PHONETIC SPELLING.

COXVILLE, N. C., Aug. 9, 1901.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As so many of the teachers who attended the Winterville institute have taken advantage of your invitation to give their opinion of the institute I have concluded that the popular thing for me to do is to fall in line and do likewise

I think Profs. Lineberry, McWhorter, and Carr were excellent teachers in their respective spheres. They could so easily lead us teachers to take such a deep and intense interest in our studies that the work seemed more of a recreation than labor. Indeed while we worked like Trojans, we were led to believe that we were at play. We were kept so busy that we had no idea of the amount of work we were doing until after we had finished and taken a retrospective view and summed up the results. I hope we teachers will be able to do "Johnny" and "Sally" likewise next winter.

I, an old friend of phonetic spelling, took a deep interest in Prof. Coon's exposition of the phonic method of teaching reading. I think that every child should be taught to promptly give the sounds of any word in our language. How many people there are who can not correctly analyze such words as gnashing, which, shout, measure, tooth, thy, etc. With a universal knowledge of phonics people would soon see the unreasonableness of the spelling of a great many of the words in our language. Then would come a demand for phonetic spelling that would ultimately lead to an enlarged alphabet of 43 letters and a method of spelling in which each sound is always represented by the same letter, and each letter always represents the same sound, no silent letters to be used.

It is nearly as easy to learn to spell phonetically and to read phontotypy (like that used by The Bern Pittman Co., of Cincinnati, in their Testament and other books) as it is to learn Arabic notation and numeration. But I cannot hope to see this great boon to humanity come into use until after the teachers of this land have taught phonic well to all the public school children. As the world would not receive Arabic notation until public sentiment was ripened for it, so must we wait for the adoption of phonetic spelling, the metric system and other good things until sentiment is ripe for it. The world will be ready for phonetic spelling when phonics gets widely disseminated. WALTER GARDNER.

C. has furnished the name of the company, as it will also furnish its copper from the Virgilina mines. The names of the interested parties have not yet been given out.—Danville, Va., Free Press.

SATURDAY AUGUST 10, 1901.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9.

Teddy Roosevelt's Presidential boom arrived in Washington this week. It was brought by republican members of the Kansas Congressional delegation, who declared that the Kansas republicans were for him and intended to do everything they could to get him nominated. When it is considered that the administration is dead opposed to Roosevelt and that those Congressmen were in Washington asking administration favors, it will be seen that they had their nerve along with them. It is true that none of the big guns of the administration were in town, and that the small fry, such as assistant secretaries, were afraid to tell those Congressmen that they were treading on forbidden ground, but the telegraph lines were in good working order and some of them found it out before they left, and they will probably hear more about it before their applications for administration favors are acted upon. Long before 1904, it will be a sure way for a republican to get on the administration blacklist to declare himself in favor of Roosevelt's nomination. There is no longer any doubt that there is a Roosevelt machine and that it is working for strength in the West and South, ignoring New York, where the Platt machine makes it impossible for Roosevelt to hope to control the delegation. Roosevelt's friends are pointing out that Cleveland was nominated in 1892, although the New York delegation was pledged to Hill.

Comment is being made on the marked discrepancy between the number of Filipinos who have been captured or have surrendered and the number of rifles. In an official document issued by the War Department this week the total number of Filipinos captured and surrendered is given as 41,029, while the total number of rifles surrendered and captured is only 1,212. It cannot be that 41,029 Filipinos were fighting with only 1,212 rifles. And if the surrendered Filipinos have secreted their rifles it indicates that they expect to have use for them again.

It is now said in Washington that Senator McLaughlin's reward for trying to organize a white man's republican party in South Carolina, in addition to the control of the Federal patronage of the State is to be a seat on the Federal bench for himself, after his term in the Senate ends.

Did it Ever Occur to You that a little Perry Davis' Pain-Killer on the end of the finger applied once or twice to a mosquito bite would contract the poison and speedily reduce the swelling? Pain-Killer will also cure bites and stings of other poisonous insects as well as reptiles. See directions as to use upon wrapper on each bottle. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 10. Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock Winterville came near having the biggest fire in its history. The large feed and livery stables of B. H. Hunsucker, from some cause unknown, was discovered in flames and it was only through the united efforts and hard work on the part of our citizens that the building was saved. While we have no regular organized fire department yet for manly work, coolness and bravery we will place our gallant fireladdies against many an organized band who are disciplined for the purpose. Certainly a fine piece of work was done here yesterday, and Mr. Hunsucker requests us to extend his thanks to all who came to his assistance, assuring them their kindness will not soon be forgotten.

Yesterday Ernest Williams and Turner Sugg, both colored, went to Greenville and were returning home together. When near Mr. Alfred Weathington's about 6 o'clock, Turner for some cause shot Ernest through the head killing him almost instantly. Turner has taken the woods and thus another crime stains the record of old Pitt. The coroner has been telephoned to hold an inquest.

Mrs. J. D. Cox and Miss Laura Cox were in Greenville Wednesday on a shopping excursion.

Mrs. A. G. Cox left yesterday for Littlefield to see her mother who has been seriously hurt by a fall.

Mrs. Mary Smith left Friday evening for Seven Springs where she will spend the remainder of the season.

Miss Lucy Galloway, of Grimesland, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox.

A young lady is on a visit at the home of Mr. J. B. Carroll. Her stay will be indefinite. Her little buddie with auburn locks is highly elated now he has a playmate he can appreciate. Still we grow.

Prof. J. L. Jackson has accepted a position to teach school at Atin-ston, Pender county. He left yesterday for his work.

Miss Effie Kittrell is on a visit to Miss Nannie Nichols, of Standard.

Mrs. J. W. Sparks and children are visiting relatives in New Bern. Mr. Knollmeyer, a young Episcopal student for the ministry, has been visiting Mrs. B. F. and Mrs. J. D. Cox for the past week.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kingston, spent last Wednesday here visiting A. G. Cox.

W. C. Jackson, of Ayden, was here Wednesday in attendance upon a meeting of the directors of the Winterville High School.

Another Orphanage.

There is an Orphanage in North Carolina that we knew nothing about until last week. It is at Montreat, and we accidentally stumbled across it. It was established about four years ago, and is run by three good women from the North mainly at their own charges. They have twenty-six bright mountain boys and girls who are being tenderly cared for by these quiet Christian workers. They depend wholly on the Lord to supply their needs, and they have no fear for the future.—Charity and Children.

Mr. Ashley Whichard, near Station's mill, lost a tobacco barn by fire this morning.

Sleeping in Churches.

The High Point Enterprise says the question of the hour is:

“What per cent. of the congregation sleep in church?” There is a story, which came to us from a leading citizen of Morganton, that when Rev. Jesse H. Page (long life to the noble preacher, philosopher, preacher and wit!) was the pastor of the Methodist church in that town, he hit upon a plan to wake up the “sleeping pillars” of the church. He was preaching one hot Sunday night and he noticed that some of the amen members were fast asleep. He lowered his voice gradually until he almost whispered, and then suddenly, in a louder tone, said: If the brethren in the rear of the church cannot hear me I hope they will excuse me for speaking so low. I am afraid if I speak loud I will wake up the brethren on the front benches.”

He had an attentive congregation from “amen corner” to the last seat in church that hot night! —News & Observer.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a 51 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. Lately I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.

Mrs. LUCY SMITH.

In cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

She Caught Him.

Just see how force of habit runs. A man went home the other evening and took his mail along with him, as it came so much sooner. After supper he started toward the door, remarking that he would go down town and get his mail, when his wife reminded him he had already brought it home.
