OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION.

Meets in the Opera House Thursday Night.

Greenville is to have the distinguished honor of entertaining the Old Maids' Convention, Thanksgiving night, for the first time in the history of the town. The spinster sisters have their own unique deliberations and invite everybody to attend the convention. As there will be some incidental expenses, instead of taking the "usual collection" a small admission fee will be charged, to wit: 35 cents, 25 cents and 15 cents. And to be sure that those who come late can get a good seat, they can go to Burch's printing office Wednesday and have it reserved.

The delegates have heard that Greenville is a good town, and they don't care if they do come in a little ahead to spend the time looking around. So some have already given their hostesses notice of arrival tonight and tomorrow morning, as our personal column will show.

If any Greenville man is in search of a wife it might be a good idea for him to meet all trains between now and Thursday night. We suppose the delegates will have no objection to being looked at as they arrive, and Greenville has no "anti rubber neck" law anyway, so the wife hunting man can use the occasion to his best advantage. Above all, don't miss the convention

Slot Machines Still Running.

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 23.—The slot machine excitement and the indictment of the proprietors turned out to be a farce. The machines are in full blast and the nickels pouring into the machines with the result of a few strains of music and occasionally a lucky hit to the players. The indictments were presented by the grand jury all right but no action was taken by the court. Some people consider it very strange that if the machines are a gambling device worthy of being indicted, that they should have the liberty to run for six months longer, until the April term. The solicitor is freely criticised for not pushing the case and some strange stories are being told. There is no doubt but E. W. Pace, the Greenville promoter of the machines is coining money by their operation. According to report he has secured within a few days the franchise for putting his slot machines at the Charleston Exposition and the number he is to put in is stated to be 300. It seems that the merry slot machine is at work in Greenville, the home of Mr. Pace, and the REFLECTOR of that place comments on the action here in indicting the runners by saying that Solicitor Moore might have turned his attention to his home town first. From the result it seems that there need to have been no complaint on that score for Solicitor Moore did not worry himself in pushing the matter. It is stated that when the permission was given by the city authorities here to put in the machines, two attorneys gave their opinion that on account of the music attachment, the law "couldn't touch them," hence on this eminent legal advice the licenses was granted. —New Bern Cor. Raleigh Post.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1901.

Two hundred negroes in Louisiana took one of their race away from the Sheriff, who had him in custody, and lynched him for having killed a boy over a debt of 30 cents.

A colored man by the name of Satan was taken from Lenoir county to the penitentiary a few days ago. And a Raleigh correspondent in jocular vein says getting Satan in prison marks the beginning of the millenium.

A Granville county officer who allowed a prisoner to escape was tried and convicted, the judgment passed upon him being a fine of $500 and costs. It was proven on the trial that the officer was very negligent and the Judge gave him the full penalty of the law.

A crazy man, though he had been discharged from an asylum as cured, went on a rampage in Eaton, Ohio, Saturday night, displaying a particular fondness for smashing windows. Before he was captured he demolished 143 windows, the value of which amounted to $5,000. Next morning the town looked like a hurricane had struck it.

It makes no difference at this time, for the Spanish-American war stamp taxes have been repealed, but the public might like to know that now, after it is too late to do anybody any good, the Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the express company and not the shipper should have paid for the one cent stamp on each express receipt. If this decision had been rendered about three years ago it would have saved the people several brownies.—Charlotte Observer.

Died From Fright.

Lucindia Smith, colored, whose husband is accused of robbing several barns, was visited by an officer to interrogate her about being a witness. She became desperately nervous and died that night. Dr. J. D. MacLae, who attended her, certifies that she died from fright. Her husband was found not guilty that afternoon and reached home to find his wife, who was perfectly well the day before, dying. Her sixteen year old daughter had run away and married last Tuesday and this had so upset the woman that she was literally scared to death when her husband was arrested and an officer came to ply her with questions.—Raleigh Times.

THE VOICE OF HUMANITY.

To The Observer's Raleigh correspondent, Dr. McKee, superintendent of the Central Hospital there, makes a statement with regard to the lack of room in his institution. The situation at Raleigh is as it is at Morganton. Some of the stories told and letters written the authorities of these hospitals by the relatives of insane persons who should be in these institutions but for whom there is not room, are sufficient to make a man cry. The hospital authorities are doing the best they know, how and none know so well as they the suffering of the outside insane or how great a burden they are upon the families which must care for them. The recourse is not upon these authorities, for, having discriminated as wisely as they can as to the respective merits of the case of applicants, and having filled their institutions with the cases seeming to be meritorious, they have reached the limit of their capability—nothing can then be done except to discharge insane to make place for other insane and enlightened policy would not justify this course. The remedy is with the people through their Legislature. The most urgent need of North Carolina today, greater than the need of public education or anything else, is that of room in institutions designed for their care and treatment, for every insane person in the State. If every voter would put himself in the place of a sane member of a family which is keeping an insane member at home, or which has had to send one to the county jail or the county home, or if he would imagine himself insane and a burden upon his family or in the jail or poor house, it would not be long before the remedial legislation is enacted. It is the voice of humanity that appeals to our people, and they are too civilized, too humane, too allow it to go unheeded.—Charlotte Observer.

Mr. C. Cook, who went to Syracuse, N. Y., with two cents in his pocket and by close application to business amassed an estate of $700,000, has concluded that he can get along on $100,000, and divided the rest among his children, which is better than a family squabble over it after he passes away.—Wilmington Star.

Eyel gossip is the slimy poisonous channel through which flows the foulest and blackest water of meanness and despair.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours.
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

"Rallying Cry."

Under the above heading The Richmond Times discusses with great appreciation the interview with ex-Governor Jarvis, published in last Sunday's Observer, as to the future policy of the Democratic party. It begins with a high compliment to Governor Jarvis as "one of the best men and best Democrats that North Carolina has produced;" as "one of the best Governors that the State has ever had," "an intensely Southern man, in war and in peace true to his State and to his convictions." It then takes up each of the three propositions that he lays down as in the line of its duty and its interest—of all of which are remembered by our readers—endorses each, and concludes:

The Charlotte Observer has done a public service in printing this interview with North Carolina's grand old man. He has blazed the way for Democratic success, and if the party will follow his counsel to the letter it will gain all that it has lost. Though it should not succeed in getting control of the government, it would at least be a strong and respectable minority, and perhaps the best work that the Democratic party has done in this country has been when it was out of office. Democracy in this country is the great conserving force, and it is as truly a power for good when in the minority as when in the majority.

The interviews with Governor Jarvis and Mr. Pou have been widely read and have been the subject of much favorable comment.—Charlotte Observer.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of in the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

WINE OF CARDUI

Belen, Miss., March 8, 1900.
I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theford's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.
