FALL SELLING.

Putting it Strong.

And why not? When the merchandise and prices will back up the statements made concerning them, we have every right to "Put it Strong." There is nothing wrong in emphasizing excellence when the emphasis is within the bounds of truth, when facts are given without misrepresentation.

Our "Ad" States Facts.

Just facts, something well worth remembering. Counters and tables piled high. Stacks and stacks of mens, boys and youths clothing. Every place rambled and packed with shoes. We can show you to your entire satisfaction. Counter room needed in our dress goods department. Selling must continue to relieve the pressure. Come early before the best things are gone. All the latest styles and weaves in dress goods. Agents for Standard Patterns.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.

It is a well recognized fact that the President's civil service reform record alone would have been quite sufficient to have prevented his receiving the vice-presidential nomination, could the party leaders have foreseen that the time would come when he would succeed to the presidency. It is now reported that he proposes to outdo Mr. Cleveland in his promotion of the reform, and that, not only has he signified his desire for resignations from some of the party's favorites, because of their violation of the civil service rules, but he proposes to extend the classified list to include the laborers in the departments and is even thinking of including the entire consular service.

When Mr. Cleveland "covered in" as it is called, the bulk of the department employes, it was represented to him that it would appear ridiculous to require civil service examinations from the laborers and charwomen and accordingly he excluded these grades of labor from his general order. As soon, however, as congressmen discovered that these were the only positions which their influence could secure for their constituents they insisted upon naming all the laborers and then excited their further influence to have their nominees assigned to clerical work. This custom is now general throughout the government service and accounts for Maclay, of the Schley-Sampson controversy fame, being carried on the roles of the Navy Department as a laborer robbed of the prerogative of securing appointments for their constituents the members of Congress will be compelled to suffer the hardship of appealing to their constituents for reelection on the ground of their records in Congress.

It is also anticipated that, as soon as the required appropriation of $6,000,000 which the Postmaster General has asked for, to extend the rural free delivery service, that branch of the service will also be "covered in." The regular attempt which is made every time a census bureau is organized, is now being made to secure the transfer of census clerks to the classified list of the Civil Service Commission. In the past, this effort has usually resulted in the transfer of a few whose influence was particularly powerful. The claim is made this year that clerks were appointed in the Census Bureau only after having taken a competitive examination, which is perfectly true, but nothing is said about the fact that no one who did not present the endorsement of his representative or senator was eligible to take the examination. With Mr. Roosevelt in the White House it is doubtful if any of the census clerks will be placed on the classified lists.

Christmas Coming.

S. M. Schultz is reminding the little folks, and the big ones, too, that Christmas is coming. One of his front windows is chock full of dolls, all kinds and sizes, and nobody can pass without involuntarily stopping to look at them. He has a big stock of goods for this holiday season.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

The King Clothier.

Winterville Department.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 16.

Agent—Neighbor, can't I sell you some wire fence?
Neighbor—I like wire fence, but must use cheaper fence.
A.—The wire fence is cheapest; let us figure together on the cost of each fence for ten years.
N.—All right, go ahead, and count the cost for 1000 yards.
A.—It will take 4,800 rails for 1,000 yards good fence.
N.—That is about right, counting 12 rails to the pannel.
A.—We will count splitting, hauling and putting rails on fence at $1.00 per hundred.
N.—That is about fair. If rails are scarce it will cost more, where they are to be handled around large farms.
A.—That is $48.00 for rails.
N.—All right; that is satisfactory.
A.—How much plank will 4,800 rails make?
N.—They will make at least 5,000 feet of plank.
A.—What is timber worth in the log for plank?
N.—$1.00 per thousand is as cheap as I ever knew.
A.—That makes $1.00 for timber.
N.—Neighbor we will call it $5.00, but that is very low.
A.—Now, you save in wire fence a big fence row.
N.—Yes, about six feet wide, which causes lots of shrubbing.
A.—That will be 2,000 square yards, which we will call worth $2.00 per year, or $20.00 for 10 years.
N.—That is a very reasonable charge.
A.—Now, how long will the ordinary fence last?
N.—It will take as much as two fences in ten years.
A.—I expect that will be a good average.
N.—Now, what will these figures amount to in ten years?
A.—Fence, $96.00; timber, $100.00; fence-row, $20.00—making $126.00 for ten years.
N.—That seems to be correct but I never figured it before.
A.—Now we will count the cost of your wire fence.
N.—All right, go ahead at bottom figures.
A.—1,000 yards of wire fence at 8 cents per yard, $80.00.
N.—How many posts will it take for 1,000 yards?
A.—200 posts. What can you get them at?
N.—Five cents apiece is as much as we have to pay.
A.—That will be $10.00, making $90.00 in all.
N.—What did we say was the

Grove's

Tasteless Chill Tonic

has stood the test for 20 years.

One Million Six Hundred Thousand sand bottles were sold last year.

Do you think it pays to try others?

cost of rail fence 10 years?
A.—Here are the figures, which are $126.00.
N.—Good gracious! that makes wire fence $36.00 cheaper, or $3.60 saved each year.
A.—Yes, but that is not all.
N.—What next?
A.—What will your rail fence be worth at the end of ten years.
N.—The estimate of time will call it a rotten fence.
A.—That is so, and we think if you will put in a few posts, your wire fence will still be good.
N.—I think you are right.
A.—And still there are other features in favor of wire fence.
N.—What are they?
A.—The wire fence will neither burn nor blow down, nor can it be thrown down by mischievous stock.
N.—Well, well! I certainly want the wire fence if I could get it.
A.—Let me make some suggestions that may help you.
N.—All right.
A.—If you can't buy it all at once, I would advise you to spend your money for wire fence instead of hiring your rails split; remove your old rails to repair your old fence, and put the wire fence where you have removed the rail fence.
N.—That is a good idea, and I shall certainly want some fence. Where is the best place to get fence?
A.—Of the Winterville Fence Company, that is the fence I sell and put up.
N.—All right; I will see how much I shall get. Where did you say get it?
A.—Of the Winterville Fence Co., Winterville, N. C.

EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION.

In Session With St. Paul's Church.

Reported for THE REFLECTOR.

The 77th meeting of the Convocation of Edenton was called to order, in St. Paul's church Friday, by the Bishop of the Diocese.

The clergymen present were as follows: Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., Bishop of the East Carolina; Rev. Nathaniel Harding, Washington; Rev. R. B. Drane, D. D., Edenton; Rev. N. C. Hughes, Chocowinity; Rev. Louis L. Williams, Elizabeth City; and Rev. F. H. Harding, rector of the parish; and of the laity Mr. F. A. Boyle, of Plymouth; Mr. Jas. L. Butt, Chocowinity; Maj. Henry Harding, of Greenville; Chas. Malone and Mr. Braddy, of Beaufort county.

Service was said at eleven o'clock, at which there was a sermon.

The business session was held at three o'clock, at which the officers and committees made reports. Evening prayer was said at 7:30 o'clock after which an essay was read by Mr. F. A. Boyle and discussed by the Clergymen present.

This morning there was a sermon at 11 o'clock and a business session this afternoon.

'Bus Business Changes.

Mr. W. J. Tarnage has purchased from Mr. E. H. Shelburn the Hotel Bertha 'bus and horses and taken charge of the business. Mr. Tarnage is a man who deserves success and he is winning it. Two years ago he began a dray business with a single team. His promptness and personal attention to the business won a liberal patronage which increased until he has had to put on three drays to meet the demand upon him, and now that he has also taken the passenger transfer his business is still further increased. The people will find him worthy of all confidence and deserving their patronage at all times. Any orders left for him at the office of Speight & Co. will receive prompt attention.

Exposure to Wet, dampness and cold, invariably results in a sudden chill, which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Theoford's Black-Dracht. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicines, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.
