TOWN MATTERS.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night, all the members being present.

The street committee reported that a street had been opened from Elizabeth street to Fifth street satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The standing committees and officers made their monthly reports.

Simmons & Ward, of New Bern, were employed to appear with Fleming & Moore as attorneys for the town in the suit of S. T. Hooker and others against the town. This is the injunction case against the sale of bonds.

A resolution was adopted rescinding and cancelling the agreement previously made to sell the bonds to Rudolph, Kleybolte & Co.

W. B. Wilson was released from paying broker's license tax.

The Mayor was instructed to have forwarded to him the bonds that have been engraved for the town by the United States Mortgage & Trust Co.

A petition from Red Hawk fire company to be furnished three rubber suits was granted.

Accounts to the amount of $885.03 were allowed. Of this amount $514.90 was for attorney's fees.

The finance committee was ordered to borrow $500 from the Greenville Banking & Trust Co. to pay running expenses of the town.

The Mayor was instructed to appoint a committee to procure uniforms, hats and overcoats for the policemen, at a cost not exceeding $40 to each officer.

A Fire Horse That is Learning to Drink Liquor.

People in Greensboro who know anything about the fire department know Prince, the big gray belonging to the Eagle Hose Company. Prince is smart as a briar and learns anything easily. The boys take excellent care of him, pet and feed him and give him any and everything to eat. He is large and hefty, so that a long run winds him. One day an old horseman told the boys the best way to treat him after a long run was to give him a big drink of liquor—about half a pint. It was tried and while Prince did not relish it at first, it was soon seen that it had a good effect on him and has been kept up until now the old fellow looks for it and begs for it after every run to a fire and it has to be given him. It is no cheap liquor that is used, either, but the very best rye whiskey. After a half pint is guzzled down he is satisfied and never asks for any more until he has been run to a fire, from which it is seen that he is not like a man, who, generally when he gets to fooling with the stuff, wants to drink all there is in town, fire or no fire.—Greensboro Record.

County Officers Change Rate of Taxation.

Some of the county officers in the State are running amuck of the General Assembly. They not only change the laws, but apportion funds in the State Treasury without the formality of a roll call.

In the auditor's office yesterday there were several instances of this repudiation of the General Assembly. A register of deeds from a certain county not so many miles from here wrote the Auditor that the Board of County Commissions had reduced the pension tax to ten cents, and that he was following the action of the board. The Legislature said the pension tax should be twelve cents. The Auditor's Department being unable to find any decision of the Supreme court that allows County Commissioners to overrule the General Assembly, a letter was addressed to the Register of Deeds in which it was stated that it would be both wise and expedient for him to get in line with the General Assembly on the pension tax subject.

Another county officer in the same mail made a change on the same order, reducing a rate from 19 to 18 cents.—Raleigh News & Observer.

The Department of Agriculture is anxious to encourage the growing of flowers for perfume making in this country, and attention is called to the fact that conditions in the Southern States, and particularly in Southern California, are exceptionally favorable for industries of this kind. It is believed that in California the essential oil, or attar, of roses might be produced on an extensive scale to great advantage.

No, Maude, dear; we have never heard that canal boats in winter suffer from frozen tows.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits.

Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

FRANK WILSON,
The King Clothier.

The October report of the State board of health says scarlet fever is wide-spread, being reported in 32 counties, Buncombe having 30 cases, and being epidemic in Iredell and some other counties; diphtheria being in 17 counties; typhoid fever in 65, from the sea to the mountains; malarial fever in 44 counties; hemorrhagic fever in 8 counties; smallpox in 8 counties. Hog cholera is reported in 10 counties; spinal meningitis in horses in Randolph, and staggers in Chowan and New Hanover.

The old Court House in Williamsburg, Va., where Patrick Henry made his famous speech on the Stamp act, is still in existence. It is used for judicial purposes, and every Saturday morning petty offenders are tried there.

An Eagle That Fishes in a City.
A handsome bald eagle spends two or three hours every morning catching fish at a place within the city limits in plain view of the passengers on a trolley car line. He perches on an oak tree near the shore of a lake in which carp and catfish are plentiful. When his "eagle eye" spies a fish in the shallow water near the shore, down he swoops and, seizing the fish in his talons, flies back to the tree, where he eats, and then watches for another victim. The bird of freedom has chosen the position well, as the tree is on the extreme end of a long peninsula which no one can approach without being visible for half a mile.—Portland Oregonian.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1901.

Li Hung Chang, China's great statesman, and once the Minister of that country to the United States, is dead.

There was a sensational tragedy at Asheville Wednesday morning. A 15-year-old girl shot and seriously wounded a son of ex-Judge Merrimon who was the author of her ruin. The girl lived near the Merrimon's and was frequently engaged to do some light house work for them. Young Merrimon took advantage of this situation and the girl's age and accomplished her ruin. The young man got no more than he deserved. All sympathy is with the girl.

The Lyceum theatre in Atlanta was burned Wednesday afternoon, the fire started during a performance. The audience was gotten out without injury to any one. A fireman and an electrician were badly injured.

All Night in a Gold Mine.

Tuesday night Messrs. S. W. Maxwell, W. P. Young and Steve Connell, with several helpers and a lot of dogs, went out to Paw Creek township to hunt 'possums. They had an indifferent sort of a time during the early part of the night and were struggling along through the fields in the hope of soon hearing their dogs set up a tune, when something happened. Mr. Maxwell was lantern bearer and was some distance in front of Messrs. Young and Connell. The latter suddenly stepped on nothing and after a drop of 20 feet straight down, landed in water knee deep. They were not long in ascertaining that they had fallen into an abandoned gold mine. Mr. Maxwell missed his companions after a time and began a search for them. Being unable to see them or hear anything, he concluded, about 1 o'clock they had gone home, so he came to town alone.

It transpired that the two men remained in the gold mine all night. No one heard their shouts throughout the night, but shortly after daylight a farm hand who was passing near was attracted by their cries for help, and securing a grape vine let it down into the mine. The imprisoned men climbed out on the vine. They were thoroughly chilled by having been compelled to stand so long in the water and were greatly exhausted. It was a 'possum hurt that they will not be apt to forget soon.—Charlotte Observer.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

State of North Carolina.

Executive Department.

God reigns at all times and every where. He is our comfort in every hour of sorrow and our strength in every day of weakness. In this year the nation was startled by the death of its President at the hands of an assassin. He has given us strength to continue our form of government without friction or danger, and has thereby made it incumbent upon us to turn towards Him in hours of trial, and those who turn to Him always find strength. It is needful, therefore, and proper that we should set aside at least one day in the year in which to express our gratitude to Him for past favors and invoke His aid for the future.

I, Charles B. Aycock, Governor of the State of North Carolina, therefore issue this my proclamation, setting apart Thursday, November 28th, inst., as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, upon which day I urge all people to meet in their respective place of worship and there thank God for the manifold mercies which He has shown to us individually and as a people, and to ask for His protection and guidance in the future. I earnestly recommend that on this day all our people shall give as God has prospered unto those who are needy, particularly to the widows and the orphans.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this the 5th day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and One, the One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-sixth year of our American Independence.

CHARLES B. AYCOCK,
 By the Governor:
 P. M. PEARSALL, Private Sec.

Did You Ever!

The Raleigh correspondent of The Baltimore Sun informs it that "a United States storekeeper and gauger has been convicted at Newbern of collusion with the distiller in swindling the government out of the tax on whiskey." This poor devil no doubt wonders why he should have been singled out and thus discriminated against, and the conduct of the court and jury in his case is calculated to excite not only his special wonder but to cause great surprise and indignation throughout all the distilling districts. There is nothing with which to compare this reprehensible proceedings at Newbern except the high-handed conduct of Insurance Commissioner Young in poking about the State investigating the origin of fires, the losses by which are covered by insurance, upon mere suspicion that their unfortunate victims know more about their origin than they should. The Sun's correspondent says that this is the first conviction of a storekeeper in the eastern district of North Carolina, and that "moonshiners are now quitting their illicit business and going into government distilleries, as by collusion with storekeepers they can swindle more safely and profitably." What a libel upon a lot of notably honest tradesmen!—Charlotte Observer.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county, made in a Special Proceeding entitled W. W. House and B. A. House vs. Mary A. James, wife of Moses H. James, and others, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the Court House door in Greenville, on Monday, December 9th, 1901, the following described tract of land situate in the county of Pitt and in Bethel township, adjoining the lands of R. M. Jones, S. M. Jones, W. I. Whitehurst, the Mary A. James land and others, containing 320 acres, more or less, and known as the Ashley House land, and being all the land owned by him at the time of his death.
 This November 7th, 1901.
 F. G. JAMES,
 Commissioner.

FOR HARNESS and Saddle Sores Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way:

You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a STANDARD remedy by poultry breeders.

Burned His Tobacco.

Rev. Charles Waggie, of Cincinnati, closed a revival in Pittsylvania county, Va., a few days ago. He preached sanctification in extreme form. He declared that the use and raising of tobacco was a vile sin. He told his converts to destroy their crops, and Matthew Searco, a young farmer, emptied his barns of $8,000 worth of tobacco, piled it in a heap, invited his neighbors and set fire to it.

This, in connection with the nervous shock she sustained because of the death of her room-mate, put her in a prostrated condition and the physicians at the college advised her to return home.—Kinston Free Press.

Singletary Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy has elected Mrs. Harry Skinner delegate and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis alternate to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Wilmington next week.

For School Fund.

Mayor W. H. Long has turned over to County Treasurer J. B. Cherry, for the public school fund, $39.52, the amount of fines imposed and collected by his court during the month of October.

Chrysanthemum Show.

Today Mrs. D. D. Haskett had her chrysanthemums on display and invited her friends out to see them. The exhibit was well worth going to see. Mrs. Haskett has about sixty varieties of this beautiful flower, all sizes, shapes and colors, and many of the specimens are magnificent. She has taken much care of her flowers and has cause to feel proud of them.

Tried to Murder His Mother.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 5.—Because his mother refused to give him 50 cents Thomas Deist, of this city, it is alleged, attempted to kill her. Mrs. Deist, to escape her son's wrath, locked herself in a room. The young man seized a sugar-bowl and hurled it through the door. A piece of the broken crockery struck Mrs. Deist in the neck, severing an artery, and she almost bled to death.

Prize Comes to Greenville.

The National Baptist Publication Society, of Nashville, Tenn., an organization that supplies literature for the colored Sunday schools, offered a prize to the Sunday school in North Carolina that made the largest contribution on Children's Day, that was observed in June. The school of the Sycamore Hill Baptist church here sent $7.13, which amount won the prize, and just received a very handsome banner from the Society.

What Advertising Did.

The proprietors of the largest general store in Tacoma (Washington) began in a small way. They lived economically, and saved every dollar they could to buy newspaper space. Now their contracts call for 15,000 inches (about 107 pages) a year in each of the local newspapers. If filled with solid reading matter this space would require 1,125,000 words. The manager says that the firm would as soon think of going out of business as of making any great reduction in its newspaper advertising.—Philadelphia Record.
