NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 17.
The office in which we work was most gracefully presided over yesterday by those two charming young ladies, Misses Rosa and Dora Cox, and the amount of work performed by F. O. and the "little clerk" was amazing. Instead of a temporary engagement we think it would be a paying investment if the bosses could make their stay permanent. Anyway yesterday was a very pleasant day, the hot weather to the contrary. We don't mind work under such circumstances.

A. Cooper and wife and Misses Lucretia, Bertha and Fannie Cooper, of Roanoke Rapids; are visiting their kinsmen, Rowan and J. R. Cooper, this week.

Berner House and Mr. Williams, of Weldon, who have been visiting J. R. Cooper, returned to their homes yesterday.

A. G. Cox wants 500 cords of wood cut. See him at once.

Miss Matilda O'Hagan, of Greenville, is visiting friends in and around town.

Miss Rosa Cox, who has been on a visit to Littlefield, came home Thursday.

Captain Henry Dizon killed a mad dog day before yesterday. The firing of the gun created no little excitement.

G. W. Parke and W. M. Carroll went to Kinston Tuesday and returned Thursday morning.

Miss Alice Nichols, of Greenville, was visiting Miss Effie Kittrell Saturday.

Miss Lee Nichols has been visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. John C. Cox, from the country, is on a visit to her children here. She is the mother of A. G. Cox.

Miss Cora Carroll, of Grimesland, came up Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. J. D. Cox. On her return home she was accompanied by Miss Lucy Galloway, who has been visiting friends here for several days.

Jamie Cox, who has been visiting down the road, has come home.

Little Miss Irma Belle Dawson, of Littlefield, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Miss Nannie Nichols and little niece, of Standard, spent one day this week visiting Misses Bessie and Hattie Nichols.

R. H. Hunsucker came home from Kinston yesterday.

John A. Nichols has gone to Kinston to see and see what is seen.

Rev. J. B. Jackson, of Goldsboro, who has been visiting his parents near here for some time, returned to Goldsboro Thursday.

An escaped convict was caught here last night and taken back to the penitentiary farm at Tillery this morning by W. L. House.

B. A. Baldree spent part of Thursday in Greenville.

The Greatest Evidence of the dangers of cholera morbus, diarrhoea, and dysentery is the increase in the death rate during the summer months. You cannot be too careful, and particular attention should be paid to diet. A supply of Pain-Killer should always be at hand for it can be relied on at all times as safe, sure and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Masonic Hall School, For Girls Only.

Masonic Hall School—A school for girls under control of Board of Trustees appointed by Greenville Lodge, No. 284, A. F. & A. M., will open fall session Sept. 2nd. This school was conducted last year with great satisfaction to the people of Greenville. We have therefore employed Misses Lizzie D. Parker and Lelia Thornton to teach in this school this year, and to all who have girls to educate we ask your patronage and support in maintaining this school.

Tuition per month:—Primary $1.50, Intermediate $2, Higher $2.50, Languages 50c each extra. A matriculation fee of $1 will be charged. The school will have no music department this session.

Persons in town who can board pupils of the school will please notify the Secretary. R. L. CARR, Sec. Board Trustees.

Greenville Male Academy.

The next session of this school will begin on Monday, September 2, 1901. TERMS AS FOLLOWS:

|                           |        |                          |        |
|---------------------------|--------|--------------------------|--------|
| Primary English per month | $2.00 | Higher English per month | $3.00 |
| Intermediate " " "        | 2.50   | Languages (each) " " "   | 1.00   |

This school has been under its present management for thirteen years. The work in the past is cited as a guarantee for the future. Boys go every session from us directly to the University or any College in the State. Their standing there speaks for the work done here. Purely a business course given if desired. Stenography and Type Writing may be arranged for if pupils wish. Your patronage in the past is duly appreciated and we ask a continuance of the same. Early entrance insures best work. W. H. RAGSDALE, Greenville, N. C., Aug. 7, 1901. Principal.

SATURDAY AUGUST 17, 1901.

Sampson, it seems, is trying to secure an alibi at the investigation as he did at the battle.

A Texas desperado who had killed twelve men was shot and himself killed in trying it on the thirteen. Who says that thirteen isn't unlucky.

Uncle Sam bought two transports, the McPherson and the Terry, for $350,000; paid $500,000 in repairs, etc., on them, and has now sold them for $40,000. Yet some people actually believe that nobody connected with the navy got rich during the war.

If private war between individuals has been prohibited, why should not private wars between associations also be? When the Steel Trust can ruin a city by dismantling the mills which furnish a large part of that city's reason for existing; and a labor association can ruin the fruit growers of an entire state by refusing to permit their fruit to be moved, it seems about time for the Government to take a hand in the game.

"The Half Has Never Been Told."

And now comes the fact that China can no longer claim to be the only country that produces the rush from which the famous "Chinese matting" is manufactured. This great monopoly can no more belong exclusively to the Flower Kingdom. Along the banks of the Trent and Neuse rivers and their tributaries and marshes, beginning about fifteen miles above Newbern, there grows a beautiful rush from three to seven feet high, samples of which were lately submitted to a Boston expert and declared by him to be the identical species of the Chinese variety and from which the "Chinese matting" is made. The supply of this rush in this State is positively inexhaustible. It is a perennial, exceedingly hardy and a vigorous rapid grower. In its original green state the stalks are from the size of a knitting needle to that of a lead pencil. It is conservatively estimated that about three hundred million yards of Chinese matting is shipped into the United States alone annually from China. It will therefore be seen what the discovery of this North Carolina rush really means to the commercial world, and its importance to the men who will engage in its manufacture. Truly the great and diversified wealth of the Old North State is a constant and continual surprise. "The half has never been told."—Kaleigh News and Observer.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.

The adage about birds that can sing and wont sing should be equally applicable to public officials. At least, that is the unanimous verdict of a joint committee from the American Anti-Trust League and the Knights of Labor, and most unprejudiced men are likely to vote aye. These gentlemen know that the Attorney General of the United States can do his duty, by proceeding against the big steel trust for having violated the Sherman anti-trust law, and they are determined to make him do it or know the reason why. They are proceeding in a business like way; have employed two lawyers-ex-Attorney General Monett, of Ohio, and Mr. A. A. Lipscomb, of Washington,—to collect evidence of the violation of the Sherman anti-trust law and submit it to the Attorney General with a demand that he begin legal proceeding in the name of the United States against the trust. Speaking of their intentions, Mr. H. B. Martin, Chairman of the joint committee, said: "In the event of the complaint being blocked in the Attorney General's office, or if he does not consider it advisable to act in the matter, we have decided to lay the papers in the case before the President of the U. S. In fact, we are prepared to take steps for a mandamus proceeding if we are pushed to extremes, but it is doubtful if either of the last two named actions will be necessary, and we are proceeding with the idea that there will be no hitches of any description." They are also preparing to bring legal actions against the steel trust under the laws of the States in which it carries on its business. The action of the committee is receiving endorsements from every direction and some of them have been accompanied by the strongest evidence of genuineness—cash contributions to aid in paying the necessary expenses. Strong pull is being brought to bear on Secretary Root to save Capt. J. C. Reid, a son of a rich iron manufacturer, of Pittsburg, who was convicted by a court-martial of complicity in the commissary frauds at Manila and sentenced to three years in the military prison, at that place, to be dishonorably discharged from the army. Reid's lawyers have secured a promise from Secretary Root to review the case. One of the claims of the lawyers is that the court martial was irregular because nine of its members were officers of the regular army; that Reid being a volunteer officer was entitled to trial by a court composed exclusively of volunteer officers. But the strongest claim in Reid's behalf is that represented by his daddy's dollars. If the story that Sampson might not appear before the Schley Court of Inquiry was put out as a feeler by the anti-Schley gang in the Navy Department to ascertain how the public would take some sort of official juggling that would enable Sampson to avoid the trial which his cross-examination by "Jerry" Wilson, Schley's chief counsel, is certain to be, as many suspect, they must be thoroughly convinced by the howl it raised that the public will not stand for any such business as that. It was Sampson who was Schley's first accuser and who was mainly instrumental in the formation of the naval clique which has so persistently sought to ruin Schley, and it is Sampson who must either clear himself or forever condemn himself. Although the clique pretends to talk as though Sampson had no more interest in the court than any other officer who happens to be a witness, every mother's son of them knows that as soon as that court

The Local Newspaper.

The local newspaper should be found in every home. No children should grow up in ignorance who can be taught to appreciate the home press. It is said to be the stepping stone to intelligence in these matters not to be learned in books. Give your children a foreign paper which contains not a word about any person, place or thing which they ever saw or perhaps ever heard of and how could you expect them to be interested? But let them have the home people whom they meet and read of the places of which they are familiar, and soon an interest is awakened which increases with every weekly arrival of the local paper. Thus a habit of reading is formed and those children will read the papers all their lives and become intelligent men and women, a credit to their ancestors, strong in the knowledge of the world as it is today—Exchange.

A Growing Evil.

One of the crying evils of the times is the growing habit of justices of the peace of "suspending judgment on payment of the costs." Of course there are cases where such action is necessary, but it is altogether too common. It frequently looks like costs are the object for which courts are established. Besides it robs the school fund of money that justly belongs to it. If the judicial officers did not suspend judgment so often, the fines that ought to be paid would go into the school fund and offenders would be deterred from violating the law.—Raleigh News & Observer.

Wheat by any other name would be as wheat.

A man can go downhill faster than he can go up.

Did it Ever Occur to You that a little Perry Davis' Pain-Killer on the end of the finger applied once or twice to a mosquito bite would counteract the poison and speedily reduce the swelling? Pain-Killer will also cure bites and stings of other poisonous insects as well as reptiles. See directions as to use upon wrapper on each bottle. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1890.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.

- M. A. Allen, Secretary and Treasurer.
- R. M. Starkey, Supervisor.

Bonfire of $50,000 in Cash.

St. Paul, Minn., August 14.—Fifty thousand dollars in cash left by H. Y. Scott, of Faribault, Minn., who died last Saturday, will be destroyed by fire, according to the terms of his will.

Scott had accumulated about $60,000, mostly in cash. To his servant girl he left $5,000, but his nephew, his nearest and only known relative, is cut off without a cent. The bequest of money to his servant was in return for the care she gave him during his last illness.

"After all my funeral expenses are paid," says he in his will, "I direct that my administrators gather up all of my cash in bank, and in the presence of witnesses burn it to ashes."

There is absolutely no reason in the world why a man shouldn't get even with an Odd Fellow.
