NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 31.

On last Thursday the Hunsucker Carriage Co. shipped 12 brand new buggies. Almost daily this firm make shipments and it is not to be wondered at. A look at one of their vehicles, to say nothing of their durability, is a bait too tempting for one who is in need of a riding turnout to resist. Their work cannot be excelled.

J. E. Green went to Grifton Thursday and returned Friday morning. To hear a description of his visit and the pretty girl(s) he met is truly convincing that Jimmie has 'em bad.

W. A. West, of the Beaufort County Lumber Company, spent a short while here Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. Parker went to Ayden Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

J. C. McGowan, of this vicinity, left last Wednesday for Charleston, S. C., where he has gone to look after some real estate he owns in that State.

A. C. Tucker and little son, of Standard, were here Wednesday.

Mrs. C. M. Summerell is visiting friends near Littlefield.

Miss Addie Cox came up on yesterday morning's train from Seven Springs. She will attend the next session of the Winterville High School.

Miss Cora Braxton, of Ayden, who has been on a visit to Mrs. W. B. Wingate, returned to her home Friday afternoon.

Miss Ophelia Parker, who has been away for some time on a visit, returned Friday. She was accompanied by Miss Lizzie Murphy, of Greene county, who will spend some time with her.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry went to Kinston Wednesday on business and returned Friday morning.

Miss Rosa Tucker, of Standard, took the train here Wednesday evening for Kinston where she went to consult Dr. Hyatt concerning her eyes. She returned Friday morning and will be a student in the school here next session.

Miss Annie Lee Staley, of Staley, N. C., Assistant Principal of the school here, returned last Wednesday evening.

Our old friend J. B. Latham, of Washington, spent a little while with us Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Harding, of Washington, who has been on a visit here for several days, has returned home. Mrs. Dr. B. T. Cox and little Ollie Veria, went with her and will spend some time.

Bob Little and Josh Manning attended the picnic at Grimesland on the 29th. They report a grand time, and are nearly, if not quite, as sick as Jimmie Greene.

Ex-Sheriff Allen Warren and son, Olen E. Warren, of Greenville, were here a short while yesterday evening.

L. L. Kittrell smiles! It's a boy! Still we grow.

Mrs. W. L. House and child returned from a visit to Hanrahan yesterday.

R. G. Chapman, wife and child, of Calico, spent the day here yesterday with the family of J. D. Cox. Mr. Chapman has bought a lot on which he will erect a nice residence and move his family here.

Baby's Coming

McDonald, Ga., July 18, 1900.
I advise every suffering woman to take Wine of Cardui. While I was going with my other children I was compelled to stay in bed for days at a time, but this time I have taken Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught and have been able to do all my housework without any trouble. I am expecting every day to be confined. My husband thinks Wine of Cardui is the best medicine in the world. He takes a dose of Theford's Black-Draught every night and gives some to the children. He has not lost a day from work this year. He tells his friends about your wonderful medicines and I tell my lady friends to use your Wine of Cardui.
Mrs. GEORGIA LEE.

WINE OF CARDUI

There are thousands of women who shrink in terror at the thought of the baby's coming. But childbirth is one of the workings of Nature and it was not intended to imply torture and agony to the heroic mothers of the race. The woman who suffers torture during pregnancy and at childbirth has usually, by some indiscretion, injured the organs which make her a woman. Neglect of menstrual irregularities leads to ovarian pains, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and the period of pregnancy is necessarily distressing under those conditions. Wine of Cardui will regulate the menstrual function perfectly and eventually make the generative organs strong and healthy. Pregnancy and childbirth have no terrors for the woman who takes this pure Wine. A strong healthy womb will bring its precious burden to maturity with little or no pain. A healthy woman need not fear childbirth. Wine of Cardui completely cures all these troubles familiarly known as "female diseases" and equips the sensitive generative organs for pregnancy and childbirth. It will save any mother much pain and suffering. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

FITZHUGH LEE ON THE WAR.

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y., Aug. 29, '01
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As my vacation draws to a close and the time for returning home approaches, my thoughts run ahead of my person and I find myself, in imagination, already at Greenville where so many interests cluster and where I am soon to meet and to greet so many friends.

This is, indeed, a unique resting place, if resting place it may be called, for there is continually being presented such an interesting program, schools in every imaginable department of learning, lectures on the various topics of the day, exhibitions and experiments in the various arts and sciences, and above all Bible and Sunday school normal classes which run up into the hundreds.

Among the notable features among the popular lectures has been the lecture of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee to the army veterans. Old soldiers of either army were invited to reserved seats. His subject was "Our Republic" and in reviewing its history he touched in a delicate way upon the causes leading up to the war, saying that when different States entered the Federal compact, the question of the right to withdraw from the the union never was determined and could not be determined, for if it had been said that any State may withdraw at will the compact would have been unstable; and if it had been officially declared that the States could never separate from the union then many of them would not have entered the compact at all.

General Lee thrilled the old soldiers with a description of several unsuccessful charges in the history of the war, including the notable charges of the Federals at Fredericksburg and of the Confederates at Gettysburg under Pickett. All of these fatal charges he showed were made under misapprehension of the enemies, position or misunderstanding of orders. For instance, Gen. R. E. Lee never ordered Pickett alone to make the charge at Gettysburg, but that entire part of the army. If the order had been obeyed the intimation was that results might have been different.

But I must tell you the rest when I see you. J. B. MORTON.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. S. A. Charlotte, at the residence of Rev. W. J. Laughinghouse in South Greenville.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30.

Washington would be peaceful at present were it not for the Sampson Schley controversy, but both sides are so busy in considering what they will do to each other that there is a semi-sulphurous suggestion of war. The adherents of Admiral Sampson have thus far been kept occupied in explaining as much of their chief's erratic conduct as they can without giving their case away beforehand.

The latest development in the case is the discovery of the fact that the Cuban, General Garcia, knew, or surmised, that Cervera was coming out of the harbor of Santiago on the morning of July 3. His information came from the refugee French Consul at Santiago, and was, presumably, wigwagged to Sampson, as there was a code of signals arranged between Garica and Sampson for that precise emergency. It would appear therefore, that Sampson not only thought that Cervera might come out at that time, and, as he has already claimed, made all arrangements to stop him should this happen, but that he actually knew that the sortie of the Spanish fleet was about to take place, and knowing, deliberately absented himself with one of the best ships of the squadron, and was hull down behind the horizon, seven miles away, when the time came for him to make his everlasting reputation. On ascertaining this, Admiral Schley's friends took immense delight in arising and asking with one voice, "Why?" It really seems sometimes, as if the Schley press of the country, which means most of the newspapers, were one big interrogation point addressed to the unlucky Sampson.

That Schley is the hero of the enlisted men there is no doubt. The "jackies" on his ship swear by him, and so do the gunners and the sailors on other ships, not including, of course, the New York. Schley was the only one of the three prominent admirals (Dewey, Schley and Sampson) who attended the banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria given for the enlisted men during the New York celebration. Schley made a speech which took the sailors by storm.

It has been suggested that General Shafter should be called as a witness when the court of inquiry meets. It is not known just what Sampson's supporters in the Navy Department think of this suggestion, and for obvious reasons it is not likely to be known. They cannot endorse it with good grace, and cannot regard it with open disfavor without hurting themselves. That Shafter's testimony, if taken, would be out one of the most interesting chapters in the record cannot be doubted. The big General is not good at fabrications or evasions, and he was in a position to know Sampson very well. He would have to relate, under oath, the story of the Santiago campaign as he saw it from the rear.

According to a bulletin issued by the Census Bureau, of North Carolina's total population, 1,893,840, there are 938,677 males and 955,133 females, the percentage being 49.6 males to 50.4 females. In the State there are only 4,492 foreign-born people, or a percentage of only one-fifth of one per cent. There are, however, 630,207 colored people, of whom 624,469 are negroes. Of the remaining colored people, 5,687 are Indians, 51 Chinese. The percentage of the colored population in the State is 33.3.
