JAKE LATHAM ARRAIGNED.

Held for January Term of Superior Court.

Jake Latham, colored, who on last Friday struck Mr. W. H. Proctor on the head with a shovel causing the latter's death, was given a preliminary trial this morning before Mr. C. D. Rountree, Justice of the Peace.

Jake was represented by Col. Harry Skinner and entered a plea of not guilty in answer to the reading of the warrant charging him with murder.

Several witnesses were examined and their testimony made a strong case against the defendant, and the Justice remanded him to jail to await the January term of Superior court.

Of the witnesses examined Mr. D. D. Gardner testified that as he was coming down from his home in Skinnerville at the Pitt street corner he saw Jake Latham in a wagon about half way between the Rountree house (where Proctor lived) and the corner. Proctor was coming behind the wagon. Jake stopped and Proctor came up, standing with buggy whip in hand the butt of it resting on ground. Proctor stooped as if to pick up something and as he was raising up Jake struck him over head with shovel. Jake drove off. Witness helped carry Proctor in the house.

Dr. E. A. Moye testified as to the character of the wound and that it was the cause of Proctor's death.

Rev. J. N. Booth testified that from his home he heard the noise on the street and some one crying come here. He went out and saw wagon going off, also saw several persons around Proctor getting him up and in the house. Witness looked after Proctor's horse that had been left on street then went in and assisted putting him to bed.

Mrs. W. H. Proctor testified that Mr. Proctor had hitched up his horse and took him out the gate and asked her for his whip. She saw Proctor and Jake talking and saw Proctor dodge as if he was struck at. They started off and thinking there would be trouble she went up from the basement. Jake picked up shovel from wagon and raised it, Proctor dodged, Jake struck him and he fell. She cried for help and Mr. Gardner came up. Witness also testified as to trouble between Jake and Proctor about the water barrel and about previous threats made against Proctor.

Mrs. C. B. Whichard testified that she was in her yard, saw Jake standing up in wagon in the act of raising shovel. He struck something but she could not see what on account of rose bushes obstructing the view. Jake drove off. She went to gate and saw Mr. Proctor lying on ground and saw Mr. Gardner going up to him. Did not see Mrs. Proctor when Jake struck but heard her scream that Jake had killed Proctor.

D. B. Heath testified that he saw Proctor at the gate. Jake drove up and stopped. Heard Proctor tell Jake he was a liar, and that if he did not bring the barrel home he would get out a warrant for him. As Proctor came around to his buggy Jake struck at him from the wagon. Proctor jumped back and hit at Jake with small end of whip. Jake drew shovel again and Proctor went in the house and came out, and they went behind house so witness could not see them further, but heard a liek and heard Mrs. Proctor scream.

Mr. Thompson testified that he was at work on the roof of house near by and heard some talking. Saw Proctor coming around as if to get on buggy. Jake struck at him with shovel and Proctor jumped back, striking at Jake with whip. Jake drew shovel again and Proctor went in house and came out. Jake drove off.

Mrs. Pauline Williams testified that as she drove around the corner from Fifth into Pitt street she saw a wagon going up the street with a colored man in it. She did not know him, but drove up behind him thinking he was going across the bridge. As she drove up to where Proctor lived he drove his horse out the big gate and she drove between Proctor's buggy and the wagon. Proctor said something to the colored man about a barrel and told him if he did not bring it home he would take him under a warrant. The colored man called Proctor a liar when Proctor told him he had stolen his barrel. Proctor ran in the gate toward the house and witness drove by. She looked back and saw Proctor come out the gate and the colored man grabbed up the shovel and told Proctor come to him if he dared. Witness drove on and looking back again saw Proctor as if he was picking up something, and when he was about half straight the colored man struck him and he fell. She did not see the colored man out of the wagon and did not see Proctor hit him or offer to hit him. She saw some one go running to Proctor.

There was a large crowd in the Court House during the progress of the trial.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

J. B. Andrews, of Durham county, lost his barn and contents, stables and several head of horses by fire a few nights ago.

Rulaski Cowper, a prominent insurance man of Raleigh and well known throughout the State, died Monday.

P. A. Fantaine, of Roxboro, has been experimenting with the culture of Havana tobacco and has grown some fine specimens. He believes it can be successfully grown in this State.

Cold Comfort From Doctors.

Doctors say neuralgia is not dangerous. This is poor consolation to a sufferer who feels as if his face was pierced with hot needles and torn with a thousand pairs of pinners. A word of advice to him: stay indoors and use Perry Davis' Painkiller. The blessed freedom from pain which follows this treatment cannot be told. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

They are still hammering on Claudius Mellnot. He is clinging on to his fast fading district attorneyship with a death like grip, and is happy that he won't be removed before his term expires. Harry Skinner is slated for his berth one day and Judge Timberlake the next. Harry's eulogy of Pritchard at Greensboro, it is said, will finally land him in Bernard's place.—Raleigh News and Observer.

By Bribing The Nerves

with opium a cough may be stopped temporarily, but the inflammation of which the cough is a symptom goes from bad to worse. Do not waste time and money on delusive "cough mixtures." Remember that Allen's Lung Balm does not merely put the nerves to sleep. It gets right down to the root of the trouble and so cures even deep-seated affections of the throat and lungs.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1901.

Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was electrocuted in the prison at Auburn, N. Y., Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. He had to be carried forcibly from his cell to the death chair. In his execution the curtain falls upon the last scene of the great tragedy.

Getting In Good Shape.

The Democracy of the nation is getting in fine shape for 1901. The Democrats of the Bay State have named Josiah Quincy, the best mayor Boston ever had, for Governor, and while he will fail of election this year, his candidacy will be worth much to the party. Tammany Hall has named a spotless man and able lawyer, Edward M. Sheppard for mayor of Greater New York, and he is going to be elected. This will assist materially in harmonizing all Democratic factions in the Empire State. Everywhere the Democrats are full of hope, getting back to first principles and preparing for a great battle and a splendid victory along truly oldtime Democratic lines in the next presidential election.—Cleveland Star.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.
 $200 Reward.

[STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Executive Department.]
 WHEREAS, official information has been received at this Department that at Falkland, Pitt county, N. C., on or about December 22nd, 1900, John H. Parker shot and killed Alex Little.
 And Whereas, it appears that the said John H. Parker has fled the State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him:
 Now, therefore, I, Charles B. Aycock, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my proclamation, offering a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said John H. Parker to the Sheriff of Pitt county at the Court house in Greenville and I do enjoin all officers of the State and all good citizens to assist in bringing said criminal to justice.
 Done at our City of Raleigh, the 28th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one and in the one hundred and twenty-sixth year of our American Independence
 By the Governor:
 CHAS. B. AYCOCK,
 P. M. PEASALL, Private Sec.

Description:—John H. Parker is nearly six feet high of spare build, weighs about 150 pounds, has blonde boyish face, is almost beardless, has blue eyes, light hair, is slightly stooped and is about 23 years old.

When some men set their hearts on anything they never let up. Sixty years ago Ella and Mary Ramsay, sisters, were the belles of Jersey Shore, Pa. Gideon Thomas loved Ella and Mary, and for the life of him he couldn't tell which he loved most. So he flipped a copper to decide which he should ask to be "his'n" and it flipped for Mary. He married her. They were reasonably happy in wedded life for fifty years, then Mary died. Ella remained single, and in due time Gideon courted and married her without flipping a copper.

LOST—One ring with two keys, and good luck penny advertising Dr. Swifts family remedies. Finder return to this office.

Tuesday evening Riverside Nurseries sent THE REFLECTOR two huge turnips. One of them weighed 3½ pounds and the other was nearly as large.

NOTICE—I will be out of town this week until Friday. Someone will be at my photograph gallery during my absence ready to deliver any work that is completed.

R. T. EVANS.

Governor Aycock has offered a reward of $200 for the arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of Pitt county of John H. Parker, who on the 22nd of last December shot and killed Alex Little, at Falkland. See notice in this paper.

Whist Game.

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. L. Wooten, in honor of her guest, Miss Nannie Moye, delightfully entertained a few of her friends in a very interesting whist game. Dainty refreshments were served.

Public Schools.

The Board of Education at their July meeting passed a motion that the public schools of the county should begin not later than the first Monday in November. The Superintendent of the Schools, Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, requests us to call the attention of the committeemen of the county to this fact so that they may comply with this requirement by beginning their schools next Monday if they have not already begun them.

Best Sale Yet.

On Tuesday G. W. Venters, Jr., of Chicod township, sold a barn of 601 pounds of tobacco at the Liberty Warehouse, that brought $257.09. The several lots were as follows: 72 lbs at $25; 68 at $20, 88 at $60, 72 at $47, 145 at $35, 70 at $50, 56 at $50, 30 at $65. This was an average of nearly $43 all through, and is the best sale that has yet been made on the market.

But the Liberty is just leading things anyway. This week the sales have been large every day, and the Liberty has averaged $15 on everything on the floor, including big lots of scrap. They are hustling people at the Liberty.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

Jesse Speight went to Weldon today.

W. J. Rollins went to Bethel today.

J. A. Lang left for Kinston Tuesday evening.

M. A. Allen went to Kinston Tuesday evening.

B. W. Mosley returned Tuesday evening from Bethel.

Mrs. Laura Brown came Tuesday evening from Oxford.

E. B. Ficklen came from Kinston on the morning train.

W. L. Brown returned Tuesday evening from Baltimore.

Mrs. H. A. Timberlake returned home from Kinston this morning.

Misses Ella and Della Smith returned to Ayden Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tucker, of Norfolk, came in on the morning train.

Mrs. Ola Forbes left on the morning train for Newark, N. J., to visit friends.

Miss Nannie Cofield is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, in South Greenville.

E. B. Dixon returned home from Oak Ridge Tuesday evening where he has been attending school.

C. E. Gardner, of Goose Nest, came in Tuesday evening and returned this morning.

Almost a Centenarian.

Rachel Peyton, an aged colored woman, died here Tuesday. She was somewhere between 80 and 100 years old, and some of our older people, whom she nursed faithfully in their infancy, remember her most kindly.

Died at School.

Miss Bettie Coward, aged 18 years, of Willow Green, Greene county, died at the Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, Monday evening. She was a daughter of Mrs. W. A. Darden. The remains were taken to her former home Tuesday evening for interment.

Real Estate Transfers.

Recently there have been some other transfers of lots in South Greenville.

Mr. W. T. Hunter purchased two lots, adjoining, on the east side of Evans street, that formerly belonged to Messrs. G. A. Clapp and W. B. Ricks.

Mr. Clapp purchased the house and lot, on the opposite side of the street, belonging to Mr. W. R. Smith.

Mr. Smith has purchased a farm near Hamilton, in Martin county, and will move there the first of the coming year.

Baptist Services.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins preached another excellent sermon in the Baptist church Tuesday night, his subject being Christ came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. There are but two classes, the righteous and the sinner, and every person belong to either one or the other, there being no middle ground. Then agreeing that all who are not righteous are sinners, he came with a message of love to them, that Christ came to save them. His appeal was most earnest, and the large congregation listened attentively.

Tonight Mr. Jenkins will preach on worldiness as it relates to young men, and will follow this Thursday night in a sermon on worldiness as it relates to young women. All should hear these sermons.

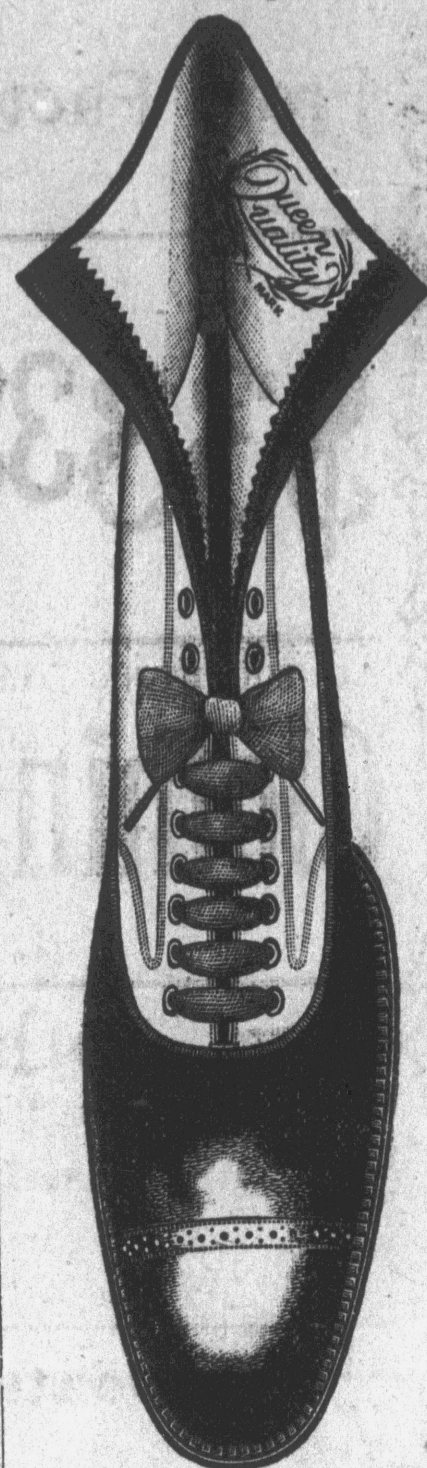

Service begins at 7:15, sermon at 7:30.
