NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 13.
Two car loads of best galvanized wire for fencing have just been received by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. Simon Moyer, who has been in Washington for the past two weeks visiting her parents, came home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Jesse Cannon, of Ayden, spent Friday with friends here.

Jesse Speight and G. B. W. Hadley, of Greenville, were here the other day.

Mr. Moore, of Goose Nest, was here Friday and Saturday.

You had better count up the wire fence you are going to need this winter and send in orders at once to the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Miss Nannie Moore, of Bethel, is visiting Miss Lovie Smith.

Miss Cora Carroll, of Black Jack, was visiting at the dormitory first Sunday.

Cullen Moore and G. M. Smith, of Falkland, were here yesterday on business.

Mrs. Barnes Sumrell, of Ayden, who had been on a visit to her father, Capt. H. M. Dixon, returned home Wednesday evening.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co., are giving away some nice presents with their buggies. You had better come and get your buggy and present at once as the offer will soon close.

J. R. Cooper went to Staton Wednesday and returned Saturday.

R. G. Chapman and wife, of Calico, spent Friday and part of Saturday with Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Miss Becky Dixon, of Lizzie, came Friday to attend the debate of the Vance Literary Society that evening.

Ollen Wilkinson, of Scotland Neck, spent Friday night here on pleasure bent and a good time in general. He must have succeeded most admirably, if one may judge from the smiles he wore as he left next morning.

Another new dwelling begun and new life is manifest everywhere.

Richard Nelson, of Lizzie, was here one day last week.

Miss Effie Kittrell spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Nannie Nichols, of Standard.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Cox wagons and team were furnished Sunday and all the young ladies and gentlemen boarders at the dormitory attended services in Ayden. It was a pleasant time coming and going.

Misses Annie Stox and Mimie Cox spent Saturday, and Mrs. J. D. Cox Monday, in Greenville.

Miss Bessie Chapman, of Calico, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Mrs. J. N. Knight, of New Bern, and two little children are visiting the family of A. G. Cox.

J. R. Beddard went to Kinston Saturday and returned Monday.

Jamie Cox spent Saturday and Sunday in Littlefield with his friend, Claude Dawson.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash price for cotton seed.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1901

WANTS TO SUE NORTH CAROLINA.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The State of South Dakota desires to sue the State of North Carolina, and today filed a brief in the United States Supreme Court setting forth that request. It was filed by Attorney General Doyle of South Dakota. Through two other parties South Dakota was given for school purposes ten bonds of the state of North Carolina issued for the Western North Carolina Railroad. They are for $1,000 each second mortgage bonds, of date July 1, 1869. It is alleged that the first mortgage bonds were extended to the depreciation of the second mortgage bonds, and North Carolina having refused to pay the second mortgage bonds, request is made that this suit may be brought by South Dakota, which holds ten shares as a gift. The court took the matter under advisement.

The complaint alleges that 30,000 shares of railroad stock are owned by the State of North Carolina; that the State is receiving large dividends from the stock, that the mortgage bonds issued upon the stock of which $30,000 are held by the State of South Dakota are now due and together with interest coupons have not been paid. It is asked that so much of the stock be sold under direction of the court as will be required to pay off the mortgage bonds and interest due; that during the pendency of this suit a receiver be appointed by the court to take charge of the thousand shares of stock held by the State and that an injunction be issued prohibiting and enjoining the State of North Carolina from collecting or receiving the dividends on thirty thousand shares of stock in question.

The bonds held by the State of South Dakota were part of a donation made to the State University.

A sad and deplorable accident occurred at the home of Mr. M. B. Fuller near Plank Chapel, Friday, resulting in the death of his little three or four year old son. Mr. Fuller was having an old barn torn down and the child went to the place. He was lost sight of or being on the other side of the house his presence was not noticed at the time and a piece of timber was thrown down upon the little fellow, killing him.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

It is almost an impossibility to read a newspaper these days without seeing an article on how to educate the negro. Why not substitute a few remarks on how to educate the poor boys and girls of the white race?—Danville Bee.

DRUNK AND CRAZY.

The neighborhood of Warnersville had a big time Saturday night. The cause started Saturday afternoon when the government of the United States, through its revenue officers, poured out on the ground of what is known as the Whittington field, about 115 barrels of a kind of cordial used by distillers in rectifying spirits. It had been seized, but for some cause it was destroyed, instead of being sold and pouring it out was decided on. In some way a lot of darkeys over that way heard of it and large numbers of them were on hand at the appointed time, each fellow carrying some kind of a vessel. They varied in size from a small mug to a wash tub and as the cordial flowed down the rivulets they gobbled up whatever they could. It was not un-mixed with dirt, but this made no difference—they caught it up any way and many of them drank it and became hilarious, for it made "drunk come" in huge chunks. The cordial is not called liquor, though it has alcohol in it. It has a sweetish taste and it is said of it that at first there was no suggestion of being made drunk, but it appears to be a little like champagne—doing its work hours afterwards, by which time quite a load of it had been stowed away. Many of them had to turn in, being too full for utterance, but others were just drunk enough by the time night came on to raise shindy and they did it.—Greensboro Record.

Brother Dickey on Poverty.

"Poverty," said Brother Dickey, "heez been a great blessin' ter me en mine, I never had money 'nuff in all my life ter make me set up in bed en ax myself. How long fo' daylight! I never had no money in de bank, en broke my neck tryin' ter ketch de cashier w'en he lef' word dat he was takin' exercise fer his helt; en I never had one dollar in a railroad fer de receiver ter be thankful fer what he wuz 'bout ter receive. Rich mens is ez necessary ez taxes, en des 'bout ez popular, sometimes; but they got mo' troubles dan what I got. Dey all hez dese highfalutin diseases what no mens kin per-nounce, en no matter how much money dey gives de church de preacher private opinion is dey ain't ez fur fr'm hell ez next month is fum Chris'mus! But de po' mens pull thoo' somehow; en w'en dey gives up de ghost hit's allus wid some good, ol' fashion complaint like de measles, or de broke-bone fever, or de seven-year cetch, en de rub-down rheumatism. De patch is on dey britches, but de Peace is in dey min'!"

FOR HARNES and Saddle Sores Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way:

You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a STANDARD remedy by poultry breeders.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

W. A. Beavans is sick.

J. B. Higgs went to Washington today.

F. W. Mahler, of Raleigh, came in today.

E. H. Thomas went up the road this morning.

Jesse Speight went up the road this morning.

E. W. Pace came in this morning from New Bern.

Ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis went to Kinston Tuesday evening.

Rev. F. A. Bishop says he has returned home from Ocrooke.

R. R. Burgers, agent of the Oakdale Nurseries, left Tuesday evening for Ayden.

Miss Anna Morrill, of Farmville, who has been visiting in Kinston, came over on the morning train.

Mrs. Hanrahan Dead.

Mrs. Susan M. Hanrahan died Tuesday night at her home near Grifton. She was the widow of the late Mr. James A. Hanrahan. Mrs. Hanrahan was a most excellent woman, and her many friends in Greenville learn of her death with sorrow.

The burial will take place at New Bern Thursday.

Bear Watching.

The wisest man feels that he is but a simple child playing among the pebbles on the shore of the great ocean of knowledge and the best of men feels that he often does wrong. The man who boasts of what he knows is usually an ignoramus and the fellow who boasts about how good he is will bear close watching.—Monroe Enquirer.

Burned with Powder.

Tuesday afternoon Linda Smith, a little son of Mr. W. H. Smith, was playing with some gun powder. He stuck a match to the powder to see what it would do, and the powder done the rest. Linda's hands and face are so badly burned that he is laid up in bed and suffering much pain. We hope he will soon be well—and not play with any more powder.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

Throw away your horrid drugs, liniments, and other new fangled notions that you are told to take to cure your ills. It is the consensus of opinion of the medical profession that good nature and joy with your mind free from care will do more to cure ills of the body than half the drugs in the land. Instead of drugs try a performance of the Herald Square Opera Company that is to play at the Opera House tomorrow night. It costs a great deal less than the doctor's bill.

Murder in Marshall.

Marshall, N. C., November 11.—Peter Smith was today lodged in jail here charged with the murder of his step-daughter, Hannah Fleming. Smith is about 47 years of age. On last Thursday the head of the unfortunate girl was found about a quarter of a mile above Smith's house among a lot of logs, and hair and blood stains were found about the fence, and at the foot of the hill the skull and some wearing apparel. The body of the unfortunate girl has not yet been discovered.

One of the charges against the defendant is that he is the author of the girl's downfall and, this is alleged by the State to be the motive of the crime. Smith protests his innocence. Search for the body still continues and the good people of Spring Creek are very much wrought up over the crime.
