WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 18.
The young ladies of the Winterville High School held a meeting in the chapel last Friday evening and organized a young Ladies Literary Society. These societies are always beneficial intellectually, at the same time affording a source of amusement that is highly interesting to those who participate in them. We bespeak great results from this one as it is composed of the very best material.

RESOLUTIONS OF RFSFPCT.

Adopted by Greenville Lodge, No. 284, A. F. & A. M.

Whereas, the American people are again called upon to mourn the loss of their Chief Executive, and the Masonic fraternity an eminent member, caused by the untimely death of the late President of the United States at the hands of a wicked assassin, and whereas Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. desires to place on record a testimonial of its regard for his splendid personal character, of its sympathy for Mrs. McKinley in this her greatest bereavement, and of its great condemnation of the cowardly act of the assassin and of those who are holding to anarchistic sentiments,

Therefore, by Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. at its regular communication on the 16th day of September, 1901, be it resolved,

1st. That in the death of Brother Wm. McKinley the Masonic fraternity has lost its most distinguished member, and the Nation a great and good Executive.

2nd. That this Lodge extends to Mrs. McKinley its sympathy in her severest bereavement.

3rd. That the act of the assassin and of all those who are in sympathy with him deserves the greatest condemnation of all good people.

4th. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge and a copy be furnished the papers of the city for publication and a copy sent to Mrs. McKinley.

OUR RALPH LETTER

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 16.

Since three o'clock Saturday morning, when the bell of the City Hall and those in the steeples of several of the principal churches here tolled the death announcement of President McKinley to a slumbering city, Raleigh has been in mourning—with the City Hall and other public buildings draped in the colors of death.

In all this town there is probably not a person who does not sincerely mourn the sad blow to the nation delivered through the death of its universally popular head—"the most beloved of all our Presidents since the time of Madison," says Governor Aycock. "He was a good man in all the relations of life; his private life is to us all an example and an inspiration," added the Governor.

Senator Simmons said: "It is doubtful if the death of any public man in this country has ever been sadder or has aroused a deeper feeling of personal loss and grievance; had he recovered of his wounds, I believe the remainder of his administration would have been a vertible era of good feeling. Mr. Roosevelt is an able man, and though one of the youngest of Presidents, has had valuable experience in public life; he will doubtless endeavor to carry out the general policy of his predecessor."

ANARCHY MUST BE STAMPED OUT.
The assassination of three Presidents within the personal recollection of men not yet old is a horrible record, and the alarming growth of anarchy is recognized as the great danger now threatening this Republic. The demand for its suppression is unmistakable.

Senator Simmons in alluding to this said that "in due time Congress will doubtless devise suitable measures for safeguarding the lives of the heads of the Government—whose lives are shown to be in danger when the ordinary citizen's is not—and to stamp out anarchy."

Heroic measures seem to have become necessary, and the people of this country are in favor of their application without unnecessary delay.

A large and representative meeting of the best citizens of Raleigh, irrespective of party politics (though chiefly Democrats), was held here Saturday, at which appropriate speeches were made and resolutions adopted.

A FIGHT OVER SWAMP LANDS.

The State Board of Education refuses to recognize the option of one Finch, who claims certain rights, secured under the Russell administration to the State swamp lands, for a "mere song," and the best of which he has been selling at advanced prices to others, and therefore refuses to sign his deeds. So he and one of his customers bring suit. Thousands of acres are involved, but the Attorney-General thinks the State will win out.

QUICK EXAMPLE OF JUSTICE.

William Monroe, the negro who assaulted a young white woman, lately married, near Charlotte, was hanged there last Friday, just thirty-three days after the commission of the crime. The scoundrel pretended to be certain of "going to glory" from the gallows. This is probably the speediest legal execution that ever took place in North Carolina. The thirty days were allowed by the judge for the brute to prepare for death, else he could have been hanged four days from the date of the crime, had the law permitted—it—his trial was speedy enough. Let there be more such examples of "justice" and there will be fewer tynchings, possibly—though I must say I have never found it in my heart to condemn any relative of a good woman thus assaulted for lynching the brute, be he white or black.

LLEWXAM.

To The Cotton Farmers and Ginners of The State.

HILLSBORO, N. C., Sept. 15, '01

Through the courtesy of the editor I address to you this letter on the cotton seed subject, and trust that it will be accepted by each reader as a personal letter to him. I know of nothing that should call for prompt action on the part of the farmers more than this.

The action of the National Oil mill men in New Orleans, on the 5th, where they met privately and fixed the price to be paid for cotton seed the coming season at 13 cents free on board boats with the usual rebate which is equivalent to 12 cents free on board rail, as though the farmer had no voice in the price of his products should sell for, should call for a protest from every cotton farmer of the South. This is but a foretaste of what the Trusts will do for the farmers when they get them fully under control. If the spirit of American independence which has ever characterized North Carolinians has waned may its fires be rekindled in the breast of every farmer on account of this action of the Oil Mill men. If you believe the farmer is entitled to a voice in naming the price at which his cotton seed shall sell, go to your Court House next Saturday, 21st, at 12 o'clock and there unite with your fellow farmers in saying so and in protesting against the action of the New Orleans Oil Men.

Select a strong delegation to attend the State meeting in Raleigh the 25th. Do not stay away and expect your neighbor to go, but go yourself and take him with you. This appeal is not made to any special class of cotton farmers, but to each and every one in the State. There is no time now for divisions or quibblings, but all should work in harmony with each other. We also invite the business and professional men to join us in this movement. Their presence and influence will be appreciated.

A letter just received from Harvie Jordan, Pres. of the Southern Cotton Growers Protective Ass'n, states that he is in full sympathy with the movement and that he will endeavor to get the farmers in every southern state to cooperate with us. With determination on the part of the farmers the price fixed by the Oil Mill men can be "unfixed" as was the price of jute bagging ten years ago.

The farmer who refuses to act now should in the future keep quiet about the oppression of the Trusts, for he practically surrenders his birth-right. The farmers have the key to the situation. Let there be unity of action and success will be certain. T. B. PARKER.

Lonely Homes

A home is never complete without children. Yet many homes are childless. Many wives are desolate for the lack of a child to love. Their lives are aimless—void of the high motives of motherhood. While barrenness is causing incalculable sadness and sorrow, it exists in most cases on account of some little female trouble, which Wine of Cardui would speedily set right. This pure Wine regulates the disordered female organs by building up the worn out nerves and regulating the menstrual flow. It restores the fallen womb to its proper place. By strengthening the generative organs, it makes pregnancy possible where barrenness exists. You can depend on

WINE OF CARDUI

Suffering women all over the land have been depending on it for seventy-five years. No more convincing proof can be given than the testimony of Mrs. Benson, who is only one of thousands of women to whom Wine of Cardui has brought a permanent cure. Many cases of miscarriage—that trouble which robs mothers of their hopes—have been avoided by timely use of the Wine. You are asked to try Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught, its companion medicine. Nine out of ten cases of female trouble, barrenness included, yield to them. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Yandervoort, Ark., April 2, 1900.
Last May I had a miscarriage, which was followed by flooding. I read your Almanac and my husband got me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and it stopped my flooding and restored my fallen womb to its place. Now I am cured after taking three bottles and have another to take which I got this morning. I am expecting to become a mother and Wine of Cardui will be my doctor.

PROGRAM OF MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

To Be Held in the Court House Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Mayor Long having been requested by the Board of Aldermen to make all needful preparations for a proper observance of the Memorial Exercises to be held in the Court House on Thursday, September 19th, 1901, in respect to our dead President has, after consulting with the Clergy of the town arranged the following program:

1. The exercises will begin promptly at 2 o'clock P. M. by the singing of a voluntary by the choir—Lead Kindly Light.

2. Mayor Long will call the meeting to order and introduce Ex-Governor Jarvis as the presiding officer.

The Rev. J. N. Booth, of the Baptist church, will have charge of the song service and will announce the following selections at the appropriate times and places:

1. Nearer My God to thee.
2. Rock of Ages.

It is expected that the whole audience will join in singing.

3. The Rev. H. M. Eure, of the Methodist church, will read appropriate selections from the Scripture.

4. The Rev. F. A. Bishop, of the Methodist church, will lead the congregation in prayer.

5. Hon. A. M. Moore, Chairman of Committee, will report appropriate resolutions.

6. Short addresses on the life of President McKinley by Capt. Swift Galloway, Mr. W. F. Harding, Col. Harry Skinner, Mr. E. V. Cox, Hon. L. I. Moore, Mr. F. C. Harding, and others.

7. Doxology.

8. Benediction, by Rev. D. W. Davis, of the Christian church.

The exercises will take place at the hour that the funeral obsequies, over the body of President McKinley take place at Canton, Ohio and the people of Greenville are requested to close all places of business during these services.

WM. H. LONG,
Mayor.

Will Close Tomorrow.

The postoffice will be closed tomorrow out of respect to President McKinley. We suppose that all business houses of the town, as requested by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, will close during the memorial service in the Court House, which begins at 2 o'clock.

Changes in Policemen.

Monday night the Board of Aldermen held a special meeting to investigate the charges previously filed against Chief of Police J. T. Smith. As a result of the investigation he was dismissed from service. Mayor Long has appointed night Policeman W. H. McGowan to serve as Chief and Mr. E. C. Williams to serve as Night Police until the next meeting of the Aldermen.

The Hour Changed.

As the hour for the funeral services of President McKinley at Canton has been changed from 12 o'clock to 2 o'clock, on Thursday, the committee in charge of the memorial exercises here will change the hour correspondingly, so that the service will be held in the Court House at 2 o'clock P. M. instead of at noon, as first announced. The program as arranged by Mayor W. H. Long is printed elsewhere in this paper.

It is important that those who go on excursions for pleasure or health should make some provisions against the attacks of bowel disease, which not only cause them great inconvenience, but are sometimes fatal in their results. A bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is, we have found, a most effectual remedy against such attacks. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.
