BROKE IN STORE.

Thief Captured With Blood Hounds.

Tuesday night the store of W. H. Wilson, a colored man, at Penny Hill, was broken into and robbed. The thief got in by prizing open the back door to the store. Some meat and other goods were stolen.

Wednesday morning Mr. W. C. Hines received a telephone message to go out with his blood hounds and see if the thief could be trailed. Mr. Hines left with his dogs at once and reached Penny Hill about 11 o'clock. The owner of the store had been thoughtful enough not to let anyone go about the door where the thief got in, so the dogs were quick to strike a trail. They followed the trail down by the creek and across the bridge over into Edgecombe county to the house of Foreman Staton, colored, who was taken in custody.

The dogs not getting to Penny Hill in fully ten hours after the robbery was committed and then running the trail so readily was a piece of fine work for them.

Good Changes.

Another change has been made in the schedule of passenger trains on the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad that will be of interest and benefit to people over this way. The evening train going west will leave New Bern at 6 o'clock, passing Kinston at 7:07. This will make a good connection with the Weldon and Kinston train over this road which is due at Kinston at 6:45. By this new schedule people will again be enabled to leave here on the 5:47 train and get to Goldsboro in time to connect with the night trains going north and west.

We also hear that the early morning train between Raleigh and Goldsboro is to be put back on, and if this is done we can again get Raleigh papers here on the morning freight train from Kinston.

Not Scared.

Amos was a fair type of the "thick-lip and blue-gum" negro. He was seated on a barrel in a country store, about three miles from home, and it was after dark. He kept insisting on John, one of his neighbors, to "le's go home."

Finally John said, "Is you skurd?"

Amos, who was by no means brave, and who, for that reason, desired above all to be thought so, exclaimed, "Naw! Naw! Naw sur! Ain't nuth'n' I'm skurd uv. Doan ker what 'tis I aint skurd."

John replied placidly, "'S yer is."

Naw I ain't. Not nuthin' I ain't skurd un it."

"Ef you ain't skurd er nuthin' you len' me er dollar den."

"I ain't skurd ter do it."

"Why doan yer do it den?"

Amos after some study says, "Case I hate ter part wid ole frien' so long."

The brightest people are not always the ones who cast reflections.

A man may come up out of a fight with flying colors, and be running for his life.

As Christmas draws nearer, most people are prone to forget the past and live for the present.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1901.

North Carolina is in an era of development that is simply phenomenal. Capital is pouring into the State and factories and shops are going up in all directions.

A physician, writing to the London Times recently, said: "Every thing we eat and drink and wear runs the gauntlet of germs to an extent which nervous people had better not contemplate."

There are two plans of operation open to the Republican party in dealing with the matter of tax reduction. The safe way and the right way would be to cut down taxation first and make appropriations afterward.

Hyde County Leads in School Attendance.

Some creditable statistics for Hyde county were brought to special notice yesterday in the office of the superintendent of public instruction while getting together some data. For instance the records show that during last year out of a total of 2,018 children of reboilage 1,970 attended school, so that there were only 48 children in the county who did not attend school at all.

Some colored people near Raleigh went out to work, leaving three children, the oldest four years old, at home to take care of themselves.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Nov. 20, 1901. Miss Lula Rose, of this place is visiting friends in Everetts this week. Miss Effie Grimes returned from Greenville Saturday. Mrs. D. E. House, of Greenville, came up this morning. D. C. Moore and Harry Whidbee spent Tuesday here on business.

Mr. Clark, one of the firm of Clark & Son, of Tarboro, spent Tuesday in this place. Misses Rella Rose, Perlie Edmondson and Maggie spent Sunday in Robersonville. J. T. Smith and H. L. Taylor spent Sunday in Robersonville. Rev. J. W. Rose returned Monday from Everetts where he preached Sunday. W. G. Keel spent Tuesday in Tarboro.

Miss Snakenburg, of Wilson, who has been visiting relatives in this place, left for Rocky Mount this morning. T. T. Cherry, of Conetoe, spent Tuesday night here. Mrs. W. J. Whitehurst returned from Rocky Mount Sunday. J. M. Whichard, of this place left for Mt. Olive to be by his daughter's bedside.

John Bryan, of Parmele, but once of Cuba, returned to his home Friday night. James Davenport, of Conetoe, was in town Tuesday. W. G. Little, one of our county commissioners, spent Tuesday with Robt. Staton.

AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C., Nov. 21, 1901. A. O. Wade and wife of Baltimore spent Sunday in town. Bishop Watson and three of the clergy came down Monday to consecrate the Episcopal church. There was quite a crowd present at the consecration and also at the services Sunday. Miss Nannie Moye came up Saturday to attend the Episcopal services. She returned Monday night to her home in Kinston.

Miss Delia Smith is teaching the public school at Renston, about four miles from town.

Miss Nancy Coward went to Greenville yesterday. J. J. Hines returned from Baltimore last night. Hugh Books came down from Parmele Saturday night and left Monday to visit his relatives in the country. He has many friends here and is always a welcome visitor. Miss Annie Joyner, of Kinston, came up on the freight Monday and spent the day in town. Misses Eula and Clyde Cox spent the day here Monday.

There was a little excitement about fire here yesterday, but proved to be some light-wood burning. David Gibb, of Parmele, came down last night. Rev. B. H. Melton, of Wilson, was in town while this week.

An umbrella may not be of much use in a football game, but you can turn it inside out without breaking any ribs.

LOST—Pair gold rimmed spectacles, half glasses. Please return to J. White.

Mrs. Bettie Cox, wife of Mr. Arch Cox, died near Coxville Wednesday night.

FOUND—In postoffice key ring containing four keys. Owner call at REFLECTOR office.

I will pay in cash Seven Cents per lb for Turkeys. Bring them to Sam'l M. Schultz.

R. M. Kennedy has opened a market on the Haskett property just beyond the southern limits of the town. See advertisement.

The high price off meat should lead the farmers to try raising more hogs. The hog and hominy crop is the best and most profitable.

The East Carolina railroad is now carrying mail between Tarboro and Farmville, and express offices are being opened at stations along the road.

The Merchants should be availing themselves of the advantages of THE REFLECTOR columns to tell the people what they have for the Thanksgiving dinner table.

DON'T WAIT—The Reflector Book Store has purchased the entire stock of North State cigars made by the Winterville Cigar Co. These are the good cigars that we have been selling so cheap, and as the factory will not make any more of this kind smokers will do well to lay in a supply before they are gone.

Governor Aycock has employed ex-Judge James E. Shepherd, ex-Judge James H. Merrimon and George Rountree to defend the State in the suit brought against North Carolina by the State of South Dakota.

The United States cruiser Cincinnati is the only all-steel vessel in the United States navy with a life-size figure head at her bow. A figure of Liberty, in steel and wood, stands out from her graceful stem. A shield representation of the coat of arms of the United States is the only ornamentation of the prow of other United States war ships.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

L. L. Strause, of Richmond, is here.

J. C. Caddell, of Raleigh, left this morning.

F. C. Toepelman came in this morning from New Bern.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harvey, of Grifton, spent today here.

Rev. F. H. Harding returned this morning from Grifton.

Mrs. V. H. Whichard returned today from a visit in the country.

O. Wemple, a tobacconist of Danville, spent today on the Greenville market.

Will Close Thanksgiving.

It has now become such a fixed custom with the merchants of Greenville to close their places of business on Thanksgiving day, that we suppose there is no other idea among them than that all will close next Thursday.

Library for the Orphans.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum has formed a library association for the purpose of establishing a library for the children. Anyone in Greenville wishing to contribute either books or cash to this worthy cause can take their donation to Mr. A. J. Griffin.

The Old Reliable.

There is to be another year, unless the almanac fails. At any rate the Ennis Publishing Co. has sent us a copy of Turner's North Carolina Almanac, the old reliable, for 1902. It wears the same old familiar face and is filled with its usual good store of useful information.

Was it Snow or Sleet?

A slight fall of sleet or hominy snow occurred yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It melted very soon, however, upon reaching the ground and was hardly distinguishable from rain. Snow was reported during the day at Florence and Camden, S. C., and at points in Western North Carolina. —Wilmington Star.

Remember The Orphans.

Those who have anything to send to the Oxford Orphans Asylum for Thanksgiving will please deliver at Mr. A. J. Griffin's store not later than Tuesday night, Nov. 26th. We ask the people to be as liberal as they have been in the past, in remembering the orphans.

Jolley-Forbes.

At the home of Mr. Noah Forbes, father of the bride, three miles from Greenville, at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Miss Nora Forbes and Mr. W. E. Jolley, of Greenville, were married by Elder Fred McLawhorn. Immediately after the ceremony the couple came to Greenville and held a reception at night at the home of the bridegroom on Pitt street.

They received many bridal presents, some of them very handsome.

Telephone Change.

Mr. H. P. Hill, of New Bern, has been appointed Superintendent of the Carolina & Virginia Telephone Company's Greenville exchange, vice Mr. W. A. Beavans, transferred. Mr. Hill is a thorough telephone man and experienced electrician, and a clever gentleman. He will leave nothing undone to make the Greenville exchange first-class in every particular.

The only time some men smile is when they are treated.

The Gold Medal!

It will be pleasing information for wearers of Queen Quality Shoes to learn that their favorite footwear won the Gold Medal at the Pan-American Exposition.

Queen Quality

Shoes for Women

had previously won the distinction of being the most famous shoes in the world and of having the largest sale.

Storm Boot.

Kibo Box Calf.

SEE THAT THIS TRADE MARK IS BRANDED ON EVERY SHOE.

The immense volume of patronage bestowed on these shoes has undoubtedly been due to a number of things—the beautiful leathers, handsome models, great variety of styles, shapes to suit all types of feet, and the fact that the price was $2 less than that demanded for similar values, but chiefly because of their Wonderful Fitting Qualities.

It is the combination of Ease and Elegance that has earned the Queen Quality success and that constitutes this triumph of shoemaking. From the One Price daintiest dress creation to the most sturdy boot for Oxfords $2.50 storm wear.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is commended by Statesmen, Professional men and thousands of others prominent in the world's activities for its fine discrimination in sifting the actual news from conflicting report and the presentation of current events in their just proportion. They comment on its freedom from daily-paper sensationalism. All men and women who want to know what the world is doing find it an intellectual necessity. To judge from the letters received from hundreds. Its editorials are comprehensive, and labor saving to the busy man or woman. Its timely contributions on important topics are by the best-informed writers. Its reviews of other magazines give the best of their best work. It is profusely illustrated.

These letters will enable all thoughtful men and women to judge of its value to them.

PRESIDENT

"I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to, because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."—Theodore Roosevelt.

EX-PRESIDENT

"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."

—Grover Cleveland.

"It is a publication of very great value. I have sometimes found there very important matter indeed which I should not otherwise have discovered."—George F. Hearst, U. S. Senator, Massachusetts.

Send for particulars as to how it can be had with an invaluable set of books for 30 cents a month.

"I am a constant reader of the Review of Reviews, and appreciate it very highly indeed. I think it a very important part of my library, and practically a necessity for one in public life."—J. B. Foraker, U. S. Senator, Ohio.

"It is one of the best and most satisfactory publications of the day."—Charles W. Fairbanks, U. S. Senator, Indiana.

"I do not have a great deal of time to read magazines, but I take pleasure in saying that the Review of Reviews is among the number which find a place on my table each month."—James A. Jones, U. S. Senator, Arkansas.
