A Premium of $1,250 for Them.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting Saturday night to take action on the sale of the $75,000 5 per cent thirty year bonds for public improvements. There were two offers for the bonds. One was from Farson, Leach & Co., of New York, at $105, they to retain the money on deposit to be drawn on by the town as it was needed for the improvements, the town to receive 4 per cent interest on the deposit. The other offer was from Rudolph, Kleybolte & Co., of Cincinnati, at a premium of $1,250 for the entire issue, the town to have the benefit of the accrued interest on the bonds from July 1st, when they bear date, until they are delivered to purchaser. The Board accepted the latter offer.

The offer of the New York firm would have been worth about $2,000 more to the town, but the objection the Aldermen had to this offer was the bonds and the money being in the same hands.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. Sept. 2, 1901. L. A. Cobb is back from Baltimore where he has been purchasing goods. He arrived Saturday evening.

Miss Eva Webb returned to Kinston Saturday.

W. H. McCotter has been home on a vacation, and left today for Ayden where he thinks of locating.

Mrs. Nannie Barwick, of Kinston, has been here a few days visiting her son, J. F. Barwick.

J. L. Ives died Saturday night about nine o'clock, caused from falling and sticking a reed up his nose. It caused blood poison and he only lived a few days. He was buried Sunday evening in the Ormond burial ground.

J. R. Harvey is still at Asheville at the bed side of his wife who is very sick.

E. F. Cox and J. F. Pittman have bought out the livery business of J. Z. Brooks.

First Taxes.

Mr. R. H. Garris, of Swift Creek township, was the first man in Pitt county to pay his State and county taxes for 1901. The tax books were turned over by the County Commissioners to Sheriff Harrington this morning, and Mr. Garris went at once to his office and paid.

Clear Sidewalks.

The Board of Aldermen have ordered all residents of the town to clear off the sidewalks surrounding their premises by the 10th of September. The order is a timely one, for in some sections of the town ladies had to walk in the middle of the streets to get to church Sunday night.

A Good Description.

The magazine fashion pictures have been for some time so distorted as to hardly resemble humans and our young folks are trying their very utmost to ape the pictures. There is some sort of double back action Grecian bend solar-ecliptic disarrangement of the perpendicular symmetry about the coupling place of the pedal department with the soul department of the body that reminds one more of a Kangaroo preparing to jump than a regular old fashioned human being. If Darwin was alive he would have another proof that we sprung or are about to spring from some sort of an animal. From all these "Good Lord deliver us, and incline our hearts to keep the old fashioned common sense laws." —Wilkesboro Chronicle.

The Spiritualist doesn't believe that dead men tell no tales.

It's funny that after a man gives his word he tries hard to keep it.

It might reduce funeral expenses if the toll of the bells could be collected.

August Marriage Licenses.

WHITE

- Andrew Moore and Clara E. Letchworth.
- J. E. Cash and Fannie Elicston.
- Jesse Stocks and Eva Hardy.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1901.

The Treas and Auditor submitted an interesting question to the Attorney General today. A Sheriff in the piedmont section notified the Treasurer that he had seized a sewing machine shipped by a Chicago firm and that the latter had no State license. The sheriff says the company's mode of procedure is to take an order for a machine, ship it to the nearest express office, sending the bill of lading to the purchaser and notifying the express company to give him the machine if he pays for it. The State officials contend that this makes the express agent the agent of the company and that the whole trade is thus made in North Carolina. The Attorney General decided that the proper thing to do was to notify the sheriff to hold the machine and demand a State license, which costs $350, from the company, and if it does not pay to sell the machine.—Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., which has formerly been composed of W. T. Lipscomb, S. T. Hooker and B. E. Parham, has been dissolved. The said W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker will continue the business at Liberty Warehouse under the firm name of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., and the said W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker are now the owners of all amounts due the old firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., and will pay all the outstanding claims against the same.

W. T. LIPSCOMB,
S. T. HOOKER.
July 30, 1901.

Announcement.

The firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., is now composed of W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker, they having purchased the entire interest of B. E. Parham in the business. We the undersigned desire to thank our friends and customers for their past patronage and to state that we will continue to do business at the Liberty Warehouse where we will always be pleased to serve them. We are fully prepared to protect the interest of all our customers and to secure for them the highest prices for their tobacco.

W. T. LIPSCOMB,
S. T. HOOKER.
July 30th, 1901.

The St. Paul Press, Republican, doesn't see why, if 75,000,000 United States people could get three cent sugar and better cigars for less money, by the annexation of Cuba, they should be thwarted by less than a hundred thousand sugar and tobacco men. Neither do we. But the 75,000,000 do not pool their issues and manipulate statesmen like the sugar and tobacco men do.—Wilmington Star.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Tom Gatling, drunk and down, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

E. L. Wilson, entering a barroom, being under age, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

Bill Williams, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, fined $1 and costs, $4.25.

Jesse C. Wilson, riotous and disorderly conduct, assault and using profane language, fined $1 and costs, $3.85.

Austin Henrihand, running dray without license, not guilty, case dismissed.

Sam Allen and Sam Bryant, dealing in horses without license, not guilty, case dismissed.

Isaac Carr, running dray without license, fined one penny and costs, $2.36.

A. A. Forbes, Sr., running boarding house without license not guilty, case dismissed.

Will Banks, riding bicycle on south side of Dickinson avenue, not guilty, case dismissed.

H. C. Kinsaul, drunk and disorderly, fined $2.50 and costs, $4.80.

Lee Gregory, entering barroom, being under age, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

Ed. Stevenson, entering barroom, being under age, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

John Allen Kinion, entering barroom, being under age, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

Richard White, entering barroom, being under age, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

Willie Morgan, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, fined $1 and costs, $4.25.

Shep Page, drunk and down, fined $1 and costs.

Henry Harrington, firing off pistol in town, fined $5 and costs, $7.35.

John Slade, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, fined $1 and costs, $4.65.

Fon Roberson, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

W. J. Manning, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, fined $1 and costs, $3.35.

This shows a total of twenty cases which is a large record for one week. Mayor Long had nearly twice as many cases before him during the month of August as in July. He did not have a case this morning, which is unusual for Monday.

To Corner Cotton Seed.

Secretary T. B. Parker, of the State Farmers' Alliance, has a great scheme to corner all the cotton seed in the State, and raise the price of the same. He urges the county alliance at the meeting on the 21st of September to send delegates to the convention at Raleigh to be held the latter part of September, and arrange for the farmers to hold their cotton seed until they can get the price they want for them. He says the crops of hog and beef products are short and there will be an increased demand for cotton seed. He estimates that the crop of cotton seed this year will be nine million bushels. And he calculated that if the farmers will corner the seed and hold, the oil mills will be compelled to pay the farmers' price.—Raleigh Times.

There are many men who are generous to a fault, but it is always to their own fault.

When a man dies it is said that he has "paid the debt of nature"—which is the only debt some men ever pay.

Some people will never be "buried in thought" because they cannot find soil enough to cover themselves with.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made By The Orange, Virginia, Observer

You can borrow all the trouble you want without giving security. The quickest way to get rid of some friends is to do them a favor.

Never kick a man when he is down—bite his ear off, that's better.

The vilest sinner always returns—when he wants to borrow another quarter.

It is more comforting for a man to lend you money than to give you his sympathy.

The memories of people are very short on our virtues, but exceedingly long on our vices.

The negro, Black Diamond, who Mr. W. C. Hines captured and took back to Columbia, S. C., last week, proved to be the right man.

The Riverside Nursery will sell pears this week at 25 cents a peck. Send for some and put up your preserves.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Farrow, who works at the factory of the John Flanagan Buggy Co., lost the end of a finger, Saturday, by accidentally getting it caught in a planing machine.

THE REFLECTOR is indebted to Mr. Allen Warren, of Riverside Nursery, for a basket of elegant LeConte pears brought us this morning. Riverside has a tremendous crop of pears this season and the trees full of fruit are a picture to look upon.

Shipments of Cash to the South and West the Heaviest on Record.

Washington, Aug 31.—The shipments of money from the Treasury to the South and West for the movement of crops have been much heavier this season than ever before. Treasurer Roberts said today that at the close of August, 1899, there had been transferred to the sub-Treasuries at Chicago, New Orleans and St. Louis the sum of $2,118,500. At the close of the same month in 1890 the total was $3,400,000, and at the close of business at the Treasury today the total was $7,950,000, of which New Orleans has received $2,520,000. The currency is shipped as a rule one fourth in silver certificates up to $5, one fourth in United States notes of the denomination of $10 and the remainder in gold certificates. Gold coin is not in demand for crop-moving purposes.

ASTHMA CURE FREE!

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief & Permanent Cure in all Cases
SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. Wells, of Villa, Ridge, Ill., says: "Your bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

We want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of Asthmalene, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. ### Unreasonable and Unjust.

No people who are wise can regard railroads with hostility or be disposed to oppress them or wrong them unjustly. They are the great developers of a State's wealth, of a nation's wealth. They have done great things for North Carolina. It is all right to make them bear their share of the public burdens, but it is unreasonable and unjust to treat them as monsters and to seek to war upon them in revenge or from a desire to rob them.—Wilmington Messenger.
