NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 20.

If you intend repairing the fence around your farm during the winter you will find it very much to your interest to examine the wire fencing now being offered by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. It is unquestionably without a rival as to durability and in price it is by far the cheapest on the market.

Mrs. John Elks, a very old lady, died here Monday night and will be buried out near Standard this afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Hart, of Kinston, has been visiting Mrs. W. L. House for several days. She left for her home yesterday.

One day this week a package came to the post office addressed to the "Most Prominent Courting Person." It was very promptly handed to Joshua Manning, Esq., though some think Jimmie Green most justly entitled to the prize.

Mrs. J. B. Galloway, of Grimesland, was visiting in town Monday.

Mrs. Bessie Chapman, of Calico, was visiting the Misses Wesson Monday.

Miss Mollie Bryan attended church at Bethany Sunday.

J. D. Cox, Mesdames Mary Smith, J. D. Cox and Miss Mollie Bryan were in attendance upon the Episcopal Convocation at Greenville the latter part of last week.

Chief of Police Sparks went to Kinston Saturday evening and returned Monday morning.

Little Misses Annie Nelson and Olivia Cox spent Saturday in Greenville.

Jesse Speight was here one day this week buying cotton.

Mrs. G. R. Dixon has gone to Black Jack to visit her sister who is very sick.

There were several from here to attend the dedication services at Ayden Monday. Among them being Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Cox, Mrs. C. A. Fair and Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Enoch Ludford, general manager for the Ayden Lumber Co., was here on business on the 15th.

Internal revenue collector J. L. Phelps, of Plymouth, spent one day here last week.

Mrs. Ann Burrus, of Chatanooga, Tenn., who has been visiting relatives in the neighborhood for some time, left for home last Thursday.

Rowan Cooper has a nice assortment of light and heavy groceries as well as a fine selection of confections. He would be pleased to have his friends and the public call and be convinced that he has not only the best but also sells as cheap as the cheapest.

Mrs. Kinsey Hardy, of Ayden, who has been on a visit to the family of A. G. Cox, returned home yesterday evening.

Western Kansas editors have a unique way of prodding up delinquent subscribers, as this from the Kansas City Journal will indicate: "If you have frequent headaches, dizziness, fainting spells, accompanied by chills, cramps, corns, bunions, chilblains, epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign you are not well, but are liable to die any minute. Pay your subscription a year in advance, and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice."

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1901

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, the earnings of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad from operations amounted to $7,915,099.34, the operating expenses and taxes amounted to $4,976,829.27, leaving a net balance of $2,938,270.07, to which may be added $62,915.56 income derived from other sources. These figures are taken from reports made at the recent annual meeting of the directors and make a fine showing for the year's business.

Sally Ann White has erected a monument over the supposed grave of her husband, but it has since developed that her husband is still alive. This colored woman applied for a pension is 1894, claiming that her husband fought and was killed in the civil war. She received as back pay $2,000 in cash. She bought her a place and began to live in great style. A monument was erected over the grave of her deceased husband. However, last year a colored volunteer applied for a pension and he was found to be none other than the negro white. Judge Purnell was appointed a receiver for the property of Sally Ann White in New Bern, and speculation is now rife as to what is buried beneath the monument erected to White's memory in New Bern.—EX.

Call to Mind the Past.

I remember very well when young men sought employment on farms for about $72 per annum. This included board and washing. Such young men would labor hard six days per week and fifty-two weeks in the year with two or three holidays at Christmas. Out of this $72 they would save $60. In a few years they would have enough money to buy a small farm. They did not make debts. They did not smoke. They owned no badges. They wore plain clothing. They saved their money. They made character. They had too much respect to compromise their manhood, enough self control to keep under vicious appetites, acquired a competency for comfortable living. They built up the country. They added something profitable to their race.—Eld. P. D. Gold in Wilson Time.

Because a pert telephone girl in Seattle refused to connect a subscriber with the fire department when he wanted to give notice of a fire, a loss of $60,000 was incurred, and now the telephone company is being sued for damages by the person thus served and by the insurance company which suffered the loss.

The Cost of the Census.

The cost of the eleventh census was in the close neighborhood of $11,000,000.

From present indications the twelfth census will entail an expense upon the government of not less than $14,000,000, and before the end is reached the figures may run considerably higher.

Much of this outgo might be obviated by means of a permanent census bureau, and in view of our somewhat troublesome experience it seems rather strange that we have not as yet taken steps in this direction.

As it is now, we are put to the necessity of organizing census bureaus every ten years, and each time we are compelled to begin at the beginning. Why not profit by the lessons of experience?

Besides insuring a very great saving to the taxpayers of the country, the creation of a permanent census bureau would also insure better results in the compilation and verification of statistics. Under the present system the work of getting out the census returns is so slow that the figures get out of date before they are published and are, therefore, comparatively useless.

As soon as possible steps should be taken looking toward the organization of a permanent census bureau. Certainly another ten years should not be allowed to pass without the organization of such a department.

The sooner the movement is inaugurated the better.—Atlanta Constitution.

How Baby Lions at the Zoo Are Made to Go to Bed.

Baby lions, as well as baby boys and girls, need fresh air and sunshine, so at the Washington Zoo the baby lions have summer quarters where they can run and stretch their limbs in a freedom somewhat akin to that of the jungle. So well do they like their outdoor quarters that they will not go in at closing time, although their big, tender mother urges them by all the ways of which she is mistress. A novel method has to be resorted to in order to get these big babies into their cage without hurting them, for gentleness is one of the rules at the Washington Zoo, and no animal is punished where humane treatment will answer. When the animals are called to their quarters, the three baby lions poke their wrinkled noses close to the bars and settle themselves down as if to protest against going to bed. Then a watchman approaches with a hose and shoots a stream of water close to their small snarling faces. Then back go the kittens by the great rocks to the cavern like door of the inner cage, followed every step of the way by the man with the hose. Finally the three small heads disappear and the sliding door hides three pairs of eyes from glaring out into the darkness. Baby lions do not like water—at least, not on their smooth coats—and the animal keeper, who has noticed a kitten stop and shake a protesting foot on a wet pavement, has turned his observation to good account in getting these giant pussies to bed.

FOR HARNESS and Saddle Sores Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way:

You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a STANDARD remedy by poultry breeders.

'Fore Jogerfy and 'Quater Cum.

Judge A. M. Moore is telling a good anecdote that he run across. An ancient colored parson was edifying his congregation with an account of the passage of the children of Israel across the Red sea in their flight from Egypt. "Deer bredren an' sistren," said the parson, "de chillun o' Isrel went 'cross dat sea on de ice. 'Twas er col' nite but dey wuz smart fokes an' got up 'fore day an' walk rite ereross sleek an' smove. But dem Gypstus, dey wuz lazy, sleep-late fokes, an' 'twuz way on ten er 'leben 'clock wen dey cum marchin' down ter de sho'. De sun wuz shinin' gud en hot by den, an' de ice wuz er meltin', an' w'en dey went on it hit broke in an' Faro an' all his army got drowned."

This story was mo-t too much for a young buck sitting near the pulpit, and rising up he said with a knowing air, "Brudner Cobb, doan you kno de jogerfy sez dey's got de 'quater in Egypt, an' where de 'quater is dey doan have no ice?"

The parson straightend up in his dignity, looked over his spectacles and pointing his finger sarcastically at him said, "Sot down dar, you imperdent nigger, an' doan you daze be conterdictin' er ole man lak me! Dis t'ing I'm tellin' hap'n'd 'fore de jogerfy an' 'quater cum."

Jesse Speight went down the road Tuesday evening.

Col. Harry Skinner returned this morning from Kinston.

E. L. Middleton, of Cary, spent last night and this morning here.

Miss Nan Coward came up this morning from Ayden to visit her brother, H. L. Coward.

H. E. Abram, of Washington City, has been spending a day or two with S. M. Schultz.

Mrs. D. E. House left today for Edgecombe to visit her parents, and will spend Thanksgiving there.

Fred Forbes, who came home from Trinity College at Durham a few days ago, returned today to take up his studies again.

Miss Annie White, THE REFLECTOR'S Black Jack correspondent, was in town today and made a pleasant call at the office.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

They are having snow in the western part of the State.

On Monday near Palmyra a gin house and twenty bales of cotton were burned.

The Scotland Neck knitting mill was considerably damaged by fire Monday night.

Charlotte had a $100,000 fire early Tuesday morning, several stores being burned.

Dr. D. E. Motley has been elected president of the Christian college (formerly Kinsey seminary) at Wilson.

Some men were out rabbit hunting near Greensboro. Their dogs frightened a farmer's hogs and one of the latter run into a fence and was injured so that it had to be killed. The farmer made the hunters pay what the hog was estimated to be worth if it had been kept up and fattened until Christmas.

At the Opera House.

Friday night, Nov. 22nd, Stewarts Vaudeville Entertainment will be at the Opera House. Popular prices 15 and 25c. Seats on sale Thursday morning at Jas. B. White's dry goods store.

The Stewarts in the double exhibition on a pair of silver rings, displaying nerve, strength and skill.

Mrs. Stewart in her songs, pleasing dances and cake walks. She is bound to please.

Clifton—The funny clown, will make you laugh.

Bryan Stewart in his wonderful feats of balancing, neatness and skill on the slack wire and flying trapeze.

The Little Red House—The most mysterious of houses. To see this alone is worth the price of admission. The clowns will make you laugh and the house will make you wonder.

Newspapers Exclusively.

The Merchants' Association of Hazleton, Pennsylvania, has followed the example of several business men's organizations and of individuals in other places by making a rule against poster, programme, circular and other miscellaneous forms of advertising. At a recent meeting the Hazleton merchants resolved that hereafter their advertising shall be confined to newspapers.—Philadelphia Record.

The Gold Medal!

It will be pleasing information for wearers of Queen Quality Shoes to learn that their favorite footwear won the Gold Medal at the Pan-American Exposition.

Queen Quality

Shoes for Women

had previously won the distinction of being the most famous shoes in the world and of having the largest sale.

The immense volume of patronage bestowed on these shoes has undoubtedly been due to a number of things—the beautiful leathers, handsome models, great variety of styles, shapes to suit all types of feet, and the fact that the price was $2 less than that demanded for similar values, but chiefly because of their

Wonderful Fitting Qualities.

It is the combination of Ease and Elegance that has earned the Queen Quality success and that constitutes this triumph of shoemaking. From the One Price daintiest dress creation to the most sturdy boot for Oxfords $2.50 storm wear.
