NO FIRE

But an Exciting Alarm.

There is an old saying that a burnt child dreads fire, and the pupils of Masonic Hall school being so badly frightened when the old Mason Lodge building was burned the latter part of October, were the more easily excited this morning when they thought the old Eborn house, where the school is now conducted, was on fire.

About 9 o'clock the pupils in the upper room saw smoke puffing from behind the fire board in the chimney. They screamed and cried fire, when those on the lower floor went to the bell and rang an alarm. The alarm was taken up down town and the fire department and citizens turned out quickly, but they found no fire to fight.

An investigation showed that some trash and paper had accumulated behind the fire board, and this was probably set on fire by a spark falling from the stove pipe that goes into the fire board. There was really no danger at all, but the children cannot be blamed for getting excited, it being so soon after the other building was burned.

Since the above was in type we are told that the excitement of the children was due to a gust of wind coming down the chimney and blowing the top of the stove off, making the smoke puff out in the room, and there was not even any trash burning behind the fire-board.

Any professional swindler will tell you that lots of men who are well-to-do are by no means easy to do.

The difference between a new fad and a new wrinkle is that young girls have fads and old ones have wrinkles.

Our $15.90 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.

It is believed that Representative James D. Richardson will be elected Democratic leader in the next House notwithstanding the opposition that he will incur. In many respects he will make an admirable leader but by his connection with the publishing house that has been publishing and selling volumes containing the President's messages he has injured his power and laid himself open to Republican innuendo; however, he is a good parliamentarian and at best his position will not prove an important one, so large is the Republican majority.

The latest Cabinet rumor is that Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock is very angry with the President for having turned him down in the Missouri contest and yielded to the wishes of Committeeman Kerens and that he proposes to resign in a short time. There are numerous hints dropped by members of Congress as to how this or that secretary "enjoys" Mr. Roosevelt's treatment but with the exception of Gage nothing is positively known.

There is likely to be an interesting contest among the Democrats for the vacancy in the Committee on Rules caused by the election of Mr. Bailey, of Texas, to the Senate. Mr. De Armand, of Missouri, can have the place for the asking as he would receive the undivided support of the Democrats, but it is thought that he will decline as he expects that the next House will be Democratic and he desires to be speaker. If he signifies his disinclination to take the position Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, formerly the Democratic whip, will doubtless make a contest for it, as will also Mr. Swanson, of Virginia. This Committee is the most sought for in the House, its powers being almost autocratic.

The Secretary of the Interior has today given to the public his annual report. It is a volume of some two hundred and sixty-seven pages and contains much interesting matter, some of it food for very serious thought. Some of the pension figures are appalling. The total number of pensioners on the rolls June 30th was 1,041,321, an increase for the year of 4,206, which increase the Secretary declares to be "high-water mark." The total amount disbursed for pensions during the year was $138,531,483.54.

A Chicago Alderman has conceived the notion of establishing a home for the neglected and dilapidated statues which in years past have crept into Chicago parks and other public places. He proposes to call it Reclamation Park.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 25.

Apparently the city of Raleigh is to have a monument erected in honor of the Englishman after whom this city was named, and lost his head on the block at the hands of an executioner, later to be honored in the history, as all readers of history know.

The news comes from Concord that Rev. L. W. Crawford announced last Friday to the Western North Carolina Conference then in session at Gastonia, that he had sold his interest in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, published at Greensboro; that he would not be a candidate for reelection as editor of that paper and that the Conference could purchase the stock sold by him to Mr. Coltraine, when desired, at the figures he sold, according to the understanding, etc.

It is now said the Gattis v. Kilgo suit will begin today (Monday) at Oxford. Judge Shaw is reported to have declared that the case must be tried this week. It is possible that it may consume the balance of the term of the court.

The Raleigh A. and M. College football team defeated the Guilford College team last Friday, on the grounds here, by the score of 34 to 0.

Rev. R. G. Pearson's meetings here during the past week have been largely attended and are increasing in interest. Mr. Pearson, though weak in physical stature and delicate in physical health, is evidently a consecrated man and a power in the pulpit.

LLEWEXAM.

The South Dakota Bond Suits.

Suited to the bottom the merits of the South Dakota bond suit against the State of North Carolina appear to be about these: In 1866 the Legislature of North Carolina issued certain bonds to prosecute the building of the Western North Carolina Railroad. The bonds were honestly issued and the proceeds honestly applied. Other bonds were issued by the alien and apostate Legislature of 1868 and afterwards repudiated, but not so these. Their validity was recognized by the Legislature of 1879, and they were embraced in the act to compromise, commute and settle the honest debt of the State. The holders were offered twenty five cents on the dollar for them—not that they were not valid but that the State was "broke" and that was all that it felt able to pay. It was as when a man fails in business and offers to compromise with his creditors at twenty-five cents on the dollar. The transaction was entirely honorable to the State. The holders of nearly all of these bonds accepted the offer; the holders of a few of them did not, but held on to them. An individual cannot sue a State but one State can sue another, and some of the holders of these outstanding bonds have transferred some of them to the State of South Dakota, for the purpose, of course, of ascertaining if North Carolina cannot be compelled to pay all of them. This appears to be all there is of it. The Supreme Court permits the case to be docketed and will hear it in the course of time. The Observer repeats its expression of gratification that North Carolina is to be represented in the litigation by three lawyers of such ability and distinction as ex-Judges Shepherd and Merriman and George Rountree, Esq.—Charlotte Observer.

WOMEN TELEPHONISTS BEST.

In its decision to employ girls as telephone operators the British post office has submitted to the inevitable, states the London Mail.

If ever nature created a monopoly in a profession, she did so when she endowed girls with the voices they possess.

In lands as diverse in custom as Roumania and America, Italy and England, men yield place to women as telephonists. Even in the land of the Geisha this natural advantage reveals itself, and the rapidly growing telephone service of Japan is staffed entirely by women. Germany has rejected women as telegraphists, but admits their superiority over men as telephonists.

The proprietorship of the profession is dependent mainly upon one anatomical character, viz, the length of the vocal chords. This prime character is supported and reinforced by a number of subsidiary qualities, but it constitutes in itself the indisputable claim which women have to superiority over men as telephonists.

The vocal chords of a woman are considerable shorter than those of a man. As a result the voice has a higher pitch. The telephone diaphragm responds more accurately to the higher pitched voice, the magnetic disturbances are more rapid, and, therefore, more potent, and the currents transmitted to the remotest station lose less in transmission. Until some method is devised for equalizing the value of the sonorous waves set up by the longer, slower vibrating chords of women, this primary character renders women's position secure in the profession of telephonist.

Snow is said to offer surprising resistance to penetration by rifle bullets. Experiments made in Norway have shown that a snow wall four feet thick is absolutely proof against the Norwegian army rifle—a weapon of exceptional piercing power.

Better Coach Soon.

A letter to the editor of THE REFLECTOR, under date 22nd, from Mr. E. Borden, Superintendent of Transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line, says that he hopes within the next week or so to put a better first-class coach on the passenger train on this branch of their road. This is in accordance with a promise he made the committee of citizens whom he met here last summer to talk over desired improvements. Mr. Borden says in the letter that he had not forgotten his promise, but had been thwarted in his plans owing to the great amount of work necessarily passing through the railroad shops, and now he hopes soon to fulfill his promise. Our people will hail the better accommodations with as much pleasure as they did the new schedule which Mr. Borden gave us last August.

Mr. J. A. Thigpen Dead.

Mr. James Ashley Thigpen died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning at his home two miles from Greenville, after an illness of several weeks. He was 63 years old, a good citizen and a prosperous farmer.

He leaves a wife, three sons and five daughters, three of the latter being married.

Mr. Thigpen served awhile as a Justice of the Peace, and when inferior courts were in existence in this county was elected and served one term as one of the Judges of that court. He was also elected County Treasurer on the Populist ticket in 1894, but did not qualify owing to the County Commissioners not accepting his bond, and was again elected to the same office in 1896 and served two years.

The funeral took place this afternoon and was attended by a large number of people.

Observations.

To interest a woman, arouse her curiosity; to interest a man, praise his pet hobby.

The untenderest passion is love after it has burned itself down to the edge of indifference.

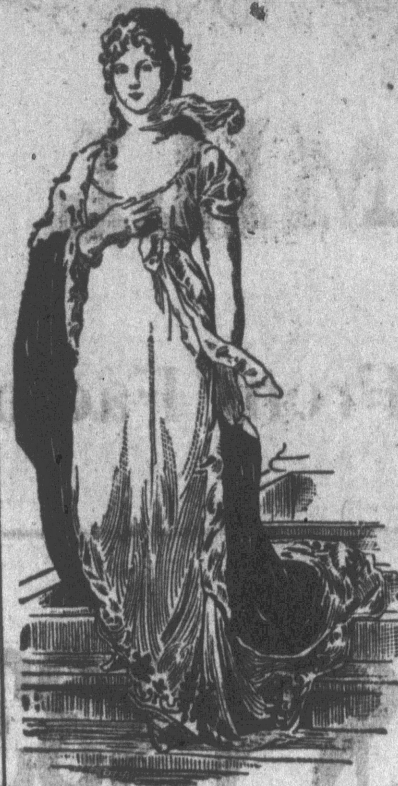

A much abused word is "unfortunate." It often covers a multitude of deliberative iniquity.

Perseverance is a virtue, but persistence is a vice.

The Gold Medal!

It will be pleasing information for wearers of Queen Quality Shoes to learn that their favorite footwear won the Gold Medal at the Pan-American Exposition.

Queen Quality

Shoes for Women

had previously won the distinction of being the most famous shoes in the world and of having the largest sale.

The immense volume of patronage bestowed on these shoes has undoubtedly been due to a number of things—the beautiful leathers, handsome models, great variety of styles, shapes to suit all types of feet, and the fact that the price was $2 less than that demanded for similar values, but chiefly because of their Wonderful Fitting Qualities.

It is the combination of Ease and Elegance that has earned the Queen Quality success and that constitutes this triumph of shoe-making. From the daintiest dress creation to the most sturdy boot for Oxfords $2.50 storm wear.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

Southside Market.

I have opened a market on the Hasket property in South Greenville, just beyond town limits, and will handle fresh meat, beef, poultry and eggs. Will sell lower than can be had elsewhere. Nothing sold except for cash.
