FALL SELLING.

Putting it Strong.

And why not? When the merchandise and prices will back up the statements made concerning them, we have every right to "Put it Strong." There is nothing wrong in emphasizing excellence when the emphasis is within the bounds of truth, when facts are given without misrepresentation.

Our "Ad" States Facts.

Just facts, something well worth remembering. Counters and tables piled high. Stacks and stacks of mens, boys and youths clothing. Every place rambled and packed with shoes. We can show you to your entire satisfaction. Counter room needed in our dress goods department. Selling must continue to relieve the pressure. Come early before the best things are gone. All the latest styles and weaves in dress goods. Agents for Standard Patterns.

RICKS & WILKINSON.

CARE FOR THE SICK.

A Noble Band of Women Organize.

Wednesday evening a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Perkins to organize a society which has a most noble purpose as the object of its existence. The object of the society is to visit and nurse any sick persons in the community who may be without means to provide necessary attention. It starts with fourteen members so there may be two to alternate for each day in the week in their ministrations. It is a most laudable enterprise and should have the interest and support of the entire community.

The society has not been given a name yet, but the following were elected officers:

President—Mrs. J. J. Perkins.
Vice President—Miss Maggie Doughty.

Treasurer—Mrs. S. M. Schultz.
Secretary—Miss Bessie Jarvis.

After the organization Mrs. Perkins served an elegant supper to the ladies.

Good Reading for Everybody.

In addition to its special articles by famous men and women and its stories by the most popular living writers of fiction The Youth's Companion presents from week to week many regular features of great value.

The editorial page discusses the public questions of the day in a spirit of impartiality, the aim being to give the reader the material for forming his own opinions.

The article on the care of the health which has been published every week for many years is of the greatest value.

The departments of Current Events and Nature and Science give the important news of the world in condensed form.

The children's page provides diversions for the little ones, and the anecdotes and miscellany have their share in making the paper a complete treasury of good reading.

An illustrated prospectus of the new volume for 1902 will be sent to any address free.

Every new subscriber who sends $1.75 for the 1902 volume now will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1901 and The Companion Calendar for 1902, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
195 Columbus Ave, Boston, Mass.

The Charlestonians are much encouraged by the number and character of the exhibitors at the fair that is not far ahead now. Hundreds of car loads have been recently filled with exhibits. A dispatch from Charleston of 10th stated that more than 2,000 men are now employed on the exposition grounds, and the midway city is going up as if by magic. The housing committee of the woman's department has already secured more than 10,000 lodgings for exposition visitors in private families and boarding houses. Nearly every house in Charleston will be converted for the exposition period into a house of entertainment. The railroad rates will be low, 30 per cent lower than those for Buffalo exposition. The U. S. government's exhibit at Buffalo is to be sent to Charleston soon—Wilmington Messenger.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

FRANK WILSON,
The King Clothier.

New and Old.

We happened by Dr. Laughing-house's office this morning as he was opening a lot of new instruments. Of course they were all "Dutch" to the uninitiated, but from the explanation he gave of them it could be seen he is equipping his practice with up-to-date methods and appliances. He also showed us some old instruments that were in use by his grandfather Dr. O'Hagan, in the latter's early practice, that were long since out of date, but which he keeps as relics and for their association with the long ago.
