STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Near Charlotte Robert Capps was caught in his cotton gin and fatally injured.

There is report of such failure of crops in Robeson county as to make distress likely during the winter.

John Wilbur Jenkins, editor of the Raleigh Times Visitor, has gone to Baltimore to accept a position on the staff of the Sun, in that city.

The Swiss watchmaker, at Wilmington, who was arrested on the charge of setting fire to his store, has been convicted and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

The board of directors of the penitentiary have decided to abandon both the Tillery and Anson State farms next year. The reason for this is the demand for working convicts on railroads, which pays better than cultivating crops with them.

Not an Empty Stocking.

Just imagine a Christmas morning when not one child in all this land who hung up a stocking the night before should find it empty on awakening! Think of the joy that would be let loose in this old world! How can it be done.

In the October Ladies' Home Journal the president of the Sunshine Society started the ball rolling. She suggested that an "Empty Stocking Club" be formed in every city and town in the country. The "Empty Stocking Club" is a monument to a man and a woman the world will soon forget—M. F. Woolf, the artist of the poor, and Ruth Ashmore, the best friend the American girl ever had. In December, 1896, Mr. Woolf had a page of his drawings in The Ladies' Home Journal. One showed the bitter disappointment of two waifs, who crawled out of a forlorn bed to find their ragged stockings empty. This pitiful picture brought tears to the eyes of thousands, but to Ruth Ashmore it brought more than tears. She conceived and spread abroad the idea of "Empty Stocking Clubs." The sole object was to provide "filling" for the stockings of poor children. These clubs sprang up everywhere, and on Christmas Day, 1897, many a sad little life was filled with happiness. Then Ruth Ashmore died. The "Empty Stocking Clubs" became fewer. Now the idea has been revived. It is just time to begin forming the clubs. And what a fine thing it would be if in years to come the Christmas of 1901 could be recalled as the "full stocking" Christmas. Isn't it worth while?

A Georgia State Senator from Lumpkin county says he is sure there are diamonds in that county because one was found there some time ago. A diamond was found in this State once valued, we have heard, at $30,000, but if any have been found since that has been successfully kept a secret. But as we find nearly everything else in the way of precious stones there is no reason why we should not pick up a diamond occasionally.—Wilmington Star.

The wise man never argues with a woman.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits: Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

FRANK WILSON,
The King Clothier.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1901.

There! The drubbing the President got from Southern newspapers over the Booker Washington dinner incident has given him a waking-up as to the situation of things. While Booker might have felt that he was getting a big honor to himself in breaking bread with the President, it has reacted as a boomerang on his race, having provoked such criticism as to lead the President to decide that he will appoint no more Southern negroes to office. The President refused to give George White a place the other day and intimated that Cheatham is going to lose the place he is holding down.

The short cotton crop and short prices therefor have affected the planter, merchant, commission merchant and banker alike. The result is a spirit of unparalleled forbearance. It will not pay to force assignments. The status is such that he who drives his debtor to the wall will pursue a mistaken and losing policy. Unless there are imperative necessities in the case the merchant must not be forced into collapse. Such a course, under the circumstances, must be seen to be disastrous in several ways. The shortness of the crop could not be foreseen. In many cases it could not be averted by any sort of tillage. Out of it all there must come valuable lessons it would be interesting to orate and to emphasize if we had space.—Lumber Bridge, News.

Wouldn't Swap a Dog for a Pair of Mules.

At the cotton platform yesterday a Berryhill farmer got to talking about 'possums and logs, while his cotton was being weighed. He told 'Weigher Withers' of a dog he owned and some of the smart tricks his dog had done. One of the platform hands at once attempted negotiations for the dog. He first offered to give the Berryhill farmer a double-barreled shot-gun in exchange for the dog. The offer was scorned, Mr. Warren Roark had come up in the meantime, and had of course become interested. He wanted to get that dog. He made the farmer an offer of a good mule for the dog, a good, sound $30 mule, and thought sure he had a trade. He felt small, however, when the Berryhill man said that he wouldn't give his dog for the best pair of mules in Mecklenburg.—Charlotte Observer.

A statue of Thomas Jefferson, the gift of I. W. and B. Bernheim to the city of Louisville, was unveiled in front of the court house there Saturday in the presence of a large assemblage.

In 1902—the seventy-sixth year of its publication—The Youth's Companion promises more varied attractions for its readers than ever before, and The Youth's Companion always gives more than it promises. The government of the United States will be represented in contributions from Secretary of the Treasury Gage, Secretary of the Navy Long Postmaster-General Smith, and Assistant Secretary of War Sanger—a list, it is believed, never equaled in a previous year.

The government of Great Britain will be represented by contributions from the Duke of Argyll, the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava and the Rt. Hon. James Bryce, T. P. O'Connor and Winston S. Churchill, members of the House of Commons.

Other noteworthy contributors will be Wu Tingfang, Chinese minister at Washington, Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee Institute, Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, Gen. Charles King and Rear Admiral Hiebhorn, while more than two hundred of the most popular of living story-writers will contribute from four to six fascinating stories to each of the fifty-two issues of The Companion for 1902.

To all new subscribers for 1902 and to those renewing, their subscriptions The Companion will send its beautiful 1902 Calendar, lithographed in twelve colors and gold. By sending $1.75 before January 1st, the new subscriber will receive free all the remaining issues of 1901 from the time the subscription is received.

Pensions Are Held Up.

The pension warrants will not be sent out as early as expected. State Auditor Dixon expected and hoped to send the warrants to the pensioners by the first of December, but State Treasurer Lacy says the funds in the Treasury are not sufficient to permit of payment at this time.

The warrants have been printed and are now in the office of the State Auditor. They will be filled out at once and as soon as the Treasury recoups on cash they will be forwarded to the deserving old veterans.

The pensions this year will amount to $200,000. This is the largest sum ever given by the State to pensioners. For several year past the amount of the State pensions has been something like $110,000. The big increase was provided for by the last Legislature, the ratio of the pension tax being increased from ten to twelve cents.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Democracy May Well Take Heart.

Altogether, the Democrats have every reason to felicitate themselves. No party ever fought against such overwhelming odds. No such strain was ever put upon the courage and fidelity of party men. It is true that the Democracy has won no victories excepting in the case of Kentucky and, perhaps, of Maryland; but it is evident that the stout old party is alive, that its vigor is returning, and that, freed from the false leaderships and the impracticable heresies that have so fatally handicapped it during the past eight or ten years, it has before it a career of usefulness and incalculable possibilities. The Democracy may well take heart.—Washington Post.

The Best Prescription for Malaria Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteful form. No cure, no pay. Price 50c.

FOR HARNESS and Saddle Sores Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way: You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a STANDARD remedy by poultry breeders.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

For North Carolina, fair warm tonight, Tuesday partly cloudy. Fresh east to southeast winds.

A STEP AT THE TIME.

Begin With the Shorter Ones and They Get Longer.

Sunday and today were crisp days.

Frost was enough to look almost like a light snow early this morning.

J. S. Campbell has moved his jewelry store to a portion of J. W. Bryans drug store.

Fresh Goods—Buckwheat, Citron, cleaned Currents, seeded Raisins at Sam'l. M. Schultz.

Today Mr. W. S. Fleming cut the watermelon that was in his store window and sent THE REFLECTOR part of it.

Dr. R. T. Vaun, President of the Baptist University, of Raleigh, will speak in the Baptist church here, next Thursday night, on the University.

FOR SALE CHEAP—10 pairs of window blinds and 11 pairs of sash with 8x10 lights, saved from the old Masonic Lodge building.—Apply to J. M. Reuss or A. J. Griffin.

R. R. Burgess, representing Oakdale Nurseries, near Greensboro, will deliver fruit trees at Greenville near the Court House on Saturday, Nov. 16. He requests that all who bought trees of these nurseries will come promptly on day of delivery and get their trees.

The Greenville Steam Laundry has been quite busy for this, their first week, and has turned out some good work. Of course the work with right new machinery, is not altogether as good as it will be after the machinery has been used some, but what we have seen is very nice.

A Little Girl Hanged in a Swing.

Albemarle, Nov. 8.—A distressing affair took place at the home of J. E. Vanboy, an operative of the Wicassett Mills, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A swing made of cotton rope had been tied under the sills of the house for the use of his children. The little two-year old girl was swinging when by some means she fell from it, the rope tightening around her neck, choking her to death. No one was with her at the time and she was not missed until about sundown. When her mother went to look for her she was cold and stiff in death.—Charlotte Observer.

An Old Veteran Dead.

One by one the veterans of the gray are passing from the shores of time.

Mr. John Tuton died at the Soldiers' Home yesterday morning aged 68 years. He had been at the home nearly a year and came there from Greene county. During the war he was a member of Company A, Third North Carolina State troops. He is said to have been a splendid soldier. He was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 at the Home. The interment will be at the Confederate cemetery.—Raleigh Post.

We Eat Nearly Seven Pounds Daily.

The average adult in exercise requires as a day's ration about six pounds and thirteen ounces. Of this amount about five pounds will be water found in the common foods and taken as beverage. Of the remaining part, one-fourth will be nitrogenous matter, three-fourths carbonaceous, with about two hundred grains mineral matter.—November Ladies' Home Journal.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

H. C. Ormond went up the road today.

Rev. D. W. Davis left on the morning train.

B. A. Tyson and H. L. Coward went to Norfolk today.

J. D. Cox returned to Winterville Saturday evening.

J. C. Moorman returned Saturday from a visit up the road.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tucker, of Norfolk, came in this morning.

Miss Mary Lucy Dupree, of Norfolk, is visiting Miss Hennie Whichard.

L. H. Rountree went to Ayden Saturday night and returned this morning.

W. T. Lipscomb and little son, Willie, returned Saturday evening from Goose Nest.

Miss Martha Coffield, of Hassell, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, in South Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowen, of Baltimore, who have been spending a few days here, left this morning.

Mrs. J. A. Dupree and little son, William, of Norfolk, came in Saturday evening and are visiting Miss Etta Hines.

Mrs. W. H. Crawford and children, of Williamston, who were visiting Mrs. E. H. Shelburn, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jordan, of Danville, came in Saturday evening and will spend a few days here with their son, J. C. Jordan.

Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, was the guest of Mrs. W. S. Parker for a few days last week. Mrs. Jarvis is a charming woman and meets with a cordial reception whenever she graces Henderson with her presence.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Baptism.

Sunday afternoon Rev. J. N. Booth baptised his youngest son, Charles, in the river near the Old Dominion wharf. A large number of people were present to witness it. Sunday night he was given the right hand of welcome into the fellowship of the Baptist church.

At Briery Swamp.

Sunday we had the pleasure of worshipping with the good people at Briery Swamp church in Carolina township, and enjoyed being there. A baptism preceded the preaching and at 11 o'clock Elder Lawrence, the faithful pastor, preached a comforting sermon to all believers in Christ.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

William Anderson, drunk and down, fined $1 and costs, total $3.30.

Only one case in a week shows a remarkable change from the large records the Mayor's court has lately had.

A Cross-Eyed Mule.

One of the oddities at the cotton platform yesterday was a cross-eyed mule. The owner, a Paw Creek farmer, says that this mule is the only cross-eyed specimen that he or any of his neighbors have ever known. He has owned the mule three years and the only fault he finds with him is that he will throw a fit on the approach of a bicycle. He can be driven up to a railroad engine or a road roller with the meekness of a lamb, but when it comes to a bicycle, trouble and tangled harness are sure to result.—Charlotte Observer.

Mrs. W. H. PROCTOR.

There are now nearly 200,000 miles of railroad in operation in this country. These roads employ, according to Prof. Lindsey, of the University of Pennsylvania, over 1,000,000 men and contribute to the support of not less than 5,000,000 of people, which means that one out of every fifteen in the country lives out of the earnings from railroad service.—Wilmington Star.
