Dr. Moye's Narrow Escape.

On Friday afternoon Dr. A. E. Moye was going in the country to see a patient. As he was about to pass the large ditch that crosses the road near the Rountree place, the bridge broke down as the horse stepped on it and the animal fell in the deep ditch. The shafts of the buggy and the harness were broken and the horse was badly skinned in several places. The buggy with the doctor sitting in it stopped just on the edge of the ditch. Fortunately Dr. Moye had reined the horse down to walk across the bridge, otherwise he would probably have been thrown out and seriously hurt. It took an hour to get the horse out the ditch.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 7.

Dr. Wm. E. Hall lectured in the chapel here Wednesday evening. His lecture was somewhat a disappointment, as judging from what we had heard and read of him we expected great things, possibly too much, anyway he did not come up to the expectation of many who heard him. We have heard better.

We appreciated kindness of THE REFLECTOR in phoning attempted assassination of President McKinley. Mr. McKinley is a good man and no punishment can possibly be too severe for the red handed would-be-murderer.

Miss Laura Cox left Wednesday to re-enter the Baptist Female University at Raleigh.

R. H. Hunsucker went up the road Thursday and returned the same day.

Eld. Fred McGlohou and father,

Mr. Lewis McGlohou, left Thursday for Atlanta, Ga., the latter to enter the hospital of that place for treatment.

Mc. G. Bryan and son went to Goose Nest Wednesday.

Mr. Dawson, of Washington, spent yesterday and last night in town.

The young men's debating society, better known as the Vance Literary Society, was re-organized last night with Sim Chapman as President and Jimmie Galloway as Secretary.

Uncle Jim Worthington of Greene county, was here Tuesday. He is talking of locating with us.

One indication that our farmers expect to gather fine crops is that A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are having calls for lots of cart and wagon bodies.

Come at once and select or give order for your buggy.—Hunsucker O'ge Co.

The Canning Co. has been very busy for the past two weeks. Peaches and apples are the main fruit canned now.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 7, 1901.

No more lamentable calamity could have befallen the Nation than the assassination of President McKinley at Buffalo, Friday afternoon, while he was attending the Pan-American exposition.

The Western farmers feed shredded corn stalks to their stock and sell their hay to Southern planters who haven't learned that corn stalks when shredded are worth as much as timothy hay.

But Southern farmers will learn after awhile that this method of saving and utilizing their corn crop—a large part of it at least—is as valuable to them as it is to the farmers of other sections of the country.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.

Notwithstanding the public sensation of weariness, the Sampson Schley controversy continues to demand that it shall be noticed. Forecasts, denials, speculations, report of progress and difference of opinion related to the dispute are forced into prominence with the regularity of weather predictions.

If Sampson is able to come to Washington, he should, by all means do so, for even the champions of Schley would not be contented with a verdict in his favor unless the accusing officer has given by word of mouth all his testimony in support of the serious charges against one of the heroes of the greatest of American naval engagements.

Secretary Hay's recent hurried trip to Canton proves to have been due to the continued aggressiveness of Venezuela, promising a general disturbance among the South American nations. The result of Mr. Hay's conference with the President was a warning to Castro, the Venezuelan executive, to the effect that an end of the imbroglio was highly desirable and would be appreciated by the United States, which is pledged to preserve the neutrality of the Isthmus of Panama.

While cotton may have abdicated as a sovereign, it continues as a first rate power in the industrial world, and the report on the annual crop in the United States is particularly gratifying. Some of the statistics follow: Receipts at all United States ports during the year 7,666,422, against 6,734,364 last year; overland to northern mills 1,140,237 against 1,161,189; southern consumption taken direct from the interior of the cotton belt 1,576,733 against 1,540,863 making the crop of the United States for 1900-1901 amount to 40,383,422 bales against 9,436,416 last year, and 11,374,840 the year before.

On Friday the Pitt County Buggy Co completed a buggy for Deputy Sheriff L. W. Tucker that is one of the handsomest vehicles we have seen turned out in Greenville. The painting and trimming are beautiful. Both the builders and purchaser of the buggy have cause to feel proud of it.

Start Girls Right!

Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions, or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow-tracks" on their cheeks, and dark half-moons under their eyes. A dose of taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into attractive womanhood and equip her for the duties of wife and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Hollywood, Asbury Park, N. J., February 3, 1900. I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's care for some time, and when her periods would come on her suffering was something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words, "It saved my life." J. WESLEY CROSS.

MCKINLEY ASSASSINATED.

ATTEMPT TO KILL THE PRESIDENT.

He is Shot Twice by an Anarchist at the Pan-American Exposition.

At 6:45 o'clock Friday afternoon THE REFLECTOR received the following bulletin from the Union Associated Press:

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 6.—President McKinley was shot this afternoon at the Pan-American exposition by an insane man who was captured. One shot in chest, the other in groin, both serious. The President was taken to hospital.

This news was promptly bulletined in front of THE REFLECTOR office and was given by telephone to as many points as could be reached. More definite news came today.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President William McKinley was shot at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Pan-American exposition grounds. The shooting was by an anarchist named Nieman from Detroit, Mich. The man had gone up in the crowd and was shaking hands with the President with his right hand when he drew a pistol and shot him with the left hand. One ball took effect in the breast and the other in the abdomen. Nieman was promptly arrested and is closely confined. He spoke boastfully of what he had done, and said he was chosen out of a committee of anarchists to kill McKinley.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—The President is reported some better this morning and resting well. His temperature is 102, pulse 146, respiration 24. Every symptom is favorable to his recovery. The first bullet that entered the breast has been removed by the surgeons, but they are unable to locate the other which passed through the abdominal cavity.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—At one o'clock this afternoon the President's condition was practically unchanged from last night. His pulse is 136, temperature 102, respiration 28. He suffers no pain except when breathing deeply and feels as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The doctors are encouraged and say that unless peritonitis develops in the next sixty hours they have no fear of his recovery. Senator Lodge called on Mrs. McKinley this afternoon and reports that she bears up bravely under the tragedy.

THE SERVANT PROBLEM.

Some Things That Make Life Hardly Worth the Living to the Average Head of the Household.

Consider now the servant question.

Verily, it is not the men who go forth and grab railroads and factories that cause the most worry in the heart of man.

Nay, and neither is it the trust nor the syndicate that loseth a man's job for him and cutteth his wages in two, that handeth him the greatest bunch of sorrow.

Surely, the servant question is the one that bringeth the gray hairs and marketh the wrinkles.

For the servant goes abroad in the land, seeking what she may devour.

She getteth a job as a cook and the flour bill goeth as high as the monument and the Sugar Trust declareth dividends every weak because she buyeth so much.

She useth more coffee for a family of two than the boss cook of a circus taketh for all his men.

She burneth the steak and she bringeth in the roast when it is scorched to a hardwood finish.

She maketh pie than no man can eat and call his life his own.

Cut This Out.

And she casteth biscuits that linger in the bosom of the eater thereof.

And when one speaketh to her, that she refrain from wasting food and that she cook better,

Telling her that it is no longer the fashion to burn meat and to provide building brick biscuit, She looketh askance at him.

Yea, she looketh at him with the corner of her eye, and she frowneth at him.

And she telleth him to take himself unto the outside or she will disarrange his countenance with a rolling pin.

And he goeth out with speed.

And that same day he readeth a poem about lovely woman.

And wondereth in his heart if the poet ever saw a cook.

Verily, it is greatly to be wished and much to be desired,

That the time may yet come when the women and the daughters of women.

Will cease from following after the false gods of literature, and will turn their backs upon the delights of the clubs.

And will no more read papers upon the soul and beauty of life,

But will turn their minds to composing symphonies in coffee.

And lyrics in biscuits and harmonies in steak.

For then man, poor man, will not feel like unto a canned junk shop when he hath finished his meal,

And life will not be one long vista of armorplate bread and disconsolate pie.

Yea, brethren, mankind needs more cooks and fewer historical romances;

More artists with the range, and fewer articles on the inner consciousness;

For what kind of an inner consciousness hath the man who hath fed upon cold coffee and board meat,

And hath then been flung from the kitchen.

Verily, the servant question is the one that hath two miles of interrogation points after it.

And there is no answer to it. —Baltimore American.
