NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 24.

Get a new substantial wagon body and stop worrying with the old one. It will only cost five dollars from the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

There were 39 people who left here on the excursion train Thursday and it was a gay, jolly crowd.

Dr. B. T. Cox left yesterday morning with Moody Cox, a son of the late Abram Cox, for Sykeville, Md., whom he will place in a sanitarium there for treatment.

C. A. Fair after visiting the northern markets in the interest of his millinery store, also adding pleasure to business by visiting his old home, returned yesterday.

B. F. Manning came in Friday evening from the northern markets where he purchased a large and well selected stock of fall and winter goods. Mr. Manning has been in the mercantile business for quite a number of years and knows the taste and needs of the public. Try him and see.

Geo. Hackney and Miss Hackney, of Snow Hill, have been visiting Mrs. W. J. Wyatt this week. Miss Hackney thinks of attending school here next session.

Mrs. Simon Moye and Miss Louvenia Moye are visiting in Washington.

H. T. Smith has gone to Kinston on business.

Miss Florence Speight, of Roanoke Rapids, after spending some time with Miss Maggie Braxton returned to her home Wednesday.

W. B. Wingate, who has been visiting his sister at Fairhaven, Mass., for the past two weeks, came home yesterday.

Mrs. F. O. Cox, after visiting near Littlefield for several days, has returned.

Walter Gardner, of Gardner's X Roads, spent Tuesday in Winterville.

The excursionists got back all right and all report a nice time.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Winterville High School dormitory will be lit up by gas. This will be a great help to the eyes of the pupils.

We are glad to announce that Prof. G. E. Lineberry has consented to move into the dormitory. This will place children under his care all the time.

A new piano has been purchased for the parlor and with the help of the 25 gas lights to light the building we don't see what more can be done to make it a model home for school boarders. The best of bedsteads has been furnished. Pupils will bring pillows and sheets for their beds.

Prof. and Mrs. G. E. Lineberry, who have been spending sometime visiting relatives in and around Fayetteville and Ashpole, returned home yesterday. They both seem to have enjoyed a pleasant trip. The Professor is now out canvassing in the interest of his school. Everywhere he has been he has met with the best of encouragement and the prospects for the coming session are more than unusually bright.

Bobbitt's Chill Pills cure chills and all malarial troubles. That is what they were made for. Cure after other remedies fail. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents per bottle. Druggists.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent headaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

The Greatest Evidence of the dangers of cholera morbus, diarrhoea, and dysentery is the increase in the death rate during the summer months. You cannot be too careful, and particular attention should be paid to diet. A supply of Pain-Killer should always be at hand for it can be relied on at all times as safe, sure and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.

"Make way for the new Caesar!" That is the sort of a shout some rubber-lunged understrapper will be putting up in front of Acting Secretary Hackett, if he is left in sole charge of the Navy Department much longer. His head gets bigger every day and he comes nearer thinking himself the whole thing. He has made it quite plain that he is anti-Schley. In this he has only followed the example of Secretary Long, the difference being that Long has more tact and courtesy than to assume autocratic airs. It is understood that so many complaints about Hackett have been made to Mr. McKinley that he has given Secretary Long a hint by wire that it would be advisable for him to cut his vacation short and return to Washington sometime before the assembling of the Schley Court of Inquiry, and that Mr. Long will resume charge of the Navy Department next week.

The most important happenings of the week in the preparations for the Schley Inquiry are all connected with Rear Admiral Howison, whose sitting as a member of the court is now anything but certain. Rear Admiral Schley, through his counsel, requested the Navy Department to forward a copy of an alleged interview with Howison in which Schley was sneered at and Sampson lauded to that officer and request him to say whether he was correctly reported or not. Caesar Hackett has made public his letter to Schley denying the request and defending Howison and giving reasons why he should not be asked about that interview, which is anything but convincing. That is tomfoolery, of course. Schley has the right to absolutely challenge Howison, if he wishes to exercise it. Capt. Parker, who is assisting Schley's counsel in preparing the case, has an affidavit from the reporter who interviewed Rear Admiral Howison, declaring that the interview was absolutely correct as published and expressing his willingness to testify before the Court of Inquiry if his evidence was considered necessary. Should Howison acknowledge the accuracy of the interview he would thereby disqualify himself for sitting on the court, no matter how anxious Caesar Hackett and the anti-Schley naval clique might be to keep him on the court. Should he deny the correctness of the published interview, he will be confronted by the reporter.

The joint Committee representing the American Anti-Trust League and the Knights of Labor came out ahead in its first round with the Attorney General Knox. The committee asked Mr. Knox to furnish any information in his possession concerning the formation of the steel trust. He replied denying that he had any information about the trust or that he had anything to do with its formation; admitting that he was legal counsel for the Carnegie Steel Co., for some time previous to the formation of the trust, and asserting that the duty and object of the Department of Justice was to enforce the Federal statutes. The committee replied to his letter with a public statement in which it pointed out the evasive nature of his denial, and issued the following challenge to him: "Will Attorney General Knox offer a reward for the production of the incriminating evidence against the trusts for which we asked, and which he says he does possess? Will he announce that the Department of Justice will pay a substantial reward to any person or persons who will produce evidence that will lead to the ar-

GIVING.

Many men say: "If I had a million dollars I would endow this college," or "I would build that hospital"—always neglecting the generous thing they might do by saying what they would do if they have millions. They are mistaken. The man who does not give "as the Lord has prospered" him would not give if he had Rockefeller's wealth. The duty to give rests as heavily upon the man who can give ten dollars or $500 as upon the man who can endow a great college.—News and Observer.

We agree with this conclusion and submit that the duty is more frequently met by the men who can give ten dollars or less than by the men who can give much larger amounts. That is to say, as a rule, people of moderate means and people of practically no means are the more liberal givers, in that they give more than the very rich in proportion to what they possess. The $1,000 or more contributed to some worthy cause by a wealthy individual is commended and talked about far and near, while the small amount from another individual, involving sacrifice, perhaps, is taken as a matter of course and nothing is said about it. How different the way of the world from the way of the Master, who knew what constituted true, genuine liberality, and made famous for all time the widow's mite.—Winston Sentinel.

JOSEPH A. DUPREE.

Greenville Loses a Good Citizen in His Death.

Mr. Joseph A. Dupree died at 9 o'clock Friday night at his home in South Greenville, after an illness of about eight weeks. He was 54 years old and one of Greenville's best citizens, held in highest esteem by every one in the community.

Mr. Dupree was born near Falkland, in this county, and spent his early years upon the farm. He received a good education and also studied and obtained license for law but never entered the practice. He moved to Greenville in 1878 to accept a position as Deputy under Sheriff Allen Warren, and filled the office several years most acceptably. Later he became a travelling salesman for a large wholesale shoe house and controlled an extensive trade through eastern North Carolina. In his business dealings he was always strictly upright, and every one had utmost confidence in him.

In May, 1882, he married Miss Deanie Boone, of Murfreesboro, who with four children survives him. Mr. Dupree was a devoted husband, a kind father and a good neighbor.

He was an earnest Mason and will be buried with Masonic honors by Greenville Lodge at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Attention Masons.
