BLOOD HOUNDS.

Some Interesting Facts Worthy of Attention.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Aug. 3.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

For many years Pitt county has been the scene of much crime, and it is not uncommon when away from the county to be asked by strangers, "has there been another murder, or burglary in Pitt county this week?" This has been common talk. If any one will carefully inquire into the facts, it will be found that during the last 7 months of 1900 there were sixteen burglaries, five homicides and many petty thefts and smaller crimes committed in Pitt county. Since January 1st, 1901, there has been no homicide and but one burglary committed, to wit: at Grifton, and by the use of blood hounds from my kennels these parties were caught, convicted and are now serving sentence in the State prison.

There were no blood hounds in Pitt county last year except three small puppies owned by me, and they were too young for service.

There can be no dispute but what the fact of having these dogs in easy reach where they can be soon placed on the trail of the lawless has had a splendidly wholesome effect on that class of criminals who have depredated upon the lives and property of the people of Pitt county.

This comparison is worthy of all who are interested in the maintenance of law and order.

I have splendid stock of American blood hounds on hand ready to do service when the occasion requires. In my opinion the kennel of dogs I have today are a great protection against lawlessness. These dogs are full blood and are registered in the National Association of blood hounds and it has been long since established that the American dogs are superior trailers to the English or other dogs. I am prepared to supply dogs of the very best quality to those wanting them.

The following letter sufficiently explains itself:

Kinston, N. C., July 31, 1901.

"To whom it may concern:

"This is to certify that I bought blood hounds of Mr. W. C. Hines, Greenville, N. C., which gave me tire satisfaction. Having, with these dogs, run down and secured the conviction of seven criminals in the space of six months and the warmest trail that I had was a 12 hour trail. Very respectfully,

EVERETT BRINSON,

Policeman of Kinston, N. C. Pitt County should possess her own dogs and have them kept by the Sheriff of the county.

Very respectfully,

W. C. HINES.

Faced Egg.

Mr. R. T. Evans brought THE REFLECTOR a curious egg to add to our collection. One side of this egg has some raised places in a circle that appears like the dial of a clock or face of the sun.

At this Season of the year there are always many deaths, particularly among children, from summer complaint, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera morbus, cramps, etc., and every one ought to know that a sure and speedy cure can easily be obtained by taking Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in sweetened water every half hour. It never fails. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25 & 50c.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

What it Accomplished and the Results to Follow.

SNOW HILL, N. C., Aug 1, 1901

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I will gladly give you my views of the teachers' institute recently held at Winterville.

The South has always been slow to take on to anything new. Her people are satisfied to move along in the same old "rut" and kick when asked to get out. Our institute was no exception to this rule. When people kick they are more than apt to think afterwards. The institute will do good on this line.

The Western States have, each year, an institute four weeks long. Our institute was superior to the institutes of the west because theory and practice of teaching was made very prominent, which is not true of the institutes of the west. The work, otherwise, was very much the same.

Association is good. Our teachers know each other, which was not true in the past. We know the views, difficulties, and struggles of each other, and when we are in the midst of difficulties we will be cheered to struggle on by the knowledge that others are struggling in like manner.

We will compare the views of other teachers with ours, and in many instances we will be benefited thereby. The teachers will find Prof. Coon's method of teaching a great help to them, even in the poor "back-woods" districts.

The teachers know the ways of teaching of four of our best teachers in the State. The teachers know more to teach and what they know they now know better.

I would advise the teachers to keep up the line of study received, and gather together a class of children and practice on them as often as possible—put your theory in practice. I ask the people to watch for the result.

Yours truly,

M. P. DAVIS,

County Supt. of Greene county Public Schools.

The man who can look pleasant when he is sitting for a photograph deserves a gold medal.

Farmers provide yourself with Pain-Killer at this season of the year, when cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea, &c may disable your hands—use it in every case of the kind, but be sure that you try it to no other remedy but the old, long tried Perry Davis Pain-Killer which never failed. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25 & 50c

SATURDAY AUGUST 3, 1901.

What is the moral difference between lotteries operated in Louisiana and Oklahoma? We pause for a reply.

Official reports from the South African war for June show that 67 Boers were captured and 18 killed and that 576 children and 201 women died in the concentration camps.

Pennsylvania has been considered a Republican stronghold for years past, yet no one can say whether it is so by the vote of its people or by the manipulations of its ballot box. It is certain that the state ring can cast 100,000 fraudulent ballots whenever it likes, and that it does cast a proportion of them at every election.

New Schedule.

Monday, 5th, the new schedule on this branch of the Atlantic Coast Line will go into effect, as follows:

Train No 58 leaves Kinston 7:30 a. m., passes Greenville 8:30, Parmele 9:05, Hobgood 10:00, arrives Weldon 11:20.

Train No. 59 leaves Weldon 3:15 p. m., passes Hobgood 4:27, Parmele 5:15, Greenville 5:47, arrives Kinston 6:45.

Train No 6 (freight) leaves Kinston 8:40 a. m., passes Greenville 11:20, arrives Weldon 6:00 p. m.

Train No. 5 (freight) leaves Weldon 6:00 a. m., passes Parmele 11:45, passes Greenville 1:30, arrives Kinston 3:50 p. m.

The passenger trains on the Plymouth and Washington branches have been changed to conform to the schedule on this road so that all now have earlier evening trains.

Corporation Tax.

The clerk to the State Corporation Commission has certified to the various counties of the State the taxes due them from railroads, steamboats, water works, gas, electric plants, etc., under the recent assessment by the commission.

The valuation of such property for Pitt is $607,517; for Edgecombe $989,474; Martin, $215,937; Nash, $407,143; Halifax, $1,557,543, and Wilson, $924,060.

Wake county has the largest valuation, $1,841,575. Guilford is next after Halifax, which is second. Then comes Johnson, and next Mecklenburg.

The man with positive opinions is apt to wear himself out backing them up.

Some people don't believe in eternal punishment until they acquire a lot of enemies.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 3. In conversation with a gentleman a few days since, he stated that some few years ago he was up in West Virginia, during the winter when the weather was so extremely cold, that the mercury in the thermometer fell so low it drew the nail from the post upon which it was hanging. This is no fish story. Next.

We are under special obligations to J. R. Cooper, who in our absence decorated the lid of our desk with tomatoes of all sizes, colors, and peculiarities. It was an artistic piece of work and surprised us very much. We appreciate his kindness and bow our sincerest thanks.

Everybody is rejoicing over the prospective change in the schedule of the Weldon and Kinston railroad. Especially Jim Green and the little clerk in the postoffice.

Mrs. G. E. Lineberry left last Wednesday to spend some time with her people in Fayetteville.

Prof. Lineberry is out canvassing in the interest of the Winterville High School. Not less than 300 pupils are looked for to attend the next session of this most excellent school.

Mrs. Martha Jackson, a very old lady, died at the home of Mr. Elias McLawhorn on the 25th of last month and was buried near Littlefield the day following.

J. F. Stokes, of near here, a recent graduate of the University has accepted a position to teach school in Yanceyville, N. C.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner will hold regular services here in the Missionary Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Miss Mollie Bryan, who has been quite unwell for several days, is entirely well now to the delight of her many friends.

Maj. Henry Harding, of Greenville, spent several days here during the past week.

Charles Harper and wife, of Black Jack, came Wednesday to see their sister, Mrs. G. R. Dixon, who is quite sick. He returned home next morning but Mrs. Harper will remain some time.

B. F. Manning and Harvey T. Smith went to Greenville yesterday.

Miss Lida Kittrell is visiting her cousins, Misses Effie and Hattie Kittrell.

E. A. Cherry, of near Bethel, is stopping in town for a short while.

Several young ladies are expected here on a visit during the coming week. Some of them, we suppose, are very anxiously looked for.
