FINE OPENING BREAK.

Greenville Market Begins New Season.

The Greenville tobacco market started the new season today with one of the best all-round opening breaks in its history. There may have been more tobacco before, but the uniformity of prices and general satisfaction today was remarkable.

At today's offerings there was fully 125,000 pounds sold, and still many loads left in the prizeeries that were not put on sale. Every warehouse had a nice break. The Liberty had somewhat the largest number of pounds, while the Greenville had the largest number of loads. The Star had the first sale, the Farmers, Jeffress, Greenville and Liberty following in the order named.

It was well in the afternoon before the sale was completed. Among the farmers there was much comment on the good prices tobacco brought. There are a large number of good buyers and they are anxious for the weed as was shown by their lively bidding.

While there are six warehouses here only five of them will run this season, the Planter, being closed. The name of the Eastern has been changed to Jeffress. Following are the houses:

STAR WAREHOUSE.

Coward, Hooker & Co., proprietors.

J. G. Bowling, sales manager.

T. W. Scott, Jr., auctioneer.

T. M. Hooker, book keeper.

J. I. Smith, ticket marker.

FARMERS WAREHOUSE.

O. L. Joyner, proprietor.

H. A. Timberlake, auctioneer.

J. B. Jarvis and W. P. Edwards, book keepers.

J. J. Willis, floor manager.

JEFFRESS WAREHOUSE.

R. O. Jeffress & Co., proprietors.

W. E. Fenner, auctioneer.

C. A. Jeffress and J. S. Farris, book keepers.

F. D. Foxall, floor manager.

GREENVILLE WAREHOUSE.

Evans, Moorman & Co., proprietors.

R. M. Barham, auctioneer.

D. S. Spain, book-keeper.

G. L. Moore, floor manager.

Col. T. H. Walker, farmers' host.

G. E. Harris, clip carrier.

R. M. Moye, ticket marker.

LIBERTY WAREHOUSE.

W. T. Lipscomb & Co., proprietors.

A. M. Perry, auctioneer.

N. H. Whitfield, bookkeeper.

G. J. Woodward and M. H. Quinerly, assistant book-keepers.

BUYERS.

The Greenville market has as strong a force of buyers as can be found any where and their facilities for handling purchases are unsurpassed. There are a dozen large plants, seven of them fitted with steam. The buyers are:

M. A. Allen for American Tobacco Co.

J. N. Gorman for Gorman-Wright Co.

E. B. Ficklen Tobacco Co.

J. E. Lipscomb and T. W. Skinner for J. E. Hughes & Co.

J. C. Jordan for M. P. Jordan & Co.

E. H. Thomas & Co.

A. H. Critcher & Co.

Moye & Kennedy.

'Ads' as Reminders.

Only the business man of long experience is able to realize how prone the people are to procrastinate, especially in the matter of making purchases. Their attention must be called again and again to their own obvious needs, and they must be spurred up to buy now what they have resolved but have neglected to buy. One important part of the purpose of advertising is to remind people that they need certain things.—Philadelphia Record.

Found his Home in Ashes.

Pink Lawing, who lives about five miles from town on the Sherrill's Ford road, lost his house and all its contents by fire sometime Saturday afternoon. He and all his family were at work in the field some distance from his dwelling when they returned home at night they found their home and all its contents in ashes. They had nothing left but the clothes they wore. It is supposed the fire was caused by that left from cooking dinner.—Lincoln Journal.

A barn in Caldwell county that contained 35 bales of cotton and a lot of farming implements, was struck by lightning and all destroyed.

AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C., Aug. 1st.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1901.

Tarboro has a way of doing things that might give Greenville an example. The Eastern Carolina Railroad has just been completed to Farmville and the business men of Tarboro chartered a train to run an excursion to take people of Farmville and along the road in to spend the day with them. Tarboro people got right together on this thing just like business men of a town ought to do. It is plain enough that the town is going to be largely benefited by this excursion. It always pays to be clever to people and to show them that you want their trade. Some of the co-operative spirit that brings people together would be a great help to Greenville.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. Aug. 1, 1901.
 J. L. Keene went to Snow Hill Monday.
 Mrs. Council Dawson returned from Seven Springs Wednesday.
 Will Mewborn spent the day here Tuesday.
 Leon Tucker stopped over Monday night here with Jacob McCotter.
 Rev. D. W. Davis returned to Greenville Tuesday.
 Rev. J. J. Harper returned to Smithfield Wednesday.
 J. R. Harvey and Mrs. Harvey left Monday for Asheville.
 Marion Tucker, of Norfolk, spent Monday and Tuesday here and left yesterday.
 A. R. Holton was here a short while Monday.
 Col. Spivey went to Kinston today to sell some tobacco on the opening.
 Miss Anna Pittman is visiting here.
 Misses May Dunn, of Kinston, and Julia Sumrell, of Ayden, are visiting Miss Susie Dunn.
 Miss Laura D. Spier is visiting Mrs. Alice Spier for a few weeks.
 The N. and W. Co's., mill at this place is shut down on account of the scarcity of timber but will start soon.
 Mrs. J. L. Keene, Sr., is at Morganton on a visit to relatives and friends.
 A French insurance company has just put into operation the novel idea of insuring candidates for parliamentary honors against defeat at the polls. The rates vary, of course, with the risk involved in different cases, the popularity of the candidate being a prominent factor in determining the amount of the premium to be paid by him. This branch of the insurance business is absolutely new, and has not yet been given a fair trial.

A Pleasant Evening.

So say all who attended the Card Party, given by Miss Bertha Patrick to her friend, Miss Olivia Watson, of Clinton, Wednesday night. Those present were: Miss Olivia Watson with Ben Higgs, Miss Nell Skinner with Walter Wilson, Miss Irma Cobb with Chas. Skinner, Miss Glenn Forbes with Thos. Moore, Miss Carrie McGee, of Goldsboro, with Leslie Newton, Miss Janie Brown with Fred Forbes, Miss Mellie Harris with Andrew Moore, Miss Annie Vines, of Tarboro, with Major Fleming, Miss Betsy Greene with Charlie James, Miss Bruce Forbes with Dr. R. L. Carr, Miss Bessie Patrick with Cary Mayo, Miss Bertha Patrick with Harry Skinner, Argall Vick and Ed. Patrick.
 After fifteen games of hearts were played the cards were counted and the judges found Miss Nellie Skinner entitled to the prize, box of Huyler's, offered for the lady who made the highest score, Dr. Major Fleming the gentleman's prize, a silver heart stick pen, and Mr. Tom Moore was consoled by giving him a baby rattle to amuse himself with when cards were played. Mr. Harry Skinner presented the prizes in his usual graceful manner. Then all were asked to join the hostess and her friend and enjoy refreshments, after which music, singing and some short confidential chats were much enjoyed. Now, rather than be up too early, all said good-night.

Shirt Waist On The Bench.

Judge Erastus M. Reed, who for twenty-four years has been judge of the First Bristol District Court, is of the opinion that the dignity of the court does not suffer in the least if a man appears in court in a shirt waist on hot days. To further illustrate his ideas about dignity and comfort his honor held court yesterday without wearing a coat. One day during the heated spell of a fortnight ago he appeared in court coatless, wearing a pink colored shirt and belt. When questioned regarding the action of Judge Almy in having a coatless man who appeared in court removed from the room, the judge said: "That's nonsense. Why should a man sit and suffer when he can be cool? Any man who wants to sit in my court in his shirt sleeves or wear a shirt waist can do so, if he can look neat and respectable. The cooler a man can be these days the more sense he shows. Why should I make a man feel uncomfortable? I do not feel that the dignity of the First District Court has suffered in the least and so far as I am concerned I know one man who was comfortable. There is such a thing as being too dignified.—Atleboro, Mass., Dispatch.

A Smooth Game.

Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service, has discovered a counterfeiting game that amounts to something. And it did not occur through the ingenuity of some clever scoundrel, but through the carelessness or worse of some employe of a national bank or the government. In 1893 the State Bank of New Brunswick, New Jersey, went out of business. The plates from which the national bank notes were printed were supposed to have been destroyed. But they were not and counterfeiters have printed from them thousands of bills of small denominations, and these are in use all over the country. The notes are handsome and well printed, and it is estimated that two million dollars worth of them, face value, are in circulation. Most of the counterfeiters are two dollar bills, though some ones and fives have been printed.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., July 31, 1901. Prof. Z. D. McWhorter, W. J. Carson, J. C. Carson, Misses Pearl Edmundson, Lizzie Grimes and Maggie Nelson have just got home from the Pitt and Greene teachers' institute held at Winterville. They report a fine time and think they are much benefitted.

We are glad to learn that we, as well as Greenville, will have an earlier evening mail after August, 5th.

The heavy rain this evening has revived everything and cooled the air.

Soon it will be time for the High School to open here. We expect a grand opening.

Announcement.

The firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., is now composed of W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker, they having purchased the entire interest of B. E. Parham in the business. We the undersigned desire to thank our friends and customers for their past patronage and to state that we will continue to do business at the Liberty Warehouse where we will always be pleased to serve them. We are fully prepared to protect the interest of all our customers and to secure for them the highest prices for their tobacco.

Governor Aycock says he will urge the next legislature to make provisions for the subsistence of troops while in camp. He thinks this is due the troops as they are always ready to obey the call to duty and never flinch. This move on the part of the governor will cause general rejoicing throughout the state militia. It is nothing but right that the state should foot the expense account for food while in camp.—Wilmington Dispatch.

If you put a sign on the fence or tree or side of the house people must go to it to read it, hence few read it.

SEND YOUR SIGN TO

the people by putting it in

THE REFLECTOR

and you will see the difference. THE REFLECTOR goes to the people and carries your sign with it, and they all read it.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
