THE ARIEL WALTZ.

Beautiful Composition by a Greenville Young Lady.

THE REFLECTOR is very glad to announce that among Greenville's accomplished young ladies is one who has entered the galaxy of music composers. Miss Bettie Perkins Tyson has just had published a piece of her composition entitled "The Ariel Waltz." The title page is a real work of art and is made more attractive with a beautiful picture of the charming author.

THE REFLECTOR staff does not contain a musical critic, but the editor does claim to know a good piece of music when he hears it, and after hearing this piece of Miss Tyson's played by skilled performers is prepared to pronounce it a musical gem. It is sweet and full of melody. We congratulate Miss Tyson upon the excellence of her composition, and hope her first publication will meet such encouragement as to cause her to publish more of her work.

The Ariel Waltz is on sale at the Reflector Book store, price 50 cents per copy. It should have a large sale.

Special Term.

Owing to the continued sickness of Judge H. R. Bryan, of New Bern, he will not be able to hold the early fall courts in this district. For that reason the September term for Pitt county cannot be held at the usual time, beginning on the first Monday. Governor Aycock has appointed a special term of one week for this county, beginning on the third Monday (16th) and designated Judge Allen to hold it. One week will not clear up the docket, but it is much better than having no court at all.

Junior Buck Range.

A. H. Taft & Co., will on October 15th give a handsome Junior Buck Range to the little girl who carries the largest number of coupons cut from their advertisement in THE DAILY REFLECTOR. The advertisement will appear every day and the girls can ask their parents, friends and neighbors to save the coupons for them, or extra copies of the paper can be bought at the office. Go to work now and save every coupon.

Big Break.

Today the warehouses had the largest break of the season. Only two of the house had finished selling by midday, and it looked like it would take all day to get through with the other three. Prices continue satisfactory.

Heavy Melon.

Thursday Mr. G. T. Tyson, of Beaver Dam township, brought THE REFLECTOR a melon that weighed 46 pounds. It was a very fine one in flavor and much enjoyed.

A Montana Judge says he was offered by the Montana Copper Company $250,000 to decide a case in its favor, but didn't take it. Gee whiz! What strange things sometimes happen out in that country.—Wilmington Star.

Our American Postal System.

Some interesting statistics have recently been given out showing the wonderful degree of efficiency which has been attained by the United States postal system.

During the past fiscal year not less than 8,000,000,000 pieces of postal matter were handled by the government. Yet the number of complaints filed in Washington, D. C., on account of the non-receipt of letters was comparatively small. So far as the records show only 52,306 letters and 47,949 packages failed to be delivered. Considering the tremendous bulk of the business carried on in the postal service, there is very little interference with the mails and the risk is reduced to almost nothing.

So thorough is the system that whenever letters are not delivered it is either because of illegible penmanship on the part of the writer or else on account of train robberies and accidents.—Atlanta Constitution.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

J. E. Carroway fell out a third story window at New Bern and broke one leg.

Six of the ten prisoners who escaped from New Bern jail, Sunday evening, have been recaptured.

J. A. Hawks, a merchant of Garysburg, shot and killed a negro whom he caught breaking in his store.

The New York Sun rises to ask, "Does a republican form of government exist where the negro is disfranchised or is intimidated?" The inquiry is not germane. The negro is not disfranchised or intimidated in the South. Only a certain class of negroes is disfranchised, and as for intimidation that doesn't exist any more than it does in the North, where workmen are sometimes informed that they must vote as their employers do or hunt other jobs.—Wilmington Star.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1901.

"It is wrong but we want the revenue" seems to be the excuse of some people for gambling slot machines.

A prominent gentleman, and one who has no boys to be endangered, said it is surprising to him that the mothers and fathers of Greenville seemed so little interested in the effort made by THE REFLECTOR to get gambling slot machines out of the town. Comment is unnecessary.

With such quick justice as this, there would be no cry for lynchings. A negro criminally assaulted a white woman near Charlotte on Tuesday and was captured that night. Judge Hoke was holding court in Charlotte at the time and he at once put all the machinery of the court at work for a speedy trial. The negro was arraigned Wednesday and the trial set for Thursday, a venire of 50 being summoned for the jury. When the case came up it was finished and over and sentence passed on the criminal inside of one hour. Not a lawyer made a speech on the case. The negro will be hanged Sept. 13th, thirty days from the commission of the crime.

There is a great difference in the jurisprudence of different States. In New Jersey the Court refused in the Barker case to consider the question of provocation, but imposed a heavy sentence on Barker for having attempted to kill the preacher who, he affirmed, had assaulted Mrs. Barker. In Kentucky last week in a similar case the husband was acquitted (although he killed the other man) on the ground that he was justified in the killing. In New York city on Monday last Magistrate Crane discharged a man who had nearly killed a husband whom he caught beating his wife. Under the rule of the New Jersey Court the Magistrate would not have considered the provocation, but would have imposed a heavy sentence on the assailant for assault.—Philadelphia Record.

State Convention Christian Church.

Active preparations are being made for the State convention of the Christian church, which will be held in Kinston from October 29th to November 1st.

Extra large delegations are expected from the nearby towns. Wilson is expected to be represented by 50 of her most active members.

Several of the most prominent preachers in the Christian church in the United States will be present to make addresses. Among those expected are Revs. B. A. Abbott, of Baltimore; Cary E. Morgan, pastor of the Seventh Street Church, of Richmond, Va.; W. H. Book, one of the most successful evangelists in Virginia, and B. L. Smith, corresponding secretary of the American Christian Missionary society.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions will also hold its State convention in Kinston during the convention of the Christian church. The ladies are expecting to have with them several of their most prominent and leading officers, one of whom is Mrs. Helen E. Moses, of Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Moses is the corresponding secretary of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions of the United States and is also editor of The Missionary Tidings, the official organ of the C. W. B. M.

The convention promises to be one of the largest the Christian church has held for many years.—Kinston Free Press.

Resolutions By The Reidsville Baptist Sunday School.

On Sunday, July 28th, the pleasant tie of Superintendent and Sunday school was severed by the resignation of Mr. M. A. Allen, its beloved Superintendent. This step was taken as Brother Allen was to more to a distant home. Few men are so fully endowed with the qualities which go to make up a successful Superintendent as this good brother. He was courteous, gentle, yet firm in discipline, a close student of the Word of God, a faithful exposition of it's truths. Always at his post of duty his example will ever be remembered.

Deploring with a keen sensibility our deep loss in his removal, the Reidsville Baptist Sunday School adopts the following resolutions:

Whereas, Brother M. A. Allen leaves us for another field of usefulness in the Master's vineyard, be it resolved,

First. That we commend him most heartily to the Church at Greenville, N. C., as one to be valued in it's membership in Sunday School and Church relations, tho' deeply realizing the fact that our loss is their gain.

Second. That we assure Brother Allen that our prayers will follow him to his new field and his faithful consecrated Christian example of eighteen years will ever be cherished by the School. That we trust in his new field he may feel that "not yet having attained" he will only "press forward" earnestly in his Christian work, coming at last to the Savior with many sheaves to lay at His feet.

Third. That copies of these resolutions be sent to the Greenville, N. C., papers, and to our city papers for publication, to Brother M. A. Allen and family and spread on our records.

By order of
BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL,
Reidsville, N. C.

The postoffice inspector at Chattanooga has been notified that the office at Creston, Ga., was robbed Tuesday night. The safe was blown open and a small amount of money and stamps secured.

Mr. John G. McLaughlin, who lives with his grandfather, Mr. John Kirk, in Mallard Creek township, lost a Jersey cow, a day or two ago, through the agency of dynamite. Workmen are digging a well at his house and a left-over stick of dynamite was carelessly dropped in the feed box in the cow stall. The stick was capped and ready for work. Next morning the cow was found dead in the stall and the dynamite was missing. The circumstances indicated that she had eaten the dynamite. Whether it exploded inside of her is not known, as no post mortem was held, but it is certain that it killed her.—Charlotte Observer.

Not Dead.

People in town today from the vicinity of Gardner's Cross Roads, say that the two men, Gardner and Dixon, involved in the shooting there Tuesday, are not dead. Both are yet living but badly wounded.

Dance to Death.

A young Hungarian bride at McKeesport, Pa., danced herself to death one day this week. It is the custom for the bride at a Hungarian wedding to dance with every guest who presents a present of silver, a silver quarter being the usual gift in the Pennsylvania coal regions.

The bride danced two hundred times, and then fell dead on the ball room floor.

Special Meeting of County Commissioners.

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Pitt county has been called to meet at the Court House in Greenville on Friday, the 23rd day of August, 1901, at 10 o'clock A. M. for dispatch of public business.

This 16th day of August, 1901.

R. L. DAVIS,
Ch'm. B'd. Coms. Pitt Co.

Hard Workers.

Hard work and high prices will bring in the tobacco. That accounts for the success of the Greenville Warehouse. Moorman Evans & Co. work hard and get high prices for all sold with them. Thursday they had a big break and made the highest averages in prices of the season. Today their house was full from end to end and several loads had to turn away because there was not room to get in. Take your next load to the Greenville Warehouse.

The Lawn Party.

The children of the infant class of the Memorial Baptist church gave a most delightful lawn party at the Academy grove Thursday night. The night was pleasant for it, the grove was beautifully lighted and the attendance was large. The Osceola Band went down and played several splendid selections. The little folks were very attentive in waiting up all, and they sold every thing they had. The receipts amounted to about $18.

The large cake voted to the most popular young lady was won by Miss Nina James.

Miss Minnie Quinn, teacher of the infant class, deserves much credit for the success of the lawn party, as it was through her efforts and under her management that it was held.
