FALL SELLING.

Putting it Strong.

And why not? When the merchandise and prices will back up the statements made concerning them, we have every right to "Put it Strong." There is nothing wrong in emphasizing excellence when the emphasis is within the bounds of truth, when facts are given without misrepresentation.

Our "Ad" States Facts.

Just facts, something well worth remembering. Counters and tables piled high. Stacks and stacks of mens, boys and youths clothing. Every place rambled and packed with shoes. We can show you to your entire satisfaction. Counter room needed in our dress goods department. Selling must continue to relieve the pressure. Come early before the best things are gone. All the latest styles and weaves in dress goods. Agents for Standard Patterns.

A SUMPTUOUS SUPPER AT HOTEL MA-CON.

For the Benefit of St. Pauls Episcopal Church.

Sometime ago we were asking you to "look this way," But on Thursday, the tenth day, we beg of you to come this way.

To Hotel Macon and partake of oysters, sandwiches, turkey, pickles and ham,

For twenty five cents this will make a supper, that will be no sham.

Our extras are salad and cream, You won't mind paying ten cents, we deem.

For the girls will be so pretty and bright, our hostess so charming and entertaining

You will not mind remaining Till the "Wee Sma" hours of night.

But after thanking you kindly, we bid you good night.

However, we sing that sweet refrain,

"Please don't forget to come again."

Roosevelt Wants It Called "White House."

President Roosevelt will not tolerate the name "Executive Mansion" for the White House. He says there are 45 executive mansions in the United States, but only one White House, and it is his intention to call his official residence by the old familiar name and not by the more pretentious title.

Senators and others receiving letters from him since he has been President have noticed that they have all been dated "White House." Furthermore, each of the President's letters of invitation have said: "Come to the White House and have a talk with me," or words to that effect.—Philadelphia Record.

An Essay on the Editor.

A little boy was requested to write an essay the other day, and "The Newspaper" was his subject. Here is the result: "I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does either. He hain't got nothing to say 'bout them, and they ain't in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you hear about and stayed into the brush until after the flood, then stepped out and wrote it up, and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies. I never saw a dead one, and never heard of one gettin' licked. Our paper is a mighty poor 'un. The editor goes without under clothes all winter, don't wear no sox, and paw havent't paid his subscription in five years."—Exchange.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hayes started out to make "a respectable Republican party in the South" by appointing a Democrat from Tennessee as a member of his cabinet and giving Gen. Longstreet and others soft berths. The net result was to get the vote of those who got the offices and none others. See!—Raleigh News & Observer.

You can't equal the smoke anywhere for the money that you can get in the Winterville cigars, at Reflector Book Store.

P'S --AND-- Q'S

We are at this writing, and have been for some time attending right to our P's and Q's in order to be able to show our patrons a line of that's different—that is different in style, in make and in price, from the suits nearly every store has.

Fall and Winter Suits

Our spread is ready and you are invited in to see it. Every style that fashion has smiled upon is here, and every suit—as it comes to us goes to you, at a bargain.

THE SWELL DRESSER comes here for his swell suit.

THE CONSERVATIVE MAN comes here for his well made—good looking, conservative suit.

THE MAN WHO CONSIDERS PRICE comes here to get the most for his money and NONE go away dissatisfied.

FRANK WILSON,

CLOTHIER, FURNISHER, HATTER.

Long-Distance Mental Anguish Highly Valued.

"I heard a verdict in a damage case down at Greensboro, N. C., where I stopped off for a few hours the other day, which to me was very unique," said Mr. Charles T. Hambrill, a young lawyer from Connecticut, at the Metropolitan. "It was a jury trial in a damage suit before the Superior Court there. A telegraph company had been sued for damages because of failure to deliver a telegram promptly. It seems that the cousin of the complainant, whose name I do not remember at this moment, had a very sick child. As the illness became alarming she telegraphed the complainant that the child might not live and asking him to come at once.

"For some reason the telegram was not delivered immediately and by the time it had been delivered the child was dead. The complainant did not even attend the funeral of his little second cousin, but he sued the telegraph company for dereliction, alleging mental anguish because he had not been notified before the death. And, just think of it, for here is the remarkable part of it. For the 'mental anguish' the complainant endured this Tar Heel jury actually awarded him the sum of $450, which it is altogether probable the company will have to pay."—Washington Post.

Stands to reason—the debater. It's the little things that tell—especially the little brothers and sisters. A fire could hardly be called dissipated because it goes out every night.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The town of Louisburg has voted to issue bonds to the amount of $30,000 for water works and sewerage.

Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer, of Henderson, is being mentioned as a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme court.

Jake Resnic, a clothing merchant of Maxton, has been arrested on the charge of setting fire to his place of business.

Dr. Cyrus W. Thompson, Populist ex-Secretary of State, has been appointed chief clerk in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue at Raleigh, vice H. C. Thompson, deceased.

A terrible wreck to a freight train on the Seaboard Air Line occurred Tuesday near Monroe. An engineer and fireman were killed and several of the train hands badly hurt.

This Kind Count.

Bring your tobacco to the old Greenville Warehouse. If it is good tobacco it will bring good prices, if it is better tobacco it will bring better prices and if it is bad tobacco it will bring good prices any how. Mr. H. B. Williams had good tobacco and this is how his sold at the old Greenville: 40 pounds at $20, 56 at $38, 95 at $40, 16 at $50, 7 at $55, 3 at $100, 88 at 40, 62 at $25, 50 at $15.

We are not trying to lay out a task for any other warehouse, but an average of $33.65 straight through the load is hard to beat.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1901.

Fire in Chicago Tuesday destroys two blocks of buildings and caused a loss of more than half a million dollars.

The Aldermen of Durham have made a city law to go in effect January 1st, requiring all saloons to close at 10 o'clock p. m. and not to open until 6 o'clock a. m.

Cleveland on Presidential Hand-Shaking.

Ex-President Cleveland in an article in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post recurs to the subject of presidential hand-shaking. Says he: "We shall never have a President who is not fond of the great mass of his countrymen and who is not willing to trust them."

Meeting of State Veterans.

The Confederate Veterans Association of North Carolina will hold its annual session on Wednesday night of Fair Week, October 23 at the Capital, at 8 p. m.

Camps of United Confederate Veterans throughout the State, county and other associations of survivors and veterans who may not be members of any organization are cordially invited to the meeting, which embraces all. Gen. J. S. Carr, president, and Capt. C. B. Denson, secretary, will present their annual reports, and business of interest will be considered.

Information Wanted About the Prodigal.

Among the many things we would like to know, but never will know, is what kind of fellow the "prodigal son" turned out to be. He went away from home a dude, that prodigal boy did, and he came back a tramp.

We expect the Enquirer man will not find any one to rise up and give him the information he is seeking. He is asking too many questions.

How the Sparkling Drops of Dew are Formed.

Ground a little below the surface is always warmer than the air over it. So long as the surface of the ground is above the dew point vapor must rise and pass from the earth into the air.

Dew, then, rises from the ground. But how is the dew formed on bodies high up in the air? Dew does not rise in particles, as it was once considered, to fall in particles like fine rain.

The vapor does not flow upward in a uniform stream, but is mixed in the air by eddies and whirl currents and carried to bodies far from where it rose.

Some Canine Warriors.

The idea of the monks of St. Bernard has been adopted by an English officer, who has trained St. Bernard dogs and collies to act as carriers of ammunition and as sanitary aid to the wounded.

Other dogs have been trained to act as sentries and pickets and upon discovery of an enemy will set off for camp and give the alarm without "barking." Stiff "barkers" carry messages. These are more like the everyday uses to which dogs are put, but in war they are rendered more complicated owing to the difficulties surrounding such work.

If this idea proves to be practical, and there is reason to believe that it may, no four footed animal will hereafter be sure of its life within lines where it is not well known.

An Extemporized Aquarium.

A globe with goldfish makes a very attractive ornament for a room, but globes and goldfish are not always available, and so the extemporized aquarium may be used to great advantage.

When the plants are growing nicely, giving off oxygen and feeding upon the carbonic acid gas in the water, the latter need not be changed oftener than once a week unless too much animal life is introduced into the bottle.

The "Wonder Wonder" Flower.

One of the strangest botanical plants in the world is the "wonder wonder" flower found in the Malay peninsula. It is simply a blossom, without leaves, vine or stem, and grows as a parasite on decayed wood.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

Z. V. Johnson is sick.
W. B. Parker went to Everetts today.
Rev. Mr. Faulkner, of Kinston, spent today here.
E. B. Aiken left this morning for Rocky Mount.
Isam Rowland, of Henderson, came in Wednesday evening.
F. C. Toepelman, of Henderson, came in Wednesday evening.
T. B. Yuille, of Durham, spent Wednesday on the Greenville market.
Prof. W. H. Ragsdale went to Ayden Wednesday night and returned this morning.

End of the World.

Prof. Ludwig Maxienburger, from somewhere or other, says the earth has slid out of its orbit, and for that reason our summers will get hotter and our winters colder until the deuce will be to pay. Don't get scared, brethren, but keep on paying your preacher and printer just like you were going to stay here a long time.—Fx.

Died.

The funeral services of little Sallie Frances, the fourteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Spruill, was held yesterday from residence, 713 South Person street. There were many sympathizing friends present.—Raleigh News and Observer 9th.
The friends of Mrs. Spruill (formerly Miss Sadie Short) around Greenville sympathize with her in the death of her little girl.

Arithmetics With Pictures of Coins Seized.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The representative of a book publishing house called on Assistant Secretary Taylor at the Treasury Department to ask for relief from the seizure of several thousand arithmetics by the Secret Service. These arithmetics were printed for use in the schools of the Philippines and contained pictures of American coins. As any printed fac simile of an American obligation is in violation of the counterfeiting laws, the arithmetic was suppressed.

Drank Kerosene for Whiskey.

Last Saturday a man from the country bought a quart of kerosene oil at one of the Morganton stores and had it put in a bottle. As he was getting ready to leave for home a town man spied the bottle and thinking it contained liquor asked for a drink. The countryman, without a word, handed him the bottle and so great was the town man's desire for a drink that he took two large swallows of the oil before he discovered what he was drinking.—Morganton News.

Eats With White Folks

Boston, Mass., Oct. 7.—Portia Washington, the daughter of Booker T. Washington, has just entered as a student at Wellesley College. She enters as a special student, taking piano and theory and modern languages. Rooms were secured for her on Howe street. One of the faculty, Miss Keyes, rooms in the same house. Across the street is a house occupied by three professors at the college—Miss Coman, Miss Bates, and Miss Balch. Miss Washington was invited to take her meals with these college professors, and so each day she and Miss Keyes cross the street at meal time.

A man never labors harder than when he undertakes to shave himself.

IS THE CASH WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR?

Then you want the attention of the people who have cash to spend. They are the people who read and you can attract their attention and their cash in no better way than by putting your advertisement in this paper.

THE REFLECTOR

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. So an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part
