TOWN MATTERS.

Board of Aldermen Adopt Ordinances.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting Monday afternoon and were in session several hours considering and adopting ordinances. There were not a great many changes in the old ordinances and only a few new ones were added. The committee was instructed to have them printed as early as possible.

Two other licenses were granted for restaurants in the tobacco warehouse section.

Treasurer-elect J. N. Hart tendered his official bond which was accepted.

Consideration of the sale of the municipal bonds was deferred to another meeting.

Parties appeared before the Board and complained of crowds congregating around Five Points early Sunday mornings and disturbing guests in Hotel Bertha. The matter was referred to the police.

R. Greene asked for permission to run wires, either overhead or underground, from the gin plant of Greene & Hooker on Cotanch street to Hotel Bertha, so that his plant could furnish power for the electric lights in the hotel and adjoining stores. He was directed to draw a contract covering the privilege and submit it to the Mayor, and if approved permission to run the wires will be granted.

R. Hyman was elected Chief of Fire Department, and D. D. Overton, Assistant, as recommended by Hope Fire Co.

The license taxes previously levied on itinerant merchants, and on tobacco warehouses, tobacco buyers and pin-hookers, and cotton buyers were reconsidered and stricken out. The privilege tax and tax on gross sales of merchants was reduced to one half the amount charged by the State and county.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The Carolina baseball league has gone to pieces.

Trains are being delayed all over the State by the heavy rains causing washouts.

The store of R. J. Johnson, at Wharton's was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. This is the second time he was burned out at the same place.

On Monday the city of Raleigh voted on a proposition to issue $50,000 bonds for street improvements. The measure was defeated by a small majority.

Kinston is having much discussion over a graded school site. The Trustees selected a location not approved by many of the citizens, and a restraining order was applied for to prevent the purchase of the lot.

Locust trees are said to be more susceptible to lightning than other trees. Farmers in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio report many instances where locust trees have been splintered by lightning when other varieties have escaped. A Western paper advises people not to take shelter under a locust tree during a thunder shower; it might have added: "Or any sort of tree."

TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1901.

The Charlotte Observer is setting the pace at a rapid rate, and continues to make for itself a name. Recently a crime was committed at Charlotte, the authorities were slow about taking steps to capture the criminal, when the Observer put up a reward of $200 and a capture was soon made. Now the Observer is going in for even a bigger thing than that. It is going run an excursion from Charlotte to New York. A special train over the Seaboard Air Line will be run to Portsmouth, from which point an Old Dominion steamer has been chartered to New York. May it meet with success.

A member of the Board of Aldermen delivered himself at the meeting, Monday afternoon, of a tirade against THE REFLECTOR because the paper had dared to speak against slot machines and to criticize the action of the Aldermen in levying a license tax under which they could come in and operate here. Make any excuse for it they may, there would now have been no slot machines in Greenville but for the levying of the license tax. Some of the Aldermen are frank enough to say they had no idea such machines were coming in as are now being operated here. We do not believe all did fully realize the extent of the slot machine evil, or surely they would not have voted to license them. Now after seeing it, they should reconsider the matter and correct what has been done as far as it is in their power.

The Swiss customs authorities have arrested forty pupils and all the teachers of an Italian girls boarding school located near the frontier for having smuggled merchandise across the border. The teachers were in the habit of taking the girls out on daily tramps in procession, walking two by two. The walks led over the border so often that the custom house authorities became suspicious, stopped and examined the young women and found their clothes full of cigars, cigarettes and other prohibited articles. It is estimated that up to the time of their detection they had smuggled in $30,000 worth of forbidden goods.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19.

Rear Admiral Schley, who has been in Washington for several days and will probably remain until the close of the Court of Inquiry, looks like a man who knows he is right and is absolutely certain of winning. He spends much time with his counsel, giving them pointers in the preparation of the programme that will be followed by them during the inquiry. Today all three of his counsel,—Judge Jeremiah M. Wilson, Hon. Isidor Rayner, Attorney General of Maryland, and Capt. Parker made a formal call on Acting Secretary Hackett for the purpose of presenting Schley's supplementary list of witnesses to be ordered before the Court, and to ask for a list of the Navy Department's witnesses. Acting Secretary Hackett has promised that Admiral Schley will be furnished a list of the Department witnesses as soon as it is completed. Admiral Schley regrets having to abandon his purpose of accompanying the Washington Knights-Templars to the Louisville Conclave, but he feels that it would not be good taste for him to do so under the circumstances; that it might be thought that he was seeking to be lionized by his fellow Templars for effect. When he promised to go with the Washington Commandery, of which he is a member, he had no idea that he would at this time, be preparing to appear before a Court of Inquiry.

There are reasons other than the outrageous treatment of Rear Admiral Schley, why a courageous and fair-minded Congressional Committee could do the country a real service by thoroughly investigating all branches of the Navy Department. One of them may be found closely connected with the cruiser Columbia, which cost $5,000,000 less than ten years ago, and which was allowed to rust at the League Island Navy Yard until in danger of sinking, with no caretaker other than a single watchman, and which was lately sent to the Brooklyn Navy Yard to be used as a receiving ship. Although built for speed and regarded by outsiders as one of the finest ships of its class, the Bureau of Navigation has from the day it was first put in Commission, assigned the Columbia to obscure tasks. "The reason ascribed for this would appear ridiculous, if it were not so obviously true. The Columbia was designed by Rear Admiral Hichborn, who has always been an outspoken friend of Admiral Schley, and has in consequence been constantly opposed by the Bureau of Navigation. The country certainly has a right to know whether there was any other reason than spite or envy for the deliberate plans of the Bureau of Navigation to lay up a $5,000,000 cruiser in order that neglect might make it useless, and a Congressional Committee could find out, if it went about it the right way.

Fortunes Through Advertising.

No fortunes are made in this day by the sale of articles which are not advertised in the newspapers. The Mail Order Journal names a long list of men who have gained enormous fortunes by the manufacture and sale of articles which have been popularized by newspaper advertising exclusively. Most advertisers depend chiefly on the newspapers and use other mediums incidentally, if at all.—Philadelphia Record.

Some people are so mean that they would argue the right of way with a blind man.

It is important that those who go on excursions for pleasure or health should make some provisions against the attacks of bowel disease, which not only cause them great inconvenience, but are sometimes fatal in their results. This school has been under its present management for thirteen years. The work of the past is cited as a guarantee for the future. Boys go every session from us directly to the University or any College in the State. Their standing there speaks for the work done here. Purely a business course given if desired. Stenography and Type Writing may be arranged for if pupils wish. Your patronage in the past is duly appreciated and we ask a continuance of the same. Early entrance insures best work.

Experiments are being made in the Genesee Valley, New York, with a view to introducing the Mongolian pheasant in the Empire State. The bird has thrived on the Pacific coast, and it is believed that by the time the present protective law shall have expired this species will be nearly as plentiful as other game birds in New York.
