.

THE REFLECTOR has recently printed several extracts from exchanges giving expression on both sides of this lynching question, and also a statement from Governor Aycock that lynching must cease in North Carolina.

of any county during the progress of a court to see cause for this. There are too many farces enacted in the name of trials. The Meanest criminals are made to appear as heroes, while the victims are maligned and slandered.

Even among experts there is sometimes the excuse "didn't know it was loaded." The United States gunboat Kearsage has been lying at anchor off Newport, R. I., and while the crew were having a practice drill a shell from one of the guns went flying into the city, terribly frightening the citizens along the line of its flight.

A Charlotte dealer is trying to divert the minds of the people from this weather. He is advertising coal and wood.

HEIRS TO TEXAS OIL LANDS.

The great oil discoveries in Texas have caused active search for the unknown heirs of the following early settlers of Texas and soldiers of the Texas Revolution of 1835 to 1840.

THE REFLECTOR has recently printed several extracts from exchanges giving expression on both sides of this lynching question, and also a statement from Governor Aycock that lynching must cease in North Carolina.

The SPORTING WORLD

Famous Rowing Coach.
 Ellis Ward, the famous head rowing coach of the University of Pennsylvania, occupies a prominent niche in the aquatic world nowadays. Ward is applying the finishing touches to the Quaker eight that will compete in the Henley regatta in England. The Pennsylvanians are rowing in fine form and will undoubtedly make a creditable showing on the other side of the Atlantic.

Ellis Ward has had entire charge of the Pennsylvania Institution's rowing affairs for many years. As an oarsman he himself achieved international repute. The stroke he teaches is similar to that formerly favored by Al Cook, the Yale coach of several years ago. The Henley regatta occurs in July. Ward has picked ten for the trip abroad. The new eight oared shell constructed for the special use of the Quaker crew in the contest for the Grand Challenge cup on the Thames was launched in the Schuylkill a few days ago.

International Tennis.
 Holcombe Ward, one of the American champion lawn tennis players in doubles and the national indoor champion in singles, will sail for England in a few days to play in the English championship tournament at Wimbledon the last week in June.

D. F. Davis, his regular partner and also the donor of the International Challenge cup, is already on the other side, having sailed from here April 24. Davis intends to play in a number of the English tournaments before the championship meeting, and he and Ward will enter at Wimbledon in both singles and doubles.

The American champions will practice together in private for a week immediately before the Wimbledon tournament instead of entering at Liverpool for the northern championship, as have most other American players who have played abroad. Their peculiar twist services were very puzzling to the visiting English players last season, and they are not anxious to let the foreigners become accustomed to its eccentricities before they meet them in the championship tournament.

Yacht Racing Across the Ocean.
 According to advices received by a prominent New York yachtsman, the two English racing yachts Ailsa and Eelin, recently bought abroad for two American yachtsmen, are racing across the Atlantic. It was not generally understood that the yachts were to make a race of the trip to this side, as they did not leave their home ports within several days of each other.

The Ailsa, which had left Southampton several days in advance of the Eelin, put into the port of Penzance ostensibly to repair some of her head-sails. Promptly on time the Eelin appeared and put into Falmouth, where she alleged she needed a slight refitting before proceeding on her way.

The skippers of the two boats were seen frequently together before the yachts again sailed. According to the agreement, both yachts put out late in April and when last seen had caught up with each other and were having it hot and heavy, with the Ailsa slightly in the lead.

Southern Trotting Affairs.
 Secretary Murray Howe of the Memphis Trotting association, recently chartered, has announced that the new trotting track is nearing completion and that when finished it will be the fastest in the country. The Memphis harness meeting will open Oct. 21 and will be governed by National Trotting association rules. The stakes amount to $15,000. Two of them will be contested under the "Memphis system," which rules that three heats constitute a race, first heat one mile, second heat a mile and an eighth and the third heat half a mile. This system is put in vogue to incorporate as many features of the running turf as will be consistent in heat racing.

Chris is a "Comer."
 Chris Matthewson, New York's new college pitcher, gives promise of being one of the best in the League this year. When such old timers and good judges of material as Ned Hanlon and Captain Joe Kelly of the Brooklyn team say so, there's something more than a guess made.

Won the Chester Cup.
 The Chester cup, value $12,500, was won recently in England by David Garrick carrying the colors of Pierre Lorillard. This is an important American victory. Mr. Lorillard backed his horse at the comfortable odds of 10 to 1.

Goshen and Lexington.
 Ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant of New York has sent seven of his trotting horses to Goshen to be trained. If plans under discussion are carried out, it will not be long before Goshen becomes to New York what Lexington is to Kentucky.

International Track Games.
 The Yale and Harvard joint track athletic committee has announced that the place for the international games with Oxford and Cambridge will be Berkeley oval, New York, Sept. 21.
